All completed applications pertaining to similar types of services, facilities, or equipment affecting the same health service area may be considered in relation to each other.* During the review period a public hearing may be held if requested by an affected person or when considered appropriate by the department.

(6) The department shall, after considering all comments received during the review period, issue a certificate of need, with or without conditions, or deny the application. The department shall notify the applicant and affected persons of its decision *within 5 working days after expiration of the review period. Section 4. Section 50-5-304, MCA, is amended to read:

"50-5-304. Review criteria, required findings, and standards. (1) The department shall by rule promulgate and utilize, as appropriate, specific criteria for reviewing certificate of need applications under this chapter, including but not limited to the following considerations and required findings:

(a) the relationship of the health services being reviewed to the applicable health systems plan, state health plan, and annual implementation plan developed pursuant to Title XV of the Public Health Service Act, as amended;

(b) the relationship of services reviewed to the long-range development plan, if any, of the person providing or proposing the services;

(c) the need that the population served or to be served by the services has for the services;

(d) the availability of less costly quality equivalent or more effective alternative methods of providing such services;

(e) the immediate and long-term financial feasibility of the proposal as well as the probable impact of the proposal on the costs of and charges for providing health services by the person proposing the health service;

(f) the relationship and financial impact of the services proposed to be provided to the existing health care system of the area in which such services are proposed to be provided and the consistency of the proposal with joint planning efforts by health care providers in the area;

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. I 672 1983

(g) the availability of resources, including health manpower, management personnel, and funds for capital and operating needs for the provision of services proposed to be provided and the availability of alternative uses of such resources for the provision of other health services;

(h) the relationship, including the organizational relationship, of the health services proposed to be provided to ancillary or support services;

(i) the special needs and circumstances of those entities which provide a substantial portion of their services or resources, or both, to individuals not residing in the health service areas in which the entities are located or in adjacent health service areas. Such entities may include medical and other health profession schools, multidisciplinary clinics, and specialty centers.

(j) the special needs and circumstances of health maintenance organizations for which assistance may be provided under Title XIII of the Public Health Service Act. Such needs and circumstances include the needs of and costs to members and projected members of the health maintenance organization in obtaining health services and the potential for a reduction in the use of inpatient care in the community through an extension of preventive health services and the provision of more systematic and comprehensive health services.

(k) the special needs and circumstances of biomedical and behavioral research projects which are designed to meet a national need and for which local conditions offer special advantages;

(l) in the case of a construction project, the costs and methods of the proposed construction, including the costs and methods of energy provision, and the probable impact of the construction project reviewed on the costs of providing health services by the person proposing the construction project;

(m) the distance, convenience, cost of transportation, and accessibility of health services for persons who live outside urban areas in relation to the proposal; and

(n) any other criteria, required findings, or requirements for reviewing certificate of need applications cited in the federal regulations found in Title 42, CFR, Part 123, as amended.

(2) If an application for new long-term care beds will involve new or increased use of medicaid funds and the department of social and rehabilitation services determines that such use would cause the state medicaid budget for long-term care facilities to be exceeded, the department of health and environmental sciences may impose conditions on a certificate of need for new long-term care beds, including limitation on the number of approved beds which may be certified for medicaid patients. Availability of medicaid funding may be the basis for imposing conditions but may not be the sole basis for denial of a certificate of need. The department may adopt rules for the imposition of such conditions, but only if the secretary of the United States department of health and human services has approved an amendment to the state's medicaid

(3) The holder of an unexpired certificate of need shall report to the department in writing on the status of his project at the end of each 90-day period after being granted a certificate of need until completion of the project for which the certificate of need was issued."

The public hearing to reconsider shall be held, if warranted or required, within 20 calendar days after its request. The department shall make its final decision and written findings of fact and conclusions of law in support thereof within 30 days after the conclusion of the reconsideration hearing.

(2) An affected person may appeal the department's final decision to the board by filing a written notice of appeal stating the specific findings of fact and conclusions of law being appealed and the grounds. An affected person does not have to request the department to hold a reconsideration hearing prior to filing an administrative appeal to the board. The notice of appeal must be received by the board within 30 calendar days after formal notice of the department's final decision was issued. (4) In making its appropriations for medicaid funding, the legislature shall specify the portions of medicaid funding anticipated to be allocated to specific categories and types of health care services.

Section 9. Exemptions from certificate of need review. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), the following are exempt from certificate of need review:

(a) expenditures by a health care facility for nonmedical and nonclinical facilities and services unrelated to the operation of the health care facility if a letter of intent is submitted pursuant to 50-5-302 at least 30 days prior to incurring an obligation for capital expenditures to enable the department to determine whether the expenditures are exempt;

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 85-7-2103, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-7-2103. All irrigable lands chargeable alike. (1) All irrigable lands in each irrigation district, except such lands that are included within the district because of the exchange or substitution of water under the provisions of 85-7-1912, shall pay at the same rate for all purposes for which the lands are charged, except as otherwise provided by law. There may be an administrative charge of $5 to $25 against each separately owned tract of land regardless of its size, as provided in 85-7-2104.

(2) Whenever water used for the irrigation of any lands within an irrigation district is obtained by pumping to different elevations, the cost of maintenance, operation, and pumping to each separate elevation shall be apportioned and levied upon the lands lying under the ditch or ditches running from that particular elevation, in such manner as may be determined fair and equitable by the board of commissioners after considering the facts in each case. This apportionment shall be made by the board of commissioners and included each year in the assessment provided for by 85-7-2104. The amount of the assessment for maintenance, operation, and pumping of water to each separate elevation, whenever there are different elevations, shall be determined by the board of commissioners in such manner and upon such notice to the persons interested in the district as the board in its rules may provide.

(3) Whenever a contract has been made with the United States, the lands within the district, whether originally included or later annexed to the district, shall pay in accordance with the federal reclamation laws and the public notices, orders, and regulations issued thereunder and in compliance with any contracts made by the United States with the owners of the lands and in compliance with the contract between the districts and the United States.

(4) Whenever a contract has been made with the state of Montana, the lands within the district, whether originally included or later annexed to the district, shall pay in accordance with state laws and public notices and rules issued thereunder and in compliance with any contract made by the state with the owners of lands and in compliance with the contract between the district and the state.

(5) Whenever the works necessary for the completed project are constructed progressively over a period of years and whenever a portion of the lands within the district are or can be irrigated 1 year or more before the completion of the entire project, those lands so irrigated or that can be so irrigated through the built portion of the project shall pay for the cost of operating that portion of the project serving them with irrigation water and also shall pay such portion of the interest charges as its irrigable area bears to the irrigable area of the entire project.

(6) Whenever lands have appurtenant thereto a partial water right or partial rights in a system of irrigation other than that of the district, the amounts payable shall be equitably apportioned.

(7) Whenever the owners of a portion of the lands within an irrigation district choose to install a gravity system to irrigate those lands, the cost of constructing the gravity system shall be apportioned among and levied upon the lands irrigated by the gravity system in a manner determined to be equitable by the board. The levy shall be included each year in the assessment charged under 85-7-2104."

Section 2. Section 85-7-2104, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-7-2104. Annual tax levy — apportionment when tracts divided. (1) On or before the second Monday in July each year, the board of commissioners of each irrigation district organized under parts 1 and 15 shall ascertain the total amount required to be raised in that year for the general administrative expenses of the district, including the cost of maintenance and repairs, and the total amount to be raised that year for interest on and principal of the outstanding bonded or other indebtedness of the district, including any indebtedness incurred under any contract between the district and the United States, accompanying which bonds of the district have not been deposited with the United States as provided in 85-7-1906. The board shall levy, against each 40-acre tract or fractional lot, as designated by the United States public survey, or platted lot, if land is subdivided in lots and blocks (or where land shall be owned in less than 40-acre tracts or in less than the platted lot, then against each such tract) of land in the district, that portion of the respective total amounts so to be raised which the total irrigable area of any such tract bears to the total irrigable area of the lands in the district, so that each acre of irrigable land in the district shall be assessed and required to pay the same amount as every other acre of irrigable land therein, unless otherwise specifically provided. The board of commissioners may make a charge of $5 to $25 against each separately owned tract of land, regardless of its size.

(2) In the event that the ownership of any such 40-acre tract or other subdivision of land in the district shall be divided after a special tax or assessment against the same has been levied, each or either of the owners of such tract or subdivisions shall be entitled to have such special tax or assessment equitably apportioned to and against said divisions of such tract or subdivisions, so that each owner shall be enabled to pay such special tax or assessment against his portion of such tract or subdivision and have the same discharged from the lien thereof. In no event shall the charge against any separately owned tract of land be less than $5."

Approved April 2, 1983.

Section 1. Definitions. As used in [this act], the following definitions apply:

(1) "Current net price" means the price listed in the wholesaler's, manufacturer's, or distributor's price list or catalog in effect at the time a dealership contract is discontinued or, if none is then in effect, the last available price so listed.

(2) "Inventory" means:

(c) automobiles, trucks, and repair parts sold by an automobile or truck dealer as defined in 61-1-314.

(3) "Net cost" means the price actually paid for an inventory item by the retailer to the wholesaler, manufacturer, or distributor, plus applicable freight costs paid by or charged to the retailer.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. I 699 1983

(4) "Retailer" or "retail dealer" means any individual, partnership, association, or corporation engaged in the business of selling inventory, as defined in this section, to the general public.

Section 2. Repurchase of inventory items upon cancellation of dealership contract. (1) If a retailer enters into a written dealership contract evidenced by franchise agreement, sales agreement, security agreement, or other similar agreement or arrangement and either the wholesaler, manufacturer, distributor, or retailer cancels the contract, such wholesaler, manufacturer, or distributor shall, at the retailer's request, pay to the retailer, or credit to the retailer's account if the retailer has outstanding any sums owing the wholesaler, manufacturer, or distributor, an amount equal to:

(a) 100% of the net cost of all new, unused, undamaged, and complete inventory items, except repair parts, held by the dealer at the time of cancellation; and

(b) 85% of the current net price of each repair part carried on the most recent price list or catalog provided by the manufacturer or distributor and held by the dealer at the time of cancellation.

(2) Payment or allowance of credit to the retailer's account of the sum required in subsection (1) must be made upon return of the inventory items to the wholesaler, manufacturer, or distributor. Title to such inventory items passes to the wholesaler, manufacturer, or distributor upon making such payment.

Section 3. Excepted inventory. The following inventory is not subject to the repurchase requirements of [section 2]:

(1) any repair part that has a limited storage life or is otherwise subject to deterioration, such as rubber items, gaskets, or wet-charge batteries;

(2) any repair part that is in a broken or damaged package;

(3) any single repair part that is priced as a set of two or more items;

(4) any repair part that because of its condition is not resaleable as a new part without repackaging or reconditioning;

(5) any inventory for which the retailer is unable to furnish evidence satisfactory to the wholesaler, manufacturer, or distributor of title, free and clear of all claims, liens, and encumbrances;

(6) any inventory the retailer desires to keep, if he has a contractual right to do so;

(7) any inventory item other than a repair part that is not in essentially new, unused, undamaged, and complete condition;

(2) [This act] does not affect any security interest that any financial institution, person, wholesaler, manufacturer, or distributor may have in the inventory of the retailer.

Section 6. Civil liability. If any wholesaler, manufacturer, or distributor fails or refuses to repurchase any inventory as required by [section 2], the wholesaler, manufacturer, or distributor is liable in a civil action for 100% of the current net price of the inventory, plus any freight charges paid by the retailer, the retailer's attorney fees, and court costs.

Section 7. Remedy as supplemental. The provisions of [this act] are supplemental to any agreement between the retailer and wholesaler, manufacturer, or distributor governing the inventory. The retailer may elect to pursue either his contract remedies or the remedy provided in [section 2]. An election to pursue his contract remedies does not bar the retailer's right to the remedy provided in [section 2] as to any inventory not covered by contract.

Section 8. Severability. If a part of this act is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of this act is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications.

(4) The fact that the defendant is unfit to proceed does not preclude any legal objection to the prosecution which is susceptible to fair determination prior to trial and without the personal participation of the defendant.

(5) The expenses of sending the defendant to the custody of the director of the department of institutions to be placed in an appropriate institution of the state department of institutions, of keeping him there, and of bringing him back are chargeable to the state but the state may recover them from the estate of the defendant."

(2) If the court finds that the defendant at the time of the commission of the offense suffered from a mental disease or defect as described in [section 10], any mandatory minimum sentence prescribed by law for the offense need not apply and the court shall sentence him to be committed to the custody of the director of the department of institutions to be placed in an appropriate institution for custody, care, and treatment for a definite period of time not to exceed the maximum term of imprisonment that could be imposed under subsection (1). The authority of the court

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 7-32-2144, MCA, is amended to read:

"7-32-2144. Mileage and expenses of sheriff for delivery of prisoners and mentally ill persons. (1) A sheriff delivering prisoners at the state prison or a juvenile correctional facility or mentally ill persons at the Montana state hospital or other mental health facility receives actual expenses necessarily incurred in their transportation. The expenses include the expenses of the sheriff in going to and returning from the institution. The sheriff shall take vouchers for every item of expense. The amount of these expenses, as shown by the vouchers when presented by the sheriff, shall be audited and allowed by the attorney general or by the board of county commissioners, as the case may be, and paid out of the same money and in the same manner as are other expense claims against the state or counties. In determining the actual expense if travel is by a privately owned vehicle, the mileage rate shall be allowed as provided in subsection (2). No other or further compensation may be received by sheriffs for such expenses.

(2) Unless otherwise provided, while in the discharge of his duties, both civil and criminal, the sheriff receives a mileage allowance as provided in 2-18-503. The sheriff shall also be reimbursed for actual and necessarily incurred expenses for transporting, lodging, and feeding persons ordered by the court as provided in 2-18-501 through 2-18-503. The county is not liable for and the board of county commissioners may not pay for any claim of the sheriff or other officer for any other expenses incurred in travel or for subsistence in cases where mileage is allowed under this section, the fees for mileage named in this section being in full for all such traveling expenses in both civil and criminal work."

Section 2. Section 46-14-202, MCA, is amended to read:

"46-14-202. Psychiatric examination of defendant. (1) If the defendant or his counsel files a written notice of his intent to rely on a mental disease or defect under 46-14-201 or raises the issue of his fitness to proceed, the court shall appoint at least one qualified psychiatrist or shall request the superintendent of the Montana state hospital to designate at least one qualified psychiatrist, which designation may be or include himself, to examine and report upon the mental condition of the defendant.

(2) The court may order the defendant to be committed to a hospital or other suitable facility for the purpose of the examination for a period of not exceeding 60 days or such longer period as the court determines to be necessary for the purpose and may direct that a qualified psychiatrist retained by the defendant be permitted to witness and participate in the examination.

(3) In the examination any method may be employed which is accepted by the medical profession for the examination of those alleged to be suffering from mental disease or defect."

Section 3. Section 46-14-213, MCA, is amended to read:

"46-14-213. Psychiatric testimony upon trial. (1) Upon the trial, any psychiatrist who reported under 46-14-202 and 46-14-203 may be called as a witness by the prosecution or by the defense. If the issue is being tried before a jury, the jury may not be informed that the psychiatrist was designated by the court or by the superintendent of the Montana state hospital. Both the prosecution and the defense may summon any other qualified psychiatrist or other expert to testify, but no one who has not examined the defendant is competent to testify to an expert opinion with respect to the mental condition of the defendant, as distinguished from the validity of the procedure followed by or the general scientific propositions stated by another witness.

(2) When a psychiatrist or other expert who has examined the defendant testifies concerning the defendant's mental condition, he may make a statement as to the nature of his examination, his diagnosis of the mental condition of the defendant at the time of the commission of the offense charged, and his opinion as to the ability of the defendant to have a particular state of mind which is an element of the offense charged. The expert may make any explanation reasonably serving to clarify his diagnosis and opinion and may be cross-examined as to any matter bearing on his competency or credibility or the validity of his diagnosis or opinion."

Section 4. Section 46-14-301, MCA, is amended to read:

"46-14-301. Commitment upon finding of not guilty by reason of lack of mental state — hearing to determine release or discharge. (1) When a defendant is found not guilty for the reason that due to a mental disease or defect he could not have a particular state of mind that is an essential element of the offense charged, the court shall order a predisposition investigation in accordance with 46-18-112 and 46-18-113, which must include an investigation of the present mental condition of the defendant. If the trial was by jury, the court shall hold a hearing to determine the appropriate disposition of the defendant. If the trial was by the court, the court may hold a hearing to obtain any additional testimony it considers necessary to determine the appropriate disposition of the defendant. In either case, the testimony and evidence presented at the trial shall be considered by the court in making its determination.

(2) The court, upon finding that the defendant may not be discharged or released without danger to others, shall order the defendant committed to the custody of the superintendent of the Montana state hospital to be placed in an appropriate institution for custody, care, and treatment.

(3) A person committed to the custody of the superintendent shall have a hearing within 180 days of his confinement to determine his present mental condition and whether he may be discharged or released without danger to others. The hearing shall be conducted by the court which ordered the commitment unless that court transfers jurisdiction to the third judicial district. The court shall cause notice of the hearing to be served upon the person, his counsel, and the prosecuting attorney. Such a hearing shall be deemed a civil proceeding, and the burden shall be upon the defendant to prove by a preponderance of the evidence that he may be safely released.

(4) According to the determination of the court upon the hearing, the defendant shall be discharged or released on such conditions as the court determines to be necessary or shall be committed to the custody of the superintendent of the Montana state hospital to be placed in an appropriate institution for custody, care, and treatment."

Section 5. Section 46-14-302, MCA, is amended to read:

"46-14-302. Discharge or release upon motion of superintendent. (1) If the superintendent of the Montana state hospital believes that a person committed to his custody under 46-14-301 may be discharged or released on condition without danger to himself or others, he shall make application for the discharge or release of the person in a report to the court by which the person was committed and shall send a copy of the application and report to the county attorney of the county from which the defendant was committed.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. I 745 1983

(2) The court shall then appoint at least two qualified psychiatrists to examine the person and to report their opinion as to his mental condition within 60 days or a longer period which the court determines to be necessary for the purpose. To facilitate the examinations and the proceedings thereon, the court may have the person confined in any institution located near the place where the court sits which may hereafter be designated by the superintendent of the Montana state hospital as suitable for the temporary detention of irresponsible persons.

(3) If the court is satisfied by the report filed under subsection (1) of this section and the testimony of the reporting psychiatrists which the court considers necessary that the committed person may be discharged or released on condition without danger to himself or others, the court shall order his discharge or his release on conditions which the court determines to be necessary.

(4) If the court is not satisfied, it shall promptly order a hearing to determine whether the person may safely be discharged or released. A hearing is considered a civil proceeding, and the burden is upon the committed person to prove by a preponderance of the evidence that he may safely be discharged or released. According to the determination of the court upon the hearing, the committed person shall then be discharged or released on conditions which the court determines to be necessary or shall be recommitted to the custody of the superintendent of the Montana state hospital, subject to discharge or release only in accordance with the procedures prescribed in this section and 46-14-303."

Section 6. Section 46-14-303, MCA, is amended to read:

"46-14-303. Application for discharge or release by committed person. A committed person may make application for his discharge or release to the court by which he was committed, and the procedure to be followed upon the application is the same as that prescribed above in the case of an application by the superintendent of the Montana state hospital. However, an application by a committed person need not be considered until he has been confined for a period of not less than 6 months from the date of the order of commitment, and if the determination of the court is adverse to the application, the person shall not be permitted to file a further application until 1 year has elapsed from the date of any preceding hearing on an application for his release or discharge."

Section 7. Section 46-14-304, MCA, is amended to read:

"46-14-304. Recommitment after conditional release. If within 5 years after the conditional release of a committed person the court determines after hearing evidence that the conditions of release have not been fulfilled and that for the safety of the person or for the safety of others his conditional release should be revoked, the court shall immediately order him to be recommitted to the superintendent of the Montana state hospital, subject to discharge or release only in accordance with the procedures prescribed in 46-14-302 and 46-14-303."

Section 8. Section 46-19-202, MCA, is amended to read:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. I 746 1983

(2) If it is found that he lacks fitness, the execution of judgment must be suspended and the court shall commit him to the custody of the superintendent of the Montana state hospital to be placed in an appropriate institution of the department of institutions for so long as the lack of fitness endures.

(3) When the court, on its own motion or upon application of the superintendent of the Montana state hospital, the county prosecuting officer, or the defendant or his legal representative, determines after a hearing, if a hearing is requested, that the defendant has regained fitness to proceed, the sheriff shall be directed by the court to carry out the execution. If, however, the court is of the view that so much time has elapsed since the commitment of the defendant that it would be unjust to proceed with execution of the sentence, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and may order the defendant to be discharged."

Section 9. Section 50-17-104, MCA, is amended to read:

"50-17-104. Facilities for diagnosis and treatment of tuberculosis. (1) The Montana state hospital shall maintain facilities to carry out this chapter.

(2) The charge for care, treatment, and maintenance at the Montana state hospital shall be at the rate fixed by law."

(2) Upon a finding of a serious mental illness, the court may commit a delinquent youth to the department of institutions until he is 21 years of age, unless sooner discharged, and may further indicate that it is the court's desire that the delinquent youth be placed at the Montana youth treatment center. (2) In determining whether restitution is appropriate in a particular case, the following factors may be considered in addition to any other evidence:

(e) such further care and treatment or evaluation that the court considers beneficial to the youth, consistent with subsection (1)(d) of this section;

If after the evaluation the department of institutions reports to the court that such child is suitable for placement in a youth forest camp and if there is space available at a camp, the court may then commit such child directly to the youth forest camp under the terms of commitment of this chapter. If the department of institutions reports and states the reasons to the court why the youth is not suitable for placement, the youth shall be returned to the court for such further disposition as the court may consider advisable under the provisions of this chapter. The costs of transporting the youth to the designated youth facility for evaluation and cost of returning the youth to the court shall be borne by the county of residence of the youth.

(3) No youth may be committed or transferred to a penal institution or other facility used for the execution of sentence of adult persons convicted of crimes except as provided by subsection (2)(b).

(4) Any order of the court may be modified at any time.

(5) Whenever the court vests legal custody in an agency, institution, or department, it must transmit with the dispositional judgment copies of a medical report and such other clinical, predisposition, or other reports and information pertinent to the care and treatment of the youth.

(6) Except as provided in [section 4], if the custody of a youth is transferred to the department of institutions under subsection (1), the youth may not be committed to the Montana youth treatment center unless the commitment provisions of [section 2] are followed.

CHAPTER NO. 364

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE AND PROVIDE FOR THE ISSUANCE, EXECUTION, AUTHENTICATION, AND TRANSFER OF PUBLIC OBLIGATIONS IN REGISTERED FORM; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

WHEREAS, Congress has enacted the Tax Equity and Fiscal Responsibility Act of 1982 that requires, among other things, that all public obligations be issued in registered form if the interest earned on such obligations is to be exempt from the federal income tax; and

WHEREAS, Congress has extended from January 1, 1983, to July 1, 1983, the effective date of the Act insofar as it applies to the registration of public obligations for the purpose of allowing states, municipalities, and the commercial world to enact laws and ordinances and implement procedures to facilitate compliance with the law; and

WHEREAS, current Montana law does not provide for the issuance of most public obligations in a registered form; and

WHEREAS, the inability of the state, local governments, school districts, or other governmental entities to issue registered bonds results in an inability to issue public obligation bonds on which the interest earned is tax exempt; and

WHEREAS, the ability to finance public improvements through the issuance of tax-exempt bonds is critical to the conduct of the public business.

THEREFORE, it is the intent of the Legislature to authorize the state, local governments, school districts, and other governmental entities to issue in a registered form the public obligations they are now authorized to issue.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Short title. [This act] may be cited as the "Model Public Obligations Registration Act of Montana".

Section 2. Definitions. As used in [this act], the following definitions apply:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. I 762 1983

(1) (a) "Authorized officer" means, with respect to any certificated public obligation:

(i) an individual whose signature to the certificated public obligation is required or permitted; or

(ii) an individual whom an authorized officer may, either alone or with the concurrence of another or others, permit to affix his signature to the certificated public obligation and who is so permitted in writing by the authorized officer with any required concurrence.

(b) "Authorized officer" means, with respect to any uncertificated public obligation, any individual referred to in this subsection as an authorized officer with respect to a certificated public obligation of the same class or series.

(2) "Certificated public obligation" means an obligation that is:

(a) issued pursuant to a system of registration;

(b) represented by an instrument; and

(c) either one of a class or series or by its terms divisible into a class or series of obligations.

(3) "Code" means the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended.

(4) "Facsimile seal" means the reproduction by engraving, imprinting, stamping, or other means of the seal of the issuer, official, or official body.

(5) "Facsimile signature" means the reproduction by engraving, imprinting, stamping, or other means of the manual signature of an authorized officer.

(6) "Financial intermediary" means a bank, broker, clearing corporation, or trust company or the nominee of any of them or other person or nominee which in the ordinary course of its business maintains public obligation accounts for its customers.

(7) "Issuer" means a public entity that:

(a) executes a certificated public obligation to evidence its duty to perform an obligation represented by the certificated public obligation;

(b) undertakes to perform an obligation that is an uncertificated public obligation; or

(c) becomes responsible for or in place of a public entity described as an issuer in this subsection.

(8) "Obligation" means an agreement of an issuer to pay principal and interest and includes a share, participation, or other interest in any such agreement.

(9) "Official actions" means the actions by statute, order, ordinance, resolution, contract, or other authorized means by which the issuer provides for issuance of a public obligation.

(10) "Official or official body" means the officer or body that is empowered under the laws of one or more states, including this state, to provide for original issuance of a public obligation of the issuer by defining the obligation and its terms, conditions, and other incidents; the successor or successors of any such official or official body; and such other person or group of persons as are assigned duties of such official or official body under applicable law from time to time.

(11) "Original issuance" means the first transfer of a public obligation by an issuer to a purchaser.

(12) "Public entity" means any entity, department, or agency that is empowered under the laws of one or more states, including this state, to issue obligations, any interest with respect to which may under any provision of law be provided an exemption from the income tax referred to in the code. The term "public entity" may include this state, a political subdivision, a municipal corporation, a state university or college, a school district or other special district, a joint agreement entity, a public authority, a public trust, a nonprofit corporation, or other organization.

(14) "System of registration" and its variants means a plan:

(a) with respect to a certificated public obligation, that provides that:

(i) the certificated public obligation specify a person entitled to the public obligation or the rights it represents; and

(ii) transfer of the certificated public obligation may be registered upon books maintained for that purpose by or on behalf of the issuer; and

(b) with respect to an uncertificated public obligation, that provides that transfer of the uncertificated public obligation be registered upon books maintained for that purpose by or on behalf of the issuer.

(15) "Uncertificated public obligation" means an obligation that is:

(a) issued pursuant to a system of registration;

(b) not represented by an instrument; and

(c) either one of a class or series or by its terms divisible into a class or series of obligations.

Section 3. Declarations of state interest — purposes. (1) Sections 103 and 103A of the code provide that interest with respect to certain obligations may not be exempt from the income tax if they are not in registered form. It is therefore a matter of state concern that public entities be authorized to provide for the issuance of obligations in such form. It is a purpose of [this act] to authorize all public entities to establish and maintain a system pursuant to which obligations may be issued in registered form within the meaning of sections 103 and 103A of the code.

(2) Obligations have traditionally been issued in bearer rather than in registered form, and a change from bearer to registered form will significantly affect the relationships, rights, and duties of issuers of and the persons that deal with obligations and, by such effect, the costs. Such effects will impact the various issuers and varieties of obligations differently, depending on their legal and financial characteristics, their markets, and their adaptability to recent and prospective technological and organizational developments. It is therefore a matter of state concern that public entities be provided flexibility in the development of systems of registration and control over system incidents, so as to accommodate differing impacts. It is a purpose of [this act] to provide for the establishment and maintenance, and amendment from time to time, of differing systems of registration of obligations, including system incidents, so as to accommodate the differing impacts upon issuers and varieties of obligations.

Section 4. System of registration. (1) Each issuer is authorized to establish and regularly maintain a system of registration with respect to each public obligation that it issues. The system may be either a system pursuant to which only certificated public obligations are issued or a system pursuant to which both certificated and uncertificated public obligations are issued. The issuer may discontinue and reinstitute either system from time to time.

(2) The system must be established and regularly maintained or amended, discontinued, or reinstituted for the issuer by the official or official body.

(3) The system must be described in the official actions that provide for original issuance and in subsequent official actions providing for amendments and other matters from time to time. Such description may be by reference to a program of the issuer that is established by the official or official body.

(4) The system must define the method or methods by which transfer of the public obligations is effective with respect to the issuer, which method or methods are exclusive (substantial compliance being essential to a valid transfer) and by which payment of principal and any interest must be made. The system may permit the issuance of public obligations in any denomination to represent several public obligations of smaller denominations. The system may also provide for the form of any certificated public obligations, for differing record and payment dates, for varying denominations, and for accounting, canceled certificate destruction, and other incidental matters.

(5) Under a system pursuant to which both certificated and uncertificated public obligations are issued, both types of public obligations may be regularly issued or one type may be regularly issued and the other type issued only under described circumstances or to particular described categories of owners. Under a system pursuant to which uncertificated public obligations are regularly issued provisions may be made for registration of pledges and releases.

(6) The system may include covenants of the issuer as to amendments, discontinuances, and reinstitutions and the effect of such on the exemption of interest from the income tax provided for by the code.

(7) If the effect of a conversion from one of the forms of public obligations provided for in [this act] to a form not provided for in [this act] is that interest will continue to be exempt from the income tax provided for by the code, [this act] does not preclude such conversion.

(8) To the extent not inconsistent with [this act], the rights provided by other laws with respect to obligations in other forms must be provided with respect to obligations in forms that may be used under [this act].

Section 5. Certificated public obligation — execution — authentication. (1) A certificated public obligation must be executed by the issuer by:

(a) the signing by an authorized officer with the manual signature of such officer; or

(b) the signing by such officer with a facsimile signature in lieu of the manual signature of such officer.

(2) Each certificated public obligation may, in addition to the signature or signatures of an authorized officer or officers, have placed upon it a certificate or certificates as authenticating trustee, registrar, transfer agent, or the like. Such certificate may be signed by the manual signature of an individual or by a facsimile signature in lieu of a manual signature, provided that at least one certificate is signed by a manual signature.

(3) The certificated public obligation must bear the manual signature of either:

(a) an authorized officer as defined in [section 2]; or

(b) a person described in subsection (2).

Section 6. Certificated public obligation — signatures. (1) No certificated public obligation signed by the authorized officers at the time of the signing is invalid or without binding effect even though before the issuance thereof any or all of such officers have ceased to fill their respective offices.

(2) Any authorized officer employed to sign any certificated public obligation may adopt as and for the signature of the officer the signature of a predecessor in office in the event that such predecessor's signature appears on such certificated public obligation.

Section 7. Certificated public obligation — seal. When a seal is required or permitted in the execution of any certificated public obligation, an authorized officer may cause the seal to be printed, engraved, stamped, or otherwise placed in facsimile thereon. The facsimile seal has the same legal effect as the impression of the seal.

Section 8. Uncertificated public obligation — signed statements. The issuer shall provide, with respect to its uncertificated public obligations, for the sending of written statements that provide a record of certain rights as of the time of issuance of the statements. The statements must be sent to each person acquiring rights by registration in uncertificated public obligations, and the statements so sent must be signed by an authorized officer or by a person whose signature is required or permitted to be placed on a certificated public obligation of the same class or series. Statements, as such, confer no right on the recipient. Statements are neither a negotiable instrument nor a security.

Section 9. Agents — depositories. (1) An issuer may appoint for a term as may be agreed, including for so long as a public obligation may be outstanding, corporate or other authenticating trustees, transfer agents, registrars, or paying or other agents and specify their rights, compensation, and duties, limit their liabilities, and provide for their payment of liquidated damages in the event of breach of certain of the duties imposed, which liquidated damages may be made payable to a financial intermediary. No trustee, transfer agent, registrar, paying or other agent need have an office or do business within this state.

(2) An issuer may enter into agreements with custodian banks and financial intermediaries, and nominees of any of them, in connection with the establishment and maintenance by others of a central depository system for the transfer or pledge of public obligations. The custodian banks, financial intermediaries, and nominees may, if qualified and acting as fiduciaries, also serve as authenticating trustees, transfer agents, registrars, or paying or other agents of the issuer with respect to the same issue of public obligations.

Section 10. Costs — collection. (1) An issuer, prior to or at original issuance, may provide as a part of a system of registration that the transferor or transferee of the public obligations pay all or a designated part of the costs of the system, that costs be paid out of the proceeds of the public obligations, or that both methods be used. The portion of the costs of the system not provided to be paid by the transferor or transferee or out of proceeds is the liability of the issuer.

(2) The issuer may as a part of the system provide for reimbursement or for satisfaction of its liability by payment by others. The issuer may enter into agreements with others respecting reimbursement or payment, may establish fees and charges pursuant to such agreements or otherwise, and may provide that the amount or estimated amount of the fees and charges must be reimbursed or paid from the same sources and by means of the same collection and enforcement procedures and with the same priority and effect as with respect to the obligation.

Section 11. Deposits for security. Whenever under any law of this state a deposit of public obligations is authorized as security, public obligations otherwise meeting the authorized criteria may be deposited and must be accepted as security, provided that in the case of a certificated public obligation, the instrument is assigned to the holder of the deposit and in the case of an uncertificated public obligation, registration of a pledge is authorized by the system and the pledge of the uncertificated obligation is registered.

Section 12. Public records — locations. (1) With regard to the ownership or pledge of public obligations, records are not subject to inspection or copying under any law of this state relating to the right of the public to inspect or copy public records.

(2) Registration records of the issuer may be maintained at locations inside or outside this state determined by the issuer.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. I 767 1983

Section 13. Applicability — election — rescission. (1) Public obligations may be issued as certificated or uncertificated public obligations as provided in [this act], notwithstanding provisions of law providing for issuance in other forms. Whenever bonds are issued under [this act], the provisions of [this act] are alternative and supplemental to such other provisions.

(2) Nothing in [this act] limits or prevents the issuance of obligations in any other form or manner authorized by law.

(3) The provisions of [this act] may be applied to obligations that have previously been approved by vote, referendum, or hearing, authorizing or permitting the authorization of obligations in bearer and registered form or in bearer form only, and such obligations need not be resubmitted for a further vote, referendum, or hearing for the purpose of authorizing or permitting the authorization of obligations in registered form only.

Section 14. Construction. [This act] must be construed in conjunction with the Uniform Commercial Code and the principles of contract law relative to the registration and transfer of obligations.

Section 15. Effective date. This act is effective July 1, 1983.

Approved April 4, 1983.

Section 1. Refund of overpayment of 1982 property taxes. (1) Counties, municipalities, and school districts that failed to correctly anticipate the receipt of nontax revenues in the form of motor vehicle fees and state payments in lieu of taxes, as distributed under 61-3-509, for the 1982-83 budget year shall recalculate property tax mill levies to reflect anticipation of such revenues for a 12-month period. The recalculated property tax levies resulting from such revisions must be used to determine the property tax overcharges that resulted from the failure to correctly anticipate the receipt of nontax revenues. The appropriate nontax revenue for the 1982-83 budget year includes 12 months of motor vehicle fee collections and one state payment in lieu of property taxes.

(2) The county treasurer shall estimate and inform each taxing jurisdiction of the amount of motor vehicle fees and state payments in lieu of taxes that should have been anticipated in each fund for each taxing jurisdiction. Each taxing jurisdiction shall recalculate levies by crediting the anticipated revenues directly to the revenue section of the budget and not to the cash reserves and provide the revised property tax levies to the county treasurer. The governing body of a county shall establish a refund procedure for the tax overcharge that resulted from the failure to correctly anticipate the revenues as stated in subsection (1). The refund procedure may provide for a reduction of the 1982 first-half property taxes remaining unpaid, a direct refund, a reduction of second-half property taxes, or some combination of these methods or establishment of a credit against 1983 property taxes, but must be common for all taxing jurisdictions in the county. In no case shall refunds be made to delinquent taxpayers. Direct refunds must be made by June 30, 1983. Notices of revised second-half property taxes must be mailed by May 1, 1983. The governing body of a county is granted the authority to establish the refund procedure for all taxing jurisdictions within the county. A taxing jurisdiction whose funds are not held by the county shall deposit with the county sufficient funds to make any necessary direct refunds for the tax overcharge by that taxing jurisdiction, or the county shall withhold such amount from allocations of future tax collections. The allowable credit against 1983 taxes must be clearly identified within the local government entity's fiscal 1983-84 budget, and the amount credited to each taxpayer must be indicated on the tax notice. A credit program must include the amount of excess tax plus interest computed at the average rate of interest earned by the county on long- and short-term investments from January through July 1983. A taxpayer who paid taxes for 1982 in full and who owes no tax for 1983 must be offered a cash refund in lieu of a credit against taxes.

(3) A copy of the calculation of anticipated vehicle fees and state payments in lieu of taxes and a copy of the revised mill levies on which refunds or reduced second-half payments are calculated must be mailed to the legislative auditor, the office of public instruction, and the department of administration.

(4) In addition to the determination of tax overcharges, the county treasurer shall, based upon the recalculated property tax levies, recalculate the disposition of taxes and fees pursuant to 61-3-509 and state aid received under 61-3-536 collected as of January 1, 1983, and increase or decrease the amount of motor vehicle fees in lieu of tax and state aid and personal property tax distributed to the several taxing jurisdictions in the county. All references or comparisons to 1982 mill levies by any taxing jurisdiction must be to the recalculated mill levies.

Section 2. Effective date. This act is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 5, 1983.

CHAPTER NO. 371

AN ACT TO ADOPT THE REVISED UNIFORM PRINCIPAL AND INCOME ACT AS PROMULGATED BY THE NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF COMMISSIONERS ON UNIFORM STATE LAWS; AMENDING SECTIONS 72-25-101 THROUGH 72-25-103 AND 72-25-105, MCA; REPEALING SECTIONS 72-25-104, 72-25-201 THROUGH 72-25-209, 72-25-301, AND 72-25-302, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 72-25-101, MCA, is amended to read:

"72-25-101. Short title. This chapter may be cited as the "Revised Uniform Principal and Income Act"."

Section 2. Section 72-25-102, MCA, is amended to read:

"72-25-102. Definitions. In this chapter, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Income beneficiary" means the person to whom income is presently payable or for whom it is accumulated for distribution as income.

(2) "Inventory value" means the adjusted basis for federal income tax purposes.

(3) "Remainderman" means the person entitled to the principal, including income which has been accumulated and added to principal.

(4) "Trustee" means the original trustee, any succeeding or added trustee, and the personal representative of a decedent's estate whenever a provision of this chapter is applicable to the estate."

Section 3. Section 72-25-103, MCA, is amended to read:

"72-25-103. Applicability. Except as specifically provided in the trust instrument or the will or in this chapter, this chapter applies to any receipt or expense received or incurred after July 1, 1983, by any trust or decedent's estate, whether established before or after July 1, 1983, and whether the asset involved was acquired by the trustee of a trust or a personal representative of a decedent's estate before or after July 1, 1983."

Section 4. Section 72-25-105, MCA, is amended to read:

"72-25-105. Interpretation — uniformity. This chapter shall be so construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it."

Section 5. Duty of trustee as to receipt and expenditure. (1) A trust shall be administered with due regard to the respective interests of income beneficiaries and remaindermen. A trust is so administered with respect to the allocation of receipts and expenditures if a receipt is credited or an expenditure is charged to income or principal or partly to each:

(a) in accordance with the terms of the trust instrument, notwithstanding contrary provisions of this chapter;

(b) in the absence of any contrary terms of the trust instrument, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter; or

(c) if neither of the preceding rules of administration is applicable, in accordance with what is reasonable and equitable in view of the interests of those entitled to income as well as of those entitled to principal and in view of the manner in which men of ordinary prudence, discretion, and judgment would act in the management of their own affairs.

(2) If the trust instrument gives the trustee discretion in crediting a receipt or charging an expenditure to income or principal or partly to each, no inference of imprudence or partiality arises from the fact that the trustee has made an allocation contrary to a provision of this chapter.

Section 6. Income — principal — charges. (1) Income is the return in money or property derived from the use of principal, including return received as:

(a) rent of real or personal property, including sums received for cancellation or renewal of a lease;

(b) interest on money lent, including sums received as consideration for the privilege of prepayment of principal except as provided in [section 10] on bond premium and bond discount;

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 777 1983

(c) income earned during administration of a decedent's estate as provided in [section 8];

(d) corporate distributions as provided in [section 9];

(e) accrued increment on bonds or other obligations issued at discount as provided in [section 10];

(f) receipts from business and farming operations as provided in [section 11];

(g) receipts from disposition of natural resources as provided in [sections 12 and 13];

(h) receipts from other principal subject to depletion as provided in [section 14].

(2) Principal is the property which has been set aside by the owner or the person legally empowered so that it is held in trust, eventually to be delivered to a remainderman, while the return or use of the principal is in the meantime taken or received by or held for accumulation for an income beneficiary. Principal includes:

(a) consideration received by the trustee on the sale or other transfer of principal, or on repayment of a loan, or as a refund or replacement or change in the form of principal;

(b) proceeds of property taken on eminent domain proceedings;

(c) proceeds of insurance upon property forming part of the principal, except proceeds of insurance upon a separate interest of an income beneficiary;

(d) stock dividends, receipts on liquidation of a corporation, and other corporate distributions as provided in [section 9];

(e) receipts from the disposition of corporate securities as provided in [section 10];

(f) royalties and other receipts from disposition of natural resources as provided in [sections 12 and 13];

(g) receipts from other principal subject to depletion as provided in [section 14];

(h) any profit resulting from any change in the form of principal;

(i) any allowances for depreciation established under [section 15(1)(b)].

(3) After determining income and principal in accordance with the terms of the trust instrument or of this chapter, the trustee shall charge to income or principal expenses and other charges as provided in [section 15].

Section 7. When right to income arises — apportionment of income. (1) An income beneficiary is entitled to income from the date specified in the trust instrument or, if none is specified, from the date an asset becomes subject to the trust. In the case of an asset becoming subject to a trust by reason of a will, it becomes subject to the trust as of the date of the death of the testator even though there is an intervening period of administration of the testator's estate.

(2) In the administration of a decedent's estate or an asset becoming subject to a trust by reason of a will:

(a) receipts due but not paid at the date of death of the testator are principal;

(b) receipts in the form of periodic payments (other than corporate distributions to stockholders), including rent, interest, or annuities, not due at the date of the death of the testator shall be treated as accruing from day to day. That portion of the receipt accruing before the date of death is principal, and the balance is income.

(3) In all other cases, any receipt from an income-producing asset is income, even though the receipt was earned or accrued in whole or in part before the date when the asset became subject to the trust.

(4) On termination of an income interest, the income beneficiary whose interest is terminated, or his estate, is entitled to income:

(a) undistributed on the date of termination;

(b) due but not paid to the trustee on the date of termination;

(c) in the form of periodic payments (other than corporate distributions to stockholders), including rent, interest, or annuities, not due on the date of termination, accrued from day to day.

(5) Corporate distributions to stockholders shall be treated as due on the day fixed by the corporation for determination of stockholders of record entitled to distribution or, if no date is fixed, on the date of declaration of the distribution by the corporation.

Section 8. Income earned during administration of a decedent's estate. (1) Unless the will otherwise provides and subject to subsection (2), all expenses incurred in connection with the settlement of a decedent's estate, including debts, funeral expenses, estate taxes, interest and penalties concerning taxes, family allowances, fees of attorneys and personal representatives, and court costs, shall be charged against the principal of the estate.

(2) Unless the will otherwise provides, income from the assets of a decedent's estate after the death of the testator and before distribution, including income from property used to discharge liabilities, shall be determined in accordance with the rules applicable to a trustee under this chapter and distributed as follows:

(a) to specific legatees and devisees, the income from the property bequeathed or devised to them respectively, less taxes, ordinary repairs, and other expenses of management and operation of the property, and an appropriate portion of interest accrued since the death of the testator and of taxes imposed on income (excluding taxes on capital gains) that accrue during the period of administration;

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 779 1983

(b) to all other legatees and devisees, except legatees of pecuniary bequests not in trust, the balance of the income, less the balance of taxes, ordinary repairs, and other expenses of management and operation of all property from which the estate is entitled to income, interest accrued since the death of the testator, and taxes imposed on income (excluding taxes on capital gains) that accrue during the period of administration, in proportion to their respective interests in the undistributed assets of the estate computed at times of distribution on the basis of inventory value.

Section 9. Corporate distributions. (1) Corporate distributions of shares of the distributing corporation, including distributions in the form of a stock split or stock dividend, are principal. A right to subscribe to shares or other securities issued by the distributing corporation accruing to stockholders on account of their stock ownership, and the proceeds of any sale of the right, are principal.

(2) Except to the extent that the corporation indicates that some part of a corporate distribution is a settlement of preferred or guaranteed dividends accrued since the trustee became a stockholder or is in lieu of an ordinary cash dividend, a corporate distribution is principal if the distribution is pursuant to:

(a) a call of shares;

(b) a merger, consolidation, reorganization, or other plan by which assets of the corporation are required by another corporation; or

(c) a total or partial liquidation of the corporation, including any distribution which the corporation indicates is a distribution in total or partial liquidation or any distribution of assets, other than cash, pursuant to a court decree or final administrative order by a government agency ordering distribution of the particular assets.

(3) Distributions made from ordinary income by a regulated investment company or by a trust qualifying and electing to be taxed under federal law as a real estate investment trust are income. All other distributions made by the company or trust, including distributions from capital gains, depreciation, or depletion, whether in the form of cash or an option to take new stock or cash or an option to purchase additional shares, are principal.

(4) Except as provided in subsections (1) through (3), all corporate distributions are income, including cash dividends, distributions of or rights to subscribe to shares or securities or obligations of corporations other than the distributing corporation, and the proceeds of the rights or property distributions. Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3), if the distributing corporation gives a stockholder an option to receive a distribution either in cash or in its own shares, the distribution chosen is income.

(5) The trustee may rely upon any statement of the distributing corporation as to any fact relevant under any provision of this chapter concerning the source or character of dividends or distributions of corporate assets.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 780 1983

Section 10. Bond premium and discount. (1) Bonds or other obligations for the payment of money are principal at their inventory value, except as provided in subsection (2) for discount bonds. No provision may be made for amortization of bond premiums or for accumulation for discount. The proceeds of sale, redemption, or other disposition of the bonds or obligations are principal.

(2) The increment in value of a bond or other obligation for the payment of money payable at a future time in accordance with a fixed schedule of appreciation in excess of the price at which it was issued is distributable as income. The increment in value is distributable to the beneficiary who was the income beneficiary at the time of increment from the first principal cash available or, if none is available, when realized by sale, redemption, or other disposition. Whenever unrealized increment is distributed as income but out of principal, the principal shall be reimbursed for the increment when realized.

Section 11. Business and farming operations. (1) If a trustee uses any part of the principal in the continuance of a business of which the settlor was a sole proprietor or a partner, the net profits of the business, computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles for a comparable business, are income. If a loss results in any fiscal or calendar year, the loss falls on principal and may not be carried into any other fiscal or calendar year for purposes of calculating net income.

(2) Generally accepted accounting principles shall be used to determine income from an agricultural or farming operation, including the raising of animals or the operation of a nursery.

Section 12. Disposition of natural resources. (1) If any part of the principal consists of a right to receive royalties, overriding or limited royalties, working interests, production payments, net profit interests, or other interests in minerals or other natural resources in, on, or under land, the receipts from taking the natural resources from the land shall be allocated as follows:

(a) If received as rent on a lease or extension payments on a lease, the receipts are income.

(b) If received from a production payment, the receipts are income to the extent of any factor for interest or its equivalent provided in the governing instrument. There shall be allocated to principal the fraction of the balance of the receipts which the unrecovered cost of the production payment bears to the balance owed on the production payment, exclusive of any factor for interest or its equivalent. The receipts not allocated to principal are income.

(c) If received as a royalty, overriding or limited royalty or bonus, or from a working, net profit, or any other interest in minerals or other natural resources, receipts not provided for in subsection (1)(a) or (1)(b) shall be apportioned on a yearly basis in accordance with subsection (1)(c), whether or not any natural resource was being taken from the land at the time the trust was established. Not less than 20% or more than 50% of the net receipts, to be determined in the discretion of the trustee, shall be added to principal as an allowance for depletion. The balance of the net receipts is income.

(2) If a trustee, on July 1, 1983, held an item of depletable property of a type specified in this section, he shall allocate receipts from the property in the manner used before July 1, 1983, but as to all depletable property acquired after July 1, 1983, by an existing or new trust, the method of allocation provided in this section shall be used.

Section 13. Timber. If any part of the principal consists of land from which merchantable timber may be removed, the receipts from taking the timber from the land shall be allocated in accordance with [section 5(1)(c)].

Section 14. Other property subject to depletion. Except as provided in [sections 12 and 13], if the principal consists of property subject to depletion, including leaseholds, patents, copyrights, royalty rights, and rights to receive payments on a contract for deferred compensation, receipts from the property, not in excess of 5% per year of the net receipts remaining after payment of expenses, directly and indirectly computed without allowance for depletion, are income, and the balance is principal.

Section 15. Charges against income and principal. (1) The following charges shall be made against income:

(a) ordinary expenses incurred in connection with the administration, management, or preservation of the trust property, including regularly recurring taxes assessed against any portion of the principal; water rates; premiums on insurance taken upon the interests of the income beneficiary, remainderman, or trustee; interest paid by the trustee; and ordinary repairs;

(b) a reasonable allowance for depreciation on property subject to depreciation under generally accepted accounting principles, but no allowance may be made for depreciation of that portion of any real property used by a beneficiary as a residence or for depreciation of any property held by the trustee on July 1, 1983, for which the trustee is not then making an allowance for depreciation;

(c) not less than one-half of court costs, attorney fees, and other fees on periodic judicial accounting, unless the court directs otherwise;

(d) court costs, attorney fees, and fees on other accountings or judicial proceedings if the matter primarily concerns the income interest, unless the court directs otherwise;

(e) not less than one-half of the trustee's regular compensation, whether based on a percentage of principal or income, and all expenses reasonably incurred for current management of principal and application of income, unless the court directs otherwise;

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 782 1983

(f) any tax levied upon receipts defined as income under this chapter or the trust instrument and payable by the trustee.

(2) If charges against income are of unusual amount, the trustee may, by means of reserves or other reasonable means, charge them over a reasonable period of time and withhold from distribution sufficient sums to regularize distributions.

(3) The following charges shall be made against principal:

(a) trustee's compensation not chargeable to income under subsections (1)(d) and (1)(e); special compensation of trustees; expenses reasonably incurred in connection with principal, court costs, and attorney fees primarily concerning matters of principal; and trustee's compensation computed on principal as an acceptance, distribution, or termination fee;

(b) charges not provided for in subsection (1), including the cost of investing and reinvesting principal; the payments on principal of an indebtedness, including a mortgage amortized by periodic payments of principal; expenses for preparation of property for rental or sale; and, unless the court directs otherwise, expenses incurred in maintaining or defending any action to construe the trust or protect it or the property or assure the title of any trust property;

(c) extraordinary repairs or expenses incurred in making a capital improvement to principal, including special assessments, but a trustee may establish an allowance for depreciation out of income to the extent permitted by subsection (1)(b) and by [section 11];

(d) any tax levied upon profit, gain, or other receipts allocated to principal, notwithstanding denomination of the tax as an income tax by the taxing authority;

(e) if an estate or inheritance tax is levied in respect to a trust in which both an income beneficiary and a remainderman have an interest, any amount apportioned to the trust, including interest and penalties, even though the income beneficiary also has rights in the principal.

(4) Regularly recurring charges payable from income shall be apportioned to the same extent and in the same manner that income is apportioned under [section 7].

Section 16. Repealer. Sections 72-25-104, 72-25-201 through 72-25-209, 72-25-301, and 72-25-302, MCA, are repealed.

Section 17. Codification instruction. Sections 5 through 15 are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 72, chapter 25, and the provisions of Title 72, chapter 25, apply to sections 5 through 15.

Section 18. Effective date. This act is effective July 1, 1983.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 27-6-101, MCA, is amended to read:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 791 1983

(1) "Health care facility" means a facility (other than a university, college, or governmental hospital or infirmary) licensed as a health care facility under Title 50, chapter 5.

(2) "Health care provider" means a physician or a health care facility.

(3) "Hospital" means a hospital as defined in 50-5-101.

(4) "Malpractice claim" means any claim or potential claim against a health care provider for medical treatment, lack of medical treatment, or other alleged departure from accepted standards of health care which proximately results in damage to the patient, whether the patient's claim or potential claim sounds in tort or contract, and includes but is not limited to allegations of battery or wrongful death.

(6) "Physician" means an individual licensed to practice medicine under the provisions of Title 37, chapter 3."

"27-6-206. Funding. (1) There is created a pretrial review fund to be administered by the director exclusively for the purposes stated in this chapter. The fund and any income from it shall be held in trust, deposited in an account, and invested and reinvested by the director with the prior approval of the director of the Montana medical association. The fund may not become a part of or revert to the general fund of this state but shall be open to auditing by the legislative auditor.

(2) To create the fund, an annual surcharge shall be levied on all health care providers, except physicians not engaged in the private practice of medicine. The amount of the assessment for an individual physician, hospital, or other health care facility must be that portion of the total assessment which bears the same relationship to the total assessment as the number of claims against such physician, hospital, or other health care facility bears to the total number of claims against physicians, hospitals, and other health care facilities that have been filed with the panel since April 19, 1977, as that total number of claims is shown in the annual reports of the panel. However, the assessment for an individual hospital must also be determined by dividing the total percentage of the assessment for all hospitals by the total number of hospital beds existing at the time of the assessment and multiplying the result by the number of beds in the hospital to be assessed. Surplus funds, if any, over and above the amount required for the annual administration of the chapter shall be retained by the director and used to finance the administration of this chapter in succeeding years, in which event the director shall reduce the annual assessment in subsequent years, commensurate with the proper administration of this chapter.

(3) The annual surcharge shall be paid on or before the date physicians' annual registration fees are due under 37-3-313. The director has the same powers and duties in connection with the collection of and failure to pay the annual surcharge as the department of commerce has under 37-3-313 in connection with physicians' annual registration fees."

Section 7. Section 27-6-404, MCA, is amended to read:

"27-6-404. Disqualification of panel member. (1) Any member shall disqualify himself from consideration of any case in which, by virtue of his circumstances, he feels his presence on the panel would be inappropriate, considering the purpose of the panel. The director may excuse a proposed panelist from serving.

(2) Whenever a party makes and files an affidavit that a panel member selected pursuant to this part cannot, according to the belief of the party making the affidavit, sit in review of the application with impartiality, that panel member may proceed no further. Another panel member must be selected by the health care provider's professional association, state licensing board, or the state bar, as the case may be. A party may not disqualify more than three panel members in this manner in any single malpractice claim, and the affidavit must be filed within 15 days of the transmittal by the director, under 27-6-402, of the names of the panel members selected."

"37-9-305. Renewal of registration and license. Every holder of a nursing home administrator's registration and license shall renew it annually by payment of the required fee for the next subsequent year prior to the expiration date of his currently valid registration and license. Renewals of registrations or licenses shall be granted as a matter of course, providing the holder has completed a continuing education course prescribed or approved by the board; however, if the board finds, after due notice and hearing, that the applicant has acted or failed to act in such a manner or under circumstances as would constitute grounds for suspension or revocation of a registration and license, it shall not issue the renewal."

Section 4. Section 37-10-307, MCA, is amended to read:

"37-10-307. Annual renewal — fee. A registered optometrist who desires to continue the practice of optometry in this state shall, before the license expiration date established by rule of the department, annually pay to the department a renewal fee prescribed by the board in return for which a renewal of registration shall be issued. (3) A radiologic technologist who has been licensed in Montana and whose license has not been revoked or suspended and who has temporarily ceased activities as a radiologic technologist for not more than 5 years may apply for reissuance of a license upon complying with the provisions of this section, including payment of an application fee."

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 814 1983

(2) The fee to be paid by an applicant for an examination to determine his fitness to receive a certificate of registration to practice barbering and for the issuance of the certificate shall be prescribed by the board.

If a barber fails to have the certificate renewed before the expiration date, the barber shall on renewal of the certificate of registration pay a penalty prescribed by the board in addition to the regular renewal fee. If a certificate of registration is not renewed within 1 year after the date of expiration, the barber is not entitled to have the certificate of registration renewed or a new certificate of registration issued without first applying for and taking the examination and paying the fees provided for in this section.

(4) However, physically handicapped persons trained for the barber profession by the department of social and rehabilitation services and certified by that department as having successfully completed a 9-month course in a reputable barber college are not required to pay fees and are for a period of 1 year immediately following their training exempt from all except the sanitary provisions of this chapter.

(5) No other or additional license or fee may be imposed on barbers or barber apprentices by a municipality or other subdivision of this state."

Section 7. Section 37-30-423, MCA, is amended to read:

Barbershops established after March 11, 1939, shall pay an initial inspection fee prescribed by the board for the first year or portion thereof and shall pay an annual license fee set by the board.

(2) Barbershop, school, or college licenses, once issued, expire each year on the date established by rule of the department, and an owner or manager of a barbershop, school, or college which continues in active operation shall annually, before the expiration date, renew his barbershop, school, or college license and pay the required fee. Renewal may be made prior to the expiration date by the payment of a fee as set by the board for either a professional engineer or land surveyor. For renewal of a dual license as both a professional engineer and land surveyor, the fee shall be set by the board.

(2) No certificate may be renewed unless the registrant submits a verified statement to the effect and the board is satisfied that he has maintained competency by:

(a) the continued practice of engineering or land surveying; or

(b) engaging in other activities that provide for the maintenance of competency as prescribed by board rule.

(3) Failure on the part of a registrant to renew his certificate biennially prior to the expiration date does not deprive him of the right of renewal; however, a registrant who fails to pay the renewal fee for an additional year of the biennium shall be considered a new applicant and is required to submit a new application.

(4) The fee for any registrant who fails to renew his certificate prior to the expiration date shall be increased by an amount not to exceed 50% of his renewal fee. Renewal may not be completed until all fees are paid."

CHAPTER NO. 399

AN ACT TO ADOPT THE AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION'S MODEL ACT ON PROFESSIONAL CORPORATIONS AND REPEAL THE LAWS REGULATING CORPORATIONS THAT RENDER PROFESSIONAL SERVICES; REPEALING SECTIONS 35-4-101 THROUGH 35-4-107, 35-4-201 THROUGH 35-4-204, AND 35-4-211 THROUGH 35-4-216, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Short title. [Sections 1 through 23] may be cited as the "Montana Professional Corporation Act".

Section 2. Definitions. As used in [sections 1 through 23], unless the context otherwise requires, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Disqualified person" means any natural person, corporation, partnership, fiduciary, trust, association, government agency, or other entity that for any reason is or becomes ineligible under [sections 1 through 23] to own shares issued by a professional corporation.

(2) "Foreign professional corporation" means a corporation for profit organized for the purpose of rendering professional services under a law other than the laws of this state.

(3) "Licensing authority" means an officer, board, agency, court, or other authority in this state that has the power to issue a license or other legal authorization to render a professional service.

(4) "Professional corporation" or "domestic professional corporation" means a corporation for profit subject to the provisions of [sections 1 through 23], except a foreign professional corporation.

(5) "Professional service" means any service that may lawfully be rendered only by persons licensed under a licensing law of this state and that may not lawfully be rendered by a corporation organized under the Montana Business Corporation Act.

(6) "Qualified person" means a natural person, general partnership, or professional corporation eligible under [sections 1 through 23] to own shares issued by a professional corporation.

Section 3. Application to existing corporations. (1) [Sections 1 through 23] apply to each professional corporation organized prior to October 1, 1983. If such a corporation is required to amend its corporate name or purposes to comply with [sections 1 through 23], it shall deliver one duly executed original and one copy of articles of amendment or restated articles of incorporation containing such amendments to the secretary of state within 90 days after October 1, 1983.

(2) Any corporation that is not a professional corporation may become subject to [sections 1 through 23] by delivering to the secretary of state one duly executed original and one copy of articles of amendment or restated articles of incorporation stating that the corporation elects to become subject to [sections 1 through 23] and containing such amendments of its corporate name or purposes as are required to comply with [sections 1 through 23].

Section 4. Application of the Montana Business Corporation Act. The Montana Business Corporation Act applies to professional corporations, domestic and foreign, except to the extent its provisions are inconsistent with [sections 1 through 23].

Section 5. Regulatory authorities. No professional corporation, domestic or foreign, may begin to render professional services in this state until it has filed a copy of its articles of incorporation with each licensing authority having jurisdiction of a type of professional service described in its articles of incorporation. Nothing in [sections 1 through 23] restricts or limits the authority or duty of a licensing authority with respect to natural persons rendering a professional service within the jurisdiction of the licensing authority or any law or rule pertaining to standards of professional conduct.

Section 6. Purposes of corporation. Professional corporations may be organized under [sections 1 through 23] only for the purpose of rendering professional services and services ancillary thereto within a single profession, except that a professional corporation may be incorporated for the purpose of rendering professional services within two or more professions and for any purpose or purposes for which corporations may be organized under the Montana Business Corporation Act to the extent that such combination of professional purposes or professional and business purposes is permitted by the licensing laws and rules of this state applicable to such professions.

Section 7. Prohibited activities. A professional corporation may not engage in any profession or business other than the profession or professions and business permitted by its articles of incorporation.

Section 8. General powers. (1) A professional corporation has the powers enumerated in the Montana Business Corporation Act, except that it may be a promoter, general partner, member, associate, or manager only of a partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise engaged only in rendering professional services or carrying on business permitted by the articles of incorporation of the professional corporation.

(2) A professional corporation may invest its funds in real estate, mortgages, stocks, bonds, or any other type of investment.

Section 9. Rendering services. A professional corporation, domestic or foreign, may render professional services in this state only through natural persons permitted to render such services in this state; however, nothing in [sections 1 through 23] requires any person employed by a professional corporation to be licensed to perform services for which no license is otherwise required or prohibits the rendering of professional services by a licensed natural person acting in his individual capacity, even if such person is a shareholder, director, officer, employee, or agent of a professional corporation, domestic or foreign.

Section 10. Responsibility for services. (1) An individual who renders professional services as an employee of a domestic or foreign professional corporation is liable for any negligent or wrongful act or omission in which he personally participates to the same extent as if he had rendered such services as a sole practitioner. An employee of a professional corporation is not liable for the conduct of other employees unless he is at fault in appointing, supervising, or cooperating with them.

(2) A domestic or foreign professional corporation whose employee performs professional services within the scope of his employment or apparent authority to act for the corporation is liable to the same extent as that employee.

(3) Except as otherwise provided by statute, the personal liability of a shareholder of a domestic or foreign professional corporation is no greater in any respect than that of a shareholder of a corporation organized under the Montana Business Corporation Act.

Section 11. Relationship to clients or patients — privileged communications. (1) The relationship between an individual performing professional services as an employee of a professional corporation, domestic or foreign, and a client or patient is the same as if the individual performed such services as a sole practitioner.

(2) The relationship between a professional corporation, domestic or foreign, performing professional services and the client or patient is the same as between the client or patient and the individual performing the services.

(3) Any privilege applicable to communications between a person rendering professional services and the person receiving the services recognized under the statutory or common law of this state extends to a professional corporation, domestic or foreign, and its employees.

Section 12. Corporate name. The name of a domestic or foreign professional corporation:

(1) must contain the words "professional corporation" or the abbreviation "P.C.";

(2) may not contain any word or phrase that indicates or implies that the corporation is organized for any purpose other than the purposes contained in its articles of incorporation;

(3) may not be the same as or deceptively similar to any assumed business name, limited partnership name, trademark, or service mark registered or reserved with the secretary of state or to the name of any domestic corporation existing under the laws of this state, any foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state, a name the exclusive right to which is reserved in the manner provided in the Montana Business

Corporation Act, or the name of a corporation that has in effect a registration of its corporate name as provided in the Montana Business Corporation Act. This subsection does not apply if:

(a) the similarity results from the use in the corporate name of personal names of shareholders or former shareholders or of natural persons who were associated with a predecessor entity; or

(b) the corporation files with the secretary of state either the written consent of such other corporation or holder of a reserved or registered name to use the same or a deceptively similar name and one or more words are added to make such name distinguishable from such other name or a certified copy of a final decree of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the prior right of the corporation to the use of the name in this state; and

(4) must conform to rules promulgated by a licensing authority having jurisdiction of a professional service described in the articles of incorporation of the corporation.

Section 13. Directors and officers. At least one-half of the combined directors and officers of a professional corporation, other than the secretary and the treasurer, must be qualified persons with respect to the corporation.

Section 14. Issuance and transfer of shares. (1) A professional corporation may issue shares, fractional shares, and rights or options to purchase shares only to:

(a) natural persons authorized by law of this or any other state, a territory of the United States, or the District of Columbia to render a professional service permitted by the articles of incorporation of the corporation;

(b) general partnerships in which all the partners are authorized by law of this or any other state, a territory of the United States, or the District of Columbia to render a professional service permitted by the articles of incorporation and in which at least one partner is authorized by law in this state to render a professional service permitted by the articles of incorporation of the corporation; and

(c) professional corporations, domestic or foreign, authorized by law in this state to render a professional service permitted by the articles of incorporation of the corporation.

(2) The licensing authority may by rule further restrict or condition the issuance of shares in order to preserve ethical standards, but no rule may cause a person holding shares at the time the rule becomes effective to become a disqualified person.

(3) A shareholder of a professional corporation may transfer or pledge shares, fractional shares, and rights or options to purchase shares of the corporation only to natural persons, general partnerships, and professional corporations qualified to hold shares issued directly to them by the corporation. This subsection does not prohibit the transfer of shares of a professional corporation by operation of law or court decree.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 829 1983

(4) Each certificate representing shares of a professional corporation must state conspicuously upon its face that the shares are subject to restrictions on transfer imposed by [sections 1 through 23] and to restrictions on transfer imposed by the licensing authority pursuant to [sections 1 through 23].

(5) Any issuance or transfer of shares in violation of this section or a rule promulgated under this section is void.

Section 15. Corporation's right to acquire its own shares. A professional corporation may purchase its own shares from a disqualified person without regard to the availability of capital or surplus for such purchase; however, no purchase of or payment for its own shares may be made at a time when the corporation is insolvent or if purchase or payment would make it insolvent.

Section 16. Death or disqualification of a shareholder. (1) Upon the death of a shareholder of a professional corporation or if a shareholder of a professional corporation becomes a disqualified person or if shares of a professional corporation are transferred by operation of law or court decree to a disqualified person, the shares may be transferred to a qualified person and if not so transferred must be purchased or redeemed by the corporation to the extent that the corporation has funds legally available for the purchase.

(2) If the share price is not fixed by the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the corporation or by private agreement, the corporation must within 6 months after such death or 30 days after such disqualification or transfer to a disqualified person make a written offer to pay for the shares at a specified price considered by the corporation to be the fair value thereof as of the date of death, disqualification, or transfer. The offer must be given to the personal representative of the estate of a deceased shareholder or to the disqualified shareholder or transferee and must be accompanied by both a balance sheet of the corporation as of the latest available date and not more than 12 months prior to the offer and a profit and loss statement of the corporation for the 12-month period ending on the date of the balance sheet.

(3) If the fair value of the shares is agreed upon within 30 days after the date of the written offer, payment must be made within 60 days after the date of the offer or within such other period as the parties fix by agreement and upon surrender of the certificate or certificates representing such shares. Upon payment the transferor ceases to have any interest in such shares.

(4) If the fair value is not agreed upon within 30 days after the date of the written offer, the corporation must within the next 30 days file a petition in the district court of the county in this state where the registered office of the corporation is located, requesting that the fair value of such shares be found and determined. If the corporation fails or refuses to institute the proceeding, the disqualified person may do so. The disqualified person must be made a party to a proceeding brought by the corporation, and a copy of the petition must be served on the disqualified person if a resident of this state and must be served by certified mail if a nonresident. Service on nonresidents must also be made by publication as provided by law. The jurisdiction of the court is plenary and exclusive. The disqualified person is entitled to judgment against the corporation for the fair value of his shares as of the date of death, disqualification, or transfer and upon payment of the judgment must surrender to the corporation the certificates representing the shares. The court may in its discretion order that judgment be paid in installments determined by the court and may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend a decision on the question of fair value.

(5) The judgment must include interest from the date of death, disqualification, or transfer, at a rate the court finds equitable under the circumstances.

(6) The costs and expenses of a proceeding must be determined by the court and either assessed against the corporation or assessed as the court considers equitable if the court finds that an agreed share value was not reached because the disqualified person was arbitrary or vexatious or did not act in good faith. Expenses include reasonable compensation for and expenses of the appraisers, but do not include fees and expenses of counsel for and experts employed by any party, except that if the court determines that the fair value of shares materially exceeds the amount the corporation offered therefor or if no offer was made, the court may award to the disqualified person reasonable compensation for any expert employed by the disqualified person.

(7) If a purchase, redemption, or transfer of shares is not completed within 10 months after the death of the deceased shareholder or 5 months after the disqualification or transfer, the corporation shall cancel the shares on its books and the disqualified person has no further interest as a shareholder other than his right under this section to payment for such shares.

(8) Shares acquired by a corporation upon payment of their agreed value or payment of a judgment decreeing their fair value may be held and disposed of as in the case of other treasury shares.

(9) This section does not apply to shares of a disqualified person if the period of disqualification is less than 5 months.

(10) Any provision regarding purchase, redemption, or transfer of shares of a professional corporation contained in the articles of incorporation, the bylaws, or any private agreement is specifically enforceable in the courts of this state.

(11) This section does not prevent or relieve a professional corporation from paying pension benefits or other deferred compensation for services rendered to or on behalf of a former shareholder as otherwise permitted by law.

Section 17. Amendment of articles of incorporation by personal representative of sole shareholder's estate. A personal representative, guardian, conservator, or receiver of the estate of a shareholder of a professional corporation who holds all of the outstanding shares of the corporation may amend the articles of incorporation by signing a written consent to amendment. The articles of amendment must be executed in duplicate by the personal representative, guardian, conservator, or receiver and by the secretary or assistant secretary of the corporation, verified by one of the persons signing the articles, and must set forth:

(1) the name of the corporation;

(2) the amendments adopted;

(3) the date of adoption of the amendments; and

(4) the number of shares outstanding.

Section 18. Proxies and voting trusts. No proxy for shares of a professional corporation is valid unless given to a qualified person. A voting trust for shares of a professional corporation is invalid unless all trustees and beneficiaries are qualified persons, except that a voting trust is valid for 10 months after the death of a deceased beneficiary or for 5 months after a beneficiary has become a disqualified person.

Section 19. Merger and consolidation. A professional corporation may merge or consolidate with another corporation, domestic or foreign, only if every shareholder of each corporation is qualified to be a shareholder of the surviving or new corporation. If the surviving or new corporation will render professional services in this state, it shall comply with [sections 1 through 23].

Section 20. Termination of all professional services. If a professional corporation ceases to render professional services, it shall amend its articles of incorporation to delete from its stated purposes the rendering of professional services and to conform its corporate name to the requirements of the Montana Business Corporation Act. The corporation may then continue in existence as a corporation under the Montana Business Corporation Act and is no longer subject to [sections 1 through 23].

Section 21. Involuntary dissolution. A professional corporation may be dissolved involuntarily as provided in Title 35, chapter 6.

Section 22. Admission of foreign professional corporations — application — revocation. (1) A foreign professional corporation is entitled to a certificate of authority to transact business in this state only if:

(a) the name of the corporation meets the requirements of [section 12];

(b) the corporation is organized only for purposes for which a professional corporation may be organized under [sections 1 through 23]; and

(c) all the shareholders, not less than one-half the directors, and all the officers other than the secretary and treasurer of the corporation are qualified persons with respect to the corporation.

(2) No foreign professional corporation is required to obtain a certificate of authority to transact business in this state unless it maintains an office in this state for the conduct of business or professional practice.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 832 1983

(3) The application for a certificate of authority must include a statement that all the shareholders, not less than one-half the directors, and all the officers other than the secretary and treasurer are licensed in at least one state or territory or the District of Columbia to render a professional service described in the statement of purposes of the corporation.

(4) The certificate of authority may be revoked by the secretary of state if the corporation fails to comply with any provision of [sections 1 through 23]. The licensing authority shall certify to the secretary of state, from time to time, the names of all foreign professional corporations that have given cause for revocation, together with the facts pertinent thereto, and shall concurrently mail to each corporation at its registered office in this state a notice that such certification has been made. No certificate of authority of a foreign professional corporation may be revoked unless there has been both 60 days' notice of intent to revoke and a failure to correct the noncompliance during such 60 days.

Section 23. Annual reports and statements. (1) The annual report of each domestic professional corporation and each foreign professional corporation authorized to transact business in this state filed with the secretary of state pursuant to the Montana Business Corporation Act must include a statement that all the shareholders, not less than one-half the directors, and all the officers other than the secretary and treasurer of the corporation are qualified persons with respect to the corporation.

(2) Each domestic professional corporation and each foreign professional corporation authorized to transact business in this state must annually file before March 1 with each licensing authority having jurisdiction over a professional service of a type described in its articles of incorporation a statement of qualification setting forth the names and addresses of the directors and officers of the corporation and such additional information as the licensing authority may by rule prescribe as appropriate in determining whether the corporation is complying with the provisions of [sections 1 through 23] and rules promulgated under [sections 1 through 23]. The licensing authority may charge a fee to cover the cost of filing a statement of qualification.

Section 24. Repealer. Sections 35-4-101 through 35-4-107, 35-4-201 through 35-4-204, and 35-4-211 through 35-4-216, MCA, are repealed.

Section 25. Saving clause. This act does not affect rights and duties that matured, penalties that were incurred, or proceedings that were begun before [the effective date of this act].

Section 26. Severability. If a part of this act is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of this act is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications.

CHAPTER NO. 401

AN ACT TO REQUIRE GUARDIANS AND CONSERVATORS FOR WARDS AND PROTECTED PERSONS TO FILE AN ANNUAL ACCOUNTING; AMENDING SECTIONS 72-5-321 AND 72-5-438, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 72-5-321, MCA, is amended to read:

"72-5-321. Powers and duties of guardian of incapacitated person. (1) The powers and duties of a limited guardian are those specified in the order appointing the guardian. The limited guardian is required to report the condition of the incapacitated person and of the estate that has been subject to his possession and control, as required by the court or by court rule.

(2) A full guardian of an incapacitated person has the same powers, rights, and duties respecting his ward that a parent has respecting his unemancipated minor child, except that a guardian is not liable to third persons for acts of the ward solely by reason of the parental relationship. In particular and without qualifying the foregoing, a full guardian has the following powers and duties, except as limited by order of the court:

(a) To the extent that it is consistent with the terms of any order by a court of competent jurisdiction relating to detention or commitment of the ward, he is entitled to custody of the person of his ward and may establish the ward's place of abode within or without this state.

(b) If entitled to custody of his ward, he shall make provision for the care, comfort, and maintenance of his ward and whenever appropriate arrange for his training and education. Without regard to custodial rights of the ward's person, he shall take reasonable care of his ward's clothing, furniture, vehicles, and other personal effects and commence protective proceedings if other property of his ward is in need of protection.

(c) A full guardian may give any consents or approvals that may be necessary to enable the ward to receive medical or other professional care, counsel, treatment, or service.

(d) If no conservator for the estate of the ward has been appointed, a full guardian may:

(i) institute proceedings to compel any person under a duty to support the ward or to pay sums for the welfare of the ward to perform his duty;

(ii) receive money and tangible property deliverable to the ward and apply the money and property for support, care, and education of the ward; but he may not use funds from his ward's estate for room and board which he, his spouse, parent, or child have furnished the ward unless a charge for the service is approved by order of the court made upon notice to at least one of the next of kin of the incompetent ward, if notice is possible. He must exercise care to conserve any excess for the ward's needs.

(e) Unless waived by the court, a full guardian is required to report the condition of his ward and of the estate which has been subject to his possession or control annually for the preceding year. A copy of the report must be served upon the ward's parent, child, or sibling if that person has made an effective request under 72-5-318.

(f) If a conservator has been appointed, all of the ward's estate received by the full guardian in excess of those funds expended to meet current expenses for support, care, and education of the ward must be paid to the conservator for management as provided in this code, and the full guardian must account to the conservator for funds expended.

(3) Upon failure, as determined by the clerk of court, of the guardian to file an annual report, the court shall order the guardian to file the report and give good cause for his failure to file a timely report.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 835 1983

(4) Any full guardian of one for whom a conservator also has been appointed shall control the custody and care of the ward. A limited guardian of a person for whom a conservator has been appointed shall control those aspects of the custody and care of the ward over which he is given authority by the order establishing the limited guardianship. The full guardian or limited guardian is entitled to receive reasonable sums for his services and for room and board furnished to the ward as agreed upon between him and the conservator, provided the amounts agreed upon are reasonable under the circumstances. The full guardian or limited guardian authorized to oversee such aspects of the incapacitated person's care may request the conservator to expend the ward's estate by payment to third persons or institutions for the ward's care and maintenance.

(5) No full guardian or limited guardian may involuntarily commit for mental health treatment or for treatment of a developmental disability or for observation or evaluation a ward who is himself unwilling or unable to give informed consent to such commitment, except as provided in 72-5-322, unless the procedures for involuntary commitment set forth in Title 53, chapters 20 and 21, are followed. This chapter does not abrogate any of the rights of mentally disabled persons provided for in Title 53, chapters 20 and 21."

Section 2. Section 72-5-438, MCA, is amended to read:

"72-5-438. Accounts — final and intermediate. (1) Unless waived by the court, every conservator must account to the court for his administration of the trust annually for the preceding year and also upon his resignation or removal. A copy of the account must be served upon the protected person's parent, guardian, child, or sibling if that person has made an effective request under 72-5-404. On termination of the protected person's minority or disability, a conservator may account to the court or he may account to the former protected person or his personal representative.

(2) Subject to appeal or vacation within the time permitted, an order made upon notice and hearing allowing an intermediate account of a conservator adjudicates as to his liabilities concerning the matters considered in connection therewith; and an order made upon notice and hearing allowing a final account adjudicates as to all previously unsettled liabilities of the conservator to the protected person or his successors relating to the conservatorship.

(3) In connection with any account, the court may require a conservator to submit to a physical check of the estate in his control, to be made in any manner the court may specify.

(4) Upon failure, as determined by the clerk of court, of the conservator to file an annual account, the court shall order the conservator to file the account and give good cause for his failure to file a timely account."

Approved April 5, 1983.

(1) "Action" in the sense of a judicial proceeding includes recoupment, counterclaim, setoff, suit in equity, and any other proceedings in which rights are determined.

(2) "Aggrieved party" means a party entitled to resort to a remedy.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 837 1983

(3) "Agreement" means the bargain of the parties in fact as found in their language or by implication from other circumstances, including course of dealing or usage of trade or course of performance as provided in this code (30-1-205 and 30-2-208). Whether an agreement has legal consequences is determined by the provisions of this code, if applicable; otherwise by the law of contracts (30-1-103).

(4) "Bank" means any person engaged in the business of banking.

(5) "Bearer" means the person in possession of an instrument, document of title, or certificated security payable to bearer or endorsed in blank.

(6) "Bill of lading" means a document evidencing the receipt of goods for shipment issued by a person engaged in the business of transporting or forwarding goods, and includes an airbill. "Airbill" means a document serving for air transportation as a bill of lading does for marine or rail transportation, and includes an air consignment note or air waybill.

(7) "Branch" includes a separately incorporated foreign branch of a bank.

(8) "Burden of establishing" a fact means the burden of persuading the triers of fact that the existence of the fact is more probable than its nonexistence.

(9) "Buyer in ordinary course of business" means a person who in good faith and without knowledge that the sale to him is in violation of the ownership rights or security interest of a third party in the goods buys in ordinary course from a person in the business of selling goods of that kind, but does not include a pawnbroker. All persons who sell minerals or the like (including oil and gas) at wellhead or minehead shall be considered to be persons in the business of selling goods of that kind. "Buying" may be for cash or by exchange of other property or on secured or unsecured credit and includes receiving goods or documents of title under a preexisting contract for sale but does not include a transfer in bulk or as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a money debt.

(10) "Conspicuous": A term or clause is conspicuous when it is so written that a reasonable person against whom it is to operate ought to have noticed it. A printed heading in capitals (as: Non-Negotiable Bill of Lading) is conspicuous. Language in the body of a form is "conspicuous" if it is in larger or other contrasting type or color. But in a telegram any stated term is "conspicuous". Whether a term or clause is "conspicuous" or not is for decision by the court.

(11) "Contract" means the total legal obligation which results from the parties' agreement as affected by this code and any other applicable rules of law.

(12) "Creditor" includes a general creditor, a secured creditor, a lien creditor and any representative of creditors, including an assignee for the benefit of creditors, a trustee in bankruptcy, a receiver in equity and an executor or administrator of an insolvent debtor's or assignor's estate.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 838 1983

(13) "Defendant" includes a person in the position of defendant in a cross-action or counterclaim.

(14) "Delivery" with respect to instruments, documents of title, chattel paper, or certificated securities means voluntary transfer of possession.

(15) "Document of title" includes bill of lading, dock warrant, dock receipt, warehouse receipt or order for the delivery of goods, and also any other document which in the regular course of business or financing is treated as adequately evidencing that the person in possession of it is entitled to receive, hold and dispose of the document and the goods it covers. To be a document of title a document must purport to be issued by or addressed to a bailee and purport to cover goods in the bailee's possession which are either identified or are fungible portions of an identified mass.

(16) "Fault" means wrongful act, omission or breach.

(17) "Fungible" with respect to goods or securities means goods or securities of which any unit is, by nature or usage of trade, the equivalent of any other like unit. Goods which are not fungible shall be deemed fungible for the purposes of this code to the extent that under a particular agreement or document unlike units are treated as equivalents.

(18) "Genuine" means free of forgery or counterfeiting.

(19) "Good faith" means honesty in fact in the conduct or transaction concerned.

(20) "Holder" means a person who is in possession of a document of title or an instrument or a certificated investment security drawn, issued, or endorsed to him or to his order or to bearer or in blank.

(21) To "honor" is to pay or to accept and pay, or where a credit so engages to purchase or discount a draft complying with the terms of the credit.

(22) "Insolvency proceedings" includes any assignment for the benefit of creditors or other proceedings intended to liquidate or rehabilitate the estate of the person involved.

(23) A person is "insolvent" who either has ceased to pay his debts in the ordinary course of business or cannot pay his debts as they become due or is insolvent within the meaning of the federal bankruptcy law.

(24) "Money" means a medium of exchange authorized or adopted by a domestic or foreign government as a part of its currency.

(25) A person has "notice" of a fact when:

(a) he has actual knowledge of it; or

(b) he has received a notice or notification of it; or

(c) from all the facts and circumstances known to him at the time in question he has reason to know that it exists. A person "knows" or has "knowledge" of a fact when he has actual knowledge of it. "Discover" or "learn" or a word or phrase of similar import refers to knowledge rather than to reason to know. The time and circumstances under which a notice or notification may cease to be effective are not determined by this code.

(26) A person "notifies" or "gives" a notice or notification to another by taking such steps as may be reasonably required to inform the other in ordinary course whether or not such other actually comes to know of it. A person "receives" a notice or notification when:

(a) it comes to his attention; or

(b) it is duly delivered at the place of business through which the contract was made or at any other place held out by him as the place for receipt of such communications.

(27) Notice, knowledge or a notice or notification received by an organization is effective for a particular transaction from the time when it is brought to the attention of the individual conducting that transaction, and in any event from the time when it would have been brought to his attention if the organization had exercised due diligence. An organization exercises due diligence if it maintains reasonable routines for communicating significant information to the person conducting the transaction and there is reasonable compliance with the routines. Due diligence does not require an individual acting for the organization to communicate information unless such communication is part of his regular duties or unless he has reason to know of the transaction and that the transaction would be materially affected by the information.

(28) "Organization" includes a corporation, government or governmental subdivision or agency, business trust, estate, trust, partnership or association, two or more persons having a joint or common interest, or any other legal or commercial entity.

(29) "Party" as distinct from "third party" means a person who has engaged in a transaction or made an agreement within this code.

(30) "Person" includes an individual or an organization.

(31) "Presumption" or "presumed" means that the trier of fact must find the existence of the fact presumed unless and until evidence is introduced which would support a finding of its nonexistence.

(32) "Purchase" includes taking by sale, discount, negotiation, mortgage, pledge, lien, issue or reissue, gift or any other voluntary transaction creating an interest in property.

(33) "Purchaser" means a person who takes by purchase.

(34) "Remedy" means any remedial right to which an aggrieved party is entitled with or without resort to a tribunal.

(35) "Representative" includes an agent, an officer of a corporation or association, and a trustee, executor or administrator of an estate, or any other person empowered to act for another.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 840 1983

(37) "Security interest" means an interest in personal property or fixtures which secures payment or performance of an obligation. The retention or reservation of title by a seller of goods notwithstanding shipment or delivery to the buyer (30-2-401) is limited in effect to a reservation of a "security interest". The term also includes any interest of a buyer of accounts or chattel paper which is subject to Chapter 9. The special property interest of a buyer of goods on identification of such goods to a contract for sale under 30-2-401 is not a "security interest", but a buyer may also acquire a "security interest" by complying with Chapter 9. Unless a lease or consignment is intended as security, reservation of title thereunder is not a "security interest", but a consignment is in any event subject to the provisions on consignment sales (30-2-326). Whether a lease is intended as security is to be determined by the facts of each case; however, (a) the inclusion of an option to purchase does not of itself make the lease one intended for security, and (b) an agreement that upon compliance with the terms of the lease the lessee shall become or has the option to become the owner of the property for no additional consideration or for a nominal consideration does make the lease one intended for security.

(38) "Send" in connection with any writing or notice means to deposit in the mail or deliver for transmission by any other usual means of communication with postage or cost of transmission provided for and properly addressed, and in the case of an instrument to an address specified thereon or otherwise agreed, or if there be none to any address reasonable under the circumstances. The receipt of any writing or notice within the time at which it would have arrived if properly sent has the effect of a proper sending.

(39) "Signed" includes any symbol executed or adopted by a party with present intention to authenticate a writing.

(40) "Surety" includes guarantor.

(41) "Telegram" includes a message transmitted by radio, teletype, cable, any mechanical method of transmission, or the like.

(42) "Term" means that portion of an agreement which relates to a particular matter.

(43) "Unauthorized" signature or endorsement means one made without actual, implied, or apparent authority and includes a forgery.

(44) "Value". Except as otherwise provided with respect to negotiable instruments and bank collections (30-3-303, 30-4-208, and 30-4-209), a person gives "value" for rights if he acquires them:

(a) in return for a binding commitment to extend credit or for the extension of immediately available credit whether or not drawn upon and whether or not a charge-back is provided for in the event of difficulties in collection; or

(b) as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a preexisting claim; or

(c) by accepting delivery pursuant to a preexisting contract for purchase; or

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 841 1983

(d) generally, in return for any consideration sufficient to support a simple contract.

(45) "Warehouse receipt" means a receipt issued by a person engaged in the business of storing goods for hire.

(46) "Written" or "writing" includes printing, typewriting, or any other intentional reduction to tangible form."

Section 3. Subordinated obligations. An obligation may be issued as subordinated to payment of another obligation of the person obligated, or a creditor may subordinate his right to payment of an obligation by agreement with either the person obligated or another creditor of the person obligated. Such a subordination does not create a security interest as against either the common debtor or a subordinated creditor. This section shall be construed as declaring the law as it existed prior to the enactment of this section and not as modifying it.

Section 4. Section 30-2-107, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-2-107. Goods to be severed from realty — recording. (1) A contract for the sale of minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or a structure or its materials to be removed from realty is a contract for the sale of goods within this chapter if they are to be severed by the seller, but until severance a purported present sale thereof which is not effective as a transfer of an interest in land is effective only as a contract to sell.

(2) A contract for the sale apart from the land of growing crops or other things attached to realty and capable of severance without material harm thereto but not described in subsection (1) or of timber to be cut is a contract for the sale of goods within this chapter whether the subject matter is to be severed by the buyer or by the seller even though it forms part of the realty at the time of contracting, and the parties can by identification effect a present sale before severance.

(3) The provisions of this section are subject to any third-party rights provided by the law relating to realty records, and the contract for sale may be executed and recorded as a document transferring an interest in land and shall then constitute notice to third parties of the buyer's rights under the contract for sale."

Section 5. Section 30-2-207, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-2-207. Additional terms in acceptance or confirmation. (1) A definite and seasonable expression of acceptance or a written confirmation which is sent within a reasonable time operates as an acceptance even though it states terms additional to or different from those offered or agreed upon, unless acceptance is expressly made conditional on assent to the additional or different terms.

(2) The additional or different terms are to be construed as proposals for addition to the contract. Between merchants such terms become part of the contract unless:

(a) the offer expressly limits acceptance to the terms of the offer;

(b) they materially alter it; or

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 842 1983

(c) notification of objection to them has already been given or is given within a reasonable time after notice of them is received.

(3) Conduct by both parties which recognizes the existence of a contract is sufficient to establish a contract for sale although the writings of the parties do not otherwise establish a contract. In such case the terms of the particular contract consist of those terms on which the writings of the parties agree, together with any supplementary terms incorporated under any other provisions of this code."

Section 6. Section 30-2-702, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-2-702. Seller's remedies on discovery of buyer's insolvency. (1) Where the seller discovers the buyer to be insolvent he may refuse delivery except for cash including payment for all goods theretofore delivered under the contract, and stop delivery under this chapter (30-2-705).

(2) Where the seller discovers that the buyer has received goods on credit while insolvent he may reclaim the goods upon demand made within 10 days after the receipt, but if misrepresentation of solvency has been made to the particular seller in writing within 3 months before delivery the 10-day limitation does not apply. Except as provided in this subsection the seller may not base a right to reclaim goods on the buyer's fraudulent or innocent misrepresentation of solvency or of intent to pay.

(3) The seller's right to reclaim under subsection (2) is subject to the rights of a buyer in ordinary course or other good faith purchaser under this chapter (30-2-403). Successful reclamation of goods excludes all other remedies with respect to them."

Section 7. Section 30-4-208, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-4-208. Security interest of collecting bank in items, accompanying documents, and proceeds. (1) A bank has a security interest in an item and any accompanying documents or the proceeds of either:

(a) in case of an item deposited in an account to the extent to which credit given for the item has been withdrawn or applied;

(b) in case of an item for which it has given credit available for withdrawal as of right, to the extent of the credit given whether or not the credit is drawn upon and whether or not there is a right of charge-back; or

(c) if it makes an advance on or against the item.

(2) When credit which has been given for several items received at one time or pursuant to a single agreement is withdrawn or applied in part the security interest remains upon all the items, any accompanying documents or the proceeds of either. For the purpose of this section, credits first given are first withdrawn.

(3) Receipt by a collecting bank of a final settlement for an item is a realization on its security interest in the item, accompanying documents and proceeds. To the extent and so long as the bank does not receive final settlement for the item or give up possession of the item or accompanying documents for purposes other than collection, the security interest continues and is subject to the provisions of Chapter 9 except that:

(a) no security agreement is necessary to make the security interest enforceable (30-9-203); and

(b) no filing is required to perfect the security interest; and

(c) the security interest has priority over conflicting perfected security interests in the item, accompanying documents or proceeds."

Section 8. Section 30-5-114, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-5-114. Issuer's duty and privilege to honor — right to reimbursement. (1) An issuer must honor a draft or demand for payment which complies with the terms of the relevant credit regardless of whether the goods or documents conform to the underlying contract for sale or other contract between the customer and the beneficiary. The issuer is not excused from honor of such a draft or demand by reason of an additional general term that all documents must be satisfactory to the issuer, but an issuer may require that specified documents must be satisfactory to it.

(2) Unless otherwise agreed when documents appear on their face to comply with the terms of a credit but a required document does not in fact conform to the warranties made on negotiation or transfer of a document of title (30-7-507) or of a certificated security (30-8-306) or is forged or fraudulent or there is fraud in the transaction:

(a) the issuer must honor the draft or demand for payment if honor is demanded by a negotiating bank or other holder of the draft or demand which has taken the draft or demand under the credit and under circumstances which would make it a holder in due course (30-3-302) and in an appropriate case would make it a person to whom a document of title has been duly negotiated (30-7-502) or a bona fide purchaser of a certificated security (30-8-302); and

(b) in all other cases as against its customer, an issuer acting in good faith may honor the draft or demand for payment despite notification from the customer of fraud, forgery or other defect not apparent on the face of the documents but a court of appropriate jurisdiction may enjoin such honor.

(3) Unless otherwise agreed an issuer which has duly honored a draft or demand for payment is entitled to immediate reimbursement of any payment made under the credit and to be put in effectively available funds not later than the day before maturity of any acceptance made under the credit."

Section 9. Section 30-5-116, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-5-116. Transfer and assignment. (1) The right to draw under a credit can be transferred or assigned only when the credit is expressly designated as transferable or assignable.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 844 1983

(2) Even though the credit specifically states that it is nontransferable or nonassignable the beneficiary may before performance of the conditions of the credit assign his right to proceeds. Such an assignment is an assignment of an account under Chapter 9 on Secured Transactions and is governed by that chapter except that:

(a) the assignment is ineffective until the letter of credit or advice of credit is delivered to the assignee which delivery constitutes perfection of the security interest under Chapter 9; and

(b) the issuer may honor drafts or demands for payment drawn under the credit until it receives a notification of the assignment signed by the beneficiary which reasonably identifies the credit involved in the assignment and contains a request to pay the assignee; and

(c) after what reasonably appears to be such a notification has been received the issuer may without dishonor refuse to accept or pay even to a person otherwise entitled to honor until the letter of credit or advice of credit is exhibited to the issuer.

(3) Except where the beneficiary has effectively assigned his right to draw or his right to proceeds, nothing in this section limits his right to transfer or negotiate drafts or demands drawn under the credit."

Section 10. Section 30-8-102, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-102. Definitions and index of definitions. (1) In this chapter unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) A "certificated security" is a share, participation, or other interest in property of or an enterprise of the issuer or an obligation of the issuer which is:

(i) represented by an instrument issued in bearer or registered form;

(ii) of a type commonly dealt in on securities exchanges or markets or commonly recognized in any area in which it is issued or dealt in as a medium for investment; and

(iii) either one of a class or series or by its terms is divisible into a class or series of shares, participations, interests, or obligations.

(b) An "uncertificated security" is a share, participation, or other interest in property or an enterprise of the issuer or an obligation of the issuer which is:

(i) not represented by an instrument and the transfer of which is registered upon books maintained for that purpose by or on behalf of the issuer;

(ii) of a type commonly dealt in on securities exchanges or markets; and

(iii) either one of a class or series or by its terms divisible into a class or series of shares, participations, interests, or obligations.

(c) A "security" is either a certificated or an uncertificated security. If a security is certificated, the terms "security" and "certificated security" may mean either the intangible interest, the instrument representing that interest, or both, as the context requires. A writing that is a certificated security is governed by this chapter and not by Title 30, chapter 3, even though it also meets the requirements of that chapter. This chapter does not apply to money. If a certificated security has been retained by or surrendered to the issuer or its transfer agent for reasons other than registration of transfer or another temporary purpose or payment, exchange, or acquisition by the issuer, that security shall be treated as an uncertificated security for purposes of this chapter.

(d) A certificated security is in "registered form" if:

(i) it specifies a person entitled to the security or to the rights it represents; and

(ii) its transfer may be registered upon books maintained for that purpose by or on behalf of the issuer, or the security so states.

(e) A certificated security is in "bearer form" if it runs to bearer according to its terms and not by reason of any endorsement.

(2) A "subsequent purchaser" is a person who takes other than by original issue.

(3) A "clearing corporation" is a corporation registered as a "clearing agency" under the federal securities laws or a corporation:

(a) at least 90% of whose capital stock is held by or for one or more organizations, none of which, other than a national securities exchange or association, holds in excess of 20% of the capital stock of the corporation and each of which is:

(i) subject to supervision or regulation pursuant to the provisions of federal or state banking laws or state insurance laws;

(ii) a broker, dealer, or investment company registered under the federal securities laws; or

(iii) a national securities exchange or association registered under the federal securities laws; and

(b) any remaining capital stock of which is held by individuals who have purchased it at or prior to the time of their taking office as directors of the corporation and who have purchased only so much of such capital stock as is necessary to permit them to qualify as directors.

(4) A "custodian bank" is a bank or trust company that is supervised and examined by state or federal authority having supervision over banks and is acting as custodian for a clearing corporation.

(5) Other definitions applying to this chapter or to specified parts thereof and the sections in which they appear are:

(6) In addition Chapter 1 contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this chapter."

Section 11. Section 30-8-103, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-103. Issuer's lien. A lien upon a security in favor of an issuer thereof is valid against a purchaser only if:

(1) the security is certificated and the right of the issuer to the lien is noted conspicuously thereon; or

(2) the security is uncertificated and a notation of the right of the issuer to the lien is contained in the initial transaction statement sent to the purchaser or, if his interest is transferred to him other than by registration of transfer, pledge, or release, in the initial transaction statement sent to the registered owner or the registered pledgee."

Section 12. Section 30-8-104, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-104. Effect of overissue — "overissue". (1) The provisions of this chapter which validate a security or compel its issue or reissue do not apply to the extent that validation, issue, or reissue would result in overissue; but if:

(a) an identical security which does not constitute an overissue is reasonably available for purchase, the person entitled to issue or validation may compel the issuer to purchase the security for him and either to deliver a certificated security or to register the transfer of an uncertificated security to him, against surrender of any certificated security he holds; or

(b) a security is not so available for purchase, the person entitled to issue or validation may recover from the issuer the price he or the last purchaser for value paid for it with interest from the date of his demand.

(2) "Overissue" means the issue of securities in excess of the amount which the issuer has corporate power to issue."

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 847 1983

Section 13. Section 30-8-105, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-105. Certificated securities negotiable — statements and instructions not negotiable — presumptions. (1) Certificated securities governed by this chapter are negotiable instruments.

(2) Statements [(section 53)], notices, or the like sent by the issuer of uncertificated securities and instructions (30-8-308) are neither negotiable instruments nor certificated securities.

(3) In any action on a security:

(a) unless specifically denied in the pleading, each signature on a certificated security, in a necessary endorsement, on an initial transaction statement, or on an instruction is admitted;

(b) if the effectiveness of a signature is put in issue, the burden of establishing it is on the party claiming under the signature but the signature is presumed to be genuine or authorized;

(c) if signatures on a certificated security are admitted or established, production of the security entitles a holder to recover on it unless the defendant establishes a defense or a defect going to the validity of the security;

(d) if signatures on an initial transaction statement are admitted or established, the facts stated in the statement are presumed to be true as of the time of its issuance; and

(e) after it is shown that a defense or defect exists, the plaintiff has the burden of establishing that he or some person under whom he claims is a person against whom the defense or defect is ineffective (30-8-202)."

Section 14. Section 30-8-106, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-106. Applicability. The law (including the conflict of laws rules) of the jurisdiction of organization of the issuer governs the validity of a security, the effectiveness of registration by the issuer, and the rights and duties of the issuer with respect to:

(1) registration of transfer of a certificated security;

(2) registration of transfer, pledge, or release of an uncertificated security; and

(3) sending of statements of uncertificated securities."

Section 15. Section 30-8-107, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-107. Securities transferable — action for price. (1) Unless otherwise agreed and subject to any applicable law or regulation respecting short sales, a person obligated to transfer securities may transfer any certificated security of the specified issue in bearer form or registered in the name of the transferee or endorsed to him or in blank or he may transfer an equivalent uncertificated security to the transferee or a person designated by the transferee.

(2) If the buyer fails to pay the price as it comes due under a contract of sale, the seller may recover the price of:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 848 1983

(a) certificated securities accepted by the buyer;

(b) uncertificated securities that have been transferred to the buyer or a person designated by the buyer; and

(c) other securities if efforts at their resale would be unduly burdensome or if there is no readily available market for their resale."

Section 16. Registration of pledge and release of uncertificated securities. A security interest in an uncertificated security may be evidenced by the registration of pledge to the secured party or a person designated by him. There can be no more than one registered pledge of an uncertificated security at any time. The registered owner of an uncertificated security is the person in whose name the security is registered, even if the security is subject to a registered pledge. The rights of a registered pledgee of an uncertificated security under [this chapter] are terminated by the registration of release.

Section 17. Section 30-8-201, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-201. "Issuer". (1) With respect to obligations on or defenses to a security, "issuer" includes a person who:

(a) places or authorizes the placing of his name on a certificated security (otherwise than as authenticating trustee, registrar, transfer agent, or the like) to evidence that it represents a share, participation, or other interest in his property or in an enterprise or to evidence his duty to perform an obligation represented by the certificated security;

(b) creates shares, participations, or other interests in his property or in an enterprise or undertakes obligations, which shares, participations, interests, or obligations are uncertificated securities;

(c) directly or indirectly creates fractional interests in his rights or property, which fractional interests are represented by certificated securities; or

(d) becomes responsible for or in place of any other person described as an issuer in this section.

(2) With respect to obligations on or defenses to a security, a guarantor is an issuer to the extent of his guaranty, whether or not his obligation is noted on a certificated security or on statements of uncertificated securities sent pursuant to [section 53].

(3) With respect to registration of transfer, pledge, or release (part 4 of this chapter), "issuer" means a person on whose behalf transfer books are maintained."

Section 18. Section 30-8-202, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-202. Issuer's responsibility and defenses — notice of defect or defense. (1) Even against a purchaser for value and without notice, the terms of a security include:

(a) if the security is certificated, those stated on the security;

(b) if the security is uncertificated, those contained in the initial transaction statement sent to such purchaser or, if his interest is transferred to him other than by registration of transfer, pledge, or release, the initial transaction statement sent to the registered pledgee; and

(c) those made part of the security by reference, on the certificated security or in the initial transaction statement, to another instrument, indenture, or document or to a constitution, statute, ordinance, rule, regulation, order, or the like, to the extent that the terms referred to do not conflict with the terms stated on the certificated security or contained in the statement. A reference under this subsection does not of itself charge a purchaser for value with notice of a defect going to the validity of the security, even though the certificated security or statement expressly states that a person accepting it admits notice.

(2) A certificated security in the hands of a purchaser for value or an uncertificated security as to which an initial transaction statement has been sent to a purchaser for value, other than a security issued by a government or governmental agency or unit, even though issued with a defect going to its validity, is valid with respect to the purchaser without notice of the particular defect unless the defect involves a violation of constitutional provisions, in which case the security is valid with respect to a subsequent purchaser for value and without notice of the defect. This subsection applies to an issuer that is a government or governmental agency or unit only if either there has been substantial compliance with the legal requirements governing the issue or the issuer has received a substantial consideration for the issue as a whole or for the particular security and a stated purpose of the issue is one for which the issuer has power to borrow money or issue the security.

(3) Except as provided in the case of certain unauthorized signatures (30-8-205), lack of genuineness of a certificated security or an initial transaction statement is a complete defense, even against a purchaser for value and without notice.

(4) All other defenses of the issuer of a certificated or uncertificated security, including nondelivery and conditional delivery of a certificated security, are ineffective against a purchaser for value who has taken without notice of the particular defense.

(5) Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect the right of a party to a "when, as and if issued" or a "when distributed" contract to cancel the contract in the event of a material change in the character of the security that is the subject of the contract or in the plan or arrangement pursuant to which the security is to be issued or distributed."

Section 19. Section 30-8-203, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-203. Staleness as notice of defects or defenses. (1) After an act or event creating a right to immediate performance of the principal obligation represented by a certificated security or that sets a date on or after which the security is to be presented or surrendered for redemption or exchange, a purchaser is charged with notice of any defect in its issue or defense of the issuer if:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 850 1983

(a) the act or event is one requiring the payment of money, the delivery of certificated securities, the registration of transfer of uncertificated securities, or any of those on presentation or surrender of the certificated security; the funds or securities are available on the date set for payment or exchange; and he takes the security more than 1 year after that date; and

(b) the act or event is not covered by subsection (1)(a) and he takes the security more than 2 years after the date set for surrender or presentation or the date on which performance became due.

(2) A call that has been revoked is not within subsection (1)."

Section 20. Section 30-8-204, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-204. Effect of issuer's restrictions on transfer. A restriction on transfer of a security imposed by the issuer, even though otherwise lawful, is ineffective against any person without actual knowledge of it unless:

(1) the security is certificated and the restriction is noted conspicuously thereon; or

(2) the security is uncertificated and a notation of the restriction is contained in the initial transaction statement sent to the person or, if his interest is transferred to him other than by registration of transfer, pledge, or release, in the initial transaction statement sent to the registered owner or the registered pledgee."

Section 21. Section 30-8-205, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-205. Effect of unauthorized signature on issue. An unauthorized signature placed on a certificated security prior to or in the course of issue or placed on an initial transaction statement is ineffective, but the signature is effective in favor of a purchaser for value of the certificated security or a purchaser for value of an uncertificated security to whom such initial transaction statement has been sent if the purchaser is without notice of the lack of authority and the signing has been done by:

(1) an authenticating trustee, registrar, transfer agent, or other person entrusted by the issuer with the signing of the security or of similar securities or the immediate preparation for signing of any of them; or

(2) an employee of the issuer or of any of the foregoing entrusted with responsible handling of the security or initial transaction statement."

Section 22. Section 30-8-206, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-206. Completion or alteration of certificated security or initial transaction statement. (1) If a certificated security contains the signatures necessary to its issue or transfer but is incomplete in any other respect:

(a) any person may complete it by filling in the blanks as authorized; and

(b) even though the blanks are incorrectly filled in, the security as completed is enforceable by a purchaser who took it for value and without notice of the incorrectness.

(2) A complete certificated security that has been improperly altered, even though fraudulently, remains enforceable but only according to its original terms.

(3) If an initial transaction statement contains the signatures necessary to its validity but is incomplete in any other respect:

(a) any person may complete it by filling in the blanks as authorized; and

(b) even though the blanks are incorrectly filled in, the statement as completed is effective in favor of the person to whom it is sent if he purchased the security referred to therein for value and without notice of the incorrectness.

(4) A complete initial transaction statement that has been improperly altered, even though fraudulently, is effective in favor of a purchaser to whom it has been sent, but only according to its original terms."

Section 23. Section 30-8-207, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-207. Rights and duties of issuer with respect to registered owners and registered pledgees. (1) Prior to due presentment for registration of transfer of a certificated security in registered form, the issuer or indenture trustee may treat the registered owner as the person exclusively entitled to vote, to receive notifications, and otherwise to exercise all the rights and powers of an owner.

(2) Subject to the provisions of subsections (3), (4), and (6), the issuer or indenture trustee may treat the registered owner of an uncertificated security as the person exclusively entitled to vote, receive notifications, and otherwise to exercise all the rights and powers of an owner.

(3) The registered owner of an uncertificated security that is subject to a registered pledge is not entitled to registration of transfer prior to due presentment to the issuer of a release instruction. The exercise of conversion rights with respect to a convertible uncertificated security is a transfer within the meaning of this section.

(4) Upon due presentment of a transfer instruction from the registered pledgee of an uncertificated security, the issuer shall:

(a) register the transfer of the security to the new owner free of pledge if the instruction specifies a new owner (who may be the registered pledgee) and does not specify a pledgee;

(b) register the transfer of the security to the new owner subject to the interest of the existing pledgee if the instruction specifies a new owner and the existing pledgee; or

(c) register the release of the security from the existing pledge and register the pledge of the security to the other pledgee if the instruction specifies the existing owner and another pledgee.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 852 1983

(5) Continuity of perfection of a security interest is not broken by registration of transfer under (4)(b) or by registration of release and pledge under (4)(c) if the security is assigned.

(6) If an uncertificated security is subject to a registered pledge:

(a) any uncertificated securities issued in exchange for or distributed with respect to the pledged security shall be registered subject to the pledge;

(b) any certificated securities issued in exchange for or distributed with respect to the pledged security shall be delivered to the registered pledgee; and

(c) any money paid in exchange for or in redemption of part or all of the security shall be paid to the registered pledgee.

(7) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to affect the liability of the registered owner of a security for calls, assessments, or the like."

Section 24. Section 30-8-208, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-208. Effect of signature of authenticating trustee, registrar, or transfer agent. (1) A person placing his signature upon a certificated security or an initial transaction statement as authenticating trustee, registrar, transfer agent, or the like warrants to a purchaser for value of the certificated security or a purchaser for value of an uncertificated security to whom the initial transaction statement has been sent, if the purchaser is without notice of the particular defect, that:

(a) the certificated security or initial transaction statement is genuine;

(b) his own participation in the issue or registration of the transfer, pledge, or release of the security is within his capacity and within the scope of the authority received by him from the issuer; and

(c) he has reasonable grounds to believe that the security is in the form and within the amount the issuer is authorized to issue.

(2) Unless otherwise agreed, a person by so placing his signature does not assume responsibility for the validity of the security in other respects."

Section 25. Section 30-8-301, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-301. Rights acquired by purchaser. (1) Upon transfer of a security to a purchaser (30-8-313), the purchaser acquires the rights in the security which his transferor had or had actual authority to convey unless the purchaser's rights are limited by 30-8-302(4).

(2) A transferee of a limited interest acquires rights only to the extent of the interest transferred. The creation or release of a security interest in a security is the transfer of a limited interest in that security."

Section 26. Section 30-8-302, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-302. "Bona fide purchaser" — "adverse claim" — title acquired by bona fide purchaser. (1) A "bona fide purchaser" is a purchaser for value in good faith and without notice of any adverse claim:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 853 1983

(a) who takes delivery of a certificated security in bearer form or registered form, issued or endorsed to him or in blank;

(b) to whom the transfer, pledge, or release of an uncertificated security is registered on the books of the issuer; or

(c) to whom a security is transferred under the provisions of subsections (1)(c), (1)(d)(i), or (1)(g) of 30-8-313.

(2) "Adverse claim" includes a claim that a transfer was or would be wrongful or that a particular adverse person is the owner of or has an interest in the security.

(3) A bona fide purchaser, in addition to acquiring the rights of a purchaser (30-8-301), also acquires his interest in the security free of any adverse claim.

(4) Notwithstanding 30-8-301(1), the transferee of a particular certificated security who has been a party to any fraud or illegality affecting the security or who as a prior holder of that certificated security had notice of an adverse claim cannot improve his position by taking from a bona fide purchaser."

Section 27. Section 30-8-303, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-303. "Broker". "Broker" means a person engaged for all or part of his time in the business of buying and selling securities, who in the transaction concerned acts for, buys a security from, or sells a security to a customer. Nothing in this chapter determines the capacity in which a person acts for purposes of any other statute or rule to which the person is subject."

Section 28. Section 30-8-304, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-304. Notice to purchaser of adverse claims. (1) A purchaser (including a broker for the seller or buyer but excluding an intermediary bank) of a certificated security is charged with notice of adverse claims if:

(a) the security, whether in bearer or registered form, has been endorsed "for collection" or "for surrender" or for some other purpose not involving transfer; or

(b) the security is in bearer form and has on it an unambiguous statement that it is the property of a person other than the transferor. The mere writing of a name on a security is not such a statement.

(2) A purchaser (including a broker for the seller or buyer but excluding an intermediary bank) to whom the transfer, pledge, or release of an uncertificated security is registered is charged with notice of adverse claims as to which the issuer has a duty under 30-8-403(4) at the time of registration and which are noted in the initial transaction statement sent to the purchaser or, if his interest is transferred to him other than by registration of transfer, pledge, or release, in the initial transaction statement sent to the registered owner or the registered pledgee.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 854 1983

(3) The fact that the purchaser (including a broker for the seller or buyer) of a certificated or uncertificated security has notice that the security is held for a third person or is registered in the name of or endorsed by a fiduciary does not create a duty of inquiry into the rightfulness of the transfer or constitute constructive notice of adverse claims. However, if the purchaser (excluding an intermediary bank) has knowledge that the proceeds are being used or that the transaction is for the individual benefit of the fiduciary or otherwise in breach of duty, the purchaser is charged with notice of adverse claims."

Section 29. Section 30-8-305, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-305. Staleness as notice of adverse claims. An act or event that creates a right to immediate performance of the principal obligation represented by a certificated security or sets a date on or after which a certificated security is to be presented or surrendered for redemption or exchange does not itself constitute any notice of adverse claims except in the case of a transfer:

(1) after 1 year from any date set for presentment or surrender for redemption or exchange; or

(2) after 6 months from any date set for payment of money against presentation or surrender of the security if funds are available for payment on that date."

Section 30. Section 30-8-306, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-306. Warranties on presentment and transfer of certificated securities — warranties of originators of instructions. (1) A person who presents a certificated security for registration of transfer or for payment or exchange warrants to the issuer that he is entitled to the registration, payment, or exchange. But, a purchaser for value without notice of adverse claims who receives a new, reissued, or reregistered certificated security on registration of transfer or receives an initial transaction statement confirming the registration of transfer of an equivalent uncertificated security to him warrants only that he has no knowledge of any unauthorized signature (30-8-311) in a necessary endorsement.

(2) A person by transferring a certificated security to a purchaser for value warrants only that:

(a) his transfer is effective and rightful;

(b) the security is genuine and has not been materially altered; and

(c) he knows of no fact which might impair the validity of the security.

(3) If a certificated security is delivered by an intermediary known to be entrusted with delivery of the security on behalf of another or with collection of a draft or other claim against delivery, the intermediary by delivery warrants only his own good faith and authority even though he has purchased or made advances against the claim to be collected against the delivery.

(4) A pledgee or other holder for security who redelivers a certificated security received, or after payment and on order of the debtor delivers that security to a third person, makes only the warranties of an intermediary under subsection (3).

(5) A person who originates an instruction warrants to the issuer that:

(a) he is an appropriate person to originate the instruction; and

(b) at the time the instruction is presented to the issuer, he will be entitled to the registration of transfer, pledge, or release.

(6) A person who originates an instruction warrants to any person specially guaranteeing his signature (30-8-312(3)) that:

(a) he is an appropriate person to originate the instruction; and

(b) at the time the instruction is presented to the issuer:

(i) he will be entitled to the registration of transfer, pledge, or release; and

(ii) the transfer, pledge, or release requested in the instructions will be registered by the issuer free from all liens, security interests, restrictions, and claims other than those specified in the instruction.

(7) A person who originates an instruction warrants to a purchaser for value and to any person guaranteeing the instruction (30-8-312(6)) that:

(a) he is an appropriate person to originate the instruction;

(b) the uncertificated security referred to therein is valid; and

(c) at the time the instruction is presented to the issuer:

(i) the transferor will be entitled to the registration of transfer, pledge, or release;

(ii) the transfer, pledge, or release requested in the instruction will be registered by the issuer free from all liens, security interests, restrictions, and claims other than those specified in the instruction; and

(iii) the requested transfer, pledge, or release will be rightful.

(8) If a secured party is the registered pledgee or the registered owner of an uncertificated security, a person who originates an instruction of release or transfer to the debtor or, after payment and on order of the debtor, a transfer instruction to a third person warrants to the debtor or the third person only that he is an appropriate person to originate the instruction and, at the time the instruction is presented to the issuer, the transferor will be entitled to the registration of release or transfer. If a transfer instruction to a third person who is a purchaser for value is originated on order of the debtor, the debtor makes to the purchaser the warranties of subsections (7)(b), (7)(c)(ii), and (7)(c)(iii).

(9) A person who transfers an uncertificated security to a purchaser for value and does not originate an instruction in connection with the transfer warrants only that:

(a) his transfer is effective and rightful; and

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 856 1983

(b) the uncertificated security is valid.

(10) A broker gives to his customer, the issuer, and a purchaser the applicable warranties provided in this section and has the rights and privileges of a purchaser under this section. The warranties of and in favor of the broker acting as an agent are in addition to applicable warranties given by and in favor of his customer."

Section 31. Section 30-8-307, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-307. Effect of delivery without endorsement — right to compel endorsement. If a certificated security in registered form has been delivered to a purchaser without a necessary endorsement, he may become a bona fide purchaser only as of the time the endorsement is supplied; but against the transferor, the transfer is complete upon delivery and the purchaser has a specifically enforceable right to have any necessary endorsement supplied."

Section 32. Section 30-8-308, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-308. Endorsements — instructions. (1) An endorsement of a certificated security in registered form is made when an appropriate person signs on it or on a separate document an assignment or transfer of the security or a power to assign or transfer it or his signature is written without more upon the back of the security.

(2) An endorsement may be in blank or special. An endorsement in blank includes an endorsement to bearer. A special endorsement specifies to whom the security is to be transferred or who has power to transfer it. A holder may convert a blank endorsement into a special endorsement.

(3) An endorsement purporting to be only of part of a certificated security representing units intended by the issuer to be separately transferable is effective to the extent of the endorsement.

(4) An "instruction" is an order to the issuer of an uncertificated security requesting that the transfer, pledge, or release from pledge of the uncertificated security specified therein be registered.

(5) An instruction originated by an appropriate person is:

(a) a writing signed by an appropriate person; or

(b) a communication to the issuer in any form agreed upon in a writing signed by the issuer and an appropriate person. If an instruction has been originated by an appropriate person but is incomplete in any other respect, any person may complete it as authorized and the issuer may rely on it as completed even though it has been completed incorrectly.

(6) "An appropriate person" in subsection (1) means the person specified by the certificated security or by special endorsement to be entitled to the security.

(7) An "appropriate person" in subsection (5) means:

(a) for an instruction to transfer or pledge an uncertificated security which is then not subject to a registered pledge, the registered owner; or

(b) for an instruction to transfer or release an uncertificated security which is then subject to a registered pledge, the registered pledgee.

(8) In addition to the persons designated in subsections (6) and (7), an "appropriate person" in subsections (1) and (5) includes:

(a) if the person designated is described as a fiduciary but is no longer serving in the described capacity, either that person or his successor;

(b) if the persons designated are described as more than one person as fiduciaries and one or more are no longer serving in the described capacity, the remaining fiduciary or fiduciaries, whether or not a successor has been appointed or qualified;

(c) if the person designated is an individual and is without capacity to act by virtue of death, incompetence, infancy, or otherwise, his executor, administrator, guardian, or like fiduciary;

(d) if the persons designated are described as more than one person as tenants by the entirety or with right of survivorship and by reason of death all cannot sign, the survivor or survivors;

(e) a person having power to sign under applicable law or controlling instrument; and

(f) to the extent that the person designated or any of the foregoing persons may act through an agent, his authorized agent.

(9) Unless otherwise agreed, the endorser of a certificated security by his endorsement or the originator of an instruction by his origination assumes no obligation that the security will be honored by the issuer but only the obligations provided in 30-8-306.

(10) Whether the person signing is appropriate is determined as of the date of signing, and an endorsement made or an instruction originated by him does not become unauthorized for the purposes of this chapter by virtue of any subsequent change of circumstances.

(11) Failure of a fiduciary to comply with a controlling instrument or with the law of the state having jurisdiction of the fiduciary relationship, including any law requiring the fiduciary to obtain court approval of the transfer, pledge, or release, does not render his endorsement or an instruction originated by him unauthorized for the purposes of this chapter."

Section 33. Section 30-8-309, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-309. Effect of endorsement without delivery. An endorsement of a certificated security, whether special or in blank, does not constitute a transfer until delivery of the security on which it appears or, if the endorsement is on a separate document, until delivery of both the document and the certificated security."

Section 34. Section 30-8-310, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-310. Endorsement of certificated security in bearer form. An endorsement of a certificated security in bearer form may give notice of adverse claims (30-8-304) but does not otherwise affect any right to registration the holder possesses."

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 858 1983

Section 35. Section 30-8-311, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-311. Effect of unauthorized endorsement or instruction. Unless the owner or pledgee has ratified an unauthorized endorsement or instruction or is otherwise precluded from asserting its ineffectiveness:

(1) he may assert its ineffectiveness against the issuer or any purchaser other than a purchaser for value and without notice of adverse claims who has in good faith received a new, reissued, or reregistered certificated security on registration of transfer or received an initial transaction statement confirming the registration of transfer, pledge, or release of an equivalent uncertificated security to him; and

(2) an issuer who registers the transfer of a certificated security upon the unauthorized endorsement or who registers the transfer, pledge, or release of an uncertificated security upon the unauthorized instruction is subject to liability for improper registration (30-8-404)."

Section 36. Section 30-8-312, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-312. Effect of guaranteeing signature, endorsement, or instruction. (1) Any person guaranteeing a signature of an endorser of a certificated security warrants that at the time of signing:

(a) the signature was genuine;

(b) the signer was an appropriate person to endorse (30-8-308); and

(c) the signer had legal capacity to sign.

(2) Any person guaranteeing a signature of the originator of an instruction warrants that at the time of signing:

(a) the signature was genuine;

(b) the signer was an appropriate person to originate the instruction (30-8-308) if the person specified in the instruction as the registered owner or registered pledgee of the uncertificated security was, in fact, the registered owner or registered pledgee of such security, as to which fact the signature guarantor makes no warranty;

(c) the signer had legal capacity to sign; and

(d) the taxpayer identification number, if any, appearing on the instruction as that of the registered owner or registered pledgee was the taxpayer identification number of the signer or of the owner or pledgee for whom the signer was acting.

(3) Any person specially guaranteeing the signature of the originator of an instruction makes not only the warranties of a signature guarantor (subsection (2)) but also warrants that at the time the instruction is presented to the issuer:

(a) the person specified in the instruction as the registered owner or registered pledgee of the uncertificated security will be the registered owner or registered pledgee; and

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 859 1983

(b) the transfer, pledge, or release of the uncertificated security requested in the instruction will be registered by the issuer free from all liens, security interests, restrictions, and claims other than those specified in the instruction.

(4) The guarantor under subsections (1) and (2) or the special guarantor under subsection (3) does not otherwise warrant the rightfulness of the particular transfer, pledge, or release.

(5) Any person guaranteeing an endorsement of a certificated security makes not only the warranties of a signature guarantor under subsection (1) but also warrants the rightfulness of the particular transfer in all respects.

(6) Any person guaranteeing an instruction requesting the transfer, pledge, or release of an uncertificated security makes not only the warranties of a special signature guarantor under subsection (3) but also warrants the rightfulness of the particular transfer, pledge, or release in all respects.

(7) No issuer may require a special guarantee of signature (subsection (3)), a guarantee of endorsement (subsection (5)), or a guarantee of instruction (subsection (6)) as a condition to registration of transfer, pledge, or release.

(8) The foregoing warranties are made to any person taking or dealing with the security in reliance on the guarantee, and the guarantor is liable to the person for any loss resulting from breach of the warranties."

Section 37. Section 30-8-313, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-313. When transfer to purchaser occurs — financial intermediary as bona fide purchaser — "financial intermediary". (1) Transfer of a security or limited interest (including a security interest) therein to a purchaser occurs only:

(a) at the time he or a person designated by him acquires possession of a certificated security;

(b) at the time the transfer, pledge, or release of an uncertificated security is registered to him or a person designated by him;

(c) at the time his financial intermediary acquires possession of a certificated security specially endorsed to or issued in the name of the purchaser;

(d) at the time a financial intermediary, not a clearing corporation, sends him confirmation of the purchase and also by book entry or otherwise identifies as belonging to the purchaser:

(i) a specific certificated security in the financial intermediary's possession;

(ii) a quantity of securities that constitute or are part of a fungible bulk of certificated securities in the financial intermediary's possession or of uncertificated securities registered in the name of the financial intermediary; or

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 860 1983

(iii) a quantity of securities that constitute or are part of a fungible bulk of securities shown on the account of the financial intermediary on the books of another financial intermediary;

(e) with respect to an identified certificated security to be delivered while still in the possession of a third person, not a financial intermediary, at the time that person acknowledges that he holds for the purchaser;

(f) with respect to a specific uncertificated security the pledge or transfer of which has been registered to a third person, not a financial intermediary, at the time that person acknowledges that he holds for the purchaser;

(g) at the time appropriate entries to the account of the purchaser or a person designated by him on the books of a clearing corporation are made under 30-8-320;

(h) with respect to the transfer of a security interest if the debtor has signed a security agreement containing a description of the security, at the time a written notification, which, in the case of the creation of the security interest, is signed by the debtor (which may be a copy of the security agreement) or which, in the case of the release or assignment of the security interest created pursuant to this paragraph, is signed by the secured party, is received by:

(i) a financial intermediary on whose books the interest of the transferor in the security appears;

(ii) a third person, not a financial intermediary, in possession of the security, if it is certificated;

(iii) a third person, not a financial intermediary, who is the registered owner of the security, if it is uncertificated and not subject to a registered pledge; or

(iv) a third person, not a financial intermediary, who is the registered pledgee of the security, if it is uncertificated and subject to a registered pledge;

(i) with respect to the transfer of a security interest if the transferor has signed a security agreement containing a description of the security at the time new value is given by the secured party; or

(j) with respect to the transfer of a security interest if the secured party is a financial intermediary and the security has already been transferred to the financial intermediary under (a), (b), (c), (d), or (g) of subsection (1) at the time the transferor has signed a security agreement containing a description of the security and value is given by a secured party.

(2) The purchaser is the owner of a security held for him by a financial intermediary, but cannot be a bona fide purchaser of a security so held except in the circumstances specified in (c), (d)(i), and (g) of subsection (1). If a security so held is part of a fungible bulk, as in the circumstances specified in (d)(ii) and (d)(iii) of subsection (1), the purchaser is the owner of a proportionate property interest in the fungible bulk.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 861 1983

(3) Notice of an adverse claim received by the financial intermediary or by the purchaser after the financial intermediary takes delivery of a certificated security as a holder for value or after the transfer, pledge, or release of an uncertificated security has been registered free of the claim to a financial intermediary who has given value is not effective either as to the financial intermediary or as to the purchaser. However, as between the financial intermediary and the purchaser, the purchaser may demand transfer of an equivalent security as to which no notice of adverse claim has been received.

(4) A "financial intermediary" is a bank, broker, clearing corporation, or other person (or the nominee of any of them) which in the ordinary course of its business maintains security accounts for its customers and is acting in that capacity. A financial intermediary may have a security interest in securities held in account for its customer."

Section 38. Section 30-8-314, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-314. Duty to transfer — when completed. (1) Unless otherwise agreed, if a sale of a security is made on an exchange or otherwise through brokers:

(a) the selling customer fulfills his duty to transfer at the time he:

(i) places a certificated security in the possession of the selling broker or of a person designated by the broker;

(ii) causes an uncertificated security to be registered in the name of the selling broker or a person designated by the broker;

(iii) if requested causes an acknowledgment to be made to the selling broker that a certificated or uncertificated security is held for the broker; or

(iv) places in the possession of the selling broker or of a person designated by the broker a transfer instruction for an uncertificated security, providing the issuer does not refuse to register the requested transfer if the instruction is presented to the issuer for registration within 30 days thereafter; and

(b) the selling broker, including a correspondent broker acting for a selling customer, fulfills his duty to transfer at the time he:

(i) places a certificated security in the possession of the buying broker or a person designated by the buying broker;

(ii) causes an uncertificated security to be registered in the name of the buying broker or a person designated by the buying broker;

(iii) places in the possession of the buying broker or of a person designated by the buying broker a transfer instruction for an uncertificated security, providing the issuer does not refuse to register the requested transfer if the instruction is presented to the issuer for registration within 30 days thereafter; or

(iv) effects clearance of the sale in accordance with the rules of the exchange on which the transaction took place.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 862 1983

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this section and unless otherwise agreed, a transferor's duty to transfer a security under a contract of purchase is not fulfilled until he:

(a) places a certificated security in form to be negotiated by the purchaser in the possession of the purchaser or of a person designated by the purchaser;

(b) causes an uncertificated security to be registered in the name of the purchaser or a person designated by the purchaser; or

(c) if the purchaser requests, causes an acknowledgment to be made to the purchaser that a certificated or uncertificated security is held for the purchaser.

(3) Unless made on an exchange, a sale to a broker purchasing for his own account is within subsection (2) and not within subsection (1)."

Section 39. Section 30-8-315, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-315. Action against transferee based upon wrongful transfer. (1) Any person against whom the transfer of a security is wrongful for any reason, including his incapacity, as against anyone except a bona fide purchaser, may:

(a) reclaim possession of the certificated security wrongfully transferred;

(b) obtain possession of any new certificated security representing all or part of the same rights;

(c) compel the origination of an instruction to transfer to him or a person designated by him an uncertificated security constituting all or part of the same rights; or

(2) If the transfer is wrongful because of an unauthorized endorsement of a certificated security, the owner may also reclaim or obtain possession of the security or a new certificated security even from a bona fide purchaser if the ineffectiveness of the purported endorsement can be asserted against him under the provisions of this chapter on unauthorized endorsements (30-8-311).

(3) The right to obtain or reclaim possession of a certificated security or to compel the origination of a transfer instruction may be specifically enforced, the transfer of a certificated or uncertificated security enjoined, and a certificated security impounded pending the litigation."

Section 40. Section 30-8-316, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-316. Purchaser's right to requisites for registration of transfer, pledge, or release on books. Unless otherwise agreed, the transferor of a certificated security or the transferor, pledgor, or pledgee of an uncertificated security on due demand must supply his purchaser with any proof of his authority to transfer, pledge, or release or with any other requisite necessary to obtain registration of the transfer, pledge, or release of the security; but if the transfer, pledge, or release is not for value, a transferor, pledgor, or pledgee need not do so unless the purchaser furnishes the necessary expenses. Failure within a reasonable time to comply with a demand made gives the purchaser the right to reject or rescind the transfer, pledge, or release."

Section 41. Section 30-8-317, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-317. Creditor's rights. (1) Subject to the exceptions in subsections (3) and (4), no attachment or levy upon a certificated security or any share or other interest represented thereby which is outstanding is valid until the security is actually seized by the officer making the attachment or levy, but a certificated security which has been surrendered to the issuer may be reached by a creditor by legal process at the issuer's chief executive office in the United States.

(2) An uncertificated security registered in the name of the debtor may not be reached by a creditor except by legal process at the issuer's chief executive office in the United States.

(3) The interest of a debtor in a certificated security that is in the possession of a secured party not a financial intermediary or in an uncertificated security registered in the name of a secured party not a financial intermediary (or in the name of a nominee of the secured party) may be reached by a creditor by legal process upon the secured party.

(4) The interest of a debtor in a certificated security that is in the possession of or registered in the name of a financial intermediary or in an uncertificated security registered in the name of a financial intermediary may be reached by a creditor by legal process upon the financial intermediary on whose books the interest of the debtor appears.

(5) Unless otherwise provided by law, a creditor's lien upon the interest of a debtor in a security obtained pursuant to subsection (3) or (4) is not a restraint on the transfer of the security, free of the lien, to a third party for new value; but in the event of a transfer, the lien applies to the proceeds of the transfer in the hands of the secured party or financial intermediary, subject to any claims having priority.

(6) A creditor whose debtor is the owner of a security is entitled to aid from courts of appropriate jurisdiction, by injunction or otherwise, in reaching the security or in satisfying the claim by means allowed at law or in equity in regard to property that cannot readily be reached by ordinary legal process."

Section 42. Section 30-8-318, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-318. No conversion by good faith conduct. An agent or bailee who in good faith (including observance of reasonable commercial standards if he is in the business of buying, selling, or otherwise dealing with securities) has received certificated securities and sold, pledged, or delivered them or has sold or caused the transfer or pledge of uncertificated securities over which he had control according to the instructions of his principal is not liable for conversion or for participation in breach of fiduciary duty although the principal had no right so to deal with the securities."

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 864 1983

Section 43. Section 30-8-319, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-319. Statute of frauds. A contract for the sale of securities is not enforceable by way of action or defense unless:

(1) there is some writing signed by the party against whom enforcement is sought or by his authorized agent or broker sufficient to indicate that a contract has been made for sale of a stated quantity of described securities at a defined or stated price;

(2) delivery of a certificated security or transfer instruction has been accepted, or transfer of an uncertificated security has been registered and the transferee has failed to send written objection to the issuer within 10 days after receipt of the initial transaction statement confirming the registration, or payment has been made, but the contract is enforceable under this provision only to the extent of the delivery, registration, or payment;

(3) within a reasonable time a writing in confirmation of the sale or purchase and sufficient against the sender under paragraph (a) has been received by the party against whom enforcement is sought and he has failed to send written objection to its contents within 10 days after its receipt; or

(4) the party against whom enforcement is sought admits in his pleading, testimony, or otherwise in court that a contract was made for the sale of a stated quantity of described securities at a defined or stated price."

Section 44. Section 30-8-320, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-320. Transfer or pledge within central depository system. (1) In addition to other methods, a transfer, pledge, or release of a security or any interest therein may be effected by the making of appropriate entries on the books of a clearing corporation, reducing the account of the transferor, pledgor, or pledgee and increasing the account of the transferee, pledgee, or pledgor by the amount of the obligation or the number of shares or rights transferred, pledged, or released if the security is shown on the account of a transferor, pledgor, or pledgee on the books of the clearing corporation and is subject to the control of the clearing corporation; and:

(a) if certificated:

(i) is in the custody of the clearing corporation, another clearing corporation, a custodian bank, or a nominee of any of them; and

(ii) is in bearer form or endorsed in blank by an appropriate person or registered in the name of the clearing corporation, a custodian bank, or a nominee of any of them; or

(b) if uncertificated, is registered in the name of the clearing corporation, another clearing corporation, a custodian bank, or a nominee of any of them.

(2) Under this section entries may be made with respect to like securities or interests therein as a part of a fungible bulk and may refer merely to a quantity of a particular security without reference to the name of the registered owner, certificate or bond number, or the like and, in appropriate cases, may be on a net basis, taking into account other transfers, pledges, or releases of the same security.

(3) A transfer under this section is effective (30-8-313), and the purchaser acquires the rights of the transferor (30-8-301). A pledge or release under this section is the transfer of a limited interest. If a pledge or the creation of a security interest is intended, the security interest is perfected at the time when both value is given by the pledgee and the appropriate entries are made [(section 45)]. A transferee or pledgee under this section may be a bona fide purchaser (30-8-302).

(4) A transfer or pledge under this section is not a registration of transfer under part 4.

(5) That entries made on the books of the clearing corporation as provided in subsection (1) are not appropriate does not affect the validity or effect of the entries or the liabilities or obligations of the clearing corporation to any person adversely affected thereby.

(6) Under this section a clearing corporation shall, upon written request, furnish to any issuer within a reasonable time a list disclosing the names of all persons who have securities of the issuer in their account with a depository and including a statement of the principal amount or number of units of each such security of the issuer on deposit. The clearing corporation may charge the issuer a fee for such written list, but the fee shall bear a reasonable relation to the cost of furnishing such list."

Section 45. Enforceability, attachment, perfection, and termination of security interests. (1) A security interest in a security is enforceable and can attach only if it is transferred to the secured party or a person designated by him pursuant to a provision of 30-8-313(1).

(2) A security interest so transferred pursuant to agreement by a transferor who has rights in the security to a transferee who has given value is a perfected security interest, but a security interest that has been transferred solely under 30-8-313(1)(i) becomes unperfected after 21 days unless within that time the requirements for transfer under any other provision of 30-8-313(1) are satisfied.

(3) A security interest in a security is subject to the provisions of chapter 9, but no filing is required to perfect the security interest and no written security agreement signed by the debtor is necessary to make the security interest enforceable, except as otherwise provided in subsections (1)(h), (1)(i), or (1)(j) of 30-8-313. The secured party has the rights and duties provided under 30-9-207, to the extent they are applicable, whether or not the security is certificated, and, if certificated, whether or not it is in his possession.

(4) Unless otherwise agreed, a security interest in a security is terminated by transfer to the debtor or a person designated by him pursuant to a provision of 30-8-313(1). If a security is thus transferred, the security interest, if not terminated, becomes unperfected unless the security is certificated and is delivered to the debtor for the purpose of ultimate sale or exchange or presentation, collection, renewal, or registration of transfer. In that case, the security interest becomes unperfected after 21 days unless within that time the security (or securities for which it has been exchanged) is transferred to the secured party or a person designated by him pursuant to a provision of 30-8-313(1).

Section 46. Section 30-8-401, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-401. Duty of issuer to register transfer, pledge, or release. (1) If a certificated security in registered form is presented to the issuer with a request to register transfer or an instruction is presented to the issuer with a request to register transfer, pledge, or release, the issuer shall register the transfer, pledge, or release as requested if:

(a) the security is endorsed or the instruction was originated by the appropriate person or persons (30-8-308);

(b) reasonable assurance is given that those endorsements or instructions are genuine and effective (30-8-402);

(c) the issuer has no duty as to adverse claims or has discharged the duty (30-8-403);

(d) any applicable law relating to the collection of taxes has been complied with; and

(e) the transfer, pledge, or release is in fact rightful or is to a bona fide purchaser.

(2) If an issuer is under a duty to register a transfer, pledge, or release of a security, the issuer is also liable to the person presenting a certificated security or an instruction for registration or his principal for loss resulting from any unreasonable delay in registration or from failure or refusal to register the transfer, pledge, or release."

Section 47. Section 30-8-402, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-402. Assurance that endorsements and instructions are effective. (1) The issuer may require the following assurance that each necessary endorsement of a certificated security or each instruction (30-8-308) is genuine and effective:

(a) in all cases, a guarantee of the signature (30-8-312 (1) or (2)) of the person endorsing a certificated security or originating an instruction, including, in the case of an instruction, a warranty of the taxpayer identification number or, in the absence thereof, other reasonable assurance of identity;

(b) if the endorsement is made or the instruction is originated by an agent, appropriate assurance of authority to sign;

(c) if the endorsement is made or the instruction is originated by a fiduciary, appropriate evidence of appointment or incumbency;

(d) if there is more than one fiduciary, reasonable assurance that all who are required to sign have done so; and

(e) if the endorsement is made or the instruction is originated by a person not covered by any of the foregoing, assurance appropriate to the case corresponding as nearly as may be to the foregoing.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 867 1983

(2) A "guarantee of the signature" in subsection (1) means a guarantee signed by or on behalf of a person reasonably believed by the issuer to be responsible. The issuer may adopt standards with respect to responsibility if they are not manifestly unreasonable.

(3) "Appropriate evidence of appointment or incumbency" in subsection (1) means:

(a) in the case of a fiduciary appointed or qualified by a court, a certificate issued by or under the direction or supervision of that court or an officer thereof and dated within 180 days before the date of presentation for transfer, pledge, or release; or

(b) in any other case, a copy of a document showing the appointment or a certificate issued by or on behalf of a person reasonably believed by the issuer to be responsible or, in the absence of that document or certificate, other evidence reasonably deemed by the issuer to be appropriate. The issuer may adopt standards with respect to the evidence if they are not manifestly unreasonable. The issuer is not charged with notice of the contents of any document obtained pursuant to this paragraph (b) except to the extent that the contents relate directly to the appointment or incumbency.

(4) The issuer may elect to require reasonable assurance beyond that specified in this section, but if it does so and, for a purpose other than that specified in subsection (3)(b), both requires and obtains a copy of a will, trust, indenture, articles of copartnership, bylaws, or other controlling instrument, it is charged with notice of all matters contained therein affecting the transfer, pledge, or release."

Section 48. Section 30-8-403, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-403. Issuer's duty as to adverse claims. (1) An issuer to whom a certificated security is presented for registration shall inquire into adverse claims if:

(a) a written notification of an adverse claim is received at a time and in a manner affording the issuer a reasonable opportunity to act on it prior to the issuance of a new, reissued, or reregistered certificated security, and the notification identifies the claimant, the registered owner, and the issue of which the security is a part and provides an address for communications directed to the claimant; or

(b) the issuer is charged with notice of an adverse claim from a controlling instrument it has elected to require under 30-8-402*(4)*.

(2) The issuer may discharge any duty of inquiry by any reasonable means, including notifying an adverse claimant by registered or certified mail at the address furnished by him or if there be no such address at his residence or regular place of business that the certificated security has been presented for registration of transfer by a named person, and that the transfer will be registered unless within 30 days from the date of mailing the notification, either:

(a) an appropriate restraining order, injunction or other process issues from a court of competent jurisdiction; or

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 868 1983

(b) there is filed with the issuer an indemnity bond, sufficient in the issuer's judgment to protect the issuer and any transfer agent, registrar, or other agent of the issuer involved from any loss it or they may suffer by complying with the adverse claim.

(3) Unless an issuer is charged with notice of an adverse claim from a controlling instrument which it has elected to require under 30-8-402*(4)* or receives notification of an adverse claim under subsection (1) of this section, if a certificated security presented for registration is endorsed by the appropriate person or persons the issuer is under no duty to inquire into adverse claims. In particular:

(a) an issuer registering a certificated security in the name of a person who is a fiduciary or who is described as a fiduciary is not bound to inquire into the existence, extent, or correct description of the fiduciary relationship, and thereafter the issuer may assume without inquiry that the newly registered owner continues to be the fiduciary until the issuer receives written notice that the fiduciary is no longer acting as such with respect to the particular security;

(b) an issuer registering transfer on an endorsement by a fiduciary is not bound to inquire whether the transfer is made in compliance with a controlling instrument or with the law of the state having jurisdiction of the fiduciary relationship, including any law requiring the fiduciary to obtain court approval of the transfer; and

(c) the issuer is not charged with notice of the contents of any court record or file or other recorded or unrecorded document even though the document is in its possession and even though the transfer is made on the endorsement of a fiduciary to the fiduciary himself or to his nominee.

(4) An issuer is under no duty as to adverse claims with respect to an uncertificated security except:

(a) claims embodied in a restraining order, injunction, or other legal process served upon the issuer if the process was served at a time and in a manner affording the issuer a reasonable opportunity to act on it in accordance with the requirements of subsection (5);

(b) claims of which the issuer has received a written notification from the registered owner or the registered pledgee if the notification was received at a time and in a manner affording the issuer a reasonable opportunity to act on it in accordance with the requirements of subsection (5);

(c) claims (including restrictions on transfer not imposed by the issuer) to which the registration of transfer to the present registered owner was subject and were so noted in the initial transaction statement sent to him; and

(d) claims as to which an issuer is charged with notice from a controlling instrument it has elected to require under 30-8-402(4).

(5) If the issuer of an uncertificated security is under a duty as to an adverse claim, he discharges that duty by:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 869 1983

(a) including a notation of the claim in any statements sent with respect to the security under [section 53(3), (6), and (7)]; and

(b) refusing to register the transfer or pledge of the security unless the nature of the claim does not preclude transfer or pledge subject thereto.

(6) If the transfer or pledge of the security is registered subject to an adverse claim, a notation of the claim must be included in the initial transaction statement and all subsequent statements sent to the transferee and pledgee under [section 53].

(7) Notwithstanding subsections (4) and (5), if an uncertificated security was subject to a registered pledge at the time the issuer first came under a duty as to a particular adverse claim, the issuer has no duty as to that claim if transfer of the security is requested by the registered pledgee or an appropriate person acting for the registered pledgee unless:

(a) the claim was embodied in legal process which expressly provides otherwise;

(b) the claim was asserted in a written notification from the registered pledgee;

(c) the claim was one as to which the issuer was charged with notice from a controlling instrument it required under 30-8-402(4) in connection with the pledgee's request for transfer; or

(d) the transfer requested is to the registered owner."

Section 49. Section 30-8-404, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-404. Liability and nonliability for registration. (1) Except as otherwise provided in any law relating to the collection of taxes, the issuer is not liable to the owner, pledgee, or any other person suffering loss as a result of the registration of a transfer, pledge, or release of a security if:

(a) there were on or with a certificated security the necessary endorsements or the issuer had received an instruction originated by an appropriate person (30-8-308); and

(b) the issuer had no duty as to adverse claims or has discharged the duty (30-8-403).

(2) If an issuer has registered a transfer of a certificated security to a person not entitled to it, the issuer on demand shall deliver a like security to the true owner unless:

(a) the registration was pursuant to subsection (1);

(b) the owner is precluded from asserting any claim for registering the transfer under 30-8-405(1); or

(c) the delivery would result in overissue, in which case the issuer's liability is governed by 30-8-104.

(3) If an issuer has improperly registered a transfer, pledge, or release of an uncertificated security, the issuer on demand from the injured party shall restore the records as to the injured party to the condition that would have obtained if the improper registration had not been made unless:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 870 1983

(a) the registration was pursuant to subsection (1); or

(b) the registration would result in overissue, in which case the issuer's liability is governed by 30-8-104."

Section 50. Section 30-8-405, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-405. Lost, destroyed, and stolen certificated securities. (1) If a security has been lost, apparently destroyed, or wrongfully taken, and the owner fails to notify the issuer of that fact within a reasonable time after he has notice of it and the issuer registers a transfer of the security before receiving notification, the owner is precluded from asserting against the issuer any claim for registering the transfer under 30-8-404 or any claim to a new security under this section.

(2) If the owner of a certificated security claims that the security has been lost, destroyed, or wrongfully taken, the issuer shall issue a new certificated security or, at the option of the issuer, an equivalent uncertificated security in place of the original security if the owner:

(a) so requests before the issuer has notice that the security has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser;

(b) files with the issuer a sufficient indemnity bond; and

(c) satisfies any other reasonable requirements imposed by the issuer.

(3) If, after the issue of a new certificated or uncertificated security, a bona fide purchaser of the original certificated security presents it for registration of transfer, the issuer shall register the transfer unless registration would result in overissue, in which event the issuer's liability is governed by 30-8-104. In addition to any rights on the indemnity bond, the issuer may recover the new certificated security from the person to whom it was issued or any person taking under him except a bona fide purchaser or may cancel the uncertificated security unless a bona fide purchaser or any person taking under a bona fide purchaser is then the registered owner or registered pledgee thereof."

Section 51. Section 30-8-406, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-8-406. Duty of authenticating trustee, transfer agent, or registrar. (1) If a person acts as authenticating trustee, transfer agent, registrar, or other agent for an issuer in the registration of transfers of its certificated securities or in the registration of transfers, pledges, and releases of its uncertificated securities, in the issue of new securities, or in the cancellation of surrendered securities:

(a) he is under a duty to the issuer to exercise good faith and due diligence in performing his functions; and

(b) with regard to the particular functions he performs, he has the same obligation to the holder or owner of a certificated security or to the owner or pledgee of an uncertificated security and has the same rights and privileges as the issuer has in regard to those functions.

(2) Notice to an authenticating trustee, transfer agent, registrar, or other agent is notice to the issuer with respect to the functions performed by the agent."

Section 52. Exchangeability of securities. (1) No issuer is subject to the requirements of this section unless it regularly maintains a system for issuing the class of securities involved under which both certificated and uncertificated securities are regularly issued to the category of owners, which includes the person in whose name the new security is to be registered.

(2) Upon surrender of a certificated security with all necessary endorsements and presentation of a written request by the person surrendering the security, the issuer, if he has no duty as to adverse claims or has discharged the duty (30-8-403), shall issue to the person or a person designated by him an equivalent uncertificated security subject to all liens, restrictions, and claims that were noted on the certificated security.

(3) Upon receipt of a transfer instruction originated by an appropriate person who so requests, the issuer of an uncertificated security shall cancel the uncertificated security and issue an equivalent certificated security on which must be noted conspicuously any liens and restrictions of the issuer and any adverse claims (as to which the issuer has a duty under 30-8-403(4)) to which the uncertificated security was subject. The certificated security shall be registered in the name of and delivered to:

(a) the registered owner, if the uncertificated security was not subject to a registered pledge; or

(b) the registered pledgee, if the uncertificated security was subject to a registered pledge.

Section 53. Statements of uncertificated securities. (1) Within 2 business days after the transfer of an uncertificated security has been registered, the issuer shall send to the new registered owner and, if the security has been transferred subject to a registered pledge, to the registered pledgee a written statement containing:

(a) a description of the issue of which the uncertificated security is a part;

(b) the number of shares or units transferred;

(c) the name and address and any taxpayer identification number of the new registered owner and, if the security has been transferred subject to a registered pledge, the name and address and any taxpayer identification number of the registered pledgee;

(d) a notation of any liens and restrictions of the issuer and any adverse claims (as to which the issuer has a duty under 30-8-403(4)) to which the uncertificated security is or may be subject at the time of registration or a statement that there are none of those liens, restrictions, or adverse claims; and

(e) the date the transfer was registered.

(2) Within 2 business days after the pledge of an uncertificated security has been registered, the issuer shall send to the registered owner and the registered pledgee a written statement containing:

(a) a description of the issue of which the uncertificated security is a part;

(b) the number of shares or units pledged;

(c) the name and address and any taxpayer identification number of the registered owner and the registered pledgee;

(d) a notation of any liens and restrictions of the issuer and any adverse claims (as to which the issuer has a duty under 30-8-403(4)) to which the uncertificated security is or may be subject at the time of registration or a statement that there are none of those liens, restrictions, or adverse claims; and

(e) the date the pledge was registered.

(3) Within 2 business days after the release from pledge of an uncertificated security has been registered, the issuer shall send to the registered owner and the pledgee whose interest was released a written statement containing:

(a) a description of the issue of which the uncertificated security is a part;

(b) the number of shares or units released from pledge;

(c) the name and address and any taxpayer identification number of the registered owner and the pledgee whose interest was released;

(d) a notation of any liens and restrictions of the issuer and any adverse claims (as to which the issuer has a duty under 30-8-403(4)) to which the uncertificated security is or may be subject at the time of registration or a statement that there are none of those liens, restrictions, or adverse claims; and

(e) the date the release was registered.

(4) An "initial transaction statement" is the statement sent to the new registered owner and, if applicable, to the registered pledgee pursuant to subsection (1), the registered pledgee pursuant to subsection (2), or the registered owner pursuant to subsection (3). Each initial transaction statement shall be signed by or on behalf of the issuer and must be identified as "Initial Transaction Statement".

(5) Within 2 business days after the transfer of an uncertificated security has been registered, the issuer shall send to the former registered owner and the former registered pledgee, if any, a written statement containing:

(a) a description of the issue of which the uncertificated security is a part;

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 873 1983

(b) the number of shares or units transferred;

(c) the name and address and any taxpayer identification number of the former registered owner and of any former registered pledgee; and

(d) the date the transfer was registered.

(6) At periodic intervals no less frequent than annually and at any time upon the reasonable written request of the registered owner, the issuer shall send to the registered owner of each uncertificated security a dated written statement containing:

(a) a description of the issue of which the uncertificated security is a part;

(b) the name and address and any taxpayer identification number of the registered owner;

(c) the number of shares or units of the uncertificated security registered in the name of the registered owner on the date of the statement;

(d) the name and address and any taxpayer identification number of any registered pledgee and the number of shares or units subject to the pledge; and

(e) a notation of any liens and restrictions of the issuer and any adverse claims (as to which the issuer has a duty under 30-8-403(4)) to which the uncertificated security is or may be subject or a statement that there are none of those liens, restrictions, or adverse claims.

(7) At periodic intervals no less frequent than annually and at any time upon the reasonable written request of the registered pledgee, the issuer shall send to the registered pledgee of each uncertificated security a dated written statement containing:

(a) a description of the issue of which the uncertificated security is a part;

(b) the name and address and any taxpayer identification number of the registered owner;

(c) the name and address and any taxpayer identification number of the registered pledgee;

(d) the number of shares or units subject to the pledge; and

(e) a notation of any liens and restrictions of the issuer and any adverse claims (as to which the issuer has a duty under 30-8-403(4)) to which the uncertificated security is or may be subject or a statement that there are none of those liens, restrictions, or adverse claims.

(8) If the issuer sends the statements described in subsections (6) and (7) at periodic intervals no less frequent than quarterly, the issuer is not obliged to send additional statements upon request unless the owner or pledgee requesting them pays to the issuer the reasonable cost of furnishing them.

(9) Each statement sent pursuant to this section must bear a conspicuous legend reading substantially as follows: "This statement is merely a record of the rights of the addressee as of the time of its issuance. Delivery of this statement, of itself, confers no rights on the recipient. This statement is neither a negotiable instrument nor a security."

Section 54. Section 30-9-102, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-9-102. Policy and subject matter of chapter. (1) Except as otherwise provided in 30-9-104 on excluded transactions, this chapter applies:

(a) to any transaction (regardless of its form) which is intended to create a security interest in personal property or fixtures, including goods, documents, instruments, general intangibles, chattel paper, or accounts; and also

(b) to any sale of accounts or chattel paper.

(2) This chapter applies to security interests created by contract, including pledge, assignment, chattel mortgage, chattel trust, trust deed, factor's lien, equipment trust, conditional sale, trust receipt, other lien or title retention contract and lease or consignment intended as security. This chapter does not apply to statutory liens except as provided in 30-9-310.

(3) The application of this chapter to a security interest in a secured obligation is not affected by the fact that the obligation is itself secured by a transaction or interest to which this chapter does not apply."

Section 55. Section 30-9-103, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-9-103. Perfection of security interests in multiple state transactions. (1) (a) Subsection (1) applies to documents and instruments and to goods other than those covered by a certificate of title described in subsection (2), mobile goods described in subsection (3), and minerals described in subsection (5).

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (1), perfection and the effect of perfection or nonperfection of a security interest in collateral are governed by the law of the jurisdiction where the collateral is when the last event occurs on which is based the assertion that the security interest is perfected or unperfected.

(c) If the parties to a transaction creating a purchase money security interest in goods in one jurisdiction understand at the time that the security interest attaches that the goods will be kept in another jurisdiction, then the law of the other jurisdiction governs the perfection and the effect of perfection or nonperfection of the security interest from the time it attaches until 30 days after the debtor receives possession of the goods and thereafter if the goods are taken to the other jurisdiction before the end of the 30-day period.

(d) When collateral is brought into and kept in this state while subject to a security interest perfected under the law of the jurisdiction from which the collateral was removed, the security interest remains perfected, but if action is required by part 3 of this chapter to perfect the security interest:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 875 1983

(i) if the action is not taken before the expiration of the period of perfection in the other jurisdiction or the end of 4 months after the collateral is brought into this state, whichever period first expires, the security interest becomes unperfected at the end of that period and is thereafter considered to have been unperfected as against a person who became a purchaser after removal;

(ii) if the action is taken before the expiration of the period specified in (1)(d)(i), the security interest continues perfected thereafter;

(iii) for the purpose of priority over a buyer of consumer goods (30-9-307(2)), the period of the effectiveness of a filing in the jurisdiction from which the collateral is removed is governed by the rules with respect to perfection in (1)(d)(i) and (ii).

(2) (a) Subsection (2) applies to goods covered by a certificate of title issued under a statute of this state or of another jurisdiction under the law of which indication of a security interest on the certificate is required as a condition of perfection.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2), perfection and the effect of perfection or nonperfection of the security interest are governed by the law (including the conflict of laws rules) of the jurisdiction issuing the certificate until 4 months after the goods are removed from that jurisdiction and thereafter until the goods are registered in another jurisdiction, but in any event not beyond surrender of the certificate. After the expiration of that period, the goods are not covered by the certificate of title within the meaning of this section.

(c) Except with respect to the rights of a buyer described in (2)(d), a security interest, perfected in another jurisdiction otherwise than by notation on a certificate of title, in goods brought into this state and thereafter covered by a certificate of title issued by this state is subject to the rules stated in (1)(d).

(d) If goods are brought into this state while a security interest therein is perfected in any manner under the law of the jurisdiction from which the goods are removed and a certificate of title is issued by this state and the certificate does not show that the goods are subject to the security interest or that they may be subject to security interests not shown on the certificate, the security interest is subordinate to the rights of a buyer of the goods who is not in the business of selling goods of that kind to the extent that he gives value and receives delivery of the goods after issuance of the certificate and without knowledge of the security interest.

(3) (a) Subsection (3) applies to accounts (other than an account described in subsection (5) on minerals) and general intangibles (other than uncertificated securities) and to goods which are mobile and which are of a type normally used in more than one jurisdiction, such as motor vehicles, trailers, rolling stock, airplanes, shipping containers, road building and construction machinery, and commercial harvesting machinery, and the like, if the goods are equipment or are inventory leased or held for lease by the debtor to others and are not covered by a certificate of title described in subsection (2).

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 876 1983

(b) The law (including the conflict of laws rules) of the jurisdiction in which the debtor is located governs the perfection and the effect of perfection or nonperfection of the security interest.

(c) If, however, the debtor is located in a jurisdiction which is not a part of the United States and which does not provide for perfection of the security interest by filing or recording in that jurisdiction, the law of the jurisdiction in the United States in which the debtor has its major executive office in the United States governs the perfection and the effect of perfection or nonperfection of the security interest through filing. In the alternative, if the debtor is located in a jurisdiction which is not a part of the United States or Canada and the collateral is accounts or general intangibles for money due or to become due, the security interest may be perfected by notification to the account debtor. As used in subsection (3)(c), "United States" includes its territories and possessions and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

(d) A debtor shall be considered located at his place of business if he has one, at his chief executive office if he has more than one place of business, otherwise at his residence. If, however, the debtor is a foreign air carrier under the Federal Aviation Act, it shall be considered located at the designated office of the agent upon whom service of process may be made on behalf of the foreign air carrier.

(e) A security interest perfected under the law of the jurisdiction of the location of the debtor is perfected until the expiration of 4 months after a change of the debtor's location to another jurisdiction or until perfection would have ceased by the law of the first jurisdiction, whichever period first expires. Unless perfected in the new jurisdiction before the end of that period, it becomes unperfected thereafter and is considered to have been unperfected as against a person who became a purchaser after the change.

(4) The rules stated for goods in subsection (1) apply to a possessory security interest in chattel paper. The rules stated for accounts in subsection (3) apply to a nonpossessory security interest in chattel paper, but the security interest may not be perfected by notification to the account debtor.

(5) Perfection and the effect of perfection or nonperfection of a security interest which is created by a debtor who has an interest in minerals or the like (including oil and gas) before extraction and which attaches thereto as extracted or which attaches to an account resulting from the sale thereof at the wellhead or minehead are governed by the law (including the conflict of laws rules) of the jurisdiction wherein the wellhead or minehead is located.

(6) The law (including the conflict of laws rules) of the jurisdiction of organization of the issuer governs the perfection and the effect of perfection or nonperfection of a security interest in uncertificated securities."

Section 56. Section 30-9-104, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-9-104. Transactions excluded from chapter. This chapter does not apply:

(1) to a security interest subject to any statute of the United States such as the Ship Mortgage Act, 1920, to the extent that such statute governs the rights of parties to and third parties affected by transactions in particular types of property;

(2) to a landlord's lien;

(3) to a lien given by statute or other rule of law for services or materials except as provided in 30-9-310 on priority of such liens;

(4) to a transfer of a claim for wages, salary, or other compensation of an employee;

(5) to a transfer by a government or governmental subdivision or agency;

(6) to a sale of accounts or chattel paper as part of a sale of the business out of which they arose, or an assignment of accounts or chattel paper which is for the purpose of collection only, or a transfer of a right to payment under a contract to an assignee who is also to do the performance under the contract, or a transfer of a single account to an assignee in whole or partial satisfaction of a preexisting indebtedness;

(7) to a transfer of an interest or claim in or under any policy of insurance, except as provided with respect to proceeds (30-9-306) and priorities in proceeds (30-9-312);

(8) to a right represented by a judgment (other than a judgment taken on a right to payment which was collateral);

(9) to any right of setoff;

(10) except to the extent that provision is made for fixtures in 30-9-313, to the creation or transfer of an interest in or lien on real estate, including a lease or rents thereunder;

(11) to a transfer in whole or in part of any claim arising out of tort; or

(12) to a transfer of an interest in any deposit account (30-9-105(1)), except as provided with respect to proceeds (30-9-306) and priorities in proceeds (30-9-312)."

Section 57. Section 30-9-105, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-9-105. Definitions and index of definitions. (1) In this chapter, the following definitions apply unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Account debtor" means the person who is obligated on an account, chattel paper, or general intangible.

(b) "Chattel paper" means a writing or writings which evidence both a monetary obligation and a security interest in or a lease of specific goods, but a charter or other contract involving the use or hire of a vessel is not chattel paper. When a transaction is evidenced both by such a security agreement or a lease and by an instrument or a series of instruments, the group of writings taken together constitutes chattel paper.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 878 1983

(c) "Collateral" means the property subject to a security interest, and includes accounts and chattel paper which have been sold.

(d) "Debtor" means the person who owes payment or other performance of the obligation secured, whether or not he owns or has rights in the collateral, and includes the seller of accounts or chattel paper. When the debtor and the owner of the collateral are not the same person, the term "debtor" means the owner of the collateral in any provision of the chapter dealing with the collateral, the obligor in any provision dealing with the obligation, and may include both where the context so requires.

(e) "Deposit account" means a demand, time, savings, passbook, or like account maintained with a bank, savings and loan association, credit union, or like organization, other than an account evidenced by a certificate of deposit.

(f) "Document" means document of title as defined in *the general definitions of chapter 1 (30-1-201) and a receipt of the kind described in 30-7-201(2).*

(g) "Encumbrance" includes real estate mortgages and other liens on real estate and all other rights in real estate that are not ownership interests.

(h) "Goods" includes all things which are movable at the time the security interest attaches or which are fixtures (30-9-313), but does not include money, documents, instruments, accounts, chattel paper, general intangibles, or minerals or the like (including oil and gas) before extraction. "Goods" also includes standing timber that is to be cut and removed under a conveyance or contract for sale, the unborn young of animals, and growing crops.

(i) "Instrument" means a negotiable instrument (defined in 30-3-104), or a certificated security (defined in 30-8-102) or any other writing which evidences a right to the payment of money and is not itself a security agreement or lease and is of a type which is in ordinary course of business transferred by delivery with any necessary endorsement or assignment.

(j) "Mortgage" means a consensual interest created by a real estate mortgage, a trust deed on real estate, or the like.

(k) An advance is made "pursuant to commitment" if the secured party has bound himself to make it, whether or not a subsequent event of default or other event not within his control has relieved or may relieve him from his obligation.

(l) "Security agreement" means an agreement which creates or provides for a security interest.

(m) "Secured party" means a lender, seller, or other person in whose favor there is a security interest, including a person to whom accounts or chattel paper have been sold. When the holders of obligations issued under an indenture of trust, equipment trust agreement, or the like are represented by a trustee or other person, the representative is the secured party.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 879 1983

(n) "Transmitting utility" means any person primarily engaged in the railroad, street railway, or trolley bus business; the electric or electronics communications transmission business; the transmission of goods by pipeline; or the transmission or the production and transmission of electricity, steam, gas, or water or the provision of sewer service.

Section 58. Section 30-9-106, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-9-106. Definitions — "account" — "general intangibles". "Account" means any right to payment for goods sold or leased or for services rendered which is not evidenced by an instrument or chattel paper, whether or not it has been earned by performance. "General intangibles" means any personal property (including things in action) other than goods, accounts, chattel paper, documents, instruments, and money. All rights to payment earned or unearned under a charter or other contract involving the use or hire of a vessel and all rights incident to the charter or contract are accounts."

Section 59. Consignment. (1) A person who delivers goods under a consignment which is not a security interest and who would be required to file under this chapter by 30-2-326(3)(c) has priority over a secured party who is or becomes a creditor of the consignee and who would have a perfected security interest in the goods if they were the property of the consignee, and also has priority with respect to identifiable cash proceeds received on or before delivery of the goods to a buyer, if:

(a) the consignor complies with the filing provision of the Chapter on Sales with respect to consignments (30-2-326(3)(c)) before the consignee receives possession of the goods;

(b) the consignor gives notification in writing to the holder of the security interest if the holder has filed a financing statement covering the same types of goods before the date of the filing made by the consignor;

(c) the holder of the security interest receives the notification within 5 years before the consignee receives possession of the goods; and

(d) the notification states that the consignor expects to deliver goods on consignment to the consignee, describing the goods by item or type.

(2) In the case of a consignment which is not a security interest and in which the requirements of subsection (1) have not been met, a person who delivers goods to another is subordinate to a person who would have a perfected security interest in the goods if they were the property of the debtor.

Section 60. Section 30-9-203, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-9-203. Attachment and enforceability of security interest — proceeds, formal requisites. (1) Subject to the provisions of 30-4-208 on the security interest of a collecting bank, [section 45] on security interests in securities, and 30-9-113 on a security interest arising under the Chapter on Sales, a security interest is not enforceable against the debtor or third parties with respect to the collateral and does not attach unless:

(a) the collateral is in the possession of the secured party pursuant to agreement or the debtor has signed a security agreement which contains a description of the collateral and in addition, when the security interest covers crops growing or to be grown or timber to be cut, a description of the land concerned;

(b) value has been given; and

(c) the debtor has rights in the collateral.

(2) A security interest attaches when it becomes enforceable against the debtor with respect to the collateral. Attachment occurs as soon as all of the events specified in subsection (1) have taken place unless explicit agreement postpones the time of attaching.

(3) Unless otherwise agreed a security agreement gives the secured party the rights to proceeds provided by 30-9-306.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 881 1983

(4) A transaction, although subject to this chapter, is also subject to Title 32, chapter 5, as enacted by Chapter 283, Laws of Montana 1959, to Title 31, chapter 1, part 2, as enacted by Chapter 282, Laws of Montana 1959, and to 81-8-301 through 81-8-305, Title 61, chapter 3, Title 16, chapters 1 through 6, and Title 31, chapter 1, part 4, as amended, and in the case of conflict between the provisions of this chapter and any such statute, the provisions of such statute control. Failure to comply with any applicable statute has only the effect which is specified therein."

Section 61. Section 30-9-204, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-9-204. After-acquired property — future advances. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) a security agreement may provide that any or all obligations covered by the security agreement are to be secured by after-acquired collateral.

(2) No security interest attaches under an after-acquired property clause to consumer goods other than accessions (30-9-314) when given as additional security unless the debtor acquires rights in them within 10 days after the secured party gives value.

(3) Obligations covered by a security agreement may include future advances or other value whether or not the advances or value are given pursuant to commitment (30-9-105(1))."

Section 62. Section 30-9-205, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-9-205. Use or disposition of collateral without accounting permissible. A security interest is not invalid or fraudulent against creditors by reason of liberty in the debtor to use, commingle, or dispose of all or part of the collateral (including returned or repossessed goods) or to collect or compromise accounts or chattel paper, or to accept the return of goods or make repossessions, or to use, commingle, or dispose of proceeds, or by reason of the failure of the secured party to require the debtor to account for proceeds or replace collateral. This section does not relax the requirements of possession where perfection of a security interest depends upon possession of the collateral by the secured party or by a bailee."

Section 63. Section 30-9-301, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-9-301. Persons who take priority over unperfected security interests — right of "lien creditor". (1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2), an unperfected security interest is subordinate to the rights of:

(a) persons entitled to priority under 30-9-312;

(b) a person who becomes a lien creditor before the security interest is perfected;

(c) in the case of goods, instruments, documents, and chattel paper, a person who is not a secured party and who is a transferee in bulk or other buyer not in ordinary course of business or is a buyer of farm products in ordinary course of business, to the extent that he gives value and receives delivery of the collateral without knowledge of the security interest and before it is perfected;

(d) in the case of accounts and general intangibles, a person who is not a secured party and who is a transferee to the extent that he gives value without knowledge of the security interest and before it is perfected.

(2) If the secured party files with respect to a purchase money security interest before or within 10 days after the debtor receives possession of the collateral, he takes priority over the rights of a transferee in bulk or of a lien creditor which arise between the time the security interest attaches and the time of filing.

(3) A "lien creditor" means a creditor who has acquired a lien on the property involved by attachment, levy, or the like and includes an assignee for benefit of creditors from the time of assignment and a trustee in bankruptcy from the date of the filing of the petition or a receiver in equity from the time of appointment.

(4) A person who becomes a lien creditor while a security interest is perfected takes subject to the security interest only to the extent that it secures advances made before he becomes a lien creditor or within 45 days thereafter or made without knowledge of the lien or pursuant to a commitment entered into without knowledge of the lien."

Section 64. Section 30-9-302, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-9-302. When filing is required to perfect security interest — security interests to which filing provisions of this chapter do not apply. (1) A financing statement must be filed to perfect all security interests except the following:

(a) a security interest in collateral in possession of the secured party under 30-9-305;

(b) a security interest temporarily perfected in instruments or documents without delivery under 30-9-304 or in proceeds for a 10-day period under 30-9-306;

(c) a security interest created by an assignment of a beneficial interest in a trust or a decedent's estate;

(d) a purchase money security interest in consumer goods; but filing is required for a motor vehicle required to be registered, and fixture filing is required for priority over conflicting interests in fixtures to the extent provided in 30-9-313;

(e) an assignment of accounts which does not alone or in conjunction with other assignments to the same assignee transfer a significant part of the outstanding accounts of the assignor;

(f) a security interest of a collecting bank (30-4-208), in securities [(section 45)], or arising under the Chapter on Sales or covered in subsection (3) of this section;

(g) an assignment for the benefit of all creditors of the transferor, and subsequent transfers by the assignee thereunder.

(2) If a secured party assigns a perfected security interest, no filing under this chapter is required in order to continue the perfected status of the security interest against creditors of and transferees from the original debtor.

(3) The filing of a financing statement otherwise required by this chapter is not necessary or effective to perfect a security interest in property subject to:

(a) a statute or treaty of the United States which provides for a national or international registration or a national or international certificate of title or which specifies a place of filing different from that specified in this chapter for filing of the security interest; or

(b) the following statutes of this state: Title 61, chapter 3; Title 23, chapter 2, parts 5 and 6; but during any period in which collateral is inventory held for sale by a person who is in the business of selling goods of that kind, the filing provisions of this chapter (part 4) apply to a security interest in that collateral created by him as debtor; or

(c) a certificate of title statute of another jurisdiction under the law of which indication of a security interest on the certificate is required as a condition of perfection (30-9-103(2)).

(4) Compliance with a statute or treaty described in subsection (3) is equivalent to the filing of a financing statement under this chapter, and a security interest in property subject to the statute or treaty can be perfected only by compliance therewith except as provided in 30-9-103 on multiple state transactions. Duration and renewal of perfection of a security interest perfected by compliance with the statute or treaty are governed by the provisions of the statute or treaty; in other respects the security interest is subject to this chapter."

Section 65. Section 30-9-304, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-9-304. Perfection of security interest in instruments, documents, and goods covered by documents — perfection by permissive filing — temporary perfection without filing or transfer of possession. (1) A security interest in chattel paper or negotiable documents may be perfected by filing. A security interest in money or instruments (other than certificated securities or instruments which constitute part of chattel paper) can be perfected only by the secured party's taking possession, except as provided in subsections (4) and (5) of this section and subsections (2) and (3) of 30-9-306 on proceeds.

(2) During the period that goods are in the possession of the issuer of a negotiable document therefor, a security interest in the goods is perfected by perfecting a security interest in the document, and any security interest in the goods otherwise perfected during such period is subject thereto.

(3) A security interest in goods in the possession of a bailee other than one who has issued a negotiable document therefor is perfected by issuance of a document in the name of the secured party or by the bailee's receipt of notification of the secured party's interest or by filing as to the goods.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 884 1983

(4) A security interest in instruments (other than certificated securities) or negotiable documents is perfected without filing or the taking of possession for a period of 21 days from the time it attaches to the extent that it arises for new value given under a written security agreement.

(5) A security interest remains perfected for a period of 21 days without filing where a secured party having a perfected security interest in an instrument (other than a certificated security), a negotiable document, or goods in possession of a bailee other than one who has issued a negotiable document therefor:

(a) makes available to the debtor the goods or documents representing the goods for the purpose of ultimate sale or exchange or for the purpose of loading, unloading, storing, shipping, transshipping, manufacturing, processing, or otherwise dealing with them in a manner preliminary to their sale or exchange; but priority between conflicting security interests in the goods is subject to 30-9-312(3); or

(b) delivers the instrument to the debtor for the purpose of ultimate sale or exchange or of presentation, collection, renewal or registration of transfer.

(6) After the 21-day period in subsections (4) and (5), perfection depends upon compliance with applicable provisions of this chapter."

Section 66. Section 30-9-305, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-9-305. When possession by secured party perfects security interest without filing. A security interest in letters of credit and advices of credit (subsection 30-5-116*(2)(a)*), goods, instruments (other than certificated securities), money, negotiable documents, or chattel paper may be perfected by the secured party's taking possession of the collateral. If such collateral other than goods covered by a negotiable document is held by a bailee, the secured party is deemed to have possession from the time the bailee receives notification of the secured party's interest. A security interest is perfected by possession from the time possession is taken without relation back and continues only so long as possession is retained, unless otherwise specified in this chapter. The security interest may be otherwise perfected as provided in this chapter before or after the period of possession by the secured party."

Section 67. Section 30-9-306, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-9-306. "Proceeds" — secured party's rights on disposition of collateral. (1) "Proceeds" includes whatever is received upon the sale, exchange, collection, or other disposition of collateral or proceeds. Insurance payable by reason of loss or damage to the collateral is proceeds, except to the extent that it is payable to a person other than a party to the security agreement. Money, checks, deposit accounts, and the like are "cash proceeds". All other proceeds are "noncash proceeds".

(2) Except where this chapter otherwise provides, a security interest continues in collateral notwithstanding sale, exchange, or other disposition thereof unless the disposition was authorized by the secured party in the security agreement or otherwise, and also continues in any identifiable proceeds including collections received by the debtor.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 885 1983

(3) (a) The security interest in proceeds is a continuously perfected security interest if the interest in the original collateral was perfected, but it ceases to be a perfected security interest and becomes unperfected 10 days after receipt of the proceeds by the debtor unless:

(i) a filed financing statement covers the original collateral and the proceeds are collateral in which a security interest may be perfected by filing in the office or offices where the financing statement has been filed and, if the proceeds are acquired with cash proceeds, the description of collateral in the financing statement indicates the types of property constituting the proceeds;

(ii) a filed financing statement covers the original collateral and the proceeds are identifiable cash proceeds; or

(iii) the security interest in the proceeds is perfected before the expiration of the 10-day period.

(b) Except as provided in this section, a security interest in proceeds can be perfected only by the methods or under the circumstances permitted in this chapter for original collateral of the same type.

(4) In the event of insolvency proceedings instituted by or against a debtor, a secured party with a perfected security interest in proceeds has a perfected security interest only in the following proceeds:

(a) in identifiable noncash proceeds and in separate deposit accounts containing only proceeds;

(b) in identifiable cash proceeds in the form of money which is neither commingled with other money nor deposited in a deposit account prior to the insolvency proceedings;

(c) in identifiable cash proceeds in the form of checks and the like which are not deposited in a deposit account prior to the insolvency proceedings; and

(d) in all cash and deposit accounts of the debtor in which proceeds have been commingled with other funds, but the perfected security interest under this paragraph (d) is:

(i) subject to any right of setoff; and

(ii) limited to an amount not greater than the amount of any cash proceeds received by the debtor within 10 days before the institution of the insolvency proceedings less the sum of:

(A) the payments to the secured party on account of cash proceeds received by the debtor during such period; and

(B) the cash proceeds received by the debtor during such period to which the secured party is entitled under (4)(a) through (4)(c).

(5) If a sale of goods results in an account or chattel paper which is transferred by the seller to a secured party, and if the goods are returned to or are repossessed by the seller or the secured party, the following rules determine priorities:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 886 1983

(a) If the goods were collateral at the time of sale for an indebtedness of the seller which is still unpaid, the original security interest attaches again to the goods and continues as a perfected security interest if it was perfected at the time when the goods were sold. If the security interest was originally perfected by a filing which is still effective, nothing further is required to continue the perfected status; in any other case, the secured party must take possession of the returned or repossessed goods or must file.

(b) An unpaid transferee of the chattel paper has a security interest in the goods against the transferor. Such security interest is prior to a security interest asserted under paragraph (a) to the extent that the transferee of the chattel paper was entitled to priority under 30-9-308.

(c) An unpaid transferee of the account has a security interest in the goods against the transferor. Such security interest is subordinate to a security interest asserted under paragraph (a).

(d) A security interest of an unpaid transferee asserted under paragraph (b) or (c) must be perfected for protection against creditors of the transferor and purchasers of the returned or repossessed goods."

Section 68. Section 30-9-308, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-9-308. Purchase of chattel paper and instruments. A purchaser of chattel paper or an instrument who gives new value and takes possession of it in the ordinary course of his business has priority over a security interest in the chattel paper or instrument:

(1) which is perfected under 30-9-304 (permissive filing and temporary perfection) or under 30-9-306 (perfection as to proceeds) if he acts without knowledge that the specific paper or instrument is subject to a security interest; or

(2) which is claimed merely as proceeds of inventory subject to a security interest (30-9-306), even though he knows that the specific paper is subject to the security interest."

Section 69. Section 30-9-309, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-9-309. Protection of purchasers of instruments, documents, and securities. Nothing in this chapter limits the rights of a holder in due course of a negotiable instrument (30-3-302) or a holder to whom a negotiable document of title has been duly negotiated (30-7-501) or a bona fide purchaser of a security (30-8-302), and such holders or purchasers take priority over an earlier security interest even though perfected. Filing under this chapter does not constitute notice of the security interest to such holders or purchasers."

Section 70. Section 30-9-312, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-9-312. Priorities among conflicting security interests in the same collateral. (1) The rules of priority stated in other sections of this part and in the following sections shall govern where applicable: 30-4-208 with respect to the security interest of collecting banks in items being collected, accompanying documents, and proceeds; 30-9-103 on security interests related to other jurisdictions; and [section 59] on consignments.

(2) A perfected security interest in crops for new value given to enable the debtor to produce the crops during the production season and given not more than 3 months before the crops become growing crops by planting or otherwise takes priority over an earlier perfected security interest to the extent that such earlier interest secures obligations due more than 6 months before the crops become growing crops by planting or otherwise, even though the person giving new value had knowledge of the earlier security interest.

(3) A perfected purchase money security interest in inventory has priority over a conflicting security interest in the same inventory and also has priority in identifiable cash proceeds received on or before the delivery of the inventory to a buyer if:

(a) the purchase money security interest is perfected at the time the debtor receives possession of the inventory; and

(b) the purchase money secured party gives notification in writing to the holder of the conflicting security interest if the holder had filed a financing statement covering the same types of inventory:

(i) before the date of the filing made by the purchase money secured party; or

(ii) before the beginning of the 21-day period if the purchase money security interest is temporarily perfected without filing or possession (30-9-304(5)); and

(c) the holder of the conflicting security interest receives notification within 5 years before the debtor receives possession of the inventory; and

(d) the notification states that the person giving the notice has or expects to acquire a purchase money security interest in inventory of the debtor, describing such inventory by item or type.

(4) A purchase money security interest in collateral other than inventory has priority over a conflicting security interest in the same collateral or its proceeds if the purchase money security interest is perfected at the time the debtor receives possession of the collateral or within 10 days thereafter.

(5) In all cases not governed by other rules stated in this section (including cases of purchase money security interests which do not qualify for the special priorities set forth in subsections (3) and (4) of this section), priority between conflicting security interests in the same collateral shall be determined according to the following rules:

(a) Conflicting security interests rank according to priority in the time of filing or perfection. Priority dates from the time a filing is first made covering the collateral or the time the security interest is first perfected, whichever is earlier, provided that there is no period thereafter when there is neither filing nor perfection.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 888 1983

(b) So long as conflicting security interests are unperfected, the first to attach has priority.

(6) For the purposes of subsection (5), a date of filing or perfection as to collateral is also a date of filing as to proceeds.

(7) If future advances are made while a security interest is perfected by filing, the taking of possession, or under [section 45] on securities, the security interest has the same priority for the purposes of subsection (5) with respect to the future advances as it does with respect to the first advance. If a commitment is made before or while the security interest is so perfected, the security interest has the same priority with respect to advances made pursuant thereto. In other cases a perfected security interest has priority from the date the advance is made."

Section 71. Section 30-9-313, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-9-313. Priority of security interests in fixtures. (1) In this section and in the provisions of part 4 of this chapter referring to fixture filing, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) goods are "fixtures" when they become so related to particular real estate that an interest in them arises under real estate law*;*

(b) a "fixture filing" is the filing in the office where a mortgage on the real estate would be filed or recorded of a financing statement covering goods that are or are to become fixtures and conforming to the requirements of 30-9-402(5);

(c) a mortgage is a "construction mortgage" to the extent that it secures an obligation incurred for the construction of an improvement on land including the acquisition cost of the land, if the recorded writing so indicates.

(2) A security interest under this chapter may be created in goods that are fixtures or may continue in goods that become fixtures, but no security interest exists under this chapter in ordinary building materials incorporated into an improvement on land.

(3) This chapter does not prevent creation of an encumbrance upon fixtures pursuant to real estate law.

(4) A perfected security interest in fixtures has priority over the conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of real estate if:

(a) the security interest is a purchase money security interest, the interest of the encumbrancer or owner arises before the goods become fixtures, the security interest is perfected by a fixture filing before the goods become fixtures or within 10 days thereafter, and the debtor has an interest of record in the real estate or is in possession of the real estate;

(b) the security interest is perfected by a fixture filing before the interest of the encumbrancer or owner is of record, the security interest has priority over any conflicting interest of a predecessor in title of the encumbrancer or owner, and the debtor has an interest of record in the real estate or is in possession of the real estate;

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 889 1983

(c) the fixtures are readily removable factory or office machines or readily removable replacements of domestic appliances which are consumer goods, and before the goods become fixtures the security interest is perfected by any method permitted by this chapter; or

(d) the conflicting interest is a lien on the real estate obtained by legal or equitable proceedings after the security interest was perfected by any method permitted by this chapter.

(5) A security interest in fixtures, whether or not perfected, has priority over the conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real estate if:

(a) the encumbrancer or owner has consented in writing to the security interest or has disclaimed an interest in the goods as fixtures; or

(b) the debtor has a right to remove the goods as against the encumbrancer or owner. If the debtor's right terminates, the priority of the security interest continues for a reasonable time.

(6) Notwithstanding subsection (4)(a) but otherwise subject to subsections (4) and (5), a security interest in fixtures is subordinate to a construction mortgage recorded before the goods become fixtures if the goods become fixtures before the completion of the construction. To the extent that it is given to refinance a construction mortgage, a mortgage has this priority to the same extent as the construction mortgage.

(7) In cases not within the preceding subsections, a security interest in fixtures is subordinate to the conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the related real estate who is not the debtor.

(8) When the secured party has priority over all owners and encumbrancers of the real estate, he may, on default, subject to the provisions of Part 5, remove his collateral from the real estate but he must reimburse any encumbrancer or owner of the real estate who is not the debtor and who has not otherwise agreed for the cost of repair of any physical injury, but not for any diminution in value of the real estate caused by the absence of the goods removed or by any necessity for replacing them. A person entitled to reimbursement may refuse permission to remove until the secured party gives adequate security for the performance of this obligation."

Section 72. Section 30-9-318, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-9-318. Defenses against assignee — modification of contract after notification of assignment — term prohibiting assignment ineffective — identification and proof of assignment. (1) Unless an account debtor has made an enforceable agreement not to assert defenses or claims arising out of a sale as provided in 30-9-206, the rights of an assignee are subject to:

(a) all the terms of the contract between the account debtor and assignor and any defense or claim arising therefrom; and

(b) any other defense or claim of the account debtor against the assignor which accrues before the account debtor receives notification of the assignment.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 890 1983

(2) So far as the right to payment or a part thereof under an assigned contract has not been fully earned by performance, and notwithstanding notification of the assignment, any modification of or substitution for the contract made in good faith and in accordance with reasonable commercial standards is effective against an assignee unless the account debtor has otherwise agreed, but the assignee acquires corresponding rights under the modified or substituted contract. The assignment may provide that such modification or substitution is a breach by the assignor.

(3) The account debtor is authorized to pay the assignor until the account debtor receives notification that the amount due or to become due has been assigned and that payment is to be made to the assignee. A notification which does not reasonably identify the rights assigned is ineffective. If requested by the account debtor, the assignee must seasonably furnish reasonable proof that the assignment has been made, and unless he does so the account debtor may pay the assignor.

(4) A term in any contract between an account debtor and an assignor is effective if it prohibits assignment of an account or prohibits creation of a security interest in a general intangible for money due or to become due or requires the account debtor's consent to such assignment or security interest."

Section 73. Section 30-9-401, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-9-401. Place of filing — erroneous filing — removal of collateral. (1) Except for financing statements filed pursuant to 30-9-409, the proper place to file in order to perfect a security interest is as follows:

(a) when the collateral is equipment used in farming operations, or farm products, or accounts, or general intangibles arising from or relating to the sale of farm products by a farmer, or consumer goods, then in the office of the county clerk and recorder in the county of the debtor's residence or if the debtor is not a resident of this state then in the office of the county clerk and recorder in the county where the goods are kept, and in addition when the collateral is crops growing or to be grown, in the office of the county clerk and recorder in the county where the land is located;

(b) when the collateral is timber to be cut or is minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or accounts subject to 30-9-103(5), or when the financing statement is filed as a fixture filing (30-9-313) and the collateral is goods which are or are to become fixtures, then in the office where a mortgage on the real estate would be filed or recorded;

(c) in all other cases, in the office of the secretary of state.

(2) A filing which is made in good faith in an improper place or not in all of the places required by this section is nevertheless effective with regard to any collateral as to which the filing complied with the requirements of this chapter and is also effective with regard to collateral covered by the financing statement against any person who has knowledge of the contents of such financing statement.

(3) A filing which is made in the proper place in this state continues effective even though the debtor's residence or place of business or the location of the collateral or its use, whichever controlled the original filing, is thereafter changed.

(4) The rules stated in 30-9-103 determine whether filing is necessary in this state.

(5) For the purposes of this section, the residence of an organization is its place of business, if it has one, or its chief executive office if it has more than one place of business."

Section 74. Section 30-9-402, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-9-402. Formal requisites of financing statement — amendments — mortgage as financing statement. (1) A financing statement is sufficient if it gives the names of the debtor and the secured party, is signed by the debtor, gives an address of the secured party from which information concerning the security interest may be obtained, gives a mailing address of the debtor, and contains a statement indicating the types or describing the items of collateral. A financing statement may be filed before a security agreement is made or a security interest otherwise attaches. Except for financing statements filed pursuant to 30-9-409 when the financing statement covers crops growing or to be grown, the statement must also contain a description of the real estate concerned. When the financing statement covers timber to be cut or covers minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or accounts subject to 30-9-103(5), or when the financing statement is filed as a fixture filing (30-9-313) and the collateral is goods which are or are to become fixtures, the statement must also comply with subsection (5). A copy of the security agreement is sufficient as a financing statement if it contains the above information and is signed by the debtor.

(2) A financing statement which otherwise complies with subsection (1) is sufficient when it is signed by the secured party instead of the debtor if it is filed to perfect a security interest in:

(a) collateral already subject to a security interest in another jurisdiction when it is brought into this state, or when the debtor's location is changed to this state. Such a financing statement must state that the collateral was brought into this state or that the debtor's location was changed to this state under such circumstances.

(b) proceeds under 30-9-306 if the security interest in the original collateral was perfected. Such a financing statement must describe the original collateral.

(c) collateral as to which the filing has lapsed; or

(d) collateral acquired after a change of name, identity, or corporate structure of the debtor (subsection (7)).

(3) A form substantially as follows is sufficient to comply with subsection (1):

Name of debtor (or assignor) ....

Address ....

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 892 1983

Name of secured party (or assignee) ....

Address ....

1. This financing statement covers the following types (or items) of property:

2. (If collateral is crops) The above described crops are growing or are to be grown on:

3. (If applicable) The above goods are to become fixtures on:

and this financing statement is to be filed in the real estate record. (If the debtor does not have an interest or record) The name of a record owner is ....

4. (If products of collateral are claimed) Products of the collateral are also covered.

is applicable) Signature of Secured Party (or Assignee) ....

(4) A financing statement may be amended by filing a writing signed by both the debtor and the secured party. An amendment does not extend the period of effectiveness of a financing statement. If any amendment adds collateral, it is effective as to the added collateral only from the filing date of the amendment. In this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, the term "financing statement" means the original financing statement and any amendments.

(5) A financing statement covering timber to be cut or covering minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or accounts subject to 30-9-103(5), or a financing statement filed as a fixture filing (30-9-313) when the debtor is not a transmitting utility, must show that it covers this type of collateral, must recite that it is to be filed in the real estate records, and the financing statement must contain a description of the real estate sufficient if it were contained in a mortgage of the real estate to give constructive notice of the mortgage under the law of this state. If the debtor does not have an interest of record in the real estate, the financing statement must show the name of a record owner.

(6) (a) A mortgage is effective as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing from the date of its recording if:

(i) the goods are described in the mortgage by item or type;

(ii) the goods are or are to become fixtures related to the real estate described in the mortgage;

(iii) the mortgage complies with the requirements for a financing statement in this section other than a recital that it is to be filed in the real estate records; and

(iv) the mortgage is duly recorded.

(b) No fee with reference to the financing statement is required other than the regular recording and satisfaction fees with respect to the mortgage.

(7) A financing statement sufficiently shows the name of the debtor if it gives the individual, partnership, or corporate name of the debtor, whether or not it adds other trade names or the names of partners. If the debtor so changes his name or in the case of an organization its name, identity, or corporate structure that a filed financing statement becomes seriously misleading, the filing is not effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the debtor more than 4 months after the change unless a new appropriate financing statement is filed before the expiration of that time. A filed financing statement remains effective with respect to collateral transferred by the debtor even though the secured party knows of or consents to the transfer.

(8) A financing statement substantially complying with the requirements of this section is effective even though it contains minor errors which are not seriously misleading."

Section 75. Section 30-9-403, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-9-403. What constitutes filing — duration of filing — effect of lapsed filing — duties of filing officer. (1) Presentation for filing of a financing statement and tender of the filing fee or acceptance of the statement by the filing officer constitutes filing under this chapter.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (6), a filed financing statement is effective for a period of 5 years from the date of filing. The effectiveness of a filed financing statement lapses on the expiration of the 5-year period unless a continuation statement is filed prior to the lapse. If a security interest perfected by filing exists at the time insolvency proceedings are commenced by or against the debtor, the security interest remains perfected until termination of the insolvency proceedings and thereafter for a period of 60 days or until expiration of the 5-year period, whichever occurs later. Upon lapse the security interest becomes unperfected, unless it is perfected without filing. If the security interest becomes unperfected upon lapse, it is considered to have been unperfected as against a person who became a purchaser or lien creditor before lapse.

(3) A continuation statement may be filed by the secured party within 6 months prior to the expiration of the 5-year period specified in subsection (2). Any such continuation statement must be signed by the secured party, identify the original statement by file number, and state that the original statement is still effective. A continuation statement signed by a person other than the secured party of record must be accompanied by a separate written statement of assignment signed by the secured party of record and complying with 30-9-405(2), including payment of the required fee. Upon timely filing of the continuation statement, the effectiveness of the original statement is continued for 5 years after the last date to which the filing was effective, whereupon it lapses in the same manner as provided in subsection (2) unless another continuation statement is filed prior to such lapse. Succeeding continuation statements may be filed in the same manner to continue the effectiveness of the original statement. Unless a statute on disposition of public records provides otherwise, the filing officer may remove a lapsed statement from the files and destroy it immediately if he has retained a microfilm or other photographic record, or in other cases after 1 year after the lapse. The filing officer shall so arrange matters by physical annexation of financing statements to continuation statements or other related filings, or by other means, that if he physically destroys the financing statements of a period more than 5 years past, those which have been continued by a continuation statement or which are still effective under subsection (6) shall be retained.

(4) Except as provided in subsection (7), a filing officer shall mark each statement with a file number and with the date and hour of filing and shall hold the statement or a microfilm or other photographic copy thereof for public inspection. In addition, the filing officer shall index the statements according to the name of the debtor and shall note in the index the file number and the address of the debtor given in the statement.

(5) The uniform fees for filing, indexing, and stamping a copy furnished by the filing party to show the date and place of filing shall be the following amounts for:

(a) an original financing or continuation statement in standard form — $2;

(b) a termination statement in standard form — $2;

(c) a financing statement indicating an assignment in standard form — $2;

(d) a statement of release of collateral in standard form — $2;

(e) a certificate from the filing officer showing that an effective financing statement is on file, requested in the standard form — $3;

(f) any of the documents in (a) through (e) other than in standard form — an additional $2;

(g) each name more than one required to be indexed — $2;

(h) a uniform indexing fee of $2 for showing a trade name for any person; and

(i) any of the filing and indexing in subsections (a), (b), or (d) where the collateral is equipment or rolling stock of railroads or street railways — $15.

(6) If the debtor is a transmitting utility and a filed financing statement so states, it is effective until a termination statement is filed. A real estate mortgage that is effective as a fixture filing under 30-9-402(6) remains effective as a fixture filing until the mortgage is released or satisfied of record or its effectiveness otherwise terminates as to the real estate.

(7) When a financing statement covers timber to be cut or covers minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or accounts subject to 30-9-103(5) or is filed as a fixture filing, the filing officer shall index it under the names of the debtor and any owner of record shown on the financing statement in the same fashion as if they were the mortgagors in a mortgage of the real estate described and, to the extent that the law of this state provides for indexing of mortgages under the name of the mortgagee, under the name of the secured party as if he were the mortgagee thereunder, or if indexing is by description, in the same fashion as if the financing statement were a mortgage of the real estate described."

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 895 1983

Section 76. Section 30-9-404, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-9-404. Termination statement. (1) If a financing statement covering consumer goods is filed on or after October 1, 1983, then within 1 month or within 10 days following written demand by the debtor after there is no outstanding secured obligation and no commitment to make advances, incur obligations, or otherwise give value, the secured party must file with each filing officer with whom the financing statement was filed a termination statement to the effect that he no longer claims a security interest under the financing statement, which shall be identified by file number. In other cases, whenever there is no outstanding secured obligation and no commitment to make advances, incur obligations, or otherwise give value, the secured party must on written demand by the debtor send the debtor, for each filing officer with whom the financing statement was filed, a termination statement to the effect that he no longer claims a security interest under the financing statement, which shall be identified by file number. A termination statement signed by a person other than the secured party of record must be accompanied by a separate written statement of assignment signed by the secured party of record complying with 30-9-405(2), including payment of the required fee. If the affected secured party fails to file such a termination statement as required by this subsection or to send such a termination statement within 10 days after proper demand therefor, he shall be liable to the debtor for $100, and in addition for any loss caused to the debtor by such failure.

(2) On presentation to the filing officer of such a termination statement, he must note it in the index. If he has received the termination statement in duplicate, he shall return one copy of the termination statement to the secured party, stamped to show the time of receipt thereof. If the filing officer has a microfilm or other photographic record of the financing statement and of any related continuation statement, statement of assignment, and statement of release, he may remove the originals from the files at any time after receipt of the termination statement, or if he has no such record, he may remove them from the files at any time after 1 year after receipt of the termination statement.

(3) The uniform fee for filing and indexing the termination statement shall be set pursuant to 30-9-403."

Section 77. Section 30-9-405, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-9-405. Assignment of security interest — duties of filing officer — fees. (1) A financing statement may disclose an assignment of a security interest in the collateral described in the financing statement by indication in the financing statement of the name and address of the assignee or by an assignment itself or a copy thereof on the face or back of the statement. On presentation to the filing officer of such a financing statement the filing officer shall mark the same as provided in 30-9-403(4). The uniform fee for filing, indexing, and furnishing filing data for a financing statement so indicating an assignment shall be set pursuant to 30-9-403.

(2) A secured party may assign of record all or a part of his rights under a financing statement by the filing in the place where the original financing statement was filed of a separate written statement of assignment signed by the secured party of record and setting forth the name of the secured party of record and the debtor, the file number and the date of filing of the financing statement, the name and address of the assignee, and except as provided in 30-9-409(2), containing a description of the collateral assigned. A copy of the assignment is sufficient as a separate statement if it complies with the preceding sentence. On presentation to the filing officer of such a separate statement, the filing officer shall mark such separate statement with the date and hour of the filing. He shall note the assignment on the index of the financing statement or in the case of a fixture filing or a filing covering timber to be cut or covering minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or accounts subject to 30-9-103(5), he shall index the assignment under the name of the assignor as grantor and to the extent that the law of this state provides for indexing the assignment of a mortgage under the name of the assignee, he shall index the assignment of the financing statement under the name of the assignee. The uniform fee for filing, indexing, and furnishing filing data about such a separate statement of assignment shall be set pursuant to 30-9-403. Notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection, an assignment of record of a security interest in a fixture contained in a mortgage effective as a fixture filing (30-9-402(6)) may be made only by an assignment of the mortgage in the manner provided by 71-1-207.

(3) After the disclosure or filing of an assignment under this section, the assignee is the secured party of record."

Section 78. Section 30-9-406, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-9-406. Release of collateral — duties of filing officer — fees. A secured party of record may by his signed statement release all or a part of any collateral described in a filed financing statement. The statement of release is sufficient if it contains a description of the collateral being released (except as provided in 30-9-409(2)), the name and address of the debtor, the name and address of the secured party, and the file number of the financing statement. A statement of release signed by a person other than the secured party of record must be accompanied by a separate written statement of assignment signed by the secured party of record and complying with 30-9-405(2), including payment of the required fee. Upon presentation of such a statement of release to the filing officer he shall mark the statement with the hour and date of filing and shall note the same upon the margin of the index of the filing of the financing statement. The uniform fee for filing and noting such a statement of release shall be set pursuant to 30-9-403."

Section 79. Section 30-9-407, MCA, is amended to read:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 897 1983

"30-9-407. Information from filing officer. (1) If the person filing any financing statement, termination statement, statement of assignment, or statement of release furnishes the filing officer a copy thereof, the filing officer shall upon request note upon the copy the file number and date and hour of the filing of the original and deliver or send the copy to such person.

(2) Upon request of any person, the filing officer shall issue his certificate showing whether there is on file on the date and hour stated therein, any presently effective financing statement naming a particular debtor and any statement of assignment thereof and, if there is, giving the date and hour of filing of each such statement and the name and address of each secured party therein. The uniform fee for such a certificate shall be set pursuant to 30-9-403. Upon request the filing officer shall furnish a copy of any filed financing statement or statement of assignment for a uniform fee of 50 cents per page."

Section 80. Financing statements covering consigned or leased goods. A consignor or lessor of goods may file a financing statement using the terms "consignor", "consignee", "lessor", "lessee", or the like instead of the terms specified in 30-9-402. The provisions of this part shall be applied as appropriate to such a financing statement, but its filing may not of itself be a factor in determining whether or not the consignment or lease is intended as security (30-1-201(37)). However, if it is determined for other reasons that the consignment or lease is so intended, a security interest of the consignor or lessor that attaches to the consigned or leased goods is perfected by such filing.

Section 81. Section 30-9-501, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-9-501. Default — procedure when security agreement covers both real and personal property. (1) When a debtor is in default under a security agreement, a secured party has the rights and remedies provided in this part and except as limited by subsection (3) those provided in the security agreement. He may reduce his claim to judgment, foreclose or otherwise enforce the security interest by any available judicial procedure. If the collateral is documents the secured party may proceed either as to the documents or as to the goods covered thereby. A secured party in possession has the rights, remedies, and duties provided in 30-9-207. The rights and remedies referred to in this subsection are cumulative.

(2) After default, the debtor has the rights and remedies provided in this part, those provided in the security agreement, and those provided in 30-9-207.

(3) To the extent that they give rights to the debtor and impose duties on the secured party, the rules stated in the subsections referred to below may not be waived or varied except as provided with respect to compulsory disposition of collateral (30-9-504(3) and 30-9-505) and with respect to redemption of collateral (30-9-506), but the parties may by agreement determine the standards by which the fulfillment of these rights and duties is to be measured if such standards are not manifestly unreasonable:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 898 1983

(a) 30-9-502*(2)* and 30-9-504*(2)* insofar as they require accounting for surplus proceeds of collateral;

(b) 30-9-504*(3)* and 30-9-505*(1)*, which deal with disposition of collateral;

(c) 30-9-505*(2)*, which deals with acceptance of collateral as discharge of obligation;

(d) 30-9-506, which deals with redemption of collateral; and

(e) 30-9-507*(1)*, which deals with the secured party's liability for failure to comply with this part.

(4) If the security agreement covers both real and personal property, the secured party may proceed under this part as to the personal property or he may proceed as to both the real and the personal property in accordance with his rights and remedies in respect of the real property, in which case the provisions of this part do not apply.

(5) When a secured party has reduced his claim to judgment, the lien of any levy which may be made upon his collateral by virtue of any execution based upon the judgment shall relate back to the date of the perfection of the security interest in such collateral. A judicial sale, pursuant to such execution, is a foreclosure of the security interest by judicial procedure within the meaning of this section, and the secured party may purchase at the sale and thereafter hold the collateral free of any other requirements of this chapter."

Section 82. Section 30-9-502, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-9-502. Collection rights of secured party. (1) When so agreed and in any event on default the secured party is entitled to notify an account debtor or the obligor on an instrument to make payment to him whether or not the assignor was theretofore making collections on the collateral, and also to take control of any proceeds to which he is entitled under 30-9-306.

(2) A secured party who by agreement is entitled to charge back uncollected collateral or otherwise to full or limited recourse against the debtor and who undertakes to collect from the account debtors or obligors must proceed in a commercially reasonable manner and may deduct his reasonable expenses of realization from the collections. If the security agreement secures an indebtedness, the secured party must account to the debtor for any surplus, and unless otherwise agreed, the debtor is liable for any deficiency. But, if the underlying transaction was a sale of accounts or chattel paper, the debtor is entitled to any surplus or is liable for any deficiency only if the security agreement so provides."

Section 83. Section 30-9-504, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-9-504. Secured party's right to dispose of collateral after default — effect of disposition. (1) A secured party after default may sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of any or all of the collateral in its then condition or following any commercially reasonable preparation or processing. Any sale of goods is subject to the chapter on sales (chapter 2). The proceeds of disposition shall be applied in the order following to:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 899 1983

(a) the reasonable expenses of retaking, holding, preparing for sale or lease, selling, leasing, and the like and, to the extent provided for in the agreement and not prohibited by law, the reasonable attorneys' fees and legal expenses incurred by the secured party;

(b) the satisfaction of indebtedness secured by the security interest under which the disposition is made;

(c) the satisfaction of indebtedness secured by any subordinate security interest in the collateral if written notification of demand therefor is received before distribution of the proceeds is completed. If requested by the secured party, the holder of a subordinate security interest must seasonably furnish reasonable proof of his interest, and unless he does so, the secured party need not comply with his demand.

(2) If the security interest secures an indebtedness, the secured party must account to the debtor for any surplus, and, unless otherwise agreed, the debtor is liable for any deficiency. But if the underlying transaction was a sale of account or chattel paper, the debtor is entitled to any surplus or is liable for any deficiency only if the security agreement so provides.

(3) Disposition of the collateral may be by public or private proceedings and may be made by way of one or more contracts. Sale or other disposition may be as a unit or in parcels and at any time and place and on any terms, but every aspect of the disposition including the method, manner, time, place, and terms must be commercially reasonable. Unless collateral is perishable or threatens to decline speedily in value or is of a type customarily sold on a recognized market, reasonable notification of the time and place of any public sale or reasonable notification of the time after which any private sale or other intended disposition is to be made shall be sent by the secured party to the debtor if he has not signed after default a statement renouncing or modifying his right to notification of sale. In the case of consumer goods no other notification need be sent. In other cases notification shall be sent to any other secured party from whom the secured party has received (before sending his notification to the debtor or before the debtor's renunciation of his rights) written notice of a claim of an interest in the collateral. The secured party may buy at any public sale, and if the collateral is of a type customarily sold in a recognized market or is of a type which is the subject of widely distributed standard price quotations, he may buy at private sale.

(4) When collateral is disposed of by a secured party after default, the disposition transfers to a purchaser for value all of the debtor's rights therein, discharges the security interest under which it is made and any security interest or lien subordinate thereto. The purchaser takes free of all such rights and interests even though the secured party fails to comply with the requirements of this part or of any judicial proceedings:

(a) in the case of a public sale, if the purchaser has no knowledge of any defects in the sale and if he does not buy in collusion with the secured party, other bidders, or the person conducting the sale; or

(b) in any other case, if the purchaser acts in good faith.

(5) A person who is liable to a secured party under a guaranty, endorsement, repurchase agreement, or the like and who receives a transfer of collateral from the secured party or is subrogated to his rights has thereafter the rights and duties of the secured party. Such a transfer of collateral is not a sale or disposition of the collateral under this chapter."

Section 84. Section 30-9-505, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-9-505. Compulsory disposition of collateral — acceptance of the collateral as discharge of obligation. (1) If the debtor has paid 60% of the cash price in the case of a purchase money security interest in consumer goods or 60% of the loan in the case of another security interest in consumer goods and has not signed after default a statement renouncing or modifying his rights under this part, a secured party who has taken possession of collateral must dispose of it under 30-9-504, and if he fails to do so within 90 days after he takes possession the debtor at his option may recover in conversion or under 30-9-507(1) on secured party's liability.

(2) In any other case involving consumer goods or any other collateral a secured party in possession may, after default, propose to retain the collateral in satisfaction of the obligation. Written notice of such proposal shall be sent to the debtor if he has not signed after default a statement renouncing or modifying his rights under this subsection. In the case of consumer goods, no other notice need be given. In other cases notice shall be sent to any other secured party from whom the secured party has received (before sending his notice to the debtor or before the debtor's renunciation of his rights) written notice of a claim of an interest in the collateral. If the secured party receives objection in writing from a person entitled to receive notification within 21 days after the notice was sent, the secured party must dispose of the collateral under 30-9-504. In the absence of such written objection the secured party may retain the collateral in satisfaction of the debtor's obligation."

If execution has been stayed by any court and the date set for execution has passed prior to dissolution of the stay, the court in which the defendant was previously sentenced shall, upon dissolution of the stay, set a new date of execution for not less than 5 or more than 90 days from the day the date is set. The defendant is entitled to be present in court on the day the new date of execution is set.

(2) The punishment of death must be inflicted by hanging the defendant by the neck until he is dead or, at the election of the defendant, by administration of a continuous, intravenous injection of a lethal quantity of an ultra-fast-acting barbiturate in combination with a chemical paralytic agent until a licensed physician pronounces that the defendant is dead according to accepted standards of medical practice.

hearing, if a hearing is requested, that the defendant has regained fitness to proceed, the warden must be directed by the court to carry out the execution. If, however, the court is of the view that so much time has elapsed since the commitment of the defendant that it would be unjust to proceed with execution of the sentence, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and may order the defendant to be discharged."

Section 6. Section 46-19-204, MCA, is amended to read:

(b) to the following countywide school levies, 33 ⅓% of the total sum received*:*

(i) the annual basic tax levy for elementary schools provided for in 20-9-331;

(ii) the annual special tax for high schools provided for in 20-9-333;

(v) the high school teacher retirement and social security fund provided for in 20-9-501.

(2) The apportionment of money to the funds provided for under subsection (1)(b) shall be made by the county superintendent based on the proportion that the mill levy of each fund bears to the total number of mills for all the funds. Whenever the total amount of money available for apportionment under this section is greater than the total requirements of a levy, the excess money and any interest income must be retained in a separate reserve fund, to be reapportioned in the ensuing school fiscal year to the levies designated in subsection (1)(b).

(3) In counties wherein special road districts have been created according to law, the board of county commissioners shall distribute a proportionate share of the 66 ⅔% of the total amount received for the general road fund to such special road district or districts within the county based upon the percentage that the total area of such road district bears to the total area of the entire county."

Section 2. Section 20-9-331, MCA, is amended to read:

"20-9-331. Basic county tax and other revenues for county equalization of the elementary district foundation program. (1) It shall be the duty of the county commissioners of each county to levy an annual basic tax of 25 mills on the dollars of the taxable value of all taxable property within the county for the purposes of local and state foundation program support. The revenue to be collected from this levy shall be apportioned to the support of the foundation programs of the elementary school districts in the county and to the earmarked revenue fund, state equalization aid account, in the following manner:

(a) In order to determine the amount of revenue raised by this levy which is retained by the county, the sum of the estimated revenues identified in subsections (2)(a) through (2)(f) below shall be subtracted from the sum of the county elementary transportation obligation and the total of the foundation programs of all elementary districts of the county.

(b) If the basic levy of 25 mills produces more revenue than is required to finance the difference determined above, the county commissioners shall order the county treasurer to remit the surplus funds to the state treasurer for deposit to the earmarked revenue fund, state equalization aid account, not later than June 1 of the fiscal year for which the levy has been set.

(2) The proceeds realized from the county's portion of the levy prescribed by this section and the revenues from the following sources shall be used for the equalization of the elementary district foundation programs of the county as prescribed in 20-9-334, and a separate accounting shall be kept of such proceeds and revenues by the county treasurer in accordance with 20-9-212(1):

(a) the portion of the federal Taylor Grazing Act funds distributed to a county and designated for the common school fund under the provisions of 17-3-222;

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 918 1983

(b) the portion of the federal flood control act funds distributed to a county and designated for expenditure for the benefit of the county common schools under the provisions of 17-3-232;

(c) all money paid into the county treasury as a result of fines for violations of law and the use of which is not otherwise specified by law;

(d) any money remaining at the end of the immediately preceding school fiscal year in the county treasurer's account for the various sources of revenue established or referred to in this section; and

(e) any federal or state money distributed to the county as payment in lieu of the property taxation established by the county levy required by this section."

Section 3. Section 20-9-332, MCA, is amended to read:

"20-9-332. Fines and penalties proceeds for elementary county equalization. All fines and penalties collected under the provisions of this title shall be collected by the action of a court of competent jurisdiction and shall be paid into the county elementary equalization fund as provided by 20-9-331(2)(c). In order to implement this section and any other provision of law requiring the deposit of fines in the elementary county equalization fund, the following reports shall be made to the county superintendent of the county in which each court or justice of the peace shall have jurisdiction:

(1) during the month of September, each justice of the peace shall report all fines imposed and collected during the preceding year, indicating the type of violation and the date of collection; and

(2) at the close of each term, the clerk of each district court shall report all fines imposed and collected during the term, indicating the type of violation and the date of collection."

Section 4. Section 20-9-335, MCA, is amended to read:

"20-9-335. Formula for apportionment of county equalization moneys. (1) After making such deductions prescribed in 20-9-334, the county superintendent shall apportion the remaining amount of moneys available in the basic county tax account to the several public elementary districts of the county and in the basic special tax for high schools account to the several public secondary districts of the county in proportion to their needs under the foundation program in accordance with the following procedure:

(a) determine the percentage that the county equalization moneys available for the support of the foundation programs of the public elementary districts in the county is of the total amount of the foundation programs of all public elementary districts;

(b) multiply the foundation program amount of each public elementary district by the percentage determined in subsection (1)(a) above to determine the portion of the county equalization moneys available to each public elementary district.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 919 1983

(2) The above procedure shall also be applied for public secondary districts.

(3) No territory situated within a county shall be excluded from the apportionment of the county equalization moneys under this section solely because such territory lies within the boundaries of a joint district. Cash balances to the credit of any district at the end of a school fiscal year shall not be considered in the apportionment procedure prescribed in this section.

(4) When the total amount of the available county moneys for apportionment under this section is greater than the amount of money to be apportioned under the apportionment procedure prescribed by this section, the excess amount of county moneys shall be retained by the county to be considered as financing during the ensuing school fiscal year under the requirements of 20-9-331(2)(d) or 20-9-333(2)(a).

(5) The county equalization moneys apportioned under these procedures shall constitute the first source of revenue in calculating the financing of the public elementary and secondary district foundation program. The county superintendent shall use the apportionment procedure prescribed in this section in computing the estimated revenues for the financing of the ensuing year's foundation program for budgeting purposes."

Section 5. Effective date. This act is effective July 1, 1983.

(2) "Fleet" means one or more apportionable vehicles.

(3) "Jurisdiction" means and includes a state, territory, or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 920 1983

Puerto Rico, a foreign country, and a state or province of a foreign country.

(4) "Legal residence" means a jurisdiction where the person lives or conducts his business. This residence need not be coupled with the intent to live or conduct the business there on a permanent basis. The use of the word "residence" in 61-3-711 through 61-3-733 shall be confined to the definition given, and shall not be confused with the word "domicile". This definition of "residence" further recognizes that a person may have several residences, but only one domicile.

(5) "Preceding year" means a period of 12 consecutive months fixed by the department of highways, which period shall be within 18 months immediately preceding the commencement of the registration or license year for which proportional registration is sought. The department in fixing the period shall make it conform to the terms, conditions, and requirements of any applicable agreement or arrangements for the proportional registration of vehicles.

(6) (a) "Properly registered", as applied to place of registration, means:

(i) the jurisdiction where the person registering the vehicle has his legal residence;

(ii) in the case of an apportionable vehicle, the jurisdiction in which it is registered if the enterprise in which the vehicle is used has a place of business therein and if the vehicle is most frequently dispatched, garaged, serviced, maintained, operated, or otherwise controlled in or from the place of business and the vehicle has been assigned to the place of business; or

(iii) in the case of an apportionable vehicle, the jurisdiction where because of an agreement or arrangement between two or more jurisdictions or pursuant to a declaration the vehicle has been registered as required by that jurisdiction.

(b) In case of doubt or dispute as to the proper place of registration of a vehicle, the highway commission shall make the final determination, but in making the determination, the commission may confer with departments of the other jurisdictions affected."

Section 2. Section 61-3-721, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-3-721. Proportional registration of fleet vehicles, application, fee formula, and payment. (1) An owner engaged in operating one or more fleets may, instead of registration of vehicles under other sections of this title, register and license each fleet for operation in this state by filing an application with the department which shall contain the information pertinent to vehicle registration that is required by the department.

(2) The application for each fleet may be accompanied by a fee payment computed as follows:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 921 1983

(a) divide in-state miles by total fleet miles as defined in the applicable agreement entered into pursuant to 61-3-711 through 61-3-733;

(b) determine the total amount necessary to register each vehicle in the fleet for which registration is requested, based on the regular annual registration fees prescribed by 61-3-321 and part 2 of chapter 10, and the property taxes which are due on the fleet;

(c) multiply the sum obtained under subsection (2)(b) by the fraction obtained under subsection (2)(a).

(3) Applications submitted with fees may be recomputed by the department and a statement furnished showing the overpayment or balance due.

(4) Applications submitted without fees shall be computed by the department and a statement furnished showing the amount of fees due."

Section 3. Section 61-3-725, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-3-725. Withdrawal of fleet vehicles — procedure, credits, and accounting. (1) If a vehicle is withdrawn from a proportionally registered fleet during the period for which it is registered, the owner of the fleet shall notify the department of highways of that fact on forms prescribed by the department. The department may require the owner to surrender proportional registration cards and other identification devices which have been issued with respect to that vehicle. If a vehicle is permanently withdrawn from a proportionally registered fleet because it has been destroyed, sold, or otherwise completely removed from the service of the registrant, the unused portion of the gross vehicle weight fees paid with respect to that vehicle shall be credited to the proportional registration account of the owner. This unused portion shall equal the amount paid with respect to the vehicle when it was first proportionally registered in the registration year, reduced by one-twelfth of the total annual gross vehicle weight fee of the vehicle for each calendar month and fraction thereof elapsing between the first day of the month of the current year in which the vehicle was registered and the date the notice of withdrawal is received by the department. This credit shall be applied against liability for additional fees due during the registration year or for additional fees due upon audit under 61-3-728. If a credit is less than $5, it may not be made or entered. In no event may the amount be credited against fees other than those for the registration year, nor may any amount be subject to refund.

(2) If the owner replaces a vehicle withdrawn from the fleet at the same time as the withdrawal and the replacement vehicle is of the same or of a lesser weight category than the one withdrawn, the gross vehicle weight fees are transferable to the replacement vehicle. If the transfer is to a smaller vehicle, there may be no credit given or entered."

Approved April 8, 1983.

foundation program support. The revenue to be collected from this levy shall be apportioned to the support of the foundation programs of the elementary school districts in the county and to the earmarked revenue fund, state equalization aid account, in the following manner:

(a) In order to determine the amount of revenue raised by this levy which is retained by the county, the sum of the estimated revenues identified in subsections (2)(a) through (2)(f) below shall be subtracted from the sum of the county elementary transportation obligation and the total of the foundation programs of all elementary districts of the county.

(b) If the basic levy prescribed by this section produces more revenue than is required to finance the difference determined above, the county commissioners shall order the county treasurer to remit the surplus funds to the state treasurer for deposit to the earmarked revenue fund, state equalization aid account, not later than June 1 of the fiscal year for which the levy has been set.

(2) The proceeds realized from the county's portion of the levy prescribed by this section and the revenues from the following sources shall be used for the equalization of the elementary district foundation programs of the county as prescribed in 20-9-334, and a separate accounting shall be kept of such proceeds and revenues by the county treasurer in accordance with 20-9-212(1):

(a) the portion of the federal forest reserve funds distributed to a county and designated for the common school fund under the provisions of 17-3-213;

(b) the portion of the federal Taylor Grazing Act funds distributed to a county and designated for the common school fund under the provisions of 17-3-222;

(c) the portion of the federal flood control act funds distributed to a county and designated for expenditure for the benefit of the county common schools under the provisions of 17-3-232;

(d) all moneys which are paid into the county treasury as a result of fines for violations of law and the use of which is not otherwise specified by law;

(e) any money remaining at the end of the immediately preceding school fiscal year in the county treasurer's account for the various sources of revenue established or referred to in this section; and

(f) any federal or state moneys distributed to the county as payment in lieu of the property taxation established by the county levy required by this section."

Section 2. Section 20-9-333, MCA, is amended to read:

local and state foundation program support. The revenue to be collected from this levy shall be apportioned to the support of the foundation programs of high school districts in the county and to the earmarked revenue fund, state equalization aid account, in the following manner:

(a) In order to determine the amount of revenue raised by this levy which is retained by the county, the estimated revenues identified in subsections (2)(a) and (2)(b) below shall be subtracted from the sum of the county's high school tuition obligation and the total of the foundation programs of all high school districts of the county.

(b) If the basic levy prescribed by this section produces more revenue than is required to finance the difference determined above, the county commissioners shall order the county treasurer to remit the surplus to the state treasurer for deposit to the earmarked revenue fund, state equalization aid account, not later than June 1 of the fiscal year for which the levy has been set.

(2) The proceeds realized from the county's portion of the levy prescribed in this section and the revenues from the following sources shall be used for the equalization of the high school district foundation programs of the county as prescribed in 20-9-334, and a separate accounting shall be kept of these proceeds by the county treasurer in accordance with 20-9-212(1):

(a) any money remaining at the end of the immediately preceding school fiscal year in the county treasurer's account for deposit of the proceeds from the levy established in this section; and

(b) any federal or state moneys distributed to the county as a payment in lieu of the property taxation established by the county levy required by this section."

Section 3. Section 20-9-352, MCA, is amended to read:

"20-9-352. Permissive amount and permissive levy. (1) Whenever the trustees of any district shall deem it necessary to adopt a general fund budget in excess of the foundation program amount but not in excess of the maximum general fund budget amount for such district as established by the schedules in 20-9-316 through 20-9-321, the trustees shall adopt a resolution stating the reasons and purposes for exceeding the foundation program amount. Such excess above the foundation program amount shall be known as the "permissive amount", and it shall be financed by a levy on the taxable value of all taxable property within the district as prescribed in 20-9-141, supplemented with any biennial appropriation by the legislature for this purpose.

(2) The district levies to be set for the purpose of funding the permissive amount are determined as follows:

(a) For each elementary school district, the county commissioners shall annually set a levy not exceeding 6 mills on all the taxable property in the district for the purpose of funding the permissive amount of the district. The permissive levy in mills shall be obtained by multiplying the ratio of the permissive amount to the maximum permissive amount by 6 or by using the number of mills which would fund the permissive amount, whichever is less. If the amount of revenue raised by this levy is not sufficient to fund the permissive amount in full, the amount of the deficiency shall be paid to the district from the earmarked revenue fund according to the provisions of 20-9-351 and subsection (3) of this section.

(b) For each high school district, the county commissioners shall annually set a levy not exceeding 4 mills on all taxable property in the district for the purpose of funding the permissive amount of the district. The permissive levy in mills shall be obtained by multiplying the ratio of the permissive levy to the maximum permissive amount by 4 or by using the number of mills which would fund the permissive amount, whichever is less. If the amount of revenue raised by this levy is not sufficient to fund the permissive amount in full, the amount of the deficiency shall be paid to the district from the earmarked revenue fund according to the provisions of 20-9-351 and subsection (3) of this section. The superintendent of public instruction shall, if the appropriation by the legislature for the permissive account [program] for the biennium is insufficient, request the budget director to submit a request for a supplemental appropriation in the second year of the biennium.

(3) Such distribution shall be made in two payments. The first payment shall be made at the same time as the first distribution of state equalization aid is made after January 1 of the fiscal year. The second payment shall be made at the same time as the last payment of state equalization aid is made for the fiscal year. If the appropriation is not sufficient to finance the deficiencies of the districts as determined according to subsection (2), each district will receive the same percentage of its deficiency. Surplus revenue in the second year of the biennium may be used to reduce the appropriation required for the next succeeding biennium or may be transferred to the state equalization aid earmarked revenue fund if revenues in that fund are insufficient to meet foundation program requirements."

Section 4. Effective date. This act is effective July 1, 1983.

Approved April 9, 1983.

Section 2. Section 7-12-2182, MCA, is amended to read:

"7-12-2182. Sources of money for revolving fund. (1) For the purpose of providing funds for such revolving fund the board of county commissioners:

(a) may, in its discretion and from time to time, transfer to the revolving fund from the general fund of the county such amount or amounts as may be deemed necessary, which amount or amounts so transferred shall be considered and shall be loans from such general fund to the revolving fund; and

(b) shall, in addition to such transfer or transfers from the general fund or in lieu thereof, levy and collect for such revolving fund such a tax, hereby declared to be for a public purpose, on all the taxable property in such county as shall be necessary to meet the financial requirements of such fund. However, a tax may not be levied if the balance in the revolving fund exceeds 5% of the principal amount of the then-outstanding rural special improvement district bonds and warrants secured thereby. If a tax is levied, the tax may not be an amount that would increase the balance in the revolving fund above 5% of the then-outstanding rural special improvement district bonds and warrants secured thereby.

(2) Whenever there shall be money in the district fund which is not required for payment of any bond or warrant of such district secured by the revolving fund or of interest thereon, so much of such money as may be necessary to pay the loan provided for in 7-12-2183 shall, by order of the board, be transferred to the revolving fund. money so loaned or from the money so loaned when added to such insufficient amount, as the case may require.

(2) Whenever any rural special improvement district maintenance fund does not have sufficient money to pay the cost of emergency repairs, the board of county commissioners by order or resolution may loan money from the revolving fund to such district maintenance fund. Such loan shall be repaid in annual installments in not more than 3 years. In no event may the loans interfere with the payments of bonds or warrants. The loan shall be repaid by an assessment as provided by 7-12-2120 if other funds are not available. If there are not sufficient funds in the revolving fund to make the loans without interfering with the payment of bonds or warrants secured thereby, then the loans may not be made."

Section 4. Section 7-12-2185, MCA, is amended to read:

"7-12-2186. Utilization of excess money in revolving fund. Whenever there is in the revolving fund an amount in excess of 5% of the then-outstanding rural special improvement district bonds and warrants secured thereby and the board considers any part of the excess to be greater than the amount necessary for payment or redemption of maturing bonds or warrants secured thereby or interest thereon, the board may order the amount the board considers greater than the amount necessary or any part thereof transferred to the general fund of the county."

Section 6. Section 7-12-4221, MCA, is amended to read:

(b) shall, in addition to such transfer or transfers from the general fund or in lieu thereof, levy and collect for such revolving fund such a tax, hereby declared to be for a public purpose, on all the taxable property in such city or town as shall be necessary to meet the financial requirements of such fund. However, a tax may not be levied if the balance in the revolving fund exceeds 5% of the principal amount of the then-outstanding special improvement district bonds and warrants secured thereby. If a tax is levied, the tax may not be an amount that would increase the balance in the revolving fund above 5% of the then-outstanding special improvement district bonds and warrants secured thereby.

(2) Whenever there shall be money in the district fund which is not required for payment of any bond or warrant of such district secured by the revolving fund or of interest thereon, so much of such money as may be necessary to pay the loan provided for in 7-12-4223 shall by order of the council be transferred to the revolving fund. shall then be either no money or not sufficient money in the appropriate district fund with which to pay the same, an amount sufficient to make up the deficiency may, by order of the council, be loaned by the revolving fund to such district fund. Thereupon, such bond or warrant or such interest thereon shall be paid from the money so loaned or from the money so loaned when added to such insufficient amount, as the case may require."

(b) an interest of less than fee simple may be abandoned in the manner provided in subsection (a), by operation of law, and by judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) The interest acquired by the contiguous property owner under subsection (1) is the abandoned interest or portion of such interest:

WHEREAS, Flathead Lake is the largest natural body of fresh water in the continental United States west of the Mississippi River and is a significant natural resource of value statewide and in the Northwestern region of the United States; and

WHEREAS, research undertaken as part of the Flathead River basin environmental impact study demonstrates that the quality of the Flathead Lake aquatic environment is vulnerable to and affected by all forms of land use and resource development within the Flathead basin; and

WHEREAS, even though the Flathead Lake aquatic environment is of excellent quality, the cumulative impact of a wide variety of resource development activities poses a threat to the aquatic environment of the Flathead basin; and

WHEREAS, protection of this natural resource is complicated by overlapping and potentially conflicting international, state, provincial, tribal, and local jurisdictional interests and responsibilities, which require awareness, coordinated effort, shared responsibility, and devotion to the naturalness of the basin by each land and water management entity with responsibility in the basin.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Short title. [This act] may be cited as the "Flathead Basin Commission Act of 1983".

Section 2. Purpose. The purpose of the Flathead basin commission is to protect the existing high quality of the Flathead Lake aquatic environment; the waters that flow into, out of, or are tributary to the lake; and the natural resources and environment of the Flathead basin.

Section 7. Duties of the commission. Duties of the commission are:

This plan must involve a cooperative strategy among all land and water management agencies within the Flathead basin and identify proposed and needed monitoring which emphasizes but is not limited to the aquatic resources of the Flathead basin.

(2) to encourage close cooperation and coordination between federal, state, provincial, tribal, and local resource managers for establishment of compatible resource development standards, comprehensive monitoring, and data collection and interpretation;

"19-5-103. Call of retired judge for duty. (1) Every judge or justice who has voluntarily retired after 8 years of service shall, if physically and mentally able, be subject to call by the supreme court or the chief justice thereof to aid and assist the supreme court, any district court, or any water court under such directions as the supreme court may give, including the examination of the facts, cases, and authorities cited, and the preparation of opinions for and on behalf of the supreme court, district court, or water court, or to serve as water judge. CHAPTER NO. 426

AN ACT TO PROVIDE A PROCEDURE FOR RESTITUTION TO VICTIMS OF CRIMES BY THE CRIMINAL OFFENDERS AND A PROCEDURE UPON DEFAULT IN PAYMENT OF RESTITUTION.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Condition of restitution. As provided in 46-18-201, a sentencing court may require an offender to make restitution to any victim of the offense.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 941 1983

Section 2. Investigation and report of victim's loss. (1) Whenever the court believes that restitution may be a proper condition of a deferred or suspended sentence or the prosecuting attorney requests, the court shall order the probation officer, restitution officer, or other designated person to include in the presentence investigation and report:

(a) documentation of the offender's financial resources and future ability to pay restitution; and

(b) documentation of the victim's pecuniary loss submitted by the victim.

(2) Where no presentence report is authorized or requested, the court may receive evidence of the offender's ability to pay and the victim's loss at the time of sentencing.

Section 3. Definition. For purposes of [sections 1 through 9], the following definitions apply:

(1) "Pecuniary loss" means:

(a) all special damages, but not general damages, substantiated by evidence in the record, that a person could recover against the offender in a civil action arising out of the facts or events constituting the offender's criminal activities, including without limitation the money equivalent of loss resulting from property taken, destroyed, broken, or otherwise harmed and out-of-pocket losses, such as medical expenses; and

(b) reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the victim in filing charges or in cooperating in the investigation and prosecution of the offense.

(2) "Victim" means:

(a) a person who suffers loss of property, bodily injury, or death as a result of:

(i) criminally injurious conduct; or

(ii) his good faith effort to prevent criminally injurious conduct;

(b) an insurer or surety with a right of subrogation to the extent it has reimbursed the victim of the offense for his pecuniary loss.

Section 4. Type and time of payment — defenses. (1) The court shall specify the amount, method, and time of payment to the victim and may permit payment in installments. The court may not establish a payment schedule extending beyond the period for which the sentence has been suspended or deferred under 46-18-201.

(2) In determining the amount, method, and time of payment, the court shall consider the financial resources and future ability of the offender to pay. The court may provide for payment to a victim up to but not in excess of the pecuniary loss caused by the offense. The offender may assert any defense that he could raise in a civil action for the loss sought to be compensated by the restitution order.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 942 1983

Section 5. Supervision of payment. The court may order a probation officer, restitution officer, or other designated person to supervise the making of restitution and to report to the court any default in payment.

Section 6. Waiver or modification of payment. An offender may at any time petition the sentencing court to adjust or otherwise waive payment of any part of any ordered restitution. The court shall schedule a hearing and give a victim to whom restitution was ordered notice of the hearing date, place, and time and inform the victim that he will have an opportunity to be heard. If the court finds that the circumstances upon which it based the imposition, amount, method, or time of payment no longer exist or that it otherwise would be unjust to require payment as imposed, the court may adjust or waive unpaid restitution or modify the time or method of making restitution. The court may extend the restitution schedule, but not beyond the period for which the sentence has been suspended or deferred under 46-18-201.

Section 7. Default. (1) If an offender sentenced to make restitution is in default, the sentencing court, upon the motion of the prosecuting attorney or upon its own motion, may issue an order under 46-18-203 requiring the offender to show cause why he should not be confined for failure to obey the sentence of the court. The court may order the offender to appear at a time, date, and place for a hearing or, if he fails to appear as ordered, issue a warrant for his arrest. The order or warrant must be accompanied by written notice of the offender's right to a hearing as provided in 46-18-203.

(2) If the court finds that the offender's default was attributable to a failure on his part to make a good faith effort to obtain the necessary funds for payment of the ordered restitution, the court may take any action provided for in 46-18-203. If confinement is ordered, the court, after entering the order, may at any time, for good cause shown, reduce the term of confinement and waive satisfaction of the restitution order.

(3) An order to pay restitution constitutes a judgment rendered in favor of the state, and following a default in the payment of restitution or any installment thereof, the sentencing court may order the restitution to be collected by any method authorized for the enforcement of other judgments.

Section 8. Rights of crime victims' compensation account. (1) Whenever a victim is paid from the crime victims' compensation account established in 53-9-109 for loss arising out of a criminal act, the account is subrogated, to the extent of the account's payment to the victim, to the rights of the victim to any restitution ordered by the court.

(2) The rights of the crime victims' compensation account are subordinate to the claims of multiple victims who have suffered loss arising out of multiple offenses by the same offender or arising from any transaction which is part of the same continuous scheme of criminal activity of an offender.

Section 9. Civil actions by victim. (1) [Sections 1 through 9 do] not limit or impair the right of a victim to sue and recover damages from the offender in a civil action.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 943 1983

(2) The findings in the sentencing hearing and the fact that restitution was required or paid are not admissible as evidence in a civil action and have no legal effect on the merits of a civil action.

(3) Any restitution paid by the offender to the victim must be set off against any pecuniary loss awarded to the victim in a civil action arising out of the facts or events which were the basis for the restitution. The court trying the civil action shall determine the amount of any setoff asserted by the defendant under this section.

Section 10. Codification instruction. Sections 1 through 9 are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 46, chapter 18, part 2, and the provisions of Title 46 apply to sections 1 through 9.

Approved April 11, 1983.

Fees so received shall be paid to the department for deposit in the state treasury to the credit of the earmarked revenue fund for the use of the department."

Section 10. Section 81-3-211, MCA, is amended to read:

"81-3-211. Inspection of livestock before change of ownership or removal from county — transportation permits. (1) For the purposes of this section:

(a) "Members of the same family" means a group whose membership is determined by including an individual, his spouse, and his parents, children, grandchildren, and the spouses of each.

(b) "Family business entity" means:

(i) a corporation whose stock is owned solely by members of the same family;

(ii) a partnership in which the partners are all members of the same family;

(iii) an association whose members all are members of the same family; or

(iv) any other entity owned solely by members of the same family.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this part, it is unlawful to remove or cause to be removed from a county in this state any livestock or to transfer ownership by sale or otherwise or for an intended purchaser or his agent to take possession of any such animal subject to title passing upon meeting or satisfaction of any conditions, unless the livestock has been inspected for brands by a state stock inspector or deputy state stock inspector and a certificate of the inspection has been issued in connection with and for the purpose of the transportation or removal or of such change of ownership as provided in this part. The inspection must be made in daylight. However, the change of ownership inspection requirements of this subsection do not apply when the change of ownership transaction is accomplished without the livestock changing premises, involves part of a herd to which no livestock have been added other than by natural increase or after brand inspection, and is between:

(a) members of the same family;

(b) a member of one family and the same family's business entity; or

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 970 1983

(c) the same family's business entities.

(3) (a) It is unlawful to sell or offer for sale at a livestock market any livestock originating within any county in this state in which a livestock market is maintained or transported under a market consignment permit until the livestock has been inspected for marks and brands by a state stock inspector, as provided in this part.

(b) It is unlawful to slaughter livestock at a licensed livestock slaughterhouse unless the livestock have been inspected for marks or brands by a state or deputy state stock inspector.

(4) It is unlawful to remove or cause to be removed any livestock from the premises of a livestock market in this state unless the livestock has been released by a state stock inspector and a certificate of release for the livestock has been issued in connection with and for the purpose of the removal from the premises of the livestock market. The release obtained pursuant to this subsection will permit the movement of the livestock so released directly to the destination shown on the certificate.

(5) The person in charge of livestock being removed from a county in this state, where inspection thereof is required by this section or where change of ownership has occurred or when moved under a market consignment permit or a market release certificate, shall have in his possession the certificate of inspection, market consignment permit, transportation permit, or market release certificate issued in connection therewith and shall exhibit the certificate to any sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable, highway patrolman, state stock inspector, or deputy state stock inspector upon request. Section 81-3-204 shall be extended to livestock transported or sold under the above-mentioned permits.

(6) The following transportation permits may be issued:

(a) If a saddle, work, or show horse is being transported from county to county in this state by the owner for his personal use or business or where a purebred cow is being transported from county to county in this state by its owner for show purposes and where there is no change of ownership, the inspection certificate required by this section may be endorsed as to the purpose and extent of transportation by the inspector issuing the certificate in order to serve as a travel permit in this state for a period not to exceed 1 year for the horse or cow described thereon. The permit becomes void upon any transfer of ownership or if the horse or cow is to be removed from the state. In such instances an inspection must be secured for removal and the endorsed certificate surrendered.

(b) The owner of a saddle, work, or show horse may apply for a permanent transportation permit valid for both interstate and intrastate transportation of the horse until there is a change of ownership. To obtain a permit a horse must have either a registered brand that has been legally cleared or a lip tattoo or the owner must present proof of ownership to a state stock inspector. A written application, on forms to be provided by the department, must be completed by the owner and presented to a state stock inspector together with a permit fee established by the department, for each horse. The application shall contain a thorough physical description of the horse and list all brands and tattoos carried by the horse. Upon approval of the application by a state stock inspector, a permanent transportation permit shall be issued by the department to the owner for each horse and such permit shall be valid for the life of the horse. If there is a change of ownership in a horse the permit shall automatically become void. The permit must accompany the horse for which it was issued at all times while the horse is in transit. This permit shall be in lieu of other permits and certificates required under the provisions of this section. The state of Montana shall recognize as valid permanent transportation permits issued in other jurisdictions to the owner of a saddle, work, or show horse subsequently entering the state. Such a permit shall be automatically void upon a change of ownership.

(c) When livestock owned by and bearing the registered brand of a bona fide rodeo producer is being transported from county to county in this state by the owner for rodeo purposes and where there is no change of ownership, the inspection certificate required by this section may be endorsed as to the purpose and extent of transportation by the inspector issuing the certificate in order to serve as a travel permit in this state for the livestock described thereon. The certificate is effective only between April 1 and October 31 of the year for which it is issued. The certificate shall be issued by a state stock inspector.

(d) An owner of livestock or his agent may be issued a transportation permit allowing the movement of his livestock into an immediately adjoining county and return when the livestock is being moved for grazing purposes and when it is being moved to and from land owned or controlled by the owner of the livestock or his agent. The permit is valid for 6 months and must be issued by a state stock inspector. The department shall establish a fee for the permit, to be paid to the state stock inspector at the time the permit is issued and remitted by him to the department for deposit in the state treasury to the credit of the earmarked revenue fund for the use of the department. This permit may be used in lieu of the inspection and certificate required by this section for movement of livestock across a county line.

(7) Before any removal or change of ownership may take place, the seller of livestock shall request all required inspections and shall pay the required fees."

Section 11. Section 81-3-214, MCA, is amended to read:

"81-3-214. Inspection of imported livestock. (1) Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, any person owning livestock imported into this state or his agent must notify the department or a salaried employee of the department of the number, breed, type, and age of the livestock, its location, and the purpose for which it has been brought into the state. Such notification shall be made within 48 hours after the arrival of the livestock in the state. Livestock so moved may not be commingled with any livestock already in Montana until inspected for brands and marks in daylight by a state stock inspector or deputy state stock inspector. The fees for this inspection shall be the same as those imposed for county line or change of ownership inspections. The fees paid to state stock inspectors shall be remitted to the department for deposit in the earmarked revenue fund for the use of the department.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 972 1983

(2) Livestock consigned to a licensed livestock market or for immediate slaughter to a licensed slaughter facility at which preslaughter inspection is maintained is exempt from the requirements of this section.

(3) Livestock moved between Montana and an adjacent state for graze on a regular basis and as part of the usual operation of a farm or ranch shall be exempt from the notice and inspection requirements of this section provided a transportation permit for the entry of the livestock into Montana has been obtained by the owner or his agent from a state stock inspector prior to the entry of the livestock into Montana. The department shall establish a fee for the permit, to be remitted by the department to the state treasury for credit to the earmarked revenue account of the department. The department shall provide by rule for the issuance and control of transportation permits authorized by this subsection."

"81-4-605. Expenses, how paid — disposition of proceeds of sale. (1) Expenses for collecting, holding, advertising, and selling of the estray, including but not limited to labor, feed, supplies, and veterinary services, shall be paid out of the gross proceeds of the sale of the estray, and the balance of the proceeds of the sale shall be forwarded to the department to be advertised as estray funds in the manner provided by law. The proceeds are subject to claim by the owner of the animal for a period of 2 years from the date of the sale. If the owner of the estray claims the animal before the sale of the animal, the expense incurred by the stock inspector to that time shall be paid by the owner.

(2) The department may adopt rules and establish fees for the handling of estrays."

Section 13. Section 81-5-202, MCA, is amended to read:

CHAPTER NO. 447

AN ACT CREATING A TAX DEDUCTION FOR CORPORATIONS AND SHAREHOLDERS OF ELECTING SMALL BUSINESS CORPORATIONS MAKING A DONATION OF A COMPUTER OR SIMILAR EQUIPMENT TO AN ELEMENTARY, SECONDARY, OR ACCREDITED POSTSECONDARY SCHOOL; AMENDING SECTION 15-31-114, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE AND AN APPLICABILITY DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 15-31-114, MCA, is amended to read:

"15-31-114. Deductions allowed in computing income. In computing the net income, the following deductions shall be allowed from the gross income received by such corporation within the year from all sources:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 980 1983

(1) All the ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred during the taxable year in the maintenance and operation of its business and properties, including reasonable allowance for salaries for personal services actually rendered, subject to the limitation hereinafter contained, rentals or other payments required to be made as a condition to the continued use or possession of property to which the corporation has not taken or is not taking title or in which it has no equity. No deduction shall be allowed for salaries paid upon which the recipient thereof has not paid Montana state income tax; provided, however, that where domestic corporations are taxed on income derived from without the state, salaries of officers paid in connection with securing such income shall be deductible.

(2) (a) All losses actually sustained and charged off within the year and not compensated by insurance or otherwise, including a reasonable allowance for the wear and tear and obsolescence of property used in the trade or business, such allowance to be determined according to the provisions of section 167 of the Internal Revenue Code in effect with respect to the taxable year. All elections for depreciation shall be the same as the elections made for federal income tax purposes. No deduction shall be allowed for any amount paid out for any buildings, permanent improvements, or betterments made to increase the value of any property or estate, and no deduction shall be made for any amount of expense of restoring property or making good the exhaustion thereof for which an allowance is or has been made.

(b) (i) There shall be allowed as a deduction for the taxable period a net operating loss deduction determined according to the provisions of this subsection. The net operating loss deduction is the aggregate of net operating loss carryovers to such taxable period plus the net operating loss carrybacks to such taxable period. The term "net operating loss" means the excess of the deductions allowed by this section, 15-31-114, over the gross income, with the modifications specified in (ii) of this subsection. If for any taxable period beginning after December 31, 1970, a net operating loss is sustained, such loss shall be a net operating loss carryback to each of the three taxable periods preceding the taxable period of such loss and shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the five taxable periods following the taxable period of such loss. A net operating loss for any taxable period ending after December 31, 1975, in addition to being a net operating loss carryback to each of the three preceding taxable periods, shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the seven taxable periods following the taxable period of such loss. The portion of such loss which shall be carried to each of the other taxable years shall be the excess, if any, of the amount of such loss over the sum of the net income for each of the prior taxable periods to which such loss was carried. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the net income for such prior taxable period shall be computed with the modifications specified in (ii)(B) of this subsection and by determining the amount of the net operating loss deduction without regard to the net operating loss for the loss period or any taxable period thereafter, and the net income so computed shall not be considered to be less than zero.

(ii) The modifications referred to in (i) of this subsection shall be as follows:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 981 1983

(A) No net operating loss deduction shall be allowed.

(B) The deduction for depletion shall not exceed the amount which would be allowable if computed under the cost method.

(C) Any net operating loss carried over to any taxable years beginning after December 31, 1978, must be calculated under the provisions of this section effective for the taxable year for which the return claiming the net operating loss carryover is filed.

(iii) A net operating loss deduction shall be allowed only with regard to losses attributable to the business carried on within the state of Montana.

(iv) In the case of a merger of corporations, the surviving corporation shall not be allowed a net operating loss deduction for net operating losses sustained by the merged corporations prior to the date of merger. In the case of a consolidation of corporations, the new corporate entity shall not be allowed a deduction for net operating losses sustained by the consolidated corporations prior to the date of consolidation.

(v) Notwithstanding the provisions of 15-31-531, interest shall not be paid with respect to a refund of tax resulting from a net operating loss carryback or carryover.

(vi) The net operating loss deduction shall not be allowed with respect to taxable periods which ended on or before December 31, 1970, but shall be allowed only with respect to taxable periods beginning on or after January 1, 1971.

(3) In the case of mines, other natural deposits, oil and gas wells, and timber, a reasonable allowance for depletion and for depreciation of improvements; such reasonable allowance to be determined according to the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code in effect for the taxable year. All elections made under the Internal Revenue Code with respect to capitalizing or expensing exploration and development costs and intangible drilling expenses for corporation license tax purposes shall be the same as the elections made for federal income tax purposes.

(4) The amount of interest paid within the year on its indebtedness incurred in the operation of the business from which its income is derived; but no interest shall be allowed as a deduction if paid on an indebtedness created for the purchase, maintenance, or improvement of property or for the conduct of business unless the income from such property or business would be taxable under this part.

(5) (a) Taxes paid within the year except the following:

(i) Taxes imposed by this part.

(ii) Taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the property assessed.

(iii) Taxes on or according to or measured by net income or profits imposed by authority of the government of the United States.

(iv) Taxes imposed by any other state or country upon or measured by net income or profits.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 982 1983

(b) Taxes deductible under this part shall be construed to include taxes imposed by any county, school district, or municipality of this state.

(6) Light vehicle license fees, as provided by 61-3-532, paid within the year.

(7) That portion of an energy-related investment allowed as a deduction under 15-32-103.

(8) (a) Except as provided in subsection (b), charitable contributions and gifts that qualify for deduction under section 170 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended.

(b) The public service commission shall not allow in the rate base of a regulated corporation the inclusion of contributions made under this subsection.

(9) In lieu of the deduction allowed under subsection (8), the taxpayer may deduct the fair market value, not to exceed 30% of the taxpayer's net income, of a computer or other sophisticated technological equipment or apparatus intended for use with the computer donated to an elementary, secondary, or accredited postsecondary school located in Montana if:

(a) the contribution is made no later than 5 years after the manufacture of the donated property is substantially completed;

(b) the property is not transferred by the donee in exchange for money, other property, or services; and

(c) the taxpayer receives a written statement from the donee in which the donee agrees to accept the property and representing that the use and disposition of the property will be in accordance with the provisions of (b) of this subsection (9)."

Section 2. Small business corporation — deduction for donation of computer equipment to schools. A small business corporation electing to be taxed under the provisions of 15-31-202 is allowed a deduction equal to the fair market value, not to exceed 30% of the small business corporation's net income, of a computer or other sophisticated technological equipment or apparatus intended for use with the computer donated to an elementary, secondary, or accredited postsecondary school located in Montana if:

(1) the contribution is made no later than 5 years after the manufacture of the donated property is substantially completed;

(2) the property is not transferred by the donee in exchange for money, other property, or services;

(3) the electing small business corporation receives a written statement from the donee in which the donee agrees to accept the property and representing that the use and disposition of the property will be in accordance with the provisions of subsection (2); and

(4) the deduction allowed in this section is in lieu of the deduction allowed under 15-30-121 for charitable contributions.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 983 1983

Section 3. Codification instruction. Section 2 is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 15, chapter 30, and the provisions of Title 15, chapter 30, apply to section 2.

Section 4. Effective date — applicability. This act is effective on passage and approval and applies to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1982.

Approved April 12, 1983.

(b) require the owner or operator of appropriation facilities to install and maintain suitable controlling and measuring devices, except that the board may not require a meter on a water well outside of a controlled groundwater area or proposed controlled groundwater area unless the maximum appropriation of the well is in excess of 100 gallons a minute;

"85-2-306. Exceptions to permit requirements. (1) Outside the boundaries of a controlled groundwater area, a permit is not required before appropriating groundwater by means of a well or developed spring with a maximum appropriation of less than 100 gallons per minute. Within 60 days of completion of the well or developed spring and appropriation of the groundwater for beneficial use, the appropriator shall file a notice of completion with the department on a form provided by the department at its offices and at the offices of the county clerk and recorders. Upon receipt of the notice, the department shall review the notice and may, before issuing a certificate of water right, return a defective notice for correction or completion, together with the reasons for returning it. A notice does not lose priority of filing because of defects, if the notice is corrected, completed, and refiled with the department within 30 days or within a further time as the department may allow, not to exceed 6 months. If a notice is not corrected and completed within the time allowed, the priority date of appropriation shall be the date of refiling a correct and complete notice with the department. A certificate of water right may not be issued until a correct and complete notice has been filed with the department. The original of the certificate shall be sent to the county clerk and recorder in the county where the point of diversion or place of use is located for recordation. The department shall keep a copy of the certificate in its office in Helena. After recordation, the clerk and recorder shall send the certificate to the appropriator. The date of filing of the notice of completion is the date of priority of the right.

(2) An appropriator of groundwater by means of a well or developed spring, first put to beneficial use between January 1, 1962, and July 1, 1973, who did not file a notice of completion, as required by laws in force prior to April 14, 1981, with the county clerk and recorder shall file a notice of completion, as provided in subsection (1) of this section, with the department to perfect the water right. The filing of a claim of existing water right pursuant to 85-2-221 is sufficient notice of completion under this subsection. The priority date of the appropriation shall be the date of the filing of a notice as provided in subsection (1) of this section or the date of the filing of the claim of existing water right. An appropriation under this subsection is an existing right, and a permit is not required; however, the department shall acknowledge the receipt of a correct and complete filing of a notice of completion, except that for an appropriation of less than 100 gallons per minute, the department shall issue a certificate of water right.

(3) A permit is not required before constructing an impoundment or pit and appropriating water for use by livestock if the maximum capacity of the impoundment or pit is less than 15 acre-feet and the appropriation is less than 30 acre-feet per year and is from a source other than a perennial flowing stream, and the impoundment or pit is to be constructed on and will be accessible to a parcel of land that is owned or under the control of the applicant and that is 40 acres or larger. As used in this subsection, a perennial flowing stream means a stream which historically has flowed continuously at all seasons of the year, during dry as well as wet years. However, within 60 days after constructing the impoundment or pit, the appropriator shall apply for a permit as prescribed by this part. Upon receipt of a correct and complete application for a stockwater provisional permit, the department shall then automatically issue a provisional permit. If the department determines after a hearing that the rights of other appropriators have been or will be adversely affected, it may revoke the permit or require the permittee to modify the impoundment or pit and may then make the permit subject to such terms, conditions, restrictions, or limitations it considers necessary to protect the rights of other appropriators.

(4) A person may also appropriate water without applying for or prior to receiving a permit under rules adopted by the board under 85-2-113."

Section 9. Section 85-2-307, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-2-307. Notice of application. (1) Upon receipt of a proper application for a permit, the department shall prepare a notice containing the facts pertinent to the application and shall publish the notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the area of the source once a week for 2 consecutive weeks. Before the last date of publication, the department shall also serve the notice by first-class mail upon an appropriator of water or applicant for or holder of a permit who, according to the records of the department, may be affected by the proposed appropriation. A notice shall also be served upon any public agency that has reserved waters in the source under 85-2-316. The department may, in its discretion, also serve notice upon any state agency or other person the department feels may be interested in or affected by the proposed appropriation. The department shall file in its records proof of service by affidavit of the publisher in the case of notice by publication and by its own affidavit in the case of service by mail.

(2) The notice shall state that by a date set by the department (not less than 15 days or more than 60 days after the last date of publication) persons may file with the department written objections to the application.

(3) The requirements of subsections (1) and (2) of this section do not apply if the department finds, on the basis of information reasonably available to it, that the appropriation as proposed in the application will not adversely affect the rights of other persons."

Section 10. Section 85-2-308, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-2-308. Objections. (1) An objection to an application must be filed by the date specified by the department under 85-2-307(2).

(2) The objection must state the name and address of the objector and facts tending to show that there are no unappropriated waters in the proposed source, that the proposed means of appropriation are inadequate, that the property, water rights, or interests of the objector would be adversely affected by the proposed appropriation, that the proposed use of water is not a beneficial use, or that the proposed use will interfere unreasonably with other planned uses or developments for which a permit has been issued or for which water has been reserved."

Section 11. Section 85-2-311, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-2-311. Criteria for issuance of permit. The department shall issue a permit if:

(1) there are unappropriated waters in the source of supply:

(a) at times when the water can be put to the use proposed by the applicant;

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 989 1983

(b) in the amount the applicant seeks to appropriate; and

(c) throughout the period during which the applicant seeks to appropriate, the amount requested is available;

(2) the water rights of a prior appropriator will not be adversely affected;

(3) the proposed means of diversion, construction, and operation of the appropriation works are adequate;

(4) the proposed use of water is a beneficial use;

(5) the proposed use will not interfere unreasonably with other planned uses or developments for which a permit has been issued or for which water has been reserved;

(6) an applicant for an appropriation of 10,000 acre-feet a year or more and 15 cubic feet per second or more proves by clear and convincing evidence that the rights of a prior appropriator will not be adversely affected;

(7) except as provided in subsection (6), the applicant proves by substantial credible evidence the criteria listed in subsections (1) through (5)."

Section 12. Section 85-2-312, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-2-312. Terms of permit. (1) The department may issue a permit for less than the amount of water requested, but in no case may it issue a permit for more water than is requested or than can be beneficially used without waste for the purpose stated in the application. The department may require modification of plans and specifications for the appropriation or related diversion or construction. It may issue a permit subject to terms, conditions, restrictions, and limitations it considers necessary to protect the rights of other appropriators, and it may issue temporary or seasonal permits. A permit shall be issued subject to existing rights and any final determination of those rights made under this chapter.

(2) The department may limit the time for commencement of the appropriation works, completion of construction, and actual application of the water to the proposed beneficial use. In fixing those time limits, the department shall consider the cost and magnitude of the project, the engineering and physical features to be encountered, and, on projects designed for gradual development and gradually increased use of water, the time reasonably necessary for that gradual development and increased use. For good cause shown by the permittee, the department may in its discretion reasonably extend time limits.

(3) The original of the permit shall be sent to the permittee, and a copy shall be kept in the office of the department in Helena.

(4) The department shall provide to the county clerk and recorder of the county wherein the point of diversion or place of use is located quarterly reports and an annual summary report of all water right permits, certificates, and change approvals issued by the department within the county."

Section 13. Section 85-2-314, MCA, is amended to read:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 990 1983

"85-2-314. Revocation or modification of permit. If the work on an appropriation is not commenced, prosecuted, or completed within the time stated in the permit or an extension thereof or if the water is not being applied to the beneficial use contemplated in the permit or if the permit is otherwise not being followed, the department may, after notice, require the permittee to show cause why the permit should not be modified or revoked. If the permittee fails to show sufficient cause, the department may modify or revoke the permit."

Section 14. Section 85-2-315, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-2-315. Certificate of water right. (1) Upon actual application of water to the proposed beneficial use within the time allowed, the permittee shall notify the department that the appropriation has been properly completed. The department may then inspect the appropriation, and if it determines that the appropriation has been completed in substantial accordance with the permit, it shall issue the permittee a certificate of water right. The original of the certificate shall be sent to the permittee, and a duplicate shall be kept in the office of the department in Helena.

(2) The department shall provide to the county clerk and recorder of the county wherein the point of diversion or place of use is located quarterly reports and an annual summary report of all certificates of water right issued by the department within the county."

Section 15. Section 85-2-402, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-2-402. Changes in appropriation rights. (1) An appropriator may not change the place of diversion, place of use, purpose of use, or place of storage except as permitted under this section and approved by the department.

(2) The department shall approve the proposed change if it determines that the proposed change will not adversely affect the rights of other persons. If the department determines that the proposed change might adversely affect the rights of other persons, notice of the proposed change shall be given in accordance with 85-2-307. If the department determines that an objection filed by a person whose rights may be affected states a valid objection to the proposed change, the department shall hold a hearing thereon prior to its approval or denial of the proposed change. Objections shall meet the requirements of 85-2-308(2), and hearings shall be held in accordance with 85-2-309.

(3) An appropriator of more than 15 cubic feet per second may not change the purpose of use of an appropriation right from an agricultural or irrigation use to an industrial use.

(4) The department may approve a change subject to such terms, conditions, restrictions, and limitations it considers necessary to protect the rights of other appropriators, including limitations on the time for completion of the change.

(5) If a change is not completed as approved by the department or if the terms, conditions, restrictions, and limitations of the change approval are not complied with, the department may, after notice and opportunity for hearing, require the appropriator to show cause why the change approval should not be modified or revoked. If the appropriator fails to show sufficient cause, the department may modify or revoke the change approval.

(6) Without obtaining prior approval from the department, an appropriator may not sever all or any part of an appropriation right from the land to which it is appurtenant, sell the appropriation right for other purposes or to other lands, or make the appropriation right appurtenant to other lands. The department shall approve the proposed change if it determines that the proposed change will not adversely affect the water rights of other persons. If the department determines that the proposed change might adversely affect the water rights of other persons, notice of the proposed change must be given in accordance with 85-2-307. If the department then determines that an objection filed by a person whose water rights may be affected states a valid objection to the proposed change, the department shall hold a hearing thereon prior to its approval or denial of the proposed change. Objections must meet the requirements of 85-2-308, and hearings must be held in accordance with 85-2-309.

(7) The original of a change approval issued by the department must be sent to the applicant, and a duplicate must be kept in the office of the department in Helena.

(8) A person holding an issued permit or change approval that has not been perfected may change the place of diversion, place of use, purpose of use, or place of storage by filing an application for change pursuant to this section."

Section 16. Section 85-2-403, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-2-403. Transfer of appropriation right. The right to use water shall pass with a conveyance of the land or transfer by operation of law, unless specifically exempted therefrom. All transfers of interests in appropriation rights shall be without loss of priority."

Section 17. Permit action in highly appropriated basins or subbasins. (1) The legislature may, by law, preclude permit applications, or the department may by rule reject permit applications or modify or condition permits issued in a highly appropriated basin or subbasin.

(2) A rule may be adopted under this section only upon a petition signed by at least 25% or 10, whichever is less, of the users of water in the source of supply within a basin or subbasin. The petition must be in a form as prescribed by the department and must allege facts showing that throughout or at certain times of the year or for certain beneficial uses:

(a) there are no unappropriated waters in the source of supply;

(b) the rights of prior appropriators will be adversely affected; or

(c) further uses will interfere unreasonably with other planned uses or developments for which a permit has been issued or for which water has been reserved.

(3) Within 60 days after submission of a petition, the department shall:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 992 1983

(a) deny the petition in writing, stating its reasons for denial;

(b) inform the petitioners that the department must study the allegations further before denying or proceeding further with the petition; or

(c) initiate rulemaking proceedings in accordance with 2-4-302 through 2-4-305.

(4) Title 2, chapter 4, parts 1 through 4, govern rulemaking proceedings conducted under this section, except that in addition to the notice requirements of those parts, the department notice of the rulemaking hearing must be published at least once in each week for 3 successive weeks, not less than 30 days before the date of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county or counties in which the source is located. The department shall serve by mail a copy of the notice not less than 30 days before the hearing upon each person or public agency known from the examination of the records of the department to be a claimant, appropriator, or permitholder of water in the source.

Section 18. Codification instruction. Section 17 is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 85, chapter 2, and the provisions of Title 85, chapter 2, apply to section 17.

Section 19. Severability. If a part of this act is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of this act is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications.

Section 20. Effective date. This act is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 12, 1983.

Modification. (1) The court may in its discretion modify a prior custody decree if it finds, upon the basis of facts that have arisen since the prior decree or that were unknown to the court at the time of entry of the prior decree, that a change has occurred in the circumstances of the child or his custodian and that the modification is necessary to serve the best interest of the child and if it further finds that:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 993 1983

(a) the custodian agrees to the modification;

(b) the child has been integrated into the family of the petitioner with consent of the custodian;

(c) the child's present environment endangers seriously his physical, mental, moral, or emotional health and the harm likely to be caused by a change of environment is outweighed by its advantages to him; or

CHAPTER NO. 450

AN ACT DEFINING A BICYCLE AS A "VEHICLE"; REVISING AND CLARIFYING THE BICYCLE TRAFFIC LAWS; AMENDING SECTIONS 61-1-103, 61-1-123, 61-8-333, 61-8-336, 61-8-338, 61-8-354, 61-8-368, 61-8-504, 61-8-602, 61-8-604, AND 61-8-605, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

WHEREAS, the Legislature finds that it is appropriate to conform Montana's laws on bicycles with the provisions of the Uniform Vehicle Code.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 61-1-103, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-1-103. Vehicle. "Vehicle" means every device in, upon, or by which any person or property may be transported or drawn upon a public highway, except devices moved by animal power or used exclusively upon stationary rails or tracks. However, in chapters 3 and 4, the term means "motor vehicle" as defined in this part."

Section 2. Section 61-1-123, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-1-123. Bicycle. "Bicycle" means:

(1) every vehicle propelled solely by human power upon which any person may ride, having two tandem wheels and a seat height of more than 25 inches from the ground when the seat is raised to its highest position, except scooters and similar devices; or

(2) every vehicle equipped with two or three wheels, foot pedals to permit muscular propulsion and an independent power source providing a maximum of two brake horsepower. If a combustion engine is used, the maximum piston or rotor displacement may not exceed 3.05 cubic inches (50 centimeters) regardless of the number of chambers in the power source. The power source must not be capable of propelling the device, unassisted, at a speed exceeding 30 miles an hour (48.28 kilometers an hour) on a level surface. The device must be equipped with a power drive system that functions directly or automatically only and does not require clutching or shifting by the operator after the drive system is engaged."

Section 3. Section 61-8-333, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-8-333. Required position and method of turning at intersections — bicycle turn procedures — signs. (1) The driver of a vehicle intending to turn at an intersection shall do so as follows:

(a) Right turns. Both the approach for a right turn and a right turn shall be made as close as practicable to the right-hand curb or edge of the roadway.

(b) Left turn on two-way roadways. At any intersection where traffic is permitted to move in both directions on each roadway entering the intersection, an approach for a left turn shall be made in that portion of the right half of the roadway nearest the center line thereof and by passing to the right of such center line where it enters the intersection and after entering the intersection the left turn shall be made so as to leave the intersection to the right of the center line of the roadway being entered. Whenever practicable the left turn shall be made in that portion of the intersection to the left of the center of the intersection.

(c) Left turns on other than two-way roadways. At any intersection where traffic is restricted to one direction on one or more of the roadways, the driver of a vehicle intending to turn left at any such intersection shall approach the intersection in the extreme left-hand lane lawfully available to traffic moving in the direction of travel of such vehicle and after entering the intersection the left turn shall be made so as to leave the intersection, as nearly as practicable, in the left-hand lane lawfully available to traffic moving in such direction upon the roadway being entered.

(d) A person making a turn under subsections (1)(a), (1)(b), or (1)(c) is entitled to the full use of the lane from which the turn may be legally made.

(2) (a) A person operating a bicycle who intends to turn left shall follow the course described in subsection (1) or in subsection (2)(b).

(b) A person operating a bicycle who intends to turn left shall approach the turn as close as practicable to the right curb or edge of the roadway. After proceeding across the intersecting roadway, the person shall make the turn as close as practicable to the curb or edge of the roadway on the far right side of the intersection. After turning, the person shall yield to through traffic and shall comply with any official traffic-control device or police officer regulating traffic on the highway along which he intends to proceed.

(3) Local authorities in their respective jurisdictions may cause markers, buttons, or signs to be placed within or adjacent to intersections and thereby require and direct that a different course from that specified in this section be traveled by vehicles turning at an intersection, and when markers, buttons, or signs are so placed no driver of a vehicle shall turn a vehicle at an intersection other than as directed and required by such markers, buttons, or signs."

Section 4. Section 61-8-336, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-8-336. Turning movements and required signals. (1) No person shall turn a vehicle at an intersection unless the vehicle is in proper position upon the roadway as required by 61-8-333 or turn a vehicle to enter a private road or driveway or otherwise turn a vehicle from a direct course or move right or left upon a roadway unless and until such movement can be made with reasonable safety. No person shall so turn any vehicle without giving an appropriate signal in the manner hereinafter provided in the event any other traffic may be affected by such movement.

(2) A signal of intention to turn right or left, other than when passing, when required shall be given continuously during not less than the last 100 feet traveled by the vehicle before turning in any business, residence, or urban district as defined in 61-1-408 through 61-1-410.

(3) A signal of intention to turn right or left, other than when passing, when required shall be given continuously during not less than the last 300 feet traveled by the vehicle before turning in areas other than those set forth in subsection (2).

(4) A signal by hand and arm need not be given continuously by the person operating a bicycle if the hand is needed in the control or operation of the bicycle.

(5) No person shall stop or suddenly decrease the speed of a vehicle without first giving an appropriate signal in the manner provided herein to the driver of any vehicle immediately to the rear when there is opportunity to give such signal."

Section 5. Section 61-8-338, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-8-338. Method of giving hand-and-arm signals. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), all signals herein required given by hand and arm shall be given from the left side of the vehicle in the following manner and such signals shall indicate as follows:

(a) Left turn. Hand and arm extended horizontally.

(b) Right turn. Hand and arm extended upward.

(c) Stop or decrease speed. Hand and arm extended downward.

(2) The person operating a bicycle may signal a right turn by extending the right hand and arm horizontally."

Section 6. Section 61-8-354, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-8-354. Stopping, standing, or parking prohibited in specified places — exceptions. (1) No person shall stop, stand, or park a vehicle, except as allowed under subsection (2) or when necessary to avoid conflict with other traffic or in compliance with law or the directions of a police officer or highway patrolman or traffic-control device, in any of the following places:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 996 1983

(a) on a sidewalk;

(b) in front of a public or private driveway;

(c) within an intersection;

(d) within 15 feet of a fire hydrant;

(e) on a crosswalk;

(f) within 20 feet of a crosswalk at an intersection;

(g) within 30 feet upon the approach to any flashing beacon, stop sign, or traffic-control signal located at the side of a roadway;

(h) between a safety zone and the adjacent curb or within 30 feet of points on the curb immediately opposite the ends of a safety zone, unless the local authorities indicate a different length by signs or markings;

(i) within 50 feet of the nearest rail of a railroad crossing;

(j) within 20 feet of the driveway entrance to any fire station and on the side of a street opposite the entrance to any fire station within 75 feet of said entrance when properly signposted;

(k) alongside or opposite any street excavation or obstruction when stopping, standing, or parking would obstruct traffic;

(l) on the roadway side of any vehicle stopped or parked at the edge or curb of a street;

(m) upon any bridge or other elevated structure upon a highway or within a highway tunnel;

(n) at any place where official signs prohibit stopping.

(2) A bicycle may be parked on a sidewalk and other such places if the parking does not impede normal and reasonable movement of pedestrians or other traffic.

(3) A public bus stop may not be established in the areas described in subsections (1)(a) through (c) and (e). Otherwise, this section does not prohibit the establishment of public bus stops and the regulation of their use by a local government. Such a bus stop must be established by ordinance pursuant to a traffic and engineering study. Such establishment is subject to review and approval by the department of highways if the bus stop is to be established on a street or highway under its jurisdiction.

(4) No person shall move a vehicle not lawfully under his control into any such prohibited area or away from a curb such distance as is unlawful."

Section 7. Section 61-8-368, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-8-368. Opening and closing vehicle doors. No person shall open any door of a motor vehicle unless and until it is reasonably safe to do so without interfering with the movement of other traffic, nor shall any person leave a door open on a side of a vehicle available to moving traffic for a period of time longer than necessary to load or unload passengers."

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 997 1983

Section 8. Section 61-8-504, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-8-504. Drivers to exercise due care. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this part, every driver of a vehicle shall exercise due care to avoid colliding with any pedestrian or with any person operating a bicycle upon any roadway and shall give warning by sounding the horn when necessary and shall exercise proper precaution upon observing any child or any confused or incapacitated person upon a roadway."

Section 9. Section 61-8-602, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-8-602. Traffic laws applicable to persons operating bicycles. Every person operating a bicycle shall be granted all of the rights and shall be subject to all of the duties applicable to the driver of any other vehicle chapter 7, this chapter, and chapter 9 except as to special regulations in this part and except as to those provisions of chapter 7, this chapter, and chapter 9 which by their very nature can have no application."

Section 10. Section 61-8-604, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-8-604. Clinging to vehicles. No person riding upon any bicycle, coaster, roller skates, sled, or toy vehicle shall attach the same or himself to any vehicle upon a roadway, but a bicycle trailer or bicycle semitrailer may be attached to a bicycle if that trailer or semitrailer has been designed for such attachment."

Section 11. Section 61-8-605, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-8-605. Riding on roadways and bicycle paths. (1) A person operating a bicycle upon a roadway at less than the normal speed of traffic at the time and place and under the conditions then existing shall ride as near to the right side of the roadway as practicable except when:

(a) overtaking and passing another vehicle proceeding in the same direction;

(b) preparing for a left turn at an intersection or into a private road or driveway; or

(c) necessary to avoid a condition that makes it unsafe to continue along the right side of the roadway, including but not limited to a fixed or moving object, parked or moving vehicle, pedestrian, animal, surface hazard, or a lane that is too narrow for a bicycle and another vehicle to travel safely side by side within the lane.

(2) A person operating a bicycle upon a one-way highway with two or more marked traffic lanes may ride as close to the left side of the roadway as practicable.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 998 1983

(3) Persons riding bicycles upon a roadway shall ride in single file except when:

(a) riding on paths or parts of roadways set aside for the exclusive use of bicycles;

(b) overtaking and passing another bicycle;

(c) riding on a paved shoulder or in a parking lane, in which case the persons may ride two abreast; or

(d) riding within a single lane on a laned roadway with at least two lanes in each direction, in which case the persons may ride two abreast if they do not impede the normal and reasonable movement of traffic more than they would otherwise impede such traffic by riding single file and in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

(4) Whenever a usable path for bicycles has been provided adjacent to a roadway, bicycle riders shall use such path and shall not use the roadway. A person riding a bicycle defined in 61-1-123(2) is excluded from the provisions of this subsection when such bicycle is prohibited from using such paths.

(5) A bicycle, as defined in 61-1-123(2), is excluded from the provisions of subsections (1) and (2)."

Section 12. Pedestrian's right-of-way on sidewalks. The driver of a vehicle crossing a sidewalk shall yield the right-of-way to any pedestrian and all other traffic on the sidewalk.

Section 13. Bicycles on sidewalks. (1) A person operating a bicycle upon and along a sidewalk or across a roadway upon and along a crosswalk shall yield the right-of-way to any pedestrian and shall give audible signal before overtaking and passing any pedestrian.

(2) A person may not ride a bicycle upon and along a sidewalk or across a roadway upon and along a crosswalk where the use of a bicycle is prohibited by official traffic-control devices.

(3) Except as provided in subsections (1) and (2), a person operating a vehicle by human power upon and along a sidewalk or across a roadway upon and along a crosswalk has all the rights and duties applicable to a pedestrian under the same circumstances.

Section 14. Codification instruction. Section 12 is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 61, chapter 8, part 5, and section 13 is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 61, chapter 8, part 6, and the provisions of Title 61, chapter 8, apply to sections 12 and 13.

Regular interest shall be computed and allowed to provide a benefit at the time of retirement.

(2) "Actuarial equivalent" means a benefit of equal value when computed, with regular interest, on the basis of the mortality tables adopted by the retirement board.

If the earned compensation includes any termination pay, the member shall select one of the following options:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1003 1983

(i) use the total termination pay in the calculation of the average final compensation. The member and the employer shall pay such contributions to the retirement system as are determined by the board to adequately compensate the system for the additional retirement benefit. The contributions must be made at the time the termination pay is received.

(ii) use a yearly amount of termination pay added to each of the 3 consecutive years' salary used in the calculation of the average final compensation. The amount of such compensation used in the calculation of average final compensation must be divided by the total number of years of creditable service with the employer from whom this type of compensation was received to determine a yearly amount. The member and the employer must pay the regular contribution on the termination pay; or

(iii) exclude the termination pay from the average final compensation. No contribution is required of either the employer or member.

(b) For purposes of this subsection, termination pay includes any form of termination pay or any lump-sum payment for deferred compensation, sick leave, or accumulated vacation credit, or any other payment for time not worked other than compensation received while on sick leave or authorized leave of absence.

(8) "Earned compensation" means the full compensation, pay, or salary actually paid to a member and reported to the retirement system, including amounts paid under a salary reduction agreement to a tax sheltered annuity or deferred compensation program and the value of any housing provided by the employer. The employer shall fix the value of any housing provided. The term does not include any other amounts paid in kind or fringe benefits not actually paid to a member. The earned compensation of a member who had less than 3 consecutive years of full-time service during the 5 years preceding his retirement is the compensation, pay, or salary which he would have earned had his part-time service been full-time service. The earned compensation of a member who is awarded a disability retirement allowance prior to the completion of a full year is the compensation, pay, or salary which he would have received had he completed the full year, except that any termination pay, as defined in subsection (5)(b), received by the member is limited to the amount actually paid and is not the amount he would have earned had he completed the full year.

(9) "Employer" means the state of Montana, the trustees of a district, or any other agency or subdivision of the state which employs a person who is designated a member of the retirement system.

(10) "Full-time service" means service which is full-time and which extends over a normal academic year of at least 9 months. With respect to those members employed by the office of the superintendent of public instruction, any other state agency or institution, or the office of a county

(14) "Pension reserve" means the present value of all payments to be made on account of a pension computed, with regular interest, on the basis of the mortality tables adopted by the retirement board.

(4) If the owner or agent of the owner of such lot or parcel of land or if the owners or agents of all adjacent owners having access to their property by the alley approach fail or neglect for a period of 30 days after the date of service of the notice to cause such sidewalk, curb, or gutter to be constructed or to cause such alley approaches to be constructed or replaced, the city may construct or cause the sidewalk, curb, or gutter to be constructed or may construct or cause the alley approach to be constructed and shall assess the cost thereof, including engineering costs and the costs enumerated in 7-12-4121 and 7-12-4169, against the property in front of which the same is constructed or against the lots or parcels of land having access via the constructed alley approaches. The collection of the assessed costs shall be as provided in 7-12-4181 through 7-12-4191.

AN ACT ELIMINATING THE PROVISION ALLOWING MONTANA NATIONAL GUARDSMEN TO PARTICIPATE IN THE PUBLIC EMPLOYEES' RETIREMENT SYSTEM; AMENDING SECTION 19-3-402, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 19-3-402, MCA, is amended to read:

"19-3-402. Federally subsidized employees eligible. A person whose compensation is paid either fully or in part from federal funds but who is not subject to the federal retirement system is considered an employee and is entitled to all benefits and is required to make all employee contributions under the retirement system based upon the full salary received by such employee, including that portion of salary paid from federal funds."

Section 2. Effective date. This act is effective July 1, 1984.

Approved April 12, 1983.

CHAPTER NO. 459

AN ACT TO REQUIRE THAT IF THE BOARD OF LAND COMMISSIONERS ADOPTS RULES TO ESTABLISH THE MARKET VALUE OF CABIN SITE LICENSES AND LEASES, IT ADOPT A METHOD OF VALUATION OF CURRENT CABIN SITE LICENSES AND LEASES BASED UPON AN APPRAISED LICENSE OR LEASE VALUE AND A METHOD OF VALUATION OF INITIAL CABIN SITE LICENSES OR LEASES BASED UPON A SYSTEM OF COMPETITIVE BIDDING; AND PROVIDING FOR THE VALUATION, DISPOSAL, OR PURCHASE OF FIXTURES AND IMPROVEMENTS.

WHEREAS, on February 13, 1981, the Board of Land Commissioners proposed to adopt rules concerning surface licenses and leases for the use of state forest lands for recreational cabin sites by private individuals, which rules would have established the market value of recreational cabin site licenses and leases by a system of competitive bidding; and

WHEREAS, the rules would have allowed out-of-state interests and other parties to increase by competitive bidding the cost of current cabin site licenses and leases and would thereby have worked a hardship on or dispossessed current licensees and lessees and were therefore subsequently withdrawn by the Board; and

WHEREAS, the policy of this state for the leasing of state lands as provided in 77-1-202 is that the guiding principle in the leasing of state lands is "that these lands and funds are held in trust for the support of education and for the attainment of other worthy objects helpful to the well-being of the people of this state"; and

WHEREAS, allowing current cabin site licensees and lessees to continue to enjoy the benefits of existing licenses and leases and the benefits of their labor is a worthy object helpful to the well-being of the people of this state in that it promotes continuity in the care of state lands, promotes use of state lands by the public by granting a minimal expectation of continuing enjoyment, and promotes satisfaction with governmental processes.

THEREFORE, it is the intent of this bill to direct that if the Board of Land Commissioners adopts any rules under whatever existing rulemaking authority it may have to establish the market value of current cabin site licenses or leases, that the Board, in furtherance of the state policy expressed in 77-1-202, adopt a method of establishing the market values of cabin site licenses and leases which would not cause undue disruption to the lives and property of and useful enjoyment by current licensees and lessees.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Method of establishing market value for licenses and leases. (1) If the board adopts, under any existing authority it may have on October 1, 1983, a method of establishing the market value of cabin site licenses or leases differing from the method used by the board on that date, the board shall under that authority establish a method for setting the market value of:

(a) each cabin site license or lease in effect on October 1, 1983, for each licensee or lessee who at any time wishes to continue or assign his license or lease, which method must be 5% of the appraisal of the license or lease value of the property, which value may be increased or decreased every fifth year by 5% of the change in the appraised value; and

(b) each initial cabin site license or lease, or current cabin site license or lease of a person who does not choose to retain the license or lease, which method must be based upon a system of competitive bidding, and thereafter for a person who wishes to retain that license or lease, under the method provided for in subsection (1)(a).

(2) If the board adopts, under whatever authority it may have on October 1, 1983, the method of valuation of cabin site licenses and leases required by this section, it shall also adopt under that same authority a method for the disposal or valuation of any fixtures or improvements placed upon the property by the then-current licensee or lessee and shall require the subsequent licensee or lessee whose bid is accepted by the board to purchase those fixtures or improvements in the manner required by the board.

(3) Nothing in this section may be construed as a delegation of rulemaking authority to the board.

Section 2. Codification instruction. Section 1 is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 77, chapter 1, part 2, and the provisions of Title 77 apply to section 1.

Approved April 12, 1983.

CHAPTER NO. 460

AN ACT TO PROVIDE THAT THE COUNTY AND STATE EQUALIZATION APPORTIONMENT OF A SCHOOL DISTRICT BE REDUCED BY 1/90TH FOR EACH SCHOOL DAY THAT THE DISTRICT FAILS TO MEET THE REQUIREMENT OF 180 DAYS OF PUPIL INSTRUCTION EACH SCHOOL FISCAL YEAR; AMENDING SECTION 20-1-301, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 20-1-301, MCA, is amended to read:

"20-1-301. School fiscal year. The school fiscal year shall begin on July 1 and end on June 30. At least 180 school days of pupil instruction shall be conducted during each school fiscal year, except that 175 days of pupil instruction for graduating seniors may be sufficient as provided in 20-9-313, or unless a variance for kindergarten has been granted under 20-1-302 or a district is granted a variance under the provisions of chapter 9, part 8, of this title. For any elementary or high school district that fails to provide for at least 180 school days of pupil instruction, the superintendent of public instruction shall reduce the county equalization as defined in 20-9-334 and the state equalization as defined in 20-9-343 for the district for that school year by 1/90th for each school day less than 180 school days."

Section 2. Coordination. If House Bill 99 is passed by the 48th legislature and approved, the following further amendments are made in section 1:

(1) In the amended language of the last sentence, following "school year by", "1/90th" is replaced with "an amount equivalent to 2 days of such aid".

(2) In the amended language of the last sentence, following "school day less than", "180" is replaced with "the required number of".

Approved April 12, 1983.

CHAPTER NO. 461

AN ACT TO DEFINE THE TERMS "DEAF/BLIND", "MULTIHANDICAPPED", AND "RELATED SERVICES" AS THEY RELATE TO THE LAWS GOVERNING SPECIAL EDUCATION OF HANDICAPPED PERSONS IN MONTANA; AMENDING SECTION 20-7-401, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 20-7-401, MCA, is amended to read:

"20-7-401. Definitions. In this title, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the following definitions apply:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1016 1983

(1) "Appropriate public education" means the provision of regular or special education and related aids and services that are designed to meet individual educational needs of handicapped persons as adequately as the needs of nonhandicapped are met.

(2) "Deaf" means a hearing impairment which is so severe that the child's hearing is nonfunctional for the purpose of educational performance.

(3) "Deaf/blind" means concomitant hearing and visual impairments, the combination of which causes such severe educational problems for the child so impaired that the child cannot be accommodated in a special education program designed solely for deaf or blind children.

(4) "Emotionally disturbed" means a condition exhibiting one or more of the following characteristics to a marked degree and over a long period of time: an inability to learn which cannot be explained by intellectual, sensory, or health factors; an inability to build or maintain satisfactory interpersonal relationships with peers and teachers; inappropriate types of behavior or feelings under normal circumstances; a general pervasive mood of unhappiness or depression; or a tendency to develop physical symptoms, pains, or fears associated with personal or school problems. The term does not include children who are socially maladjusted. The emotionally disturbed category may include students who also may have been diagnosed by appropriate specialists as psychotic, sociopathic, or schizophrenic. An emotionally disturbed child's disorders are not primarily the result of problems with visual acuity, hearing impairment, physical handicaps, cultural or instructional factors, or mental retardation. "Emotionally disturbed" refers to a person who has been identified, based on a comprehensive evaluation, as having observable behavioral patterns which seriously inhibit the academic and social or emotional growth of the individual or the educational rights of others to the point that supportive services are required. These behavioral patterns may include:

(a) excessive physical or verbal aggression toward oneself or others and a lack of response to regular educational intervention;

(b) high frequency of persistent inattention to academic or social tasks associated with regular classroom performance; and

(c) persistent withdrawal from peer or adult interactions associated with the expected social development in a regular educational environment.

(5) "Handicapped child" means a child evaluated as being mentally retarded, hard-of-hearing, deaf, speech-impaired, visually handicapped, emotionally disturbed, deaf/blind, multihandicapped, orthopedically impaired, other health-impaired, or as having specific learning disabilities, who because of those impairments needs special education and related services.

(6) "Hard-of-hearing" means a hearing impairment, whether permanent or fluctuating, which adversely affects a child's educational performance but which is not included within the definition of deaf.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1017 1983

(7) "Mentally retarded" means significantly subaverage general intellectual functioning existing concurrently with deficits in adaptive behavior and manifested during the developmental period, which adversely affects a child's educational performance.

(8) "Multihandicapped" means concomitant impairments (e.g., mentally retarded/blind or mentally retarded/orthopedically impaired), the combination of which causes such severe educational problems for the child so impaired that the child cannot be accommodated in a special education program designed solely for one of the impairments. The term does not include deaf/blind children.

(9) "Orthopedically impaired" means a severe orthopedic impairment which adversely affects a child's educational performance. The term includes but is not limited to impairment caused by congenital anomaly (e.g., clubfoot or absence of some member), impairments caused by disease (e.g., poliomyelitis, bone tuberculosis), and impairments from other causes (e.g., fractures or burns which cause contractures, amputation, cerebral palsy).

(10) "Other health-impaired" means:

(a) having an autistic condition that is manifested by severe communication and other developmental and educational problems; or

(b) having limited strength, vitality, or alertness due to chronic or acute health problems such as a heart condition, tuberculosis, rheumatic fever, nephritis, asthma, sickle-cell anemia, hemophilia, epilepsy, lead poisoning, leukemia, or diabetes.

(11) "Related services" means transportation and such developmental, corrective, and other supportive services as are required to assist a handicapped child to benefit from special education and includes speech pathology, audiology, occupational therapy, and physical therapy.

(12) "Special education" means specially designed instruction, given at no cost to the parents or guardians, to meet the unique needs of a handicapped child, including but not limited to classroom instruction, instruction in physical education, home instruction, and instruction in hospitals and institutions.

(13) "Specific learning disability" means a disorder in one or more of the basic psychological processes involved in understanding or in using language, spoken or written, which may manifest itself in an imperfect ability to listen, think, speak, read, write, spell, or do mathematical calculations. The term includes but is not limited to such conditions as perceptual handicaps, brain injury, minimal brain dysfunction, dyslexia, and developmental aphasia. The term does not include children who have learning problems which are primarily the result of visual, hearing, or motor handicaps; mental retardation; or environmental, cultural, or economic disadvantages.

(14) "Speech/language impaired" means a communication disorder such as stuttering, impaired articulation, or a language or voice impairment which adversely affects a child's interpersonal relationships or educational performance.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1018 1983

(15) "Visually handicapped" means a visual impairment which, after correction, adversely affects a child's educational performance. The term includes both partially seeing and blind children."

Approved April 12, 1983.

(6) The term "hybrid" applied to kinds of varieties of seed means the first generation seed of a cross produced by controlling the pollination and by combining:

(a) two or more inbred lines;

(b) one inbred or a single cross with an open pollinated variety; or

(c) two or more selected clones, seed lines, varieties, or species.

(7) "Controlling the pollination" means to use a method hybridization which will produce pure seed which is at least 75% hybrid seed. Hybrid designations shall be treated as variety names.

(8) The terms "approximate percentage" and "approximate number" mean the percentage or number with the variations above or below as allowed according to the tolerance limits defined in the "rules for seed testing" adopted by the association of official seed analysts.

(9) The term "percentage of germination" means the percentage of seeds which show normal sprouts as evidence of vitality when the seeds are subjected to the proper moisture and temperature conditions with proper aeration for the customary length of time for each specific kind of seed, as specified in the "rules for seed testing" adopted by the association of official seed analysts.

(a) an agency authorized under the laws of a state, territory, or possession to officially certify seed and which has standards and procedures to assure the genetic purity and identity of the seed certified; or

(b) an agency of a foreign country determined by the department to adhere to procedures and standards for seed certification comparable to those adhered to generally by seed certifying agencies under subsection (15)(a) of this section.

(16) The term "protected variety" means a variety for which a certificate has been issued by the U.S. plant variety protection office or for which an application for protection has been filed granting the owner or his authorized agent exclusive rights in the sale and distribution of the variety."

Section 2. Section 80-5-102, MCA, is amended to read:

"80-5-102. Labeling of agricultural seeds. Any person offering for sale a package, parcel, or lot of agricultural seeds, as defined in 80-5-101, that contains 1 pound or more of agricultural seeds, whether in package or in bulk, must have affixed to it a label specifying:

(1) a lot number or other distinguishing mark;

(2) kind. The name of each kind of seed present in excess of 5% shall be shown on the label and need not be accompanied by the word "kind". When two or more kinds of seed are named on the label, the name of each kind shall be accompanied by the percentage of each. When only one kind of seed is present in excess of 5% and no variety name or type designation is shown, the percentage of that kind may be shown as "pure seed" and such percentage shall apply to seed of the kind named.

(3) variety, as follows:

(a) the following kinds of agricultural seeds shall be labeled to show the variety name or the words "variety not stated":

alfalfa
barley bean, field beet, field
brome, smooth clover, crimson clover, red clover, white corn, field corn, pop fescue, tall
flax

(b) if the name of the variety is given, the name may be associated with the name of the kind with or without the words "kind and variety". The percentage in this case may be shown as "pure seed" and shall apply only to seed of the variety named. If separate percentages for the kind and the variety or hybrid are shown, the name of the kind and the name of the variety or the term "hybrid" shall be clearly associated with the respective percentages. When two or more varieties are present in excess of 5% and are named on the label, the name of each variety shall be accompanied by the percentage of each.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1023 1983

(4) that the seed is hybrid, if any one kind or kind and variety of seed present in excess of 5% is "hybrid" seed. The percentage that is hybrid shall be at least 95% of the percentage of pure seed shown unless the percentage of pure seed which is hybrid seed is shown separately. If two or more kinds or varieties are present in excess of 5% and are named on the label, each that is hybrid shall be designated as "hybrid" on the label. No one kind or variety of seed may be labeled as "hybrid" if the pure seed contains less than 75% hybrid seed. Any one kind or kind and variety that has pure seed which is less than 95% but more than 75% hybrid seed as a result of incompletely controlled pollination in a cross shall be labeled to show:

(a) the percentage of pure seed that is hybrid seed; or

(b) a statement such as "Contains from 75% to 95% hybrid seed";

(6) the approximate percentage of germination of agricultural seed, together with the date of test of germination. In all cases where hard seeds remain at the end of the germination test, the percentage of actual germination and the percentage of hard seeds shall be stated separately, with the provision that any portion or all of the percentage of hard seeds may be added to the percentage of germination and stated as "total germination and hard seed".

(8) the approximate percentage by weight of sand, dirt, broken seeds, sticks, chaff, and other inert matter combined in agricultural seeds;

(9) the approximate total percentage by weight of weed seeds;

(10) the approximate percentage by weight of other crop seeds in agricultural seeds;

(11) the name and approximate number of each kind or species of restricted noxious weed seeds occurring per pound of agricultural, vegetable, or flower seeds;

(12) the full name and address of the seedsman, importer, dealer or agent, or other person, firm, or corporation selling the agricultural seed;

(13) in the case of mixtures of agricultural seeds which contain two or more kinds of seed in excess of 5% by weight of each, when sold as mixtures:

(a) name of mixture;

(b) name and approximate percentage by weight of each kind of agricultural seed present in the mixture in excess of 5% by weight of the total mixture;

(c) approximate percentage by weight of broken seeds and other inert matter in the mixture of agricultural seeds;

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1024 1983

(g) approximate percentage of germination of each kind of agricultural seed present in the mixture in excess of 5% by weight, together with the month and year the seed was tested. In all cases where hard seeds remain at the end of the germination test, the percentage of actual germination and the percentage of hard seeds shall be stated separately, with the provision that any portion or all of the hard seed may be added to the percentage of germination and stated as "total germination and hard seed".

(h) full name and address of the vendor of the mixture."

Section 3. Section 80-5-104, MCA, is amended to read:

Section 5. Section 80-5-112, MCA, is amended to read:

The department may issue and enforce a written or printed "stop sale" order to the owner or custodian of any lot of agricultural seed which the department finds in violation of 80-5-101 through 80-5-113. The order shall prohibit further sale of the seed until the department has evidence that the law has been complied with. The seed may not be confiscated or destroyed. Upon proper correction, by reconditioning, labeling, or otherwise, and when, in the judgment of the department, the requirements of 80-5-101 through 80-5-113 have been met, the stop sale order shall be lifted and the seed may be sold. The department shall adopt all necessary rules relating to the agricultural experiment station's duties under 80-5-101 through 80-5-113."

Section 6. Section 80-5-201, MCA, is amended to read:

(2) "Bin-run seed sales from one farmer to another farmer" means buyer beware.

(3) "Montana certified seed grower" means a member of an authorized Montana seed certifying agency who has consented to produce seed under the rules for certified classes of seed, with respect to the maintenance of genetic purity and variety identity, set forth by the certifying agency.

(4) "Person" means any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association.

(5) "Public agricultural seed warehouse" means any warehouse or structure in which agricultural seed is received from the public for storage, assembling, or cleaning.

(6) "Screening" means chaff, sterile florets, immature seed, weed seed, inert matter, and any other materials removed from seed by any kind of cleaning or conditioning.

(7) "Seed buyer" means any person engaged in the business of buying agricultural seed for shipment, cleaning, processing, or resale and who does not own, control, or operate a public agricultural seed warehouse. Any individual employed by a seed buyer is not included in this term.

(8) "Seed dealer" means any person who offers for sale, sells, or barters agricultural seeds to the ultimate consumer.

(9) "Seed labeler" means any person affixing labels to agricultural seeds with his name and address listed as required in 80-5-102 when such seed is distributed in Montana.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1027 1983

(10) "Seed conditioning plant" means any place of business that repackages, conditions, blends, treats, or otherwise manipulates agricultural seeds.

Section 7. Section 80-5-202, MCA, is amended to read:

"80-5-202. Licensing — issuance — application — fee — bonding — insurance. (1) All seed conditioning plants, seed labelers, seed buyers, and public agricultural seed warehouses shall obtain a license from the department before doing business in this state; however, a Montana certified seed grower, when conditioning or labeling certified seed from his own production, is not required to be licensed under this part. Bin-run seed sales from one farmer to another are exempt from this part.

(2) All licenses are issued on a fiscal-year basis and expire on June 30 of each year. A license may cover any or as many as all four activities: conditioning plant, seed labeler, seed buyer, and public agricultural seed warehouse.

(3) Application for license is made in a manner and on forms provided by the department. A nonresident shall file a written power of attorney designating the secretary of state as his agent, and the power of attorney shall be so prepared and in such form as to render effective the jurisdiction of the courts of the state of Montana over the nonresident applicant. A nonresident who has a duly appointed resident agent upon whom process may be served as provided by law is not required to designate the secretary of state as his agent. The department shall be furnished with a certified copy of the designation of the secretary of state or of a resident agent.

(4) The department may establish by rule minimum standards for equipment and handling procedures for facilities to be licensed and may carry out inspections during normal business hours to determine that these standards are being adhered to.

(5) Each license shall cost no more than $50 a year. The department may by rule establish license fees which bear a reasonable relationship to the cost of administering this part.

(6) Failure on the part of a licensee to comply with the rules issued under the authority of this section is sufficient cause for cancellation of a license by the department, provided the licensee is given a reasonable opportunity to correct inadvertent and nonrecurring deficiencies.

(7) The department may by rule establish bonding and insurance requirements for each class of license."

Section 8. Section 80-5-203, MCA, is amended to read:

"80-5-203. Dealer's license — exception — fee — application — violation. (1) No person may distribute seed without obtaining a dealer's license from the department for each place of business. No license is required of a person who distributes seeds only in sealed packages of less than 10 pounds, packed by a licensed seed labeler and bearing his name and address. Each dealer's license shall cost no more than $20 a year and expires on June 30 of each year. The department may by rule establish license fees which bear a reasonable relationship to the cost of administering this part.

(2) Application for a dealer's license shall be made in a manner and on forms provided by the department. Such forms shall require among other things the name of a person domiciled in this state authorized to receive and accept service or legal notices of all kinds.

(3) Violation of provisions of this section or the distribution of agricultural seeds not legally labeled constitutes adequate grounds for canceling a license or denying a license to a dealer."

Section 9. Section 80-5-204, MCA, is amended to read:

"80-5-204. Screenings — restrictions on movements. All screenings whether from seed conditioning plants or other sources represent both a valuable and potentially hazardous product. Their movements are restricted as follows:

(1) The viability of prohibited noxious weed seed as defined in 80-5-101 shall be destroyed before screenings are utilized in feed or in any other way in which they may propagate their kind. However, if these screenings are sold for feed, it shall be the responsibility of the feed buyer to haul under a tarp cover or other tight container until the provisions of this part are met.

(2) The department has authority to issue rules to restrict or exempt from restriction the holding and movement of screenings when the public interest is served by so doing."

Section 10. Effective date. This act is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 13, 1983.

CHAPTER NO. 466

AN ACT TO REQUIRE A GRANT OF RULEMAKING AUTHORITY WITH EACH STATUTE ENACTED OR AMENDED IF IT IS TO BE IMPLEMENTED BY AN ADMINISTRATIVE RULE; AMENDING SECTIONS 2-4-305 AND 5-4-402, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN APPLICABILITY CLAUSE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 2-4-305, MCA, is amended to read:

"2-4-305. Requisites for validity — authority and statement of reasons. (1) The agency shall consider fully written and oral submissions respecting the proposed rule. Upon adoption of a rule, an agency shall issue a concise statement of the principal reasons for and against its adoption, incorporating therein its reasons for overruling the considerations urged against its adoption. If substantial differences exist between the rule as proposed and as adopted and the differences have not been described or set forth in the adopted rule as that rule is printed in the Montana administrative register, the differences must be described in the statement of reasons for and against agency action. When no written or oral submissions have been received, an agency may omit the statement of reasons.

(2) Rules may not unnecessarily repeat statutory language. Whenever it is necessary to refer to statutory language in order to convey the meaning of a rule interpreting the language, the reference shall clearly indicate that portion of the language which is statutory and the portion which is amplification of the language.

(3) Each proposed and adopted rule shall include a citation to the specific grant of rulemaking authority pursuant to which it or any part thereof is adopted. A rule proposed and adopted to implement a statute referred to in 5-4-402(3) must include a citation to the session laws of Montana containing the specific grant of rulemaking authority pursuant to which it or any part thereof is adopted. In addition, each proposed and adopted rule shall include a citation to the specific section or sections in the Montana Code Annotated which the rule purports to implement.

(4) Each rule proposed and adopted by an agency implementing a policy of a governing board or commission must include a citation to and description of the policy implemented. Each agency rule implementing a policy, as used in the definition set forth in 2-4-102(10), and the policy itself must be based on legal authority and otherwise comply with the requisites for validity of rules established by this chapter.

(5) To be effective, each substantive rule adopted must be within the scope of authority conferred and in accordance with standards prescribed by other provisions of law.

(6) Whenever by the express or implied terms of any statute a state agency has authority to adopt rules to implement, interpret, make specific, or otherwise carry out the provisions of the statute, no rule adopted is valid or effective unless consistent and not in conflict with the statute and reasonably necessary to effectuate the purpose of the statute.

(7) No rule is valid unless adopted in substantial compliance with 2-4-302 or 2-4-303 and this section and unless notice of adoption thereof is published within 6 months of the publishing of notice of the proposed rule. If an amended or supplemental notice of either proposed or final rulemaking, or both, is published concerning the same rule, the 6-month limit must be determined with reference to the latest notice in all cases."

Section 2. Section 5-4-402, MCA, is amended to read:

"5-4-402. Purpose. (1) The legislature finds that it must accept the ultimate responsibility for the increase in the discretionary authority of state executive branch agencies, as evidenced by proliferating rules, forms, orders, and licensing proceedings before state agencies.

(2) The purpose of this Legislative History Act is to assure that statutes henceforth enacted to grant additional discretionary authority to state agencies are accompanied by a clear indication of the legislature's intent as to how such discretion is to be exercised and the legislature's purpose for delegating the authority.

(3) A statute enacted or amended may not be implemented by an administrative rule, even in an area in which a state agency has existing rulemaking authority, unless the statute enacted or amended is accompanied by a delegation of authority extending such authority to the statute as enacted or amended."

Section 3. Applicability. This act applies to statutes enacted or amended after October 1, 1983.

Approved April 13, 1983.

AN ACT TO CLARIFY THE METHOD FOR CALCULATING THE COST-OF-LIVING ADJUSTMENT TO A RETIREMENT ALLOWANCE FOR A MEMBER OF THE FIREFIGHTERS' UNIFIED RETIREMENT SYSTEM; TO ENSURE PAYMENT OF A RETIREMENT ALLOWANCE TO CERTAIN FIREFIGHTERS WHOSE EMPLOYMENT IS INVOLUNTARILY TERMINATED; TO PROVIDE AN ALTERNATIVE METHOD FOR CALCULATING THE COST-OF-LIVING ADJUSTMENT FOR A RETIREE FROM A CITY NO LONGER EMPLOYING A NEWLY CONFIRMED FULL-PAID FIREFIGHTER; AMENDING SECTIONS 19-13-1006 AND 19-13-1007, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Termination of participation in plan or reduction of employer contributions. (1) If a city voluntarily terminates its contributions in the plan or significantly reduces the number of full-paid firefighters it employs to a degree that, in the board's opinion, inadequately funds the accrued or accruing benefits of plan members, the board shall request as part of the actuarial valuation required in 19-13-504 an actuarial investigation of the funding status of the city.

(2) Based on the actuarial investigation, the board may request and the city shall pay annually an amount needed to provide adequate funding for the city. This amount must be in addition to any other contributions required by the retirement act.

(3) Six years after the actuarial investigation is conducted, a city making payments as provided in subsection (2) may request the board to review the city's funding status relative to the annual payments. As a result of the review, the board may adjust the payments.

Section 2. Section 19-13-1006, MCA, is amended to read:

"19-13-1006. Supplement to certain retirement allowances. (1) The plan shall pay to each firefighter retired before July 1, 1973, or his surviving spouse or children a monthly retirement allowance of not less than one-half the regular monthly salary paid to a confirmed active firefighter of the city that last employed him as a firefighter, as provided each year in the budget of that city. If the city that last employed him as a firefighter no longer employs a full-paid firefighter, the firefighter's or his beneficiary's allowance may not be less than one-half the average regular monthly salary paid to all newly confirmed full-paid firefighters, as provided each year in the budgets of those cities that participate in the plan and employ a full-paid firefighter. In the case of volunteer firefighters, the retirement allowance may not exceed $75 per month. Distribution of the money provided for this purpose under 19-11-606(1) shall be made according to subsection (2).

(2) At the beginning of each fiscal year the administrator shall request and the state auditor shall issue from the earmarked revenue fund and deliver to the administrator an amount certified to be equal to the total annual dollar difference between the total retirement allowances paid to all retirees or their surviving spouses or children in the previous fiscal year and the total benefits payable on June 30, 1973. The administrator shall deposit this money into the fund."

Section 3. Section 19-13-1007, MCA, is amended to read:

"19-13-1007. Allowance adjustment. (1) For a member retiring on or after July 1, 1973, who was hired before July 1, 1981, or his surviving spouse or dependent children, the service retirement allowance provided in 19-13-704(1)(a), the disability retirement allowance provided in 19-13-803(1), and the survivorship allowance provided in 19-13-902(1) may not be less than one-half the monthly compensation paid to a newly confirmed, active firefighter of a city that last employed him as a firefighter, as provided each year in the budget of that city.

(3) If after a member retires, the city that last employed him no longer employs a full-paid firefighter, the member's or his beneficiary's allowance under subsections (1) and (2) must be adjusted on the basis of the average monthly compensation paid to all newly confirmed full-paid firefighters, as provided each year in the budgets of those cities that participate in the plan and employ a full-paid firefighter.

(4) If the employment of a vested member hired before July 1, 1981, is involuntarily discontinued before he reaches age 50 because of the termination of employment of all full-paid firefighters in the city that employed him, his service retirement allowance provided in 19-13-704(1)(b) and his spouse's or dependent child's survivorship allowance provided in 19-13-902(1) may not be less than:

(a) if the member has completed 20 years or more of service, one-half the average monthly compensation paid to all newly confirmed, full-paid firefighters, as provided each year in the budgets of those cities that participate in the plan and employ a full-paid firefighter; or

(b) if the member has completed more than 10 but less than 20 years of service, 2% of the average monthly compensation paid to all newly confirmed, full-paid firefighters, as provided each year in the budgets of those cities that participate in the plan and employ a full-paid firefighter, for each year of the member's service.

(5) In lieu of the benefit adjustment provided in subsection (4), a member may elect to receive an early retirement allowance beginning upon termination of employment that is the actuarial equivalent of the accrued portion of the service retirement allowance that would have been payable to him beginning at age 50."

CHAPTER NO. 470

AN ACT MAKING WORKERS' COMPENSATION COVERAGE MANDATORY FOR INDEPENDENT CONTRACTORS WHO ARE NOT CONTRACTING FOR AGRICULTURAL SERVICES TO BE PERFORMED ON A FARM OR RANCH OR FOR BROKER OR SALESMAN SERVICES TO BE PERFORMED IN A REAL ESTATE BUSINESS AND PROVIDING FOR AN OPTIONAL EXEMPTION FROM COVERAGE; REQUIRING EMPLOYERS TO POST SIGNS GIVING NOTICE OF EMPLOYER'S COVERAGE AND PROVIDING A FINE; AMENDING SECTION 39-71-401, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 39-71-401, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-71-401. Employments covered and employments exempted. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the Workers' Compensation Act applies to all employers as defined in 39-71-117 and to all employees as defined in 39-71-118. An employer who has any employee in service under any appointment or contract of hire, expressed or implied, oral or written, shall elect to be bound by the provisions of compensation plan No. 1, 2, or 3. Every employee whose employer is bound by the Workers' Compensation Act is subject to and bound by the compensation plan that has been elected by the employer.

(2) Unless the employer elects coverage for these employments under this chapter and an insurer allows such an election, the Workers' Compensation Act does not apply to any of the following employments:

(a) household and domestic employment;

(b) casual employment as defined in 39-71-116(3);

(c) employment of members of an employer's family dwelling in the employer's household;

(d) employment of sole proprietors or working members of a partnership other than those who consider themselves or hold themselves out as independent contractors and who are not contracting for agricultural services to be performed on a farm or ranch or for broker or salesman services performed under a license issued by the board of realty regulation;

(f) any person performing services in return for aid or sustenance only;

(g) employment with any railroad engaged in interstate commerce, except that railroad construction work shall be included in and subject to the provisions of this chapter.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1050 1983

ranch or for broker or salesman services performed under a license issued by the board of realty regulation must elect to be bound personally and individually by the provisions of compensation plan No. 1, 2, or 3, but he may apply to the division for an exemption from the Workers' Compensation Act for himself. The application must be made in accordance with the rules adopted by the division. The division may deny the application only if it determines that the applicant is not an independent contractor. When an application is approved by the division, it is conclusive as to the status of an independent contractor and precludes the applicant from obtaining benefits under this chapter.

(4) Each employer shall post a sign in the workplace at the locations where notices to employees are normally posted, informing employees about the employer's current provision of compensation insurance. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2)(b), in addition to the regular registration and gross vehicle weight fees, a fee of $10 for each trip permit and a fee of $75 for each term permit issued for size and weight in excess of that specified in 61-10-101 through 61-10-110 shall be paid for all movements under special permits on the public highways under the jurisdiction of the department.

(b) A term permit may be issued to a dealer in implements of husbandry and self-propelled machinery for an overwidth or overlength vehicle referred to in subsection (2)(a). The fee for this permit is $75. This permit covers a period of 1 year and expires on December 31 of each year with no grace period.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (2)(b), a permit may not be issued for a period of time greater than the period for which the GVW license is valid as provided in this title, including grace periods allowed by this title. Owners of vehicles licensed in other jurisdictions may, at the discretion of the department, purchase permits to expire with their registration. A license required by the state governs the issuance of a special permit."

Section 4. Section 61-10-144, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-10-144. Violation of standards — tolerance. (1) It is a misdemeanor for a person, firm, or corporation to violate any provision of 61-10-101 through 61-10-110.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1075 1983

(2) However, the operator of a vehicle or combination of vehicles may move over the highways to the first open state scale, permanent or portable, without incurring the excess weight penalties set forth in 61-10-145 if the total gross weight of the vehicle or combination of vehicles does not exceed allowable total gross weight limitations by more than 5%, or 7% if the vehicle or combination of vehicles is transporting livestock, and if the weight carried by any axle or combination of axles does not exceed the allowable axle weight limitations by more than 5%, or 7% if the vehicle or combination of vehicles is transporting livestock. In the event the vehicle or combination of vehicles is not in excess of the allowable total gross or axle weight limitations by more than 5%, or 7% if the vehicle or combination of vehicles is transporting livestock, the department may issue a single trip permit for the fee of $10 for allowing said vehicle or combination of vehicles to move over the highways to the first facility where its load can be safely adjusted or to its destination. Violations of total gross or axle weight limitations in excess of 5%, or 7% if the vehicle or combination of vehicles is transporting livestock, are subject to the fines provided in 61-10-145, and all loads in excess of 5% of the total gross or axle weight limitations, or 7% if the vehicle or combination of vehicles is transporting livestock, must be adjusted or reduced to conform to the size and weight limitations before the vehicle or combination of vehicles is moved from the point of weighing.

(3) An operator of a vehicle or combination of vehicles subject to the provisions of 61-10-107(2) may move over a highway, except any highway which is part of the federal-aid interstate system, within a 50-mile radius of the harvested field to the point of first unloading, without incurring the excess weight penalties set forth in 61-10-145 if the total gross weight of the vehicle or combination of vehicles does not exceed allowable weight limitations by more than 20% per axle but the maximum load per inch of tire width may not exceed 670 pounds. The vehicle or combination of vehicles may not exceed 40 miles per hour. No single trip permit as required in subsection (2) shall be applicable to such vehicle or combination of vehicles. When such vehicle or combination of vehicles violates any of the provisions of this subsection, the fine or penalty imposed shall apply to that portion of the load above the legal limit."

Approved April 14, 1983.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 61-1-131, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-1-131. Travel trailer. "Travel trailer" as used in 61-3-521 and 61-3-523 means a trailer 45 feet or less in length and 8 feet or less in width originally designed or permanently altered to provide temporary facilities for recreational, travel, or camping use and not used as a principal residence."

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1076 1983

Section 2. Section 15-1-101, MCA, is amended to read:

"15-1-101. Definitions. (1) When terms mentioned in this section are used in connection with taxation, they are defined in the following manner:

(a) The term "agricultural" refers to the raising of livestock, swine, poultry, field crops, fruit, and other animal and vegetable matter for food or fiber.

(b) The term "assessed value" means the value of property as defined in 15-8-111.

(c) The term "average wholesale value" means the value to a dealer prior to reconditioning and profit margin shown in national appraisal guides and manuals or the valuation schedules of the department of revenue.

(d) The term "credit" means solvent debts, secured or unsecured, owing to a person.

(e) The term "improvements" includes all buildings, structures, fixtures, fences, and improvements situated upon, erected upon, or affixed to land. When the department of revenue or its agent determines that the permanency of location of a mobile home or housetrailer has been established, the mobile home or housetrailer is presumed to be an improvement to real property. If the mobile home or housetrailer is an improvement located on land not owned by the owner of such improvement, the improvement is assessed as a leasehold improvement to real property and delinquent taxes can be a lien only on the leasehold improvement.

(f) The term "mobile home" means forms of housing known as "trailers", "housetrailers", or "trailer coaches", exceeding 8 feet in width or 45 feet in length, designed to be moved from one place to another by an independent power connected to them or any "trailer", "housetrailer", or "trailer coach" up to 8 feet in width or 45 feet in length used as a principal residence.

(g) The term "personal property" includes everything that is the subject of ownership but that is not included within the meaning of the terms "real estate" and "improvements".

(h) The term "poultry" includes all chickens, turkeys, geese, ducks, and other birds raised in domestication to produce food or feathers.

(i) The term "property" includes moneys, credits, bonds, stocks, franchises, and all other matters and things, real, personal, and mixed, capable of private ownership. This definition must not be construed to authorize the taxation of the stocks of any company or corporation when the property of such company or corporation represented by the stocks is within the state and has been taxed.

(j) The term "real estate" includes:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1077 1983

(i) the possession of, claim to, ownership of, or right to the possession of land;

(ii) all mines, minerals, and quarries in and under the land subject to the provisions of 15-23-501 and 15-23-801; all timber belonging to individuals or corporations growing or being on the lands of the United States; and all rights and privileges appertaining thereto.

(k) The term "taxable value" means the percentage of market or assessed value as provided for in 15-6-131 through 15-6-140.

(2) The phrase "municipal corporation" or "municipality" or "taxing unit" shall be deemed to include a county, city, incorporated town, township, school district, irrigation district, drainage district, or any person, persons, or organized body authorized by law to establish tax levies for the purpose of raising public revenue.

(3) The term "state board" or "board" when used without other qualification shall mean the state tax appeal board."

CHAPTER NO. 489

AN ACT TO GENERALLY REVISE HARD-ROCK MINING IMPACT LAWS; AMENDING SECTIONS 82-4-335, 90-6-305, 90-6-307, AND 90-6-309, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 82-4-335, MCA, is amended to read:

"82-4-335. Operating permit. (1) No person shall engage in mining or disturb land in anticipation of mining in the state without first obtaining an operating permit from the board to do so. A separate operating permit shall be required for each mine complex. Prior to receiving an operating permit from the board, any person must pay the basic permit fee of $25 and must submit an application on a form provided by the board, which shall contain the following information and any other pertinent data required by the rules:

(a) name and address of the operator and, if a corporation or other business entity, the name and address of its principal officers, partners, and the like and its resident agent for service of process, if required by law;

(b) minerals expected to be mined;

(c) a proposed reclamation plan;

(d) expected starting date of mining;

(e) a map showing the specific area to be mined and the boundaries of the land which will be disturbed, topographic detail, the location and

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1078 1983

names of all streams, roads, railroads, and utility lines on or immediately adjacent to the area, location of proposed access roads to be built and the names and addresses of the surface and mineral owners of all lands within the mining area, to the extent known to applicant;

(f) types of access roads to be built and manner of reclamation of road sites on abandonment; and

(g) a plan of mining which will provide, within limits of normal operating procedures of the industry, for completion of mining and associated land disturbances.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3), the permit provided for in subsection (1) for a large-scale mineral development as defined in 90-6-302 shall be conditioned to provide that activities under the permit may not commence until the hard-rock mining impact board approves the impact plan under 90-6-307 and until the permittee has provided a written guarantee to the department and to the hard-rock mining impact board of compliance within the time schedule with the commitment made in the impact plan approved by the hard-rock mining impact board, as provided in 90-6-307. If the permittee does not comply with that commitment within the time scheduled, the board, upon receipt of written notice from the hard-rock mining impact board, shall suspend the permit until it receives written notice from the hard-rock mining impact board that the permittee is in compliance.

(3) Compliance with 90-6-307 is not required for exploration and bulk sampling for metallurgical testing when the aggregate samples are less than 10,000 tons."

Section 2. Section 90-6-305, MCA, is amended to read:

"90-6-305. Hard-rock mining impact board — general powers. (1) The board may:

(a) retain professional staff, consultants, and advisors notwithstanding the provisions of 2-15-121;

(b) adopt rules governing its proceedings and administration of this part;

(c) award grants to local government units subject to 90-6-306;

(d) make payments to local government units from money paid to the hard-rock mining impact account as provided in 90-6-307;

(e) make determinations as provided in 90-6-307; and

(f) accept grants and other funds to be used in carrying out this part.

(2) The provisions of the Montana Administrative Procedure Act apply to the proceedings and determinations of the board."

Section 3. Section 90-6-307, MCA, is amended to read:

"90-6-307. Impact plan to be submitted. (1) After an application for a permit for a large-scale mineral development is made under 82-4-335, the person seeking the permit shall submit to the affected counties and the board an impact plan describing the economic impact the large-scale mineral development will have on local government units and shall file proof of such submission to the counties with the board. Whenever an environmental impact statement on the permit application is prepared under 75-1-201, the lead agency shall cooperate to the fullest extent practicable with the affected local government units to eliminate duplication of effort in data collection. The governing bodies of the affected counties shall publish notice of the submission of an impact plan at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county. The impact plan shall include:

(a) a timetable for development, including the opening date of the development and the estimated closing date;

(b) the estimated number of persons coming into the impacted area as a result of the development;

(c) the increased capital and operating cost to local government units for providing services, including but not limited to police and fire protection, sewage, water treatment, schools, road construction and upkeep, education, and medical care, which can be expected as a result of the development;

(d) the financial or other assistance the developer will give to local government units to meet the increased need for services.

(2) In the impact plan, the developer shall commit itself to pay all of the increased capital and net operating cost to local government units that will be a result of the development, either from tax prepayments, as provided in 90-6-309, special industrial educational impact bonds, as provided in 90-6-310, or other funds obtained from the developer and shall provide a time schedule within which it will do so.

(3) Upon request of the governing body of an affected unit of local government, the mineral developer, prior to commencement of the 90-day review period, shall provide financial or other assistance as necessary to prepare for and evaluate the impact plan. The governing body of the affected county must contract with the developer to obtain the requested financial assistance for each unit of local government within the county. Any disbursements to a unit of local government under this subsection shall be credited against future tax liabilities, if any.

(4) An affected local government unit shall, within 90 days after receipt of the impact plan from the developer, notify the board in writing if that local government unit objects to the impact plan, specifying the reasons why the impact plan is objected to. During the 90-day period, an affected local governmental unit may petition for one 30-day extension by submitting a written request to the board stating the need and justification for the extension. The board shall grant the extension unless it finds there is no reasonable basis for the request. If no objection is received within the 90-day period or any extension thereof, the impact plan shall be approved by the board.

(5) If objections are received from a local government unit, the board shall, within 10 days, notify the developer and forward a copy of the local government unit's objections to the developer. If within 30 days the local government unit and the developer cannot resolve the objection, the board shall conduct a hearing on the validity of the objections which shall be held in the affected county or, if objections are received from local government units in more than one county, shall be held in the county which, in the board's judgment, is more greatly affected. The provisions of the Montana Administrative Procedure Act shall apply to the conduct of the hearing. The impact plan filed by the developer shall carry no presumption of correctness at the hearing.

(6) Following the hearing, the board shall, within 60 days, make findings as to those portions of the impact plan which were objected to and, if appropriate, amend the impact plan accordingly. The findings and impact plan, as amended, shall be served by the board upon all parties. Any local government unit or the developer, if aggrieved by the decision of the board, is entitled to judicial review, as provided by Title 2, chapter 4, part 7, in the district court in and for the judicial district in which the hearing was held.

(7) The developer shall, within 30 days of receipt of the approved impact plan, provide the board with a written guaranty that the developer will make all the payments to the board required in the approved impact plan and according to the time schedule contained in the approved impact plan.

(8) The board shall deposit all payments received from the developer into the hard-rock mining impact account established by 90-6-304.

(9) The board shall notify the department of state lands of its receipt of the written guaranty of payment, of each required payment, and of any failure of the developer to comply with this section.

(10) Upon receipt of evidence that an affected local government unit identified in the approved impact plan is providing or is preparing to provide an additional service or facility provided for in the approved impact plan, the board shall pay to that local government unit in one sum or in parts the money from the hard-rock mining impact fund identified in the plan as the increased cost to the local government unit of providing that public service or facility.

(11) If it is determined that an objection filed by an affected local government unit under subsection (3) is valid and it results in some remedial order by the board or court of competent jurisdiction, the local government unit shall be awarded and the developer shall pay reasonable costs and attorney fees associated with any administrative or judicial appeals filed under this section. Any attorney fees and costs awarded shall be in addition to any amounts paid by the developer under this part."

Section 4. Section 90-6-309, MCA, is amended to read:

"90-6-309. Tax prepayment — large-scale mineral development. (1) After permission to commence operation is granted by the appropriate governmental agency, and upon request of the governing body of a county in which a facility is to be located, a person intending to construct or locate a large-scale mineral development in this state shall prepay property taxes in an amount equal to at least three times the estimated property tax due the year the large-scale mineral development facility commences operation. This prepayment shall exclude the 6-mill university levy and may exclude the mandatory county levy for the school foundation program of 40 mills.

(2) The person who is to prepay under this section shall not be obligated to prepay the entire amount established in subsection (1) at one time. Upon request of the governing body of an affected local government unit, the person shall prepay the amount shown to be needed from time to time as determined by the board.

(3) The person who is to prepay shall guarantee to the hard-rock mining impact board, through an appropriate financial institution, as may be required by the board, that property tax prepayments will be paid as needed for expenditures created by the impacts of the large-scale mineral development.

(4) When the mineral development facilities are completed and assessed by the department of revenue, they shall be subject during the first 3 years and thereafter to taxation as all other property similarly situated, except that in each year after the start of production, the local government unit that received a property tax prepayment shall provide for repayment of prepaid property taxes in accordance with subsection (5).

(5) A local government unit that received all or a portion of the property tax prepayment under this section shall provide for repayment according to the following procedure:

(a) In each year after the commencement of mining, the local government shall:

(i) divide its budget by the average mill levy of its jurisdiction during the 3 years immediately preceding commencement of mining operations, to arrive at a taxable valuation needed to fund its budget using the average 3-year mill levy;

(ii) reduce the taxable valuation of property of a person who prepaid property taxes by the excess, if any, of the total taxable value of the taxing jurisdiction including the person's property over the taxable value determined under subsection (5)(a)(i), but in no case by an amount greater than the taxable value of the person's property.

(b) The reduction in taxable value, if any, determined under subsection (5)(a)(ii) times the average mill levy used in subsection (5)(a)(i) equals the property tax prepayment credit allowed for the taxable year for that local government unit. Any local government unit not receiving a payment shall not be affected by this section and no reduction in value shall be used in the computation of taxes due that unit of local government. In no event shall the credit allowed under this part extend more than 10 years beyond the date the prepayment is made under this section.

(c) The procedure established under subsection (5)(a) shall continue from year to year until the total credit allowed the person who prepaid property taxes equals the total property taxes prepaid."

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1082 1983

Section 5. Impact plan amendments. (1) The impact plan may provide for amendment under definite conditions. Also, the governing body of an affected county or the mineral developer may petition the board for an amendment to an approved impact plan if:

(a) employment at the large-scale mineral development is forecast to increase or decrease by at least 100 people over or under the employment levels contemplated by the approved impact plan; or

(b) changes in the large-scale mineral development cause, or can be expected to cause, an increase in estimated population of at least 15% in a local government unit when measured against the average population of the local government unit in the 3-year period preceding the commencement of new construction or new operations of the mining facility; or

(c) it becomes apparent that an approved impact plan is materially inaccurate because of errors in assessment and 2 years have not elapsed since the date the facility begins commercial production; or

(d) the governing body of an affected county and the mineral developer join in a petition to amend the impact plan.

(2) Within 10 days of receipt the board shall publish notice of the petition at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the affected county. The petition must include:

(a) an explanation of the need for an amendment;

(b) a statement of the facts and circumstances underlying the need for an amendment; and

(c) a description of the corrective measures proposed by the petitioner.

(3) Within 60 days after notice that the petition has been received, an affected local government unit or the mineral developer must notify the board in writing if such person objects to the amendments proposed by the petitioner, specifying the reasons why the impact plan should not be amended as proposed. If no objection is received within the 60-day period, the impact plan must be amended by the board as proposed by the petitioner.

(4) If an objection is received, within 10 days of its receipt, the board shall notify the petitioner and include a copy of all objections received by the board. If the objecting party and the petitioner cannot resolve the objections within 30 days after the expiration of the 60-day period, the board shall conduct a hearing on the validity of the objections within 30 days after the failure of the parties to resolve the objections. The hearing must be held in the affected county or, if objections are received from local government units in more than one county, must be held in the county which in the board's judgment is more greatly affected. The provisions of the Montana Administrative Procedure Act apply to the conduct of the hearing.

(5) Following the hearing, the board shall make findings as to those portions of the amendments which were objected to and, if appropriate, amend the impact plan accordingly. The board shall cause the findings and impact plan, as amended, to be served on all parties. Any local government unit or the developer is entitled to judicial review, as provided by Title 2, chapter 4, part 7, in the district court for the judicial district in which the hearing was held.

Section 6. Codification instruction. Section 5 is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 90, chapter 6, and the provisions of Title 90, chapter 6, apply to section 5.

Approved April 14, 1983.

(a) The chairman of the board of county commissioners of the county in which the person resided whose vacancy is to be filled shall call a meeting for the purpose of appointing the member of the legislature, and he shall act as the presiding officer of the meeting.

(b) Each commissioner's vote is determined by the following formula: 100 multiplied by (A divided by B) multiplied by (1 divided by C), where A is the total votes cast in the respective county for the person vacating the legislative seat or, if such person was not himself elected, the votes cast for the last person to be elected for the current term, B is the total votes cast for that person in the legislative district, and C is the number of authorized commissioners on the board of the commissioner whose vote is being determined. If a vacancy occurs in a holdover senate seat after holdover senators have been assigned to new districts under each reapportionment, the formula must be applied using the votes cast for the senatorial candidates at the last election in which such votes were cast. Such votes shall include only those cast by electors residing in the new senate district for senate candidates of the party to which the person vacating the seat belonged. The secretary of state shall provide an estimate of the number of votes so cast, by county or portion thereof.

(c) The person selected to fill the vacancy is the one who receives the highest number above 50 that results from the calculation required by this subsection. If no candidate receives a number higher than 50 from that calculation, the selection board shall cast its votes again in the same manner for the persons receiving the two highest numbers.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1096 1983

no policy of life insurance, except as set forth in 33-20-212, shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state unless it shall contain in substance the following provisions or corresponding provisions which in the opinion of the commissioner are at least as favorable to the defaulting or surrendering policyholder as are the minimum requirements specified in this section and are essentially in compliance with [section 9]:

(a) that in the event of default in any premium payment after premiums have been paid for at least 1 full year, the insurer will grant, upon proper request not later than 60 days after the due date of the premium in default, a paid-up nonforfeiture benefit on a plan stipulated in the policy, effective as of such due date of such amount as may be specified in this part. In lieu of such stipulated paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, the company may substitute, upon proper request not later than 60 days after the due date of the premium in default, an actuarially equivalent alternative paid-up nonforfeiture benefit that provides a greater amount or longer period of death benefits or, if applicable, a greater amount or earlier payment of endowment benefits.

(b) that upon surrender of the policy within 60 days after the due date of any premium payment in default after premiums have been paid for at least 3 full years in the case of ordinary insurance and 5 full years in the case of industrial insurance, the insurer will pay, in lieu of any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, a cash surrender value of such amount as may be specified in this part;

(c) that a specified paid-up nonforfeiture benefit shall become effective as specified in the policy unless the person entitled to make such election elects another available option not later than 60 days after the due date of the premium in default;

(d) that if the policy shall have become paid up by completion of all premium payments or if it is continued under any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit which became effective on or after the third policy anniversary in the case of ordinary insurance or the fifth policy anniversary in the case of industrial insurance, the insurer will pay, upon surrender of the policy within 30 days after any policy anniversary, a cash surrender value of such amount as may be specified in this part;

(e) for a policy that has on a basis guaranteed in the policy unscheduled changes in benefits or premiums or that provides an option for changes in benefits or premiums other than a change to a new policy, a statement of the mortality table, interest rate, and method used in calculating cash surrender values and the paid-up nonforfeiture benefits available under the policy. For each other policy a statement of the mortality table and interest rate used in calculating the cash surrender values and the paid-up nonforfeiture benefits available under the policy, together with a table showing the cash surrender value, if any, and paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, if any, available under the policy on each policy anniversary, either during the first 20 policy years or during the term of the policy, whichever is shorter, such values and benefits to be calculated upon the assumption that there are no dividends or paid-up additions credited to the policy and that there is no indebtedness to the insurer on the policy.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1097 1983

(f) a statement that the cash surrender values and the paid-up nonforfeiture benefits available under the policy are not less than the minimum values and benefits required by or pursuant to the insurance law of this state;

(g) an explanation of the manner in which the cash surrender values and the paid-up nonforfeiture benefits are altered by the existence of any paid-up additions credited to the policy or any indebtedness to the insurer on the policy;

(h) if a detailed statement of the method of computation of the values and benefits shown in the policy is not stated therein, a statement that such method of computation has been filed with the insurance supervisory official of the state in which the policy is delivered; and

(i) a statement of the method to be used in calculating the cash surrender value and paid-up nonforfeiture benefit available under the policy on any policy anniversary beyond the last anniversary for which such values and benefits are consecutively shown in the policy.

(2) Any of the provisions or portions thereof set forth in subsections (a) through (i) which are not applicable by reason of the plan of insurance may, to the extent inapplicable, be omitted from the policy. The insurer shall reserve the right to defer the payment of any cash surrender value for a period of 6 months after demand therefor with surrender of the policy."

Section 2. Section 33-20-203, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-20-203. Cash surrender value — paid-up nonforfeiture benefit — life. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), any cash surrender value available under the policy in the event of default in the premium payment due on any policy anniversary, whether or not required by 33-20-202, shall be an amount not less than the excess, if any, of the present value on such anniversary of the future guaranteed benefits which would have been provided for by the policy, including any existing paid-up additions if there had been no default, over the sum of:

(a) the then present value of the adjusted premiums as defined in *[*33-20-204 through 33-20-207 and section 6], corresponding to premiums which would have fallen due on and after such anniversary; and

(b) the amount of any indebtedness to the insurer on account of or secured by the policy.

(2) For any policy issued on or after the operative date of [section 6] that provides supplemental life insurance or annuity benefits at the option of the insured and for an identifiable additional premium by rider or supplemental policy provision, the cash surrender value referred to in subsection (1) is an amount not less than the sum of the cash surrender value as defined in subsection (1) for an otherwise similar policy issued at the same age without such rider or supplemental policy provision and the cash surrender value as defined in subsection (1) for a policy that provides only the benefits otherwise provided by such rider or supplemental policy provision.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1098 1983

(3) Any cash surrender value available within 30 days after any policy anniversary under any policy paid up by completion of all premium payments or any policy continued under any paid-up nonforfeiture benefits, whether or not required by 33-20-202, shall be an amount not less than the present value, on such anniversary, of the future guaranteed benefits provided for by the policy, including any existing paid-up additions, decreased by any indebtedness to the insurer on account of or secured by the policy.

(4) Any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit available under the policy in the event of default in the premium payment due on any policy anniversary shall be such that its present value as of such anniversary shall be at least equal to the cash surrender value then provided for by the policy or, if none is provided for, that cash surrender value which would have been required by this part in the absence of the conditions that premiums shall have been paid for at least a specified period.

(5) For any family policy issued on or after the operative date of [section 6] that defines a primary insured and provides term insurance on the life of the spouse of the primary insured expiring before the spouse reaches 71 years of age, the cash surrender value referred to in subsection (1) is an amount not less than the sum of the cash surrender value as defined in subsection (1) for an otherwise similar policy issued at the same age without such term insurance on the life of the spouse and the cash surrender value as defined in subsection (1) for a policy that provides only the benefits otherwise provided by such term insurance on the life of the spouse."

Section 3. Section 33-20-204, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-20-204. Adjusted premium. (1) This section does not apply to policies issued on or after the operative date of [section 6].

(2) (a) Except as provided in subsection (3), the adjusted premiums for any policy shall be calculated on an annual basis and shall be such uniform percentage of the respective premiums specified in the policy for each policy year, excluding extra premiums on a substandard policy, that the present value, at the date of issue of the policy, of all such adjusted premiums shall be equal to the sum of:

(i) the then present value of the future guaranteed benefits provided for by the policy;

(ii) 2% of the amount of the insurance if the insurance be uniform in amount, or of the equivalent uniform amount, as hereinafter defined, if the amount of insurance varies with the duration of the policy;

(iii) 40% of the adjusted premium for the first policy year;

(iv) 25% of either the adjusted premium for the first policy year or the adjusted premium for a whole life policy of the same uniform or equivalent uniform amount with uniform premiums for the whole of life issued at the same age for the same amount of insurance, whichever is less.

(b) In applying the percentages specified in subsections (iii) and (iv) above, no adjusted premiums shall be deemed to exceed 4% of the amount of insurance or uniform amount equivalent thereto.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1099 1983

(c) Whenever the plan or term of a policy has been changed, either by request of the insured or automatically in accordance with the provisions of the policy, the date of inception of the changed policy for the purposes of determining a nonforfeiture benefit or cash surrender value shall be the date as of which the age of the insured is determined for the purposes of the changed policy. The date of issue of a policy for the purposes of this subsection shall be the date as of which the rated age of the insured is determined.

(d) (i) In the case of a policy providing an amount of insurance varying with the duration of the policy, the equivalent uniform amount thereof for the purpose of the preceding subsections (a) and (b) shall be deemed to be the uniform amount of insurance provided by an otherwise similar policy, containing the same endowment benefit or benefits, if any, issued at the same age and for the same term, the amount of which does not vary with duration and the benefits under which have the same present value at the date of issue as the benefits under the policy.

(ii) In the case of a policy for a varying amount of insurance issued on the life of a child under age 10, the equivalent uniform amount may be computed as though the amount of insurance provided by the policy prior to the attainment of age 10 were the amount provided by such policy at age 10.

(3) (a) The adjusted premiums for any policy providing term insurance benefits by rider or supplemental policy provision shall be equal to (i) the adjusted premiums for an otherwise similar policy issued at the same age without such term insurance benefits, increased, during the period for which premiums for such term insurance benefits are payable, by (ii) the adjusted premiums for such term insurance.

(b) The foregoing items (a)(i) and (a)(ii) being calculated separately and as specified in subsection (2) except that, for the purposes of (ii), (iii), and (iv) of subsection (2), the amount of insurance or equivalent uniform amount of insurance used in the calculation of the adjusted premiums referred to in (a)(ii) of this subsection shall be equal to the excess of the corresponding amount determined for the entire policy over the amount used in the calculation of the adjusted premiums in (a)(i) of this subsection."

Section 4. Section 33-20-206, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-20-206. Mortality tables — policies issued after operative date. (1) This section does not apply to ordinary policies issued on or after the operative date of [section 6].

(2) In the case of ordinary policies issued on or after the operative date of this section as defined herein, all adjusted premiums and present values referred to in this part shall be calculated on the basis of the commissioner's 1958 standard ordinary mortality table and the rate of interest specified in the policy for calculating cash surrender values and paid-up nonforfeiture benefits, provided that:

(a) such rate of interest shall not exceed 3 ½% per annum, except that a rate of interest not exceeding 4% per annum may be used for policies

issued on or after March 17, 1973, and prior to July 1, 1979, and a rate of interest not exceeding 5 ½ % a year may be used for policies issued on or after July 1, 1979;

(b) for any category of ordinary insurance issued on female risks, adjusted premiums and present values may be calculated according to an age not more than 6 years younger than the actual age of the insured;

(c) in calculating the present value of any paid-up term insurance with accompanying pure endowment, if any, offered as a nonforfeiture benefit, the rates of mortality assumed may be not more than those shown in the commissioner's 1958 extended term insurance table;

(d) for insurance issued on a substandard basis, the calculation of any such adjusted premiums and present values may be based on such other table of mortality as may be specified by the company and approved by the commissioner.

(3) After July 1, 1961, any insurer may file with the commissioner a written notice of its election to comply with the provisions of this section after a specified date before January 1, 1966. After the filing of such notice, then upon such specified date (which shall be the operative date of this section for such insurer), this section shall become operative with respect to the ordinary policies thereafter issued by such insurer. If an insurer makes no such election, the operative date of this section for such insurer shall be January 1, 1966."

Section 5. Section 33-20-207, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-20-207. Industrial policies — mortality tables. (1) This section does not apply to industrial policies issued on or after the operative date of [section 6].

(2) In the case of industrial policies issued on or after the operative date of this section as defined herein, all adjusted premiums and present values referred to in this part shall be calculated on the basis of commissioner's 1961 standard industrial mortality table and the rate of interest specified in the policy for calculating cash surrender values and paid-up nonforfeiture benefits provided that:

(a) such rate of interest shall not exceed 3 ½ % per annum except that a rate of interest not exceeding 4% per annum may be used for policies issued on or after March 17, 1973, and prior to July 1, 1979, and a rate of interest not exceeding 5 ½ % a year may be used for policies issued on or after July 1, 1979;

(b) in calculating the present value of any paid-up term insurance with accompanying pure endowment, if any, offered as a nonforfeiture benefit, the rates of mortality assumed may be not more than those shown in the commissioner's 1961 industrial extended term insurance table;

(c) for insurance issued on a substandard basis the calculations of any such adjusted premiums and present values may be based on such other table of mortality as may be specified by the company and approved by the commissioner.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1101 1983

(3) After February 22, 1965, any insurer may file with the commissioner a written notice of its election to comply with the provisions of this section after a specified date before January 1, 1968. After the filing of such notice, then upon such specified date (which shall be the operative date of this section for such insurer), this section shall become operative with respect to the industrial policies thereafter issued by such insurer. If an insurer makes no such election, the operative date of this section for such insurer shall be January 1, 1968."

Section 6. Mortality tables — interest rate adjusted premiums. (1) (a) This section applies to all policies issued on or after the operative date of this section. Except as provided in subsection (7), the adjusted premiums for any policy are calculated on an annual basis and must be such a uniform percentage of the respective premiums specified in the policy for each policy year, excluding amounts payable as extra premiums to cover impairments, special hazards, and any uniform annual contract charge or policy fee specified in the policy in a statement of the method to be used in calculating the cash surrender values and paid-up nonforfeiture benefits, that the present value, at the date of issue of the policy, of all adjusted premiums is equal to the sum of:

(i) the then present value of the future guaranteed benefits provided for by the policy;

(ii) 1% of either the amount of insurance, if the insurance is uniform in amount, or the average amount of insurance at the beginning of each of the first 10 policy years; and

(iii) 125% of the nonforfeiture net level premium as provided in subsection (2). No nonforfeiture net level premium is considered to exceed 4% of either the amount of insurance, if the insurance is uniform in amount, or the average amount of insurance at the beginning of each of the first 10 policy years.

(b) The date of issue of a policy for the purpose of this subsection is the date as of which the rated age of the insured is determined.

(2) The nonforfeiture net level premium is equal to the present value, at the date of issue of the policy, of the guaranteed benefits provided for by the policy divided by the present value, at the date of issue of the policy, of an annuity of one per annum payable on the date of issue of the policy and on each anniversary of such policy on which a premium falls due.

(3) For policies that have on a basis guaranteed in the policy unscheduled changes in benefits or premiums or that provide an option for changes in benefits or premiums other than a change to a new policy, the adjusted premiums and present values are initially calculated on the assumption that future benefits and premiums do not change from those stipulated at the date of issue of the policy. At the time of any such change in the benefits or premiums, the future adjusted premiums, nonforfeiture net level premiums, and present values must be recalculated on the assumption that future benefits and premiums do not change from those stipulated by the policy immediately after the change.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1102 1983

(4) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (7), the recalculated future adjusted premiums for any such policy shall be such uniform percentage of the respective future premiums specified in the policy for each policy year, excluding amounts payable as extra premiums to cover impairments, special hazards, and any uniform annual contract charge or policy fee specified in the policy in a statement of the method to be used in calculating the cash surrender values and paid-up nonforfeiture benefits, that the present value, at the time of change to the newly defined benefits or premiums, of all such future adjusted premiums shall be equal to the excess of:

(a) the sum of:

(i) the then present value of the then future guaranteed benefits provided for by the policy; and

(ii) the additional expense allowance, if any; over

(b) the then cash surrender value, if any, or present value of any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit under the policy.

(5) The additional expense allowance, at the time of the change to the newly defined benefits or premiums, is the sum of:

(a) 1% of the excess, if positive, of the average amount of insurance at the beginning of each of the first 10 policy years subsequent to the change, over the average amount of insurance prior to the change at the beginning of each of the first 10 policy years subsequent to the time of the most recent previous change or, if there has been no previous change, the date of issue of the policy; and

(b) 125% of the increase, if positive, in the nonforfeiture net level premium.

(6) The recalculated nonforfeiture net level premium is equal to the result obtained by dividing the product of subsection (a) by the product of subsection (b):

(a) (i) the nonforfeiture net level premium applicable prior to the change multiplied by the present value of an annuity of one per annum payable on each anniversary of the policy on or subsequent to the date of the change on which a premium would have fallen due had the change not occurred; and

(ii) the present value of the increase in future guaranteed benefits provided for by the policy;

(b) the present value of an annuity of one per annum payable on each anniversary of the policy on or subsequent to the date of change on which a premium falls due.

(7) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section for a policy issued on a substandard basis that provides reduced graded amounts of insurance so that, in each policy year, such policy has the same tabular mortality cost as an otherwise similar policy issued on the standard basis that provides higher uniform amounts of insurance, adjusted premiums and present values for such substandard policy may be calculated as if it were issued to provide such higher uniform amounts of insurance on the standard basis.

(8) Except as provided below, all adjusted premiums and present values referred to in [this section, section 7, and Title 33, chapter 20, part 2] are for policies of ordinary insurance calculated on the basis of the commissioner's 1980 standard ordinary mortality table or, at the election of the insurer for any one or more specified plans of life insurance, the commissioner's 1980 standard ordinary mortality table with 10-year select mortality factors. All adjusted premiums and present values for policies of industrial insurance are calculated on the basis of the commissioner's 1961 standard industrial mortality table. All adjusted premiums and present values for all policies issued in a particular calendar year are calculated on the basis of a rate of interest not exceeding the nonforfeiture interest rate as provided in this subsection for policies issued in that calendar year; with the following exceptions and conditions:

(a) At the option of the insurer, calculations for all policies issued in a particular calendar year may be made on the basis of a rate of interest not exceeding the nonforfeiture interest rate, as provided in this subsection for policies issued in the immediately preceding calendar year.

(b) Under any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, including any paid-up dividend additions, any cash surrender value available, whether or not required by 33-20-202, is calculated on the basis of the mortality table and rate of interest used in determining the amount of such paid-up nonforfeiture benefit and paid-up dividend additions, if any.

(c) An insurer may calculate the amount of any guaranteed paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, including any paid-up additions under the policy, on the basis of an interest rate no lower than that specified in the policy for calculating cash surrender values.

(d) In calculating the present value of any paid-up term insurance with accompanying pure endowment, if any, offered as a nonforfeiture benefit, the rates of mortality assumed may be not more than those shown in the commissioner's 1980 extended term insurance table for policies of ordinary insurance and not more than the commissioner's 1961 industrial extended term insurance table for policies of industrial insurance.

(e) For insurance issued on a substandard basis, the calculation of any such adjusted premiums and present values may be based on appropriate modifications of the tables set forth in subsection (8).

(f) Any ordinary mortality tables adopted after 1980 by the national association of insurance commissioners that are approved by the commissioner by rule for use in determining the minimum nonforfeiture standard may be substituted for the commissioner's 1980 standard ordinary mortality table with or without 10-year select mortality factors or for the commissioner's 1980 extended term insurance table.

(g) Any industrial mortality tables adopted after 1980 by the national association of insurance commissioners that are approved by the commissioner by rule for use in determining the minimum nonforfeiture standard may be substituted for the commissioner's 1961 standard industrial mortality table or the commissioner's 1961 industrial extended term insurance table.

(9) The nonforfeiture interest rate per annum for any policy issued in a particular calendar year must be equal to 125% of the calendar year statutory valuation interest rate for such policy as defined in the standard valuation law, Title 33, chapter 2, part 5, rounded to the nearer ¼ of 1%.

(10) Notwithstanding any other provision in this code to the contrary, any refiling of nonforfeiture values or their methods of computation for any previously approved policy form that involves only a change in the interest rate or mortality table used to compute nonforfeiture values does not require refiling of any other provisions of that policy form.

(11) After October 1, 1983, any insurer may file with the commissioner a written notice of its election to comply with the provisions of this section after a specified date, before January 1, 1989, which is the operative date of this section for such insurer. If an insurer makes no such election, the operative date of this section for such insurer is January 1, 1989.

Section 7. Determination of nonforfeiture values for special plans. For a plan of life insurance that provides for future premium determination the amounts of which are to be determined by the insurer based on then estimates of future experience or for a plan of life insurance that is of such a nature that minimum values cannot be determined by the methods described in [33-20-204 through 33-20-207 and section 6]:

(1) the commissioner must be satisfied that the benefits provided under the plan are substantially as favorable to policyholders and insureds as the minimum benefits otherwise required by [33-20-204 through 33-20-207 and section 6];

(2) the commissioner must be satisfied that the benefits and the pattern of premiums of that plan are not such as to mislead prospective policyholders or insureds; and

(3) the cash surrender values and paid-up nonforfeiture benefits provided by such plan may not be less than the minimum values and benefits required for the plan computed by a method consistent with the principles of this part, as determined by rules promulgated by the commissioner.

Section 8. Section 33-20-211, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-20-211. Calculation of values — other requisites. (1) Any cash surrender value and any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit available under the policy in the event of default in a premium payment due at any time other than on the policy anniversary shall be calculated with allowance for the lapse of time and the payment of fractional premiums beyond the last preceding policy anniversary.

(2) All values referred to in *[*33-20-203 through 33-20-207 and section 6] may be calculated upon the assumption that any death benefit is payable at the end of the policy year of death.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1105 1983

(3) The net value of any paid-up additions, other than paid-up term additions, shall be not less than the amounts used to provide such additions.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) and (3) of 33-20-203, additional benefits payable under the following circumstances shall be disregarded in ascertaining cash surrender values and nonforfeiture benefits required by this part, and no such additional benefits shall be required to be included in any paid-up nonforfeiture benefits:

(a) in the event of death or dismemberment by accident or accidental means;

(b) in the event of total and permanent disability;

(c) as reversionary annuity or deferred reversionary annuity benefits;

(d) as term insurance benefits provided by a rider or supplemental policy provision to which, if issued as a separate policy, this part would not apply;

(e) as term insurance on the life of a child or on the lives of children provided in a policy on the life of a parent of the child, if such term insurance expires before the child's age is 26, is uniform in amount after the child's age is 1, and has not become paid up by reason of the death of a parent of the child; and

(f) as other policy benefits additional to life insurance and endowment benefits and premiums for all such additional benefits."

Section 9. Additional rules for calculating cash surrender values. (1) This section, in addition to all other applicable sections of this chapter, applies to all policies issued on or after January 1, 1987. Any cash surrender value available under the policy upon default in a premium payment due on any policy anniversary is an amount that does not differ by more than 2/10 of 1% of either the amount of insurance, if the insurance is uniform in amount, or the average amount of insurance at the beginning of each of the first 10 policy years subtracted from the sum of:

(a) the greater of zero and the basic cash value specified in subsection (2); and

(b) the present value of any existing paid-up additions less the amount of any indebtedness to the insurer under the policy.

(2) The basic cash value is equal to the present value, on such anniversary, of the future guaranteed benefits that would have been provided for by the policy, excluding any existing paid-up additions and before deduction of any indebtedness to the insurer, if there had been no default less the then present value of the nonforfeiture factors, as provided in subsection (3), corresponding to premiums that would have fallen due on and after such anniversary date. However, the effects on the basic cash value of supplemental life insurance or annuity benefits or of family coverage, as described in 33-20-203 or 33-20-204, whichever is applicable, are the same as the effects specified in 33-20-203 or 33-20-204, whichever is applicable, on the cash surrender values defined in that section.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1106 1983

(3) The nonforfeiture factor for each policy year is an amount equal to a percentage of the adjusted premium for the policy year, as defined in 33-20-204 or [section 6], whichever is applicable. Except as is required by subsection (4), the percentage:

(a) must be the same percentage for each policy year between the second policy anniversary date and the later of the fifth policy anniversary date and the first policy anniversary date at which there is available under the policy a cash surrender value in an amount, before including any paid-up additions and before deducting any indebtedness, of at least 2/10 of 1% of either the amount of insurance, if the insurance is uniform in amount, or the average amount of insurance at the beginning of each of the first 10 policy years; and

(b) must be such that no percentage after the later of the two policy anniversary dates specified in subsection (3)(a) applies to less than 5 consecutive policy years.

(4) No basic cash value may be less than the value that would be obtained if the adjusted premiums for the policy, as provided in 33-20-204 or [section 6], whichever is applicable, were substituted for the nonforfeiture factors in the calculation of the basic cash value.

(5) Adjusted premiums and present values referred to in this section must, for a particular policy, be calculated on the same mortality and interest bases as are used in demonstrating the policy's compliance with the other sections of this part. The cash surrender values referred to in this section include any endowment benefits provided for by the policy.

(6) A cash surrender value available other than upon default in a premium payment due on a policy anniversary date and the amount of any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit available under the policy in the event of default in a premium payment are determined consistently with provisions specified for determining the analogous minimum amounts in 33-20-202 through 33-20-204, [section 6], and 33-20-211. The amounts of any cash surrender values and of any paid-up nonforfeiture benefits granted in connection with additional benefits such as those listed in 33-20-211(4) must conform with the principles of this section.

Section 10. Section 33-20-212, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-20-212. Exceptions. (1) This part does not apply to:

(a) reinsurance;

(b) group insurance;

(c) a pure endowment;

(d) an annuity or reversionary annuity contract;

(e) a term policy of uniform amount that provides no guaranteed nonforfeiture or endowment benefits, or renewal thereof, of 20 years or less expiring before age 71 for which uniform premiums are payable during the entire term of the policy;

(f) a term policy of decreasing amount that provides no guaranteed nonforfeiture or endowment benefits, on which each adjusted premium, calculated as specified in *[*33-20-204 through 33-20-207 and section 6], is less than the adjusted premiums so calculated on a term policy of uniform amount, or renewal thereof, which provides no guaranteed nonforfeiture or endowment benefits, issued at the same age and for the same initial amount of insurance and for a term of 20 years or less expiring before age 71, for which uniform premiums are payable during the entire term of the policy;

(g) a policy which provides no guaranteed nonforfeiture or endowment benefits for which the cash surrender value, if any, or present value of any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit at the beginning of any policy year, calculated as specified in [33-20-203 through 33-20-207 and section 6], does not exceed 2.5% of the amount of insurance at the beginning of the same policy year;

(h) a policy that is delivered outside this state through an agent or other representative of the insurer issuing the policy.

(2) For purposes of subsection (1), the age at expiry for a joint term life insurance policy is the age at expiry of the oldest life."

Section 11. Codification instruction. Sections 6, 7, and 9 are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 33, chapter 20, part 2, and the provisions of Title 33 apply to sections 6, 7, and 9.

Approved April 14, 1983.

CHAPTER NO. 499

AN ACT AUTHORIZING THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE LANDS TO WAIVE CIVIL PENALTIES FOR MINOR VIOLATIONS OF THE MONTANA STRIP AND UNDERGROUND MINE RECLAMATION ACT AND REQUIRING THE BOARD OF LAND COMMISSIONERS TO ADOPT RULES TO IMPLEMENT WAIVER OF PENALTIES; AMENDING SECTION 82-4-254, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 82-4-254, MCA, is amended to read:

"82-4-254. Violation — penalty — waiver. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), a person or operator who violates any of the provisions of this part, rules or orders adopted under this part, or term or condition of a permit and any director, officer, or agent of a corporation who willfully authorizes, orders, or carries out a violation shall pay a civil penalty of not less than $100 or more than $5,000 for the violation and an additional civil penalty of not less than $100 or more than $5,000 for each day during which a violation continues and may be enjoined from continuing such violations as hereinafter provided in this section. Any person or operator who fails to correct a violation within the period permitted by law, rule of the board or department, or order of the commissioner shall be assessed a penalty of not less than $750 for each day during which such failure or violation continues. The period permitted for correction of a violation shall not, in the case of any review proceeding under 82-4-251(6), end until entry of a final order suspending the abatement requirements or until entry of an order of court ordering suspension of the abatement requirements.

(2) The department may waive the civil penalty for a minor violation of this part, a rule or order adopted under this part, or a term or condition of a permit if the department determines such violation is not of potential harm to public health, public safety, or the environment or impairs the administration of this part. The board of land commissioners shall adopt rules to implement and administer a procedure for waiver of a penalty under this subsection.

(3) The department shall notify the person or operator of the violation. The person or operator shall by filing a written request within 20 days of receipt of the notice of violation be entitled to a hearing on the issues of whether the alleged violation has occurred and whether the penalty proposed to be assessed is proper. The department shall issue a statement of proposed penalty no more than 10 days after notice of violation. After the hearing or after the time for requesting a hearing has expired, the board shall make findings of fact and shall issue a written decision as to the occurrence of the violation and the amount of penalty warranted and shall order the payment of a penalty in that amount. The person or operator shall remit the amount of the penalty within 30 days of the order. If the person or operator wishes to obtain judicial review of the assessment, he shall submit with the penalty a statement that the penalty is being paid under protest and the department shall hold the payment in escrow until judicial review is complete. Any person or operator who fails to request and submit testimony at the hearing provided for in this subsection or who fails to pay the assessed penalty under protest within 30 days of the order assessing the penalty forfeits his right to seek judicial review of the violation or penalty determinations. These penalties are recoverable in any action brought in the name of the state of Montana by the attorney general in the district court of the first judicial district of this state, in and for the county of Lewis and Clark, or the district having jurisdiction over the defendant.

(4) The attorney general shall, upon request of the commissioner, sue for the recovery of the penalties provided for in this section and bring an action for a restraining order or temporary or permanent injunction against an operator or other person who:

(a) violates, threatens to violate, or fails or refuses to comply with any order or decision issued under this part;

(b) interferes with, hinders, or delays the department in carrying out the provisions of the part;

(c) refuses to admit an authorized representative of the department to the permit area;

(d) refuses to permit inspection of the permit area by an authorized representative of the department;

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1109 1983

(e) refuses to furnish any information or report requested by the department in furtherance of the provisions of this part;

(f) refuses to permit access to and copying of such records as the department determines to be necessary in carrying out the provisions of this part.

(5) Any relief granted by a court under subsection (4)(a) continues in effect until the completion or final termination of all proceedings for review of such under this part unless, prior thereto, the district court granting the relief sets it aside or modifies it.

(6) A person who violates any of the provisions of this part or any determination or order adopted under this part, or who willfully violates any permit condition issued under this part is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than $500 and not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than 1 year, or both. Each day on which the violation occurs constitutes a separate offense.

(7) Any person who knowingly makes any false statement, representation, or certification or knowingly fails to make any statement, representation, or certification in any application, record, report, plan, or other document filed or required to be maintained pursuant to this part shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not more than $10,000 or by imprisonment for not more than 1 year, or both.

(8) Any person who except as permitted by law willfully resists, prevents, impedes, or interferes with the department or its agents in the performance of duties pursuant to this part shall be punished by a fine of not more than $5,000 or by imprisonment for not more than 1 year, or both.

(9) No employee of the department performing any function or duty under this part shall have a direct or indirect financial interest in any strip- or underground-coal-mining operation. Whoever knowingly violates the provisions of this subsection shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not more than $2,500 or by imprisonment of not more than 1 year, or both."

Section 2. Effective date. This act is effective July 1, 1983.

Approved April 14, 1983.

CHAPTER NO. 500

AN ACT PROVIDING THAT THE OBLIGATION TO MAKE PAYMENTS TO ROYALTY OWNERS IS OF THE ESSENCE IN OIL AND GAS LEASES; REQUIRING OIL AND GAS PRODUCERS TO PAY INTEREST ON ANY UNPAID ROYALTIES; REQUIRING A ROYALTY OWNER TO BRING ANY ACTION SEEKING A REMEDY OR TO COLLECT PAYMENTS IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE COUNTY IN WHICH THE WELL IS LOCATED, AND PROVIDING FOR COURT COSTS AND ATTORNEY FEES IN ANY SUCH ACTION; AMENDING SECTION 82-10-102, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Obligation to pay royalties. (1) The obligation arising under an oil and gas lease to pay oil or gas royalties to the royalty owner or his assignee, to deliver oil or gas to a purchaser to the credit of such royalty owner or his assignee, or to pay a portion of the proceeds of the sale of such oil or gas to the royalty owner or his assignee is of the essence in the lease contract.

(2) If the operator under an oil and gas lease fails to pay oil or gas royalties to the royalty owner or his assignee within 180 days after oil or gas produced under the lease is marketed, the unpaid royalties thereafter bear interest, at the maximum rate of interest authorized under 31-1-107 from the date due until paid. The operator may remit semiannually to a person entitled to royalties the aggregate of 6 months' royalties whenever the aggregate amount is less than $50.

(3) A royalty owner seeking a remedy for failure to make payments under the lease or seeking such payments under this section shall bring his action in the district court for the county in which the oil or gas well is located, and that court has jurisdiction over any such actions brought under this section. The prevailing party in any proceeding brought under this section is entitled to recover his court costs and reasonable attorney fees.

(4) This section does not apply if a royalty owner or his assignee has elected to take his proportionate share of production in kind or whenever there is a dispute as to the title of the minerals or entitlement to royalties, the outcome of which would affect distribution of royalty payments.

Section 2. Section 82-10-102, MCA, is amended to read:

"82-10-102. Remedy not exclusive. The remedy provided for in 82-10-101 is in the nature of a special remedy additional to and not a substitute for other remedies given by law to owners of royalties in lands of the character specified, and all acts or parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of 82-10-101 shall not apply in actions authorized and provided for by that section."

Section 3. Codification instruction. Section 1 is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 82, chapter 10, part 1.

Approved April 14, 1983.

CHAPTER NO. 501

AN ACT ALLOWING THE HEAD OF A HOUSEHOLD TO CLAIM THE SAME STANDARD DEDUCTION AS MARRIED INDIVIDUALS FILING A JOINT RETURN; AMENDING SECTION 15-30-122, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN APPLICABILITY DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 15-30-122, MCA, is amended to read:

"15-30-122. Standard deduction. (1) In the case of a resident individual, a standard deduction equal to 20% of adjusted gross income shall be allowed if elected by the taxpayer on his return. The standard deduction shall be in lieu of all deductions allowed under 15-30-121. The maximum standard deduction shall be $1,500, as adjusted under the provisions of subsection (2), except that in the case of a single joint return of husband and wife or in the case of a single individual who qualifies to file as a head of household on his federal income tax return, the maximum standard deduction shall be $3,000, as adjusted under the provisions of subsection (2). The standard deduction shall not be allowed to either the husband or the wife if the tax of one of the spouses is determined without regard to the standard deduction. AN ACT TO CLARIFY THE PROVISIONS RELATING TO HIGH SCHOOL TUITION; AMENDING SECTIONS 20-5-311 AND 20-5-312, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1111 1983

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 20-5-311, MCA, is amended to read:

"20-5-311. High school tuition. (1) Any child may be enrolled in and attend a high school outside of the high school district in which he resides when such high school is located in Montana or in a county of another state that is adjacent to the state of Montana. When a parent or guardian of a child wishes to have his child attend a school under the provisions of this section, he shall apply to the county superintendent of the county of his residence before July 1 of the school fiscal year for which he seeks approval except in those cases when substantial changes in circumstances occurred subsequently to justify later application. Such application shall be made on a tuition agreement form supplied by the county superintendent. The trustees of the district of residence, the trustees of the district in which the child wishes to attend school, and the county superintendent are the approval agents for tuition to another high school within the county. The county superintendent of the county of residence and the trustees of the district in which the child wishes to attend school are the approval agents for attendance outside the county.

(2) The approval agents shall approve a tuition application when a child lives closer to a high school of another district than any high school located within his resident district or when, due to road or geographic conditions, it is impractical to attend the high school nearest his residence. In approving such a tuition application the approval agents are not required to approve a tuition application for a student seeking to attend a high school outside the state of Montana if the resident district provides transportation. In approving a tuition agreement under this provision, the approval agents may require the child to attend the high school closest to his residence. The approval agents may approve any other tuition application that satisfies the geographic requirements of this section.

(3) The trustees of the district where the child wishes to attend school shall approve or disapprove any tuition application submitted to them under the provisions of this section within 15 days after the receipt of the application.

(4) The county superintendent shall notify the parent or guardian and the trustees of the district where the child wishes to attend school of the tuition agreement approval or disapproval. If a tuition agreement is disapproved by one or more approval agents, the parent may appeal such disapproval to the county superintendent and, subsequently, to the superintendent of public instruction under the provision for the appeal of controversies in this title.

(5) The approval of any tuition agreement by all of the applicable approval agents or upon appeal shall authorize the child named in such agreement to enroll in and attend the school named in such agreement for the ensuing school fiscal year."

Section 2. Section 20-5-312, MCA, is amended to read:

"20-5-312. Reporting, budgeting, and payment for high school tuition. (1) At the close of the school term of each school fiscal year, the trustees of each high school district shall determine the rate of tuition for the current school fiscal year by:

(a) totaling the actual expenditures from the district general fund, the debt service fund, and, if the pupil is a resident of another county, the retirement fund;

(b) dividing the amount determined in subsection (1)(a) above by the ANB of the district for the current fiscal year, as determined under the provisions of 20-9-311; and

(c) subtracting the total of the per-ANB amount allowed by 20-9-316 through 20-9-321 that represents the foundation program as prescribed by 20-9-303 plus the per-ANB amount determined by dividing the state financing of the district permissive levy by the ANB of the district, from the amount determined in subsection (1)(b) above.

(2) Before July 15, the trustees shall report to the county superintendent of the county in which the district is located:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1115 1983

(a) the names, addresses, and resident districts of the pupils attending the schools of the district under an approved tuition agreement;

(b) the number of days of school attended by each pupil;

(c) the amount, if any, of each pupil's tuition payment that the trustees, in their discretion, shall have the authority to waive; and

(d) the rate of current school fiscal year tuition, as determined under the provisions of this section.

(3) When the county superintendent receives a tuition report from a district, he shall immediately send the reported information to the superintendent of each district in which the reported pupils reside.

(4) When the district superintendent receives a tuition report or reports for high school pupils residing in his district and attending an out-of-district high school under approved tuition agreements, he shall determine the total amount of tuition due such out-of-district high schools on the basis of the following per-pupil schedule: the rate of tuition, number of pupils attending under an approved tuition agreement, and other information provided by each high school district where resident district pupils have attended school.

(5) The total amount of the high school tuition, with consideration of any tuition waivers, for pupils attending a high school outside the county of residence shall be financed by the county basic special tax for high schools as provided in 20-9-334. In December, the county superintendent shall cause the payment by county warrant of the high school tuition obligations established under this section out of the first moneys realized from the county basic special tax for high schools. The payment shall be made to the county treasurer of the county where each high school entitled to tuition is located. The county treasurer shall credit such tuition receipts to the general fund of the applicable high school district, and the tuition receipts shall be used in accordance with the provisions of 20-9-141.

(6) For pupils attending a high school outside their district of residence but within the county of residence, the total amount of the tuition, with consideration of any tuition waivers, must be paid during the ensuing school fiscal year. The trustees of the sending high school district shall include the tuition amount in the tuition fund of the preliminary and final budgets. This budgeted tuition amount is not subject to the budget adjustment provisions of 20-9-132. The county superintendent shall report the net tuition fund levy requirement for each high school district to the county commissioners on the second Monday of August, and a levy on the district shall be made by the county commissioners in accordance with 20-9-142. This levy requirement shall be calculated by subtracting from the total expenditure amount authorized in the final tuition fund budget the sum of the cash balance in the tuition fund at the end of the immediately preceding school fiscal year plus any other anticipated money that may be realized in the tuition fund. The trustees shall pay by warrants drawn on the tuition fund the tuition amounts owed to each district included in the county superintendent's notification. Payments shall be made whenever there is a sufficient amount of cash available in the tuition fund but no later than the end of the school fiscal year for which the budget is adopted. However, if the trustees of either the sending or receiving high school feel the transfer privilege provided by this subsection is being abused they may appeal to the county superintendent of schools who shall hold a hearing and either approve or disapprove the transfer."

Section 3. Effective date. This act is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 14, 1983.

Section 1. Section 72-2-101, MCA, is amended to read:

"72-2-101. Renunciation of succession. (1) A person or his personal representative or the representative of an incapacitated or protected person who is an heir, devisee, person succeeding to a renounced interest, donee, appointee, grantee, recipient, or beneficiary under a trust or other nontestamentary instrument or under a power of appointment exercised by a testamentary or nontestamentary instrument, surviving joint owner or surviving joint tenant, or beneficiary or owner of an insurance contract or any incident of ownership therein may renounce, in whole or in part, the right of succession to any property or interest therein, including a future interest, by filing a written renunciation under this section. The instrument shall:

(a) describe the property or interest renounced;

(b) be signed by the person renouncing; and

(c) declare the renunciation and the extent thereof.

(2) The court may direct or permit a trustee under a testamentary or nontestamentary instrument to renounce, modify, amend, or otherwise deviate from any restriction on or power of administration, management, or allocation of benefit upon finding that such restriction on the exercise of the power may defeat or impair the accomplishment of the purposes of the trust, whether by the imposition of tax, the allocation of beneficial interest inconsistent with such purposes, or by other reason. Such authority shall be exercised, after hearing and upon notice to all known persons beneficially interested in such trust, in the manner directed by the court.

(3) The instrument of renunciation must be received by the transferor of the interest, his legal representative, the personal representative of a deceased transferor, the trustee of any trust in which the interest being renounced exists, or the holder of the legal title to the property to which the interest relates. To be effective for purposes of determining inheritance and estate taxes, the instrument must be received not later than the date which is 9 months after the later of the date on which the transfer creating the interest in a person is made or the date on which the person attains 18 years of age. If the circumstances that establish the right of a person to renounce an interest arise as a result of the death of an individual, the instrument must also be filed in the court of the county where proceedings concerning the decedent's estate are pending or where they would be pending if commenced. If real property or an interest therein is renounced, a copy of the renunciation may be recorded in the office of the county clerk and recorder of the county in which the real estate is situated. No person entitled to a copy of the instrument is liable for any proper distribution or disposition made without actual notice of the renunciation, and no person making a proper distribution or disposition in reliance upon the renunciation is liable for any such distribution or disposition in the absence of actual notice that an action has been instituted contesting the validity of the renunciation.

(4) Unless the transferor of the interest has otherwise provided, the property or interest renounced devolves as though the person renouncing had predeceased the decedent or, if the appointment was exercised by a testamentary instrument, as though the person renouncing had predeceased the donee of the power. A future interest that takes effect in possession or enjoyment after the termination of the estate or interest renounced takes effect as though the person renouncing had predeceased the decedent or the donee of the power. A renunciation relates back for all purposes to the date of the death of the decedent or the donee of the power.

(5) (a) The right to renounce property or an interest therein is barred by:

(i) an assignment, conveyance, encumbrance, pledge, or transfer of property or interest, or a contract therefor;

(ii) a written waiver of the right to renounce;

(iii) an acceptance of the property or interest or benefit thereunder; or

(iv) a sale of the property or interest under judicial sale made before the renunciation is effected.

(b) The right to renounce exists notwithstanding any limitation on the interest of the person renouncing in the nature of a spendthrift provision or similar restriction.

(c) A renunciation or a written waiver of the right to renounce is binding upon the person renouncing or person waiving and all persons claiming through or under him.

(6) This section does not abridge the right of a person to waive, release, disclaim, or renounce property or an interest therein under any other statute.

(7) Within 30 days of receipt of a written instrument of renunciation by the transferor of the interest, the renouncer, his legal representative, the personal representative of the decedent, the trustee of any trust in which the interest being renounced exists, or the holder of the legal title to the property to which the interest relates, as the case may be, shall attempt to notify in writing those persons who are known or ascertainable with reasonable diligence who are recipients or potential recipients of the renounced interest of the renunciation and the interest or potential interest such recipient will receive as a result of the renunciation.

(8) Any interest in property which exists on July 1, 1983, may be renounced after October 1, 1983, as provided in this section. An interest that has arisen prior to July 1, 1983, in any person other than the person renouncing is not destroyed or diminished by any action of the person renouncing taken under this section."

Section 2. Section 72-16-331, MCA, is amended to read:

Section 4. Section 72-16-333, MCA, is amended to read:

"72-16-333. Alternate valuation of certain farm or business real property — limitation. (1) If the decedent was at the time of his death a resident of this state and the personal representative elects to have 72-16-331 through 72-16-342 and [sections 17 through 23] apply and files an agreement with the department, the value of qualified real property for the purposes of the tax imposed by this part is its value for the use under which it qualifies under 72-16-331*(16)* as qualified real property.

(2) The aggregate decrease in the value of qualified real property taken into account for the purposes of the Montana inheritance tax that results from the application of (1) of this section may not exceed $500,000 in the case of a decedent dying prior to October 1, 1983, and may not exceed $750,000 for decedents dying thereafter."

Section 5. Section 72-16-334, MCA, is amended to read:

"72-16-334. Election of alternate valuation. An election for valuation under 72-16-331 through 72-16-342 and [sections 17 through 23] must be made within 18 months of the date of the decedent's death and must be made in such manner as the department may prescribe. The election, once made, is irrevocable."

Section 6. Section 72-16-335, MCA, is amended to read:

"72-16-335. Valuation of farms. (1) Except as provided in (3) of this section, the value of a farm for farming purposes is determined by dividing the excess of the average annual gross cash rental for comparable land used for farming purposes and located in the locality of the farm over the average annual state and local real estate taxes for comparable land by the average annual effective interest rate for all new federal land bank loans. For purposes of the preceding sentence, each average annual computation must be made on the basis of the 5 most recent calendar years ending before the date of the decedent's death.

(2) If there is no comparable land from which the annual average gross cash rental may be determined but there is comparable land from which the average net share rental may be determined, when subsection (1) is applied, "average annual net share rental" must be substituted for "average annual gross cash rental".

(3) The formula in (1) and (2) of this section may not be used:

(a) if it is established that there is no comparable land from which the average annual gross cash rental may be determined and that there is no comparable land from which the average net share rental may be determined; or

(b) if the personal representative elects to have the value of the farm for farming purposes determined under 72-16-336."

Section 7. Section 72-16-337, MCA, is amended to read:

Application to certain business interests — department rules. (1) The department shall prescribe regulations setting forth the application of 72-16-331 through 72-16-342 and [sections 17 through 23] in the case of an interest in a partnership, corporation, or trust that, with respect to the decedent, is an interest in a closely held business within the meaning of 72-16-453.

(2) For the purposes of the preceding sentence, an interest in a discretionary trust all the beneficiaries of which are qualified heirs must be treated as a present interest."

Section 8. Section 72-16-338, MCA, is amended to read:

"72-16-338. Disposition or failure to use for qualified use — additional tax. (1) There is hereby imposed an additional inheritance tax if within 10 years after the decedent's death and before the death of the qualified heir:

(a) the qualified heir disposes of any interest in qualified real property other than by a disposition to a member of his family; or

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1131 1983

(b) the qualified heir ceases to use for the qualified use the qualified real property which was acquired or passed from the decedent.

(2) The amount of additional tax imposed by (1) of this section with respect to any interest is the amount equal to the lesser of:

(a) the adjusted tax difference attril utable to such interest; or

(b) the excess of the amount realized with respect to the interest or in any case other than a sale or exchange at arm's length, the fair market value of the interest over the value of the interest determined under 72-16-333.

(3) For the purposes of (2) of this section, the adjusted tax difference attributable to an interest is the amount that bears the same ratio to the adjusted tax difference with respect to the estate as determined under (4) of this section as the excess of the value of such interest for purposes of the Montana inheritance tax, determined without regard to 72-16-331 through 72-16-342 and [sections 17 through 23], over the value of such interest determined under 72-16-333 bears to a similar excess determined for all qualified real property.

(4) For the purposes of (3) of this section, "adjusted tax difference with respect to the estate" means the excess of what would have been the tax liability but for 72-16-333 over the tax liability. For the purposes of this subsection, "tax liability" means the tax imposed by Title 72, chapter 16.

(5) For the purposes of this section, if the qualified heir disposes of a portion of the interest acquired by or passing to such heir or a predecessor qualified heir, or there is a cessation of use of such a portion, the value determined under 72-16-333 taken into account under (2)(b) of this section with respect to such portion shall be its pro rata share of the value of the interest and the adjusted tax difference attributable to the interest taken into account with respect to the transaction involving the second or any succeeding portion shall be reduced by the amount of the tax imposed by this section with respect to all prior transactions involving portions of the interest.

(6) In the case of an interest acquired from or passing from any decedent, if (a) or (b) of subsection (1) of this section applies to any portion of an interest, (b) or (a) of subsection (1) of this section, as the case may be, does not apply with respect to the same portion of the interest.

(7) The additional tax imposed by this section is due on the day that is 6 months after the date of the disposition or cessation.

(8) The qualified heir is personally liable for the additional tax with respect to his interest unless the heir has furnished bond that meets the requirements of 72-16-340."

Section 9. Section 72-16-339, MCA, is amended to read:

"72-16-339. When cessation of qualified use occurs. For the purposes of 72-16-338, real property ceases to be used for the qualified use if:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1132 1983

(1) the property ceases to be used for the qualified use set forth in 72-16-331 under which the property qualified under 72-16-331; or

(2) during any period of 8 years ending after the date of the decedent's death and before the date of the death of the qualified heir, there had been periods aggregating more than 3 years during which:

(a) in the case of periods during which the property was held by the decedent, there was no material participation by the decedent or any member of his family in the operation of the farm or other business; and

(b) in the case of periods during which the property was held by any qualified heir, there was no material participation by such qualified heir or any member of his family in the operation of the farm or other business."

Section 10. Section 72-16-341, MCA, is amended to read:

"72-16-341. Involuntary conversion of qualified real property. (1) If there is an involuntary conversion of an interest in qualified real property, no tax is imposed by 72-16-338 on the conversion if the cost of the qualified replacement property equals or exceeds the amount realized on the conversion.

(2) If (1) of this section does not apply, the tax imposed by 72-16-338, with respect to any involuntary conversion, is the amount of tax that, but for this subsection, would have been imposed on the conversion reduced by an amount that bears the same ratio to such tax as the cost of the qualified replacement property bears to the amount realized on the conversion.

(3) (a) For the purposes of 72-16-338, any qualified replacement property shall be treated in the same manner as if it were a portion of the interest in qualified real property that was involuntarily converted, except that with respect to such qualified replacement property, the 10-year period under 72-16-338 shall be extended by any period, beyond the 2-year period referred to in section 1033(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Internal Revenue Code, during which the qualified heir was allowed to replace the qualified real property.

(b) Any tax imposed by 72-16-338 on the involuntary conversion shall be treated as a tax imposed on a partial disposition. The provisions of 72-16-339 shall be applied by not taking into account periods after the involuntary conversion and before the acquisition of the qualified replacement property and by treating material participation with respect to the converted property as material participation with respect to the qualified replacement property.

(4) The rules of the last sentence of section 1033(a)(2)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code apply for the purposes of 72-16-331*(17)*(a)(ii)."

Section 11. Section 72-16-342, MCA, is amended to read:

"72-16-342. Time limitations on assessment of additional tax. (1) If qualified real property is disposed of or ceases to be used for a qualified use, the statutory period for the assessment of any additional tax under 72-16-338 attributable to disposition or cessation may not expire until 3 years after the date the department is notified, in a manner to be prescribed by the department, of the disposition or cessation or, in the case of an involuntary conversion or exchange in which 72-16-341 or [section 22] applies, 3 years from the date the department is notified of the replacement of the converted property or of an intention to replace or exchange the property.

(2) The additional tax may be assessed before the expiration of the 3-year period referred to in (1) of this section, notwithstanding the provisions of any other law or rule of law that would otherwise prevent such assessment."

Section 12. Section 72-16-452, MCA, is amended to read:

"72-16-452. Deferred payment for transfer of closely held business interest. (1) If the value of an interest in a closely held business that is taxable under Title 72, chapter 16, part 3, as a transfer from a decedent who was at the time of death a resident of this state exceeds 35% of the adjusted gross estate, the personal representative may elect to pay all or part of the tax imposed by Title 72, chapter 16, part 3, in 2 or more but less than 11 equal installments.

(2) The maximum amount of tax that may be paid in installments by each beneficiary is an amount that bears the same ratio to the tax imposed by Title 72, chapter 16, part 3, as the closely held business amount passing to the beneficiary bears to the clear market value of all property passing to the beneficiary, without reduction for the federal estate tax due or paid.

(3) If an election is made under (1) of this section, the first installment must be paid on or before a date selected by the personal representative that is not more than 5 years after the date prescribed by 72-16-441 for the payment of tax without interest. If, however, a credit is claimed on the federal estate tax return for state death taxes on the estate under the provisions of section 2011(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, an amount of inheritance tax due equal to the federal credit must be paid within the period established in section 2011(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended. Each succeeding installment must be paid on or before the date that is 1 year after the date of the preceding installment. The department may for reasonable cause extend the time for payment of any installment under this section, including any part of an additional tax prorated to any installment, for a reasonable period but not beyond the date that is 12 months after the due date for the last installment.

(4) If an election is made under (1) of this section, the tax due may not be further deferred under the provisions of 72-16-438."

Section 13. Section 72-16-456, MCA, is amended to read:

"72-16-456. Interests in more than one closely held business. (1) Interests in two or more closely held businesses, with respect to which there is taxable under Title 72, chapter 16, part 3, as a transfer from the decedent 20% or more of the total value of each business, shall be treated as an interest in a single closely held business.

(2) For the purposes of the 20% requirement of (1) of this section, an interest in a closely held business that represents the surviving spouse's interest in property held by the decedent and the surviving spouse as joint tenants or tenants in common shall be treated as taxable under Title 72, chapter 16, part 3, in determining the value of a transfer from the decedent."

Section 14. Section 72-16-463, MCA, is amended to read:

"72-16-463. Failure to pay installment — acceleration of payment. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), if any installment of principal or interest under 72-16-451 through 72-16-465 is not paid on or before the date fixed for its payment, including any extension of time for the payment of the installment, the unpaid portion of the tax payable in installments must be paid on notice and demand from the department.

(2) If any installment of principal or interest under 72-16-451 through 72-16-465 is not paid on or before the date determined under subsection (1) but is paid within 6 months of the date, the provisions of subsection (1) do not apply with respect to such payment, the provisions of 72-16-461 may not apply with respect to the determination of interest on such payment, and there is imposed a penalty in an amount equal to the product of 5% of the amount of such payment, multiplied by the number of months or fractions thereof after such date and before payment is made."

Section 15. Section 72-16-464, MCA, is amended to read:

"72-16-464. Acceleration of payment — other grounds. (1) The extension of time for payment of tax provided in 72-16-452 shall cease to apply and any unpaid portion of the tax payable must be paid upon notice and demand of the department if any portion of an interest in a closely held business that qualifies under 72-16-452 is distributed, sold, exchanged, or otherwise disposed of or if money and other property attributable to such an interest is withdrawn from the trade or business and the aggregate of such distributions, sales, exchanges, or other dispositions and withdrawals equals or exceeds 50% of the value of such interest.

(2) In the case of a distribution in redemption of stock to which section 303 of the Internal Revenue Code or so much of section 304 of the Internal Revenue Code as relates to section 303 applies:

(a) subsection (1) of this section does not apply with respect to the stock redeemed and, for the purposes of subsection (1), the interest in the closely held business shall be considered to be such interest reduced by the value of the stock redeemed; and

(b) subsection (1) of this section does not apply with respect to withdrawals of money and other property distributed and, for the purposes of subsection (1), the value of the trade or business shall be considered to be such value reduced by the amount of money and other property distributed.

(3) Subsection (1) of this section does not apply to an exchange of stock pursuant to a plan of reorganization described in (D), (E), or (F) of section 368(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code or to an exchange to which section 355 of the Internal Revenue Code or so much of section 356 of the

Internal Revenue Code applies to section 355, but any stock received in such an exchange shall be treated for purposes of subsection (1) as an interest qualifying under 72-16-452.

(4) Subsection (1) of this section does not apply to a transfer of property of the decedent to a person entitled by reason of the decedent's death to receive such property under the decedent's will, intestate succession, or a trust created by the decedent; nor does it apply to a series of subsequent transfers of the property by reason of death of the transferor, so long as each transfer is to a member of the family within the meaning of section 267(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code."

Section 16. Section 72-16-603, MCA, is amended to read:

"72-16-603. Tax — how apportioned. (1) Except as provided in subsection (3) and unless the will otherwise provides, the tax shall be apportioned among all persons interested in the estate. The apportionment is to be made in the proportion that the value of the interest of each person interested in the estate bears to the total value of the interests of all persons interested in the estate. The values used in determining the tax are to be used for that purpose.

(2) If the decedent's will directs a method of apportionment of tax different from the method described in this part, the method described in the will controls.

(3) If the liabilities of persons interested in the estate as described in this part differ from those which result under the federal estate tax law, the liabilities imposed by the federal law control and the balance of this part applies as if the resulting liabilities had been prescribed in this part."

Section 17. Special rules for surviving spouses. (1) If property is qualified real property with respect to a decedent, hereinafter in this subsection referred to as the "first decedent", and the property was acquired from or passed from the first decedent to the surviving spouse of the first decedent, for purposes of applying this section and 72-16-339 in the case of the estate of such surviving spouse, active management of a farm or other business by the surviving spouse must be treated as material participation by the surviving spouse in the operation of the farm or business.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the determination of whether property is qualified real property with respect to the first decedent must be made without regard to whether an election under 72-16-334 was made.

Section 18. Decedents who are retired or disabled. (1) If on the date of the decedent's death, the requirements of 72-16-331(16)(c)(ii) with respect to the decedent for any property are not met and the decedent either was receiving old-age benefits under Title II of the Social Security Act for a continuous period ending on the date of death or was disabled for a continuous period ending on the date of death, then 72-16-331(16)(c) must be applied with respect to such property by substituting "the date on which the longer of the continuous periods described in [section 18(1)] began" for "the date of the decedent's death" in 72-16-331(16)(c).

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1136 1983

(2) For purposes of 72-16-339(2)(a), if the requirements of 72-16-331(16)(c)(ii) are met with respect to any decedent by reason of subsection (1), the period ending on the date on which the continuous period taken into account under subsection (1) began must be treated as the period immediately before the decedent's death.

Section 19. Active management by eligible qualified heir treated as material participation. (1) For purposes of 72-16-339, the active management of a farm or other business by an eligible qualified heir or a fiduciary of an eligible qualified heir must be treated as a material participation by the eligible qualified heir in the operation of the farm or business.

(2) In the case of an eligible qualified heir, subsection (1) applies only during periods during which the heir continues to be an eligible qualified heir.

Section 20. No tax if use begins within two years. If the date on which the qualified heir begins to use the qualified real property, hereinafter referred to as the commencement date, is before the date 2 years after the decedent's death:

(1) no tax may be imposed under 72-16-338 by reason of the failure by the qualified heir to so use such property before the commencement date; and

(2) the 10-year period under 72-16-338 must be extended by the period between the decedent's death and the commencement date.

Section 21. Special rule for disposition of timber. In the case of qualified woodland to which an election under 72-16-334 applies, if the qualified heir disposes of or severs any standing timber on the qualified woodland:

(1) the disposition or severance is treated as a disposition of a portion of the interest of the qualified heir in the property; and

(2) the additional tax imposed by 72-16-338 with respect to the disposition is an amount equal to the lesser of:

(a) the amount realized on the disposition or, in any case other than a sale or exchange at arm's length, the fair market value of the portion of the interest disposed or severed; or

(b) the amount of additional tax determined under this section, without regard to this subsection (2)(b), if the entire interest of the qualified heir in the qualified woodland had been disposed of, less the sum of the amount of the additional tax imposed with respect to all prior transactions involving the woodland to which subsection (2) applied.

(3) For purposes of subsection (2), the disposition of a right to sever is treated as the disposition of the standing timber. The amount of additional tax imposed under 72-16-338 in a case in which a qualified heir disposes of his entire interest in the qualified woodland must be reduced by any amount determined under this section with respect to such woodland.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1137 1983

Section 22. Exchanges of qualified real property. (1) If an interest in qualified real property is exchanged solely for an interest in qualified exchange property in a transaction that qualifies under section 1031 of the Internal Revenue Code, no tax may be imposed by 72-16-338 by reason of the exchange.

(2) If an interest in qualified real property is exchanged for an interest in qualified exchange property and other property in a transaction that qualifies under section 1031 of the Internal Revenue Code, the amount of the tax imposed by 72-16-338 by reason of the exchange must be the amount of tax that would have been imposed on the exchange under 72-16-338 without regard to this section, reduced by an amount which bears the same ratio to such tax as the fair market value of the other property bears to the fair market value of the qualified real property exchanged. Fair market value must be determined as of the time of the exchange.

(3) For purposes of 72-16-338:

(a) any interest in qualified exchange property must be treated in the same manner as if it were a portion of the interest in qualified real property that was exchanged;

(b) any tax imposed by 72-16-338 by reason of the exchange must be treated as a tax imposed on a partial disposition; and

(c) 72-16-338 must be applied by treating material participati with respect to the exchanged property as material participation with r ect to the qualified exchange property.

Section 23. Treatment of replacement property acquired in transactions under section 1031 or 1033 of the Internal Revenue Code. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) in the case of any qualified replacement property, any period during which there was ownership, qualified use, or material participation with respect to the replaced property by the decedent or any member of his family must be treated as a period during which there was such ownership, use, or material participation with respect to the qualified replacement property.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the extent that the fair market value of the qualified replacement property, as of the date of its acquisition, exceeds the fair market value of the replaced property, as of the date of its disposition.

(3) For purposes of this section:

(a) the term "qualified replacement property" means any real property:

(i) that is acquired in an exchange which qualifies under section 1031 of the Internal Revenue Code;

(ii) the acquisition of which results in the nonrecognition of gain under section 1033 of the Internal Revenue Code; or

(iii) that is used for the same qualified use as the replaced property was being used before the exchange;

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1138 1983

(b) the term "replaced property" means:

(i) the property transferred in the exchange that qualifies under section 1031 of the Internal Revenue Code; or

(ii) the property compulsorily or involuntarily converted within the meaning of section 1033 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Section 24. Section 72-16-491, MCA, is amended to read:

"72-16-491. Lien for additional tax attributable to farm and closely held business property. (1) In the case of any interest in qualified real property within the meaning of 72-16-331*(16)*, an amount equal to the adjusted tax difference attributable to such interest within the meaning of 72-16-338(3) is a lien in favor of the state on the property in which such interest exists.

(2) The lien imposed by this section shall arise at the time an election is filed under 72-16-333 and continues with respect to any interest in the qualified real property until:

(a) the liability for tax under 72-16-338 with respect to such interest has been satisfied or has become unenforceable by reason of lapse of time; or

(b) until it is established to the satisfaction of the department that no further tax liability may arise under 72-16-338 with respect to such interest.

(3) Sections 72-16-477, 72-16-479, and 72-16-480 apply with respect to a lien imposed by 72-16-491."

Section 25. Codification instruction. Sections 17 through 23 are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 72, chapter 16, part 3, and the provisions of Title 72, chapter 16, part 3, apply to sections 17 through 23.

"17-2-107. (Effective July 1, 1983) Accurate accounting records and interaccount loans. (1) The department of administration shall record receipts and disbursements for treasury funds and for accounts within treasury funds and shall maintain records in such a manner as to reflect the total cash and invested balance of each fund and each account. The department of administration shall adopt the necessary procedures to insure that interdepartmental or intradepartmental transfers of money do not result in inflation of figures reflecting total governmental costs and revenues.

(2) When the expenditure of an appropriation is necessary and the cash balance in the account from which the appropriation was made is insufficient, the department of administration may authorize a transfer, as a temporary loan bearing no interest, of unrestricted moneys from other accounts, provided that there is reasonable evidence that the income provided for the remainder of the fiscal year will be sufficient to restore the amount so transferred and provided the loan is recorded in the state accounting records. The loan must be repaid before the end of the fiscal year unless it is extended under the criteria of 17-2-107(3) or by specific legislative authorization. No account shall be so impaired that all proper demands thereon cannot be met even if the loan is extended.

(i) contractual receipts due from federal revenue;

(ii) receipts due to the auxiliary and restricted subfunds; or

(iii) receipts due to the loan fund.

(4) These loans may be extended into the next fiscal year if the department of administration receives sufficient written justification therefor from the borrower. A loan extended beyond the fiscal yearend must be repaid within 1 calendar year of the date the loan is approved. CHAPTER NO. 518

AN ACT TO GENERALLY REVISE AND CLARIFY THE LAWS RELATING TO INSURANCE; CHANGING FORM FILING REQUIREMENTS; CLARIFYING PROVISIONS RELATING TO REINSURANCE AGREEMENTS AND BULK REINSURANCE; PROVIDING THAT INLAND MARINE INSURANCE IS TAXED AT 2 ¾ PERCENT OF NET PREMIUMS WRITTEN; DEFINING AND PROVIDING FOR THE REGULATION OF "PUBLIC ADJUSTERS"; DEFINING A "MANAGING GENERAL AGENT" AND PROVIDING FOR LICENSURE; CLARIFYING WHEN INSURANCE INFORMATION MAY BE OBTAINED ABOUT AN INDIVIDUAL; CLARIFYING THE POLICY AMOUNT THAT MUST BE OFFERED ON TERMINATION OF A GROUP LIFE POLICY; AND PROVIDING THAT A POLICY CLAUSE ON CONFORMITY WITH STATE STATUTES BE MANDATORY; AMENDING SECTIONS 33-1-501, 33-2-119, 33-2-705, 33-2-1206, 33-17-102, 33-17-103, 33-17-201, 33-19-304, 33-20-1210, AND 33-22-229, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 33-1-501, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-1-501. Filing and approval of forms. (1) No insurance policy or annuity contract form, application form, printed rider or endorsement form, or form of renewal certificate shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state unless the form has been filed with and approved by the commissioner of this state and the state of domicile of the insurer, where so required. This provision shall not apply to surety bonds or policies, riders, endorsements, or forms of unique character designed for and used with relation to insurance upon a particular subject or which relate to the manner of distribution of benefits or to the reservation of rights and benefits under life or disability insurance policies and are used at the request of the individual policyholder, contract holder, or certificate holder. As to forms for use in property, marine (other than ocean marine and foreign trade coverages), casualty, and surety insurance coverages, the filing required by this subsection may be made by rating organizations on behalf of its members and subscribers, but this provision shall not be deemed to prohibit any such member or subscriber from filing any such forms on its own behalf.

(2) Every such filing shall be made not less than 60 days in advance of any such delivery. Approval of any such form by the commissioner shall constitute a waiver of any unexpired portion of such waiting period. The commissioner may extend by not more than an additional 60 days the period within which he may so affirmatively approve or disapprove any such form by giving notice of such extension before expiration of the initial 60-day period. The commissioner may at any time, after notice and for cause shown, withdraw any such approval.

(3) Any order of the commissioner disapproving any such form or withdrawing a previous approval shall state the grounds therefor and the particulars thereof in such details as reasonably to inform the insurer thereof.

(4) The commissioner may, by order, exempt from the requirements of this section for so long as he deems proper any insurance document or form or type thereof as specified in such order to which, in his opinion, this section may not practicably be applied or the filing and approval of which are, in his opinion, not desirable or necessary for the protection of the public.

(5) This section shall apply also to any such form used by domestic insurers for delivery in a jurisdiction outside this state, if the insurance supervisory official of such jurisdiction informs the commissioner that such form is not subject to approval or disapproval by such official, and upon the commissioner's order requiring the form to be submitted to him for the purpose. The applicable same standards shall apply to such forms as apply to forms for domestic use.

(6) This section and 33-1-502 shall not apply as to:

(a) reinsurance;

(b) policies or contracts not issued for delivery in this state or delivered in this state, except as provided in subsection (5);

(c) ocean marine and foreign trade insurances.

(7) As to group insurance policies effectuated and delivered outside this state but covering persons resident in this state, group certificates which are delivered or issued for delivery in this state shall be filed with the commissioner upon his request."

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1151 1983

Section 2. Section 33-2-119, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-2-119. Suspension or revocation for violations and special grounds. (1) The commissioner may, in his discretion, suspend or revoke an insurer's certificate of authority if, after a hearing thereon, he finds that the insurer has:

(a) violated any lawful order of the commissioner or any provision of this code other than those for which suspension or revocation is mandatory;

(b) reinsured more than 90% of its risks, resident or to be performed in Montana, in another insurer. In considering suspension or revocation, the commissioner shall consider all relevant factors, including whether:

(i) after the reinsurance transaction all parties will be in compliance with Montana law; and

(ii) the transaction will substantially reduce protection and service to Montana policyholders.

(2) The commissioner shall, after a hearing thereon, suspend or revoke an insurer's certificate of authority if he finds that the insurer:

(a) is in unsound condition or in such condition or using such methods or practices in the conduct of its business as to render its further transaction of insurance in Montana injurious or hazardous to its policyholders or to the public;

(b) has refused to be examined or to produce its accounts, records, and files for examination or if any of its officers have refused to give information with respect to its affairs, when required by the commissioner;

(c) has failed to pay any final judgment rendered against it in Montana within 30 days after the judgment became final;

(d) with such frequency as to indicate its general business practice in Montana, has without just cause refused to pay proper claims arising under its policies, whether any such claim is in favor of an insured or is in favor of a third person with respect to the liability of an insured to such third person, or without just cause compels such insured or claimant to accept less than the amount due them or to employ attorneys or to bring suit against the insurer or such an insured to secure full payment or settlement of such claims;

(e) is affiliated with and under the same general management or interlocking directorate or ownership as another insurer which transacts direct insurance in Montana without having a certificate of authority therefor, except as permitted as to a surplus line insurer under part 3 of this chapter.

(3) The commissioner may, in his discretion and without advance notice or a hearing thereon, immediately suspend the certificate of authority of any insurer as to which proceedings for receivership, conservatorship, rehabilitation, or other delinquency proceedings have been commenced in any state."

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1152 1983

Section 3. Section 33-2-705, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-2-705. Report on premiums and other consideration — tax. (1) Each authorized insurer and each formerly authorized insurer with respect to premiums so received while an authorized insurer in this state shall file with the commissioner, on or before March 1 each year, a report (except as to wet marine and transportation insurance taxed under subsection (4) below) in form as prescribed by the commissioner showing total direct premium income, including policy, membership, and other fees, premiums paid by application of dividends, refunds, savings, savings coupons, and similar returns or credits to payment of premiums for new or additional or extended or renewed insurance, charges for payment of premium in installments, and all other consideration for insurance from all kinds and classes of insurance whether designated as a premium or otherwise, received by it during the preceding calendar year on account of policies covering property, subjects, or risks located, resident, or to be performed in Montana, with proper proportionate allocation of premium as to such property, subjects, or risks in Montana insured under policies or contracts covering property, subjects, or risks located or resident in more than one state, after deducting from such total direct premium income applicable cancellations, returned premiums, the unabsorbed portion of any deposit premium, the amount of reduction in or refund of premiums allowed to industrial life policyholders for payment of premiums direct to an office of the insurer, all policy dividends, refunds, savings, savings coupons, and other similar returns paid or credited to policyholders with respect to such policies. As to title insurance, "premium" includes the total charge for such insurance. No deduction shall be made of the cash surrender values of policies. Considerations received on annuity contracts shall not be included in total direct premium income and shall not be subject to tax.

(2) Coincident with the filing of the tax report referred to in subsection (1) above, each such insurer shall pay to the commissioner a tax upon such net premiums. This tax may be computed in either of the following ways:

(a) (i) A domestic insurer may choose to compute its tax based on the percentage of its admitted assets invested in Montana securities according to the following schedule:

(A) 2 ¾% of net premiums if the insurer has 0% of its admitted assets invested in Montana securities;

(B) 2 ¼% of net premiums if the insurer has at least 25% of its admitted assets invested in Montana securities;

(C) 1 ¾% of net premiums if the insurer has at least 50% of its admitted assets invested in Montana securities;

(D) 1 ¼% of net premiums if the insurer has at least 75% of its admitted assets invested in Montana securities; and

(E) ¾% of net premiums if the insurer has 100% of its admitted assets invested in Montana securities.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1153 1983

(ii) "Admitted assets" are those assets allowed in 33-2-501.

(iii) An insurer choosing this method of computation must itemize its Montana securities on a detailed schedule attached to its annual tax report.

(b) (i) If the method provided for in subsection (a) is not used, the insurer shall compute its tax at the rate of 2 ¾ % of the net premiums.

(ii) An insurer choosing this method and having not less than 50% of its paid-in capital stock invested in Montana securities is allowed to deduct whatever tax it may have already paid to the state of Montana and its political subdivisions, during the same calendar year as to which premium tax is being paid, from the amount otherwise due under this section.

(3) For the purpose of subsection (2):

(a) "paid-in capital stock" as to a mutual or reciprocal insurer shall be deemed to be an amount equal to 10% of the insurer's assets; and

(b) "Montana securities" shall be deemed to include only general obligations of the state of Montana or of its political subdivisions, mortgage loans secured by a first lien upon real estate located in Montana, and real estate located in Montana owned by the insurer, all if otherwise lawful investments of the insurer under this code.

(4) (a) On or before March 1 of each year each insurer shall file with the commissioner, on forms as prescribed and furnished or accepted by him, a report of its gross underwriting profit on wet marine and transportation insurance, authorized in 33-1-209, written in this state during the calendar year next preceding and shall at the same time pay to the commissioner a tax of ¾ of 1% of such gross underwriting profit.

(b) Such gross underwriting profit shall be ascertained by deducting from the net premiums (i.e., gross premiums less all return premiums and premiums for reinsurance) on such wet marine and transportation insurance contracts the net losses paid (i.e., gross losses paid less salvage and recoveries on reinsurance ceded) during such calendar year under such contracts. In the case of insurers issuing participating contracts, such gross underwriting profit shall not include for computation of the tax prescribed by this subsection (4) the amounts refunded, credited, or paid as participation dividends or savings by such insurers to the holders of such contracts.

(5) That portion of the tax paid hereunder by an insurer on account of premiums received for fire insurance shall be separately specified in the report as required by the commissioner, for apportionment as provided by law. Where insurance against fire is included with insurance of property against other perils at an undivided premium, the insurer shall make such reasonable allocation from such entire premium to the fire portion of the coverage as shall be stated in such report and as may be approved or accepted by the commissioner.

(6) With respect to authorized insurers the premium tax provided by this section shall be payment in full and in lieu of all other demands for any and all state, county, city, district, municipal, and school taxes, licenses, fees, and excises of whatever kind or character, excepting only those prescribed by this code, taxes on real and tangible personal property located in this state, and taxes payable under 50-3-109.

(7) The commissioner may suspend or revoke the certificate of authority of any insurer which fails to pay its taxes as required under this section."

Section 4. Section 33-2-1206, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-2-1206. Bulk reinsurance — foreign or alien insurers. (1) A foreign or alien insurer may reinsure all or substantially all of its insurance in force in Montana or a major class thereof with an agreement of bulk reinsurance, but no such agreement may become effective unless filed with the commissioner and approved by him in writing. The commissioner may in his discretion hold a hearing before approving or disapproving an agreement of bulk reinsurance. Factors to be considered on bulk reinsurance agreements include but are not limited to:

(a) whether the agreement would be inequitable to Montana policyholders;

(b) whether the agreement would substantially reduce security of Montana policyholders; and

(c) whether the agreement would substantially reduce the service to be rendered to Montana policyholders.

(2) The commissioner shall approve or disapprove the agreement within a reasonable time after filing the proposed agreement or, when applicable, after a hearing.

(3) The commissioner may require a foreign or alien insurer to establish a trust account in this state, not to exceed the aggregate reserves of the policies contained in the bulk reinsurance agreement, prior to granting approval."

Section 5. Section 33-17-102, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-17-102. Definitions. (1) (a) An "adjuster" is a person who, on behalf of the insurer, for compensation as an independent contractor or as the employee of such an independent contractor or for fee or commission investigates and negotiates settlement of claims arising under insurance contracts or otherwise acts on behalf of the insurer.

(b) A licensed attorney at law who is qualified to practice law in this state, a salaried employee of an insurer or of a managing general agent, or a licensed agent who adjusts or assists in adjustment of losses arising under policies issued by the insurer represented by such agent is not deemed to be an adjuster for the purposes of this chapter.

(c) A "public adjuster" is an adjuster employed by and representing the interests of the insured. The commissioner may adopt rules providing for the examination, licensure, bonding, and regulation of public adjusters.

(2) An "agent" is an individual, firm, or corporation appointed by an insurer to solicit applications for insurance or annuities or to negotiate insurance on its behalf and, if authorized to do so by the insurer, to effectuate and countersign insurance contracts.

(3) "Life insurance agent" includes also an agent of a life insurer who is or proposes to be licensed as to the same insurer for disability insurance in addition to life insurance and annuities.

(4) A "solicitor" is an individual appointed and authorized by an agent to solicit applications for insurance, other than life insurance or disability insurance, as a representative of such agent, and to collect premiums thereon when expressly so authorized by the agent.

(5) A "managing general agent" is an individual, firm, or corporation appointed as an independent contractor by one or more insurers for the principal purpose of exercising general supervision over the business of the insurer in this state, including the authority to appoint agents for such insurers and to terminate such appointments."

Section 6. Section 33-17-103, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-17-103. Exceptions and exemptions from definition of agent, managing general agent, and solicitor. The definitions of agent, managing general agent, and solicitor contained in 33-17-102 shall not be considered to include:

(1) individuals employed and used by agents for the performance of clerical, stenographic, and similar office duties. Incidental taking of an application for insurance from time to time in the office of the employing agent shall not constitute such an employee as an agent or solicitor if the employee's compensation is not contingent upon or relating to the volume of such applications, insurance, or premiums.

(2) a supervising salaried officer, supervising salaried employee, or other person or entity controlled by an insurer and compensated strictly on a salary basis by the insurer, who solicits only with or in conjunction with duly licensed agents of the insurer;

(3) the attorney-in-fact of a reciprocal insurer or the salaried traveling representative of a reciprocal or mutual insurer not compensated on a commission basis;

(4) a person who secures and forwards information for the purpose of an existing group insurance contract or for enrolling individuals under an existing group insurance contract or issuing certificates thereunder where no commission is paid for such services."

Section 7. Section 33-17-201, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-17-201. License required of agents, managing general agents, and solicitors — forms. (1) No person shall in this state act as or hold himself out to be an agent or solicitor, as to subjects of insurance located, resident, or to be performed in this state unless then licensed as such agent or solicitor under this chapter.

(2) No person may act or hold himself out in this state to be a managing general agent unless licensed as an insurance agent under this chapter and appointed by the insurers represented.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1156 1983

(3) No agent or solicitor shall solicit or take application for, procure, or place for others any kind of insurance as to which he is not then licensed.

(4) No agent shall place any business, other than coverage of his own risks, with any insurer as to which he does not then hold an appointment or license as agent under this chapter, except as provided in 33-17-1104 as to life or disability insurance agents.

(5) The commissioner shall prescribe and furnish forms required in connection with application for, issuance, continuation, or termination of licenses and appointments.

(6) Unless licensed as a life insurance agent as required by this section, no person shall in this state solicit life insurance or annuities or procure applications therefor or engage or hold himself out as engaging in the business of analyzing or abstracting life insurance policies or annuities or of counseling or advising or giving opinions, other than as a licensed attorney at law, relative to such insurance or annuities for fee, commission, or other compensation, other than as a salaried bona fide full-time employee so counseling and advising his employer relative to the insurance interests of the employer and of the subsidiaries or business affiliates of the employer or with respect to the insurance interests of employees of such employer, subsidiaries, or affiliates under group insurance or similar insurance plans arranged by the employer or employers of such employees."

Section 8. Section 33-19-304, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-19-304. Information concerning previous adverse underwriting decisions. An insurance institution, agent, or insurance-support organization may not seek information in connection with an insurance transaction concerning:

(1) any previous adverse underwriting decision experienced by an individual unless the inquiry also requests the reasons for any previous adverse underwriting decision and the individual is advised of the source of the information; or

(2) any previous insurance coverage obtained by an individual through a residual market mechanism unless the inquiry also requests the reasons why insurance coverage was previously obtained through a residual market mechanism and the individual is advised of the source of information."

Section 9. Section 33-20-1210, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-20-1210. Conversion on termination of policy. The group life insurance policy shall contain a provision that if the group policy terminates or is amended so as to terminate the insurance of any class of insured persons, every person insured thereunder at the date of such termination whose insurance terminates and who has been so insured for at least 3 years prior to such termination date shall be entitled to have issued to him by the insurer an individual policy of life insurance, subject to the same conditions and limitations as are provided by 33-20-1209, except that the group policy may provide that the amount of such individual policy may not exceed the smaller of:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1157 1983

(1) the amount of the person's life insurance protection ceasing because of the termination or amendment of the group policy, less the amount of any life insurance for which he is or becomes eligible under any group policy issued or reinstated by the same or another insurer within 31 days after such termination; or

(2) $10,000."

Section 10. Section 33-22-229, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-22-229. Conformity with state statutes. There must be a provision as follows:

"Conformity with State Statutes: Any provision of this policy which on its effective date is in conflict with the statutes of the state in which the insured resides on such date is hereby amended to conform to the minimum requirements of such statutes.""

Section 2. Purpose. The underlying purposes and policies of [sections 1 through 45] are to:

(1) simplify, clarify, and modernize the law governing procurement by the state of Montana;

(2) permit the continued development of procurement policies and practices;

(3) make as consistent as possible the procurement laws among the various jurisdictions;

(4) provide for increased public confidence in the procedures followed in public procurement;

The department shall consider and decide matters of policy within the provisions of [sections 1 through 45]. The department may audit and monitor the implementation of its rules and the requirements of [sections 1 through 45].

(2) Except as otherwise specifically provided by law, the department shall, in accordance with its rules:

(3) The causes for removal or suspension include the following:

(a) violation of contract provisions, as set forth in (i) and (ii) of subsection (3)(a), of a character which is regarded by the department to be so serious as to justify removal action:

(i) deliberate failure without good cause to perform in accordance with the specifications or within the time limit provided in the contract; or

(ii) a recent record of failure to perform or of unsatisfactory performance in accordance with the terms of one or more contracts, provided that failure to perform or unsatisfactory performance caused by acts beyond the control of the contractor may not be considered to be a basis for removal;

(b) failure to respond to a number of solicitations over a period of time as determined by the department in accordance with rules, and after adequate written notice to the affected person of the intent to remove or suspend; and

(c) any other cause the department determines to be so serious and compelling as to affect responsibility as a state contractor, including removal by another governmental entity for any cause listed in the department's rules.

(4) The department shall issue a written decision to remove or suspend, stating the reasons for the action taken. A copy of the decision must be mailed or otherwise furnished immediately to the person involved.

Section 10. Remedies prior to and after award. (1) If a solicitation or award of a contract is in violation of law, the department may apply the remedies provided in subsections (2) and (3).

(2) If prior to award it is determined that a solicitation or proposed award of a contract is in violation of law, the solicitation or proposed award must be:

(a) canceled; or

(b) revised to comply with the law.

(3) (a) If after an award it is determined that a solicitation or award of a contract is in violation of law and the person awarded the contract has not acted fraudulently or in bad faith, the contract may be:

(i) ratified and affirmed, provided it is determined that doing so is in the best interests of the state; or

(ii) terminated, and the person awarded the contract must be compensated for the actual expenses reasonably incurred under the contract, plus a reasonable profit, prior to the termination.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1162 1983

(b) If after an award it is determined that a solicitation or award of a contract is in violation of law and the person awarded the contract has acted fraudulently or in bad faith, the contract may be:

(i) declared void; or

(ii) ratified and affirmed if such action is in the best interests of the state, without prejudice to the state's rights to appropriate damages.

(4) In the event the matter is reviewed by a court, the court may apply the same remedies provided in subsections (2) and (3).

Section 11. Collection of data concerning public procurement. All using agencies shall cooperate with the department in the preparation of statistical data concerning the procurement, usage, and disposition of all supplies and services, and the department may employ trained personnel as necessary to carry out this function. All using agencies shall furnish such reports as the department may require concerning usage, needs, and stocks on hand, and the department may prescribe forms to be used by the using agencies in requisitioning, ordering, and reporting of supplies and services.

Section 12. Definitions. As used in [sections 12 through 27], the following definitions apply:

(1) "Cost-reimbursement contract" means a contract under which a contractor is reimbursed for costs which are allowable and allocable in accordance with the contract terms and the provisions of [sections 1 through 45], and a fee, if any.

(2) "Established catalog price" means the price included in a catalog, price list, schedule, or other form that:

(a) is regularly maintained by a manufacturer or contractor;

(b) is either published or otherwise available for inspection by customers; and

(c) states prices at which sales are currently or were last made to a significant number of any category of buyers or buyers constituting the general buying public for the supplies or services involved.

(3) "Invitation for bids" means all documents, whether attached or incorporated by reference, utilized for soliciting bids.

(4) "Purchase description" means the words used in a solicitation to describe the supplies or services to be purchased and includes specifications attached to or made a part of the solicitation.

(5) "Request for proposals" means all documents, whether attached or incorporated by reference, utilized for soliciting proposals.

(6) "Responsible bidder or offeror" means a person who has the capability in all respects to perform fully the contract requirements and the integrity and reliability which will assure good faith performance.

(7) "Responsive bidder" means a person who has submitted a bid which conforms in all material respects to the invitation for bids.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1163 1983

Section 13. Methods of source selection. Unless otherwise authorized by law, all state contracts for supplies and services must be awarded by competitive sealed bidding, pursuant to [section 14], except as provided in 18-4-104; Title 18, chapter 5; Title 18, chapter 8; and [sections 15 through 17]. Supplies or services offered for sale, lease, or rental by public utilities are exempt from this requirement if the prices of the supplies or services are regulated by the public service commission or other governmental authority.

Section 14. Competitive sealed bidding. (1) An invitation for bids must be issued and must include a purchase description and conditions applicable to the procurement.

(2) Adequate public notice of the invitation for bids must be given a reasonable time prior to the date set forth therein for the opening of bids, in accordance with rules adopted by the department. Notice may include publication in a newspaper of general circulation at a reasonable time prior to bid opening.

(3) Bids must be opened publicly in the presence of one or more witnesses at the time and place designated in the invitation for bids. Each bidder has the right to be present, either in person or by agent, when the bids are opened and has the right to examine and inspect all bids. The amount of each bid and such other relevant information as may be specified by rule, together with the name of each bidder, must be recorded. The record must be open to public inspection. After the time of award, all bids and bid documents must be open to public inspection in accordance with the provisions of 2-6-102.

(4) Bids must be unconditionally accepted without alteration or correction, except as authorized in [sections 1 through 45]. Bids must be evaluated based on the requirements set forth in the invitation for bids, which may include criteria to determine acceptability, such as inspection, testing, quality, workmanship, delivery, and suitability for a particular purpose. Those criteria that will affect the bid price and be considered in evaluation for award must be objectively measurable, such as discounts, transportation costs, and total or life-cycle costs. The invitation for bids shall set forth the evaluation criteria to be used. Only criteria set forth in the invitation for bids may be used in bid evaluation.

(5) Correction or withdrawal of inadvertently erroneous bids, before or after award, or cancellation of awards or contracts based on such bid mistakes may be permitted in accordance with rules adopted by the department. After bid opening no changes in bid prices or other provisions of bids prejudicial to the interest of the state or fair competition may be permitted. Except as otherwise provided by rule, all decisions to permit the correction or withdrawal of bids or to cancel awards or contracts based on bid mistakes must be supported by a written determination made by the department.

(6) The contract must be awarded with reasonable promptness by written notice to the lowest responsible and responsive bidder whose bid meets the requirements and criteria set forth in the invitation for bids, including the preferences established by Title 18, chapter 1, part 1. If all bids exceed available funds as certified by the appropriate fiscal officer and the low responsive and responsible bid does not exceed such funds by more than 5%, the director or the head of a purchasing agency is authorized, in situations where time or economic considerations preclude resolicitation of a reduced scope, to negotiate an adjustment of the bid price, including changes in the bid requirements, with the low responsive and responsible bidder in order to bring the bid within the amount of available funds.

(7) When it is considered impractical to initially prepare a purchase description to support an award based on price, an invitation for bids may be issued requesting the submission of unpriced offers, to be followed by an invitation for bids limited to those bidders whose offers have been qualified under the criteria set forth in the first solicitation.

Section 15. Competitive sealed proposals. (1) When, under rules adopted by the department, the director, the head of a purchasing agency, or a designee of either officer above the level of the procurement officer determines in writing that the use of competitive sealed bidding is either not practicable or not advantageous to the state, a contract may be entered into by competitive sealed proposals. The department may provide by rule that it is either not practicable or not advantageous to the state to procure specified types of supplies and services by competitive sealed bidding.

(2) Proposals must be solicited through a request for proposals.

(3) Adequate public notice of the request for proposals must be given in the same manner as provided in [section 14(2)].

(4) Proposals must be opened so as to avoid disclosure of contents to competing offerors during the process of negotiation. A register of proposals must be prepared in accordance with rules adopted by the department and must be open for public inspection after contract award.

(5) The request for proposals must state the relative importance of price and other evaluation factors.

(6) As provided in the request for proposals and under rules adopted by the department, discussions may be conducted with responsible offerors who submit apparently responsive proposals for the purpose of clarification, to assure full understanding of and responsiveness to the solicitation requirements. Offerors must be accorded fair and equal treatment with respect to any opportunity for discussion and revision of proposals, and such revisions may be permitted, after submissions and prior to award, for the purpose of obtaining best and final offers. In conducting discussions, there may be no disclosure of any information derived from proposals submitted by competing offerors. The department may require the submission of cost or pricing data in connection with an award under this section.

(7) The award must be made to the responsible offeror whose proposal is determined in writing to be the most advantageous to the state, taking into consideration price, including the preference in 18-1-102, and the evaluation factors set forth in the request for proposals. No other factors or criteria may be used in the evaluation. The contract file shall contain the basis on which the award is made.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1165 1983

Section 16. Small purchases. Any procurement not exceeding the amount established by rule may be made in accordance with small purchase procedures established by the department. Procurement requirements may not be artificially divided so as to constitute a small purchase under this section.

Section 17. Sole source procurement. A contract may be awarded for a supply or service item without competition when, under rules adopted by the department, the director, the head of a purchasing agency, or a designee of either officer above the level of the procurement officer determines in writing that there is only one source for the required supply or service item. The department may require the submission of cost or pricing data in connection with an award under this section.

Section 18. Cancellation of invitations for bids or requests for proposals. An invitation for bids, a request for proposals, or other solicitation may be canceled or any or all bids or proposals may be rejected in whole or in part, as may be specified in the solicitation, when it is in the best interests of the state. The reasons therefor must be made part of the contract file.

Section 19. Nonresponsibility of bidders and offerors — nondisclosure. (1) A written determination of nonresponsibility of a bidder or offeror must be made in accordance with rules adopted by the department. The unreasonable failure of a bidder or offeror to promptly supply information in connection with an inquiry with respect to responsibility may be grounds for a determination of nonresponsibility with respect to such bidder or offeror.

(2) Information furnished by a bidder or offeror pursuant to this section may not be disclosed outside of the department or the purchasing agency without prior written consent by the bidder or offeror.

Section 20. Prequalification of suppliers. Prospective suppliers may be prequalified for particular types of supplies and services. Solicitation mailing lists of potential contractors must include but not be limited to such prequalified suppliers.

Section 21. Types of contracts. Subject to the limitations of this section, any type of contract that will promote the best interests of the state may be used, except that the use of a cost-plus-percentage-of-cost contract is prohibited. A cost-reimbursement contract may be used only when a determination is made in writing that such contract is likely to be less costly to the state than any other type or that it is impracticable to obtain the supplies or services required except under such a contract.

Section 22. Approval of accounting system. Except with respect to firm fixed-price contracts, no contract type may be used unless it has been determined in writing by the department that:

(1) the proposed contractor's accounting system will permit timely development of all necessary cost data in the form required by the specific contract type contemplated; and

(2) the proposed contractor's accounting system is adequate to allocate costs in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1166 1983

Section 23. Contract performance security. (1) For state contracts for the procurement of supplies and services, the department may in its discretion require the filing of security to guarantee the faithful performance of the contract and the payment of all laborers, suppliers, materialmen, mechanics, and subcontractors.

(2) If contract performance security is required under subsection (1), the following types of security may be required to be deposited with the state:

(a) a good and sufficient bond with a licensed surety company as surety;

(b) an irrevocable letter of credit not to exceed $100,000 in accordance with the provisions of Title 30, chapter 5, part 1;

(c) lawful money of the United States;

(d) a cashier's check, certified check, bank money order, or bank draft, drawn or issued by any banking corporation incorporated under the laws of Montana or by a banking association located in Montana; or

(e) certificates of deposit or money market certificates issued by any bank or savings and loan association licensed to do business in Montana.

(3) The amount and type of the security mentioned above must be determined by the department to be sufficient to cover the risk involved to the state, except that the same shall not be less than 25% of the total contract price, and must be payable to the state of Montana. In determining the amount and type of security required for each contract, the department shall consider the nature of the performance and the need for future protection to the state. The department may adopt rules to assist it in making this determination and in protecting the state in dealing with irrevocable letters of credit. Any contract security requirements must be included in the invitations for bids or requests for proposals.

(4) The provisions of Title 18, chapter 2, parts 2 and 3, do not apply to procurements under [sections 1 through 45].

Section 24. Contracts — terms, extensions, and time limits. (1) Unless otherwise provided by law, no contract, lease, or rental agreement for supplies or services may be made for a longer period than 3 years; however, the department may contract for the lease or purchase of telecommunications equipment and systems and data processing equipment for a period not to exceed 10 years. A contract, lease, or rental agreement may be extended or renewed, notwithstanding the time limits stated in this section, if the terms of the extension or renewal, if any, are included in the solicitation and funds are available for the first fiscal period at the time of the agreement. Payment and performance obligations for succeeding fiscal periods are subject to the availability and appropriation of funds therefor.

(2) Prior to the extension or renewal of a contract, it must be determined in writing that:

(a) estimated requirements cover the period of the contract and are reasonably firm and continuing; and

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1167 1983

(b) the contract will serve the best interests of the state by encouraging effective competition or otherwise promoting economies in state procurement.

(3) When funds are not appropriated or otherwise made available to support continuation of performance in a subsequent fiscal period, the contract must be canceled.

Section 25. Reporting of anticompetitive practices. If for any reason collusion or other anticompetitive practices are suspected among any bidders or offerors, a notice of the relevant facts shall be transmitted to the attorney general by the department.

Section 26. Retention of procurement records. All procurement records must be retained, managed, and disposed of in accordance with Title 2, chapter 6.

Section 27. Records of sole source procurements. (1) The department shall maintain or shall require the head of a purchasing agency to maintain a record listing all contracts made under [section 17] for a minimum of 4 years. The record must contain:

(a) each contractor's name;

(b) the amount and type of each contract; and

(c) a listing of the supplies or services procured under each contract.

(2) The record must be available for public inspection.

Section 28. Definition. As used in [sections 28 through 31], "specification" means any description of the physical or functional characteristics or of the nature of a supply or service. It may include a description of any requirement for inspecting, testing, or preparing a supply or service for delivery.

Section 29. Duties of the department — rules. (1) The department shall adopt rules governing the preparation, maintenance, and content of specifications for supplies and services required by the state.

(2) The department shall prepare, issue, revise, maintain, and monitor the use of specifications for supplies and services required by the state.

Section 30. Using agencies' advice. The director may obtain expert advice and assistance from personnel of using agencies in the development of specifications and may delegate in writing to a using agency the authority to prepare and utilize its own specifications.

Section 31. Competition. All specifications shall promote overall economy for the purposes intended and encourage competition in satisfying the state's needs and may not be unduly restrictive.

Section 32. Contract clauses — rules. (1) The department may adopt rules permitting or requiring the inclusion of clauses providing for adjustments in prices, time of performance, or other appropriate contract provisions relating to the following subjects:

(a) the unilateral right of the state to order in writing:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1168 1983

(i) changes in the work within the scope of the contract; and

(ii) temporary work stoppage or delay of performance; and

(b) variations occurring between estimated quantities of work in a contract and actual quantities.

(2) Adjustments in price pursuant to clauses established under subsection (1) must be computed in one or more of the following ways:

(a) by agreement on a fixed price adjustment before commencement of the pertinent performance or as soon thereafter as practicable;

(b) by unit prices specified in the contract or subsequently agreed upon;

(c) by the costs attributable to the events or situations under such clauses with adjustment of profit or fee, all as specified in the contract or subsequently agreed upon;

(d) in such other manner as the contracting parties may mutually agree; or

(e) in the absence of agreement by the parties, by a unilateral determination by the state of the costs attributable to the events or situations under such clauses with adjustment of profit or fee, all as computed by the state in accordance with applicable sections of the rules adopted under [section 33].

(3) The department may adopt rules permitting or requiring the inclusion in state contracts of clauses providing for appropriate remedies and relating to the following subjects:

(a) liquidated damages, as appropriate;

(b) specified excuses for delay or nonperformance;

(c) termination of the contract for default; and

(d) termination of the contract, in whole or in part, for the convenience of the state.

(4) The director or the head of a purchasing agency may vary the clauses established by the department under subsections (1) and (3) for inclusion in any particular state contract. Any variations must be supported by a written determination that states the circumstances justifying such variation. Notice of any material variation must be stated in the invitation for bids or request for proposals.

Section 33. Cost principles — rules. The department shall adopt rules setting forth cost principles which must be used to determine the allowability of incurred costs for the purpose of reimbursing costs under contract provisions that provide for the reimbursement of costs. However, if a written determination is approved at a level above the procurement officer, such cost principles may be modified by contract.

Section 34. Definitions. As used in [sections 34 through 36], the following definitions apply:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1169 1983

(1) "Supplies" means supplies owned by the state.

(2) "Surplus supplies" means any supplies having a remaining useful life but that are no longer required by the using agency in possession of them. This includes obsolete supplies, scrap materials, and supplies that have completed their useful life cycle.

Section 35. Supply management rules. (1) The department shall adopt rules governing:

(a) the management of supplies during their entire life cycle;

(b) the sale, lease, or disposal of surplus supplies by public auction, competitive sealed bidding, or other appropriate method designated by rule;

(c) transfer of surplus supplies.

(2) No employee of the owning or disposing agency directly involved with the disposal may purchase supplies sold by his agency.

Section 36. Allocation of proceeds. Proceeds from the sale, lease, or disposal of surplus supplies must be allocated as provided by 18-6-101, less a reasonable handling fee.

(1) "Cooperative purchasing" means procurement conducted by or on behalf of more than one public procurement unit.

(2) "Local public procurement unit" means a county, city, town, or other subdivision of the state or a public agency of any such subdivision; public authority; educational, health, or other institution; to the extent provided by law, any other entity that expends public funds for the procurement of supplies and services; and any nonprofit corporation operating a charitable hospital.

(4) "State public procurement unit" means a state department, agency, or official that expends public funds for the procurement of supplies and services.

Section 38. Cooperative purchasing authorized. The department may participate in, sponsor, conduct, or administer a cooperative purchasing agreement for the procurement of any supplies or services with one or more public procurement units in accordance with an agreement entered into between the participants. Such cooperative purchasing may include joint or multi-party contracts between public procurement units and open-ended state public procurement unit contracts that are made available to local public procurement units.

Section 39. Sale, acquisition, or use of supplies by a public procurement unit. The department may sell to, acquire from, or use any

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1170 1983

Section 43. Review of procurement requirements. To the extent possible, the department may collect information concerning the type, cost, quality, and quantity of commonly used supplies or services being procured or used by state public procurement units. The department may make available all such information to any public procurement unit upon request.

Section 44. Application. (1) Except as provided in [section 24], which applies retroactively to telecommunications equipment and systems and data processing equipment acquired under existing contracts, leases, or rental agreements, and subject to the terms of such agreements, [sections 1 through 45] apply only to contracts solicited or entered into after January 1, 1984, unless the parties agree to its application to a contract solicited or entered into prior to January 1, 1984.

[Sections 1 through 45] also apply to the disposal of state supplies. Section 45. Local government adoption of procurement provisions. A political subdivision or school district may adopt any or all parts of [sections 1 through 45] and the accompanying rules promulgated by the department.

Section 46. State printing, binding, and stationery work — resident preference. All printing, binding, and stationery work for the state of Montana, except the Montana Code Annotated and certificates of appointment and election to office, must be printed in the state of Montana by a responsible bidder if his bid does not exceed the lowest bid by a nonresident printer by more than the percentage in 18-1-102.

Section 47. Section 18-4-104, MCA, is amended to read:

"18-4-104. Purchases exempt from general requirements. (1) Fresh fruits and vegetables (other than potatoes) shall not be included in the supplies to be purchased as provided in [sections 1 through 45]. The department may allow a state agency or institution to purchase fresh fruits and vegetables. An itemized account shall be kept of these purchases and the account shall be furnished to the department.

Printing firms not having the use of the labels and who are desirous of presenting bids for printing as enumerated above shall be required to establish consideration as a responsible bidder as follows:

(1) As a condition to consideration as a responsible bidder, printing concerns must file with the secretary of state a sworn statement to the effect that employees in the employ of the concern which is to produce such printing are receiving the prevailing wage rate and are working under conditions prevalent in the locality in which the work is produced.

(2) Whenever a collective bargaining agreement is in effect between an employer and employees who are represented by a responsible organization which is in no way influenced or controlled by the management, such agreement and its provisions shall be construed as conditions prevalent in said locality and shall be the minimum requirement for being adjudged a responsible bidder under [sections 1 through 45], [section 46], or 18-7-104.

(3) Printing firms having the use of the union labels as set forth above shall be deemed as having complied with the provisions of [sections 1 through 45], [section 46], or 18-7-104, but nothing in these provisions shall be construed as exempting such bidders from any provisions of [sections 1 through 45], [section 46], or 18-7-104, and such bidders shall also be required to conform to all provisions thereof."

Section 49. Section 18-7-105, MCA, is amended to read:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1173 1983

acquisition involving more than 100 acres or $100,000 in value, the approval of the board of land commissioners, may acquire by purchase, lease, agreement, gift, or devise and may acquire easements upon lands or waters for the purposes listed in this subsection. The department may develop, operate, and maintain acquired lands or waters:

(b) Notice of sale describing the lands or waters to be disposed of shall be published once a week for 3 successive weeks in a newspaper with general circulation printed and published in the county where the lands or waters are situated or, if no newspaper is published in that county, then in any newspaper with general circulation in that county.

(c) The notice shall advertise for cash bids to be presented to the director within 30 days from the date of the first publication. Each bid must be accompanied by a cashier's check or cash deposit in an amount equal to 10% of the amount bid. The highest bid shall be accepted upon payment of the balance due within 10 days after mailing notice by registered or certified mail to the highest bidder. If that bidder defaults on payment of the balance due, then the next highest bidders shall be similarly notified in succession until a sale is completed. Deposits shall be returned to the unsuccessful bidders except bidders defaulting after notification.

(d) The department shall reserve the right to reject any bids which do not equal or exceed the full market value of the lands and waters as determined by the department. The department shall convey the lands and waters without covenants of warranty by deed executed by the governor or in his absence or disability by the lieutenant governor, attested by the secretary of state and further countersigned by the director.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1174 1983

(4) The department, with the consent of the commission, is authorized to utilize the installment contract method to facilitate the acquisition of wildlife management areas, in which game and nongame fur-bearing animals and game and nongame birds may breed and replenish, and areas which provide access to fishing sites for the public. In no case may the total cost of such installment contracts exceed the cost of purchases authorized by the department and appropriated by the legislature."

Section 2. Section 33-2-524, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-2-524. Individual and group annuity and pure endowment contracts — valuation. (1) Except as provided in [section 3], the minimum standard for the valuation of all individual annuity and pure endowment contracts issued on or after the operative date of this section, as defined herein, and for all annuities and pure endowments purchased on or after that operative date, under group annuity and pure endowment contracts is the commissioner's reserve valuation methods defined in 33-2-525 and the following tables and interest rates:

(a) for individual annuity and pure endowment contracts issued prior to July 1, 1979, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits in such contracts, the 1971 individual annuity mortality table or any modification of this table approved by the commissioner and 6% interest for single premium immediate annuity contracts and 4% interest for all other individual annuity and pure endowment contracts;

(b) for individual single premium immediate annuity contracts issued on or after July 1, 1979, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits in such contracts, the 1971 individual annuity mortality table or any individual annuity mortality table adopted after 1980 by the national association of insurance commissioners that is approved by the commissioner by rule for use in determining the minimum standard of valuation for such contracts or any modification of such tables approved by the commissioner and 7 ½% interest;

(c) for individual annuity and pure endowment contracts issued on or after July 1, 1979, other than single premium immediate annuity contracts, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits in such contracts, the 1971 individual annuity mortality table or any individual annuity mortality table adopted after 1980 by the national association of insurance commissioners that is approved by the commissioner by rule for use in determining the minimum standard of valuation for such contracts or any modification of such tables approved by the commissioner and 5 ½% interest for single premium deferred annuity and pure endowment contracts and 4 ½% interest for all other such individual annuity and pure endowment contracts;

(d) for all annuities and pure endowments purchased prior to July 1, 1979, under group annuity and pure endowment contracts, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits purchased under such contracts, the 1971 group annuity mortality table or any modification of the table approved by the commissioner and 6% interest;

(e) for all annuities and pure endowments purchased on or after July 1, 1979, under group annuity and pure endowment contracts, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits purchased under such contracts, the 1971 group annuity mortality table or any group annuity mortality table adopted after 1980 by the national association of insurance commissioners that is approved by the commissioner by rule for use in determining the minimum standard of valuation for such annuities and pure endowments or any modification of such tables approved by the commissioner and 7 ½% interest.

(2) After March 17, 1973, any insurer may file with the commissioner a written notice of its election to comply with the provisions of subsection (1) after a specified date before January 1, 1979, which shall be the operative date of subsection (1) for such insurer. An insurer may elect a different operative date for individual annuity and pure endowment contracts from that elected for group annuity and pure endowment contracts. If an insurer makes no such election, the operative date of this section for such insurer shall be January 1, 1979."

Section 3. Interest rates — determination of minimum standard valuation. (1) The calendar year statutory valuation interest rates as established in this section must be used in determining the minimum standard for the valuation of:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1178 1983

(a) all life insurance policies issued in a particular calendar year on or after the operative date of [section 6 of House Bill 592];

(b) all individual annuity and pure endowment contracts issued in a particular calendar year on or after January 1, 1984;

(c) all annuities and pure endowments purchased in a particular calendar year on or after January 1, 1984, under group annuity and pure endowment contracts; and

(d) the net increase, if any, in a particular calendar year after January 1, 1984, in amounts held under guaranteed interest contracts.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3), the calendar year statutory valuation interest rates are determined as follows and the results rounded to the nearer ¼ of 1%, when R_1 is the lesser of R and .09, R_2 is the greater of R and .09, R is the reference interest rate established in [section 5], and W is the weighting factor established in [section 4]:

(a) for life insurance:

Interest rate = $.03 + W(R_1 - .03) + (W/2)(R_2 - .09)$;

(b) for single-premium immediate annuities and for annuity benefits involving life contingencies arising from other annuities with cash settlement options and from guaranteed interest contracts with cash settlement options:

Interest rate = $.03 + W(R - .03)$;

(c) for other annuities with:

(i) cash settlement options and guaranteed interest contracts with cash settlement options, valued on an issue year basis, except as stated in subsection (2)(b), the formula for life insurance stated in subsection (2)(a) applies to annuities and guaranteed interest contracts with guarantee durations in excess of 10 years and the formula for single-premium immediate annuities stated in subsection (2)(b) applies to annuities and guaranteed interest contracts with guarantee durations of 10 years or less;

(ii) no cash settlement options and for guaranteed interest contracts with no cash settlement options, the formula for single-premium immediate annuities stated in subsection (2)(b) applies; and

(iii) cash settlement options and guaranteed interest contracts with cash settlement options valued on a change-in-fund basis, the formula for single-premium immediate annuities stated in subsection (2)(b) applies.

(3) If the calendar year statutory valuation interest rate for any life insurance policies issued in any calendar year differs from the corresponding actual rate for similar policies issued in the immediately preceding calendar year by less than ½ of 1%, the calendar year statutory valuation interest rate for such life insurance policies is equal to the corresponding actual rate for the immediately preceding calendar year. For purposes of this subsection, the calendar year statutory valuation interest rate for life insurance policies issued in a calendar year must be determined for 1980 (using the reference interest rate defined for 1979) and must be determined for each subsequent calendar year regardless of when [section 8] becomes operative.

Section 4. Interest rate weighting factor. (1) The weighting factors referred to in the formulas stated in [section 3] are as follows:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1179 1983

(a) (i) for life insurance:

Guarantee Duration in Years	Weighting Factors
10 or less	.50
More than 10 but not more than 20	.45
More than 20	.35

(ii) for life insurance, the guarantee duration is the maximum number of years the life insurance can remain in force on a basis guaranteed in the policy or under options to convert to plans of life insurance with premium rates or nonforfeiture values, or both, that are guaranteed in the original policy;

(b) .80 for single premium immediate annuities and for annuity benefits involving life contingencies arising from other annuities with cash settlement options and guaranteed interest contracts with cash settlement options;

(c) for other annuities and for guaranteed interest contracts, except as stated in subsection (1)(b), according to the guarantee duration established in subsection (2) and the type of plan established in subsection (3):

(i) for annuities and guaranteed interest contracts valued on an issue year basis:

Guarantee Duration in Years	Weighting Factor for Plan Type A	B	C
5 or less	.80	.60	.50
More than 5 but not more than 10	.75	.60	.50
More than 10 but not more than 20	.65	.50	.45
More than 20	.45	.35	.35

(ii)	Plan Type A	B	C
for annuities and guaranteed interest contracts valued on a change-in-fund basis, the factors shown in subsection (1)(c)(i) increased by:	.15	.25	.05

(iii)	Plan Type A	B	C
for annuities and guaranteed interest contracts valued on an issue year basis (other than those with no cash settlement options) that do not guarantee interest on considerations received more than 1 year after issue or purchase and for annuities and guaranteed interest contracts valued on a change-in-fund basis that do not guarantee interest rates on considerations received more than 12 months beyond the valuation date, the factors set forth in subsection (1)(c)(i) or derived in subsection (1)(c)(ii) increased by:	.05	.05	.05

(2) For other annuities with cash settlement options and guaranteed interest contracts with cash settlement options, the guarantee duration is the number of years for which the contract guarantees interest rates in excess of the calendar year statutory valuation interest rate for life insurance policies with guarantee duration in excess of 20 years. For other annuities with no cash settlement options and for guaranteed interest contracts with no cash settlement options, the guarantee duration is the number of years from the date of issue or date of purchase to the date annuity benefits are scheduled to commence.

(3) Plan types used in subsection (1)(c) are:

(a) Plan Type A—No withdrawal is permitted or at any time policyholder may withdraw funds only:

(i) with an adjustment to reflect changes in interest rates or asset values since receipt of the funds by the insurance company;

(ii) without such adjustment but in installments over 5 years or more; or

(iii) as an immediate life annuity.

(b) Plan Type B—(i) Before expiration of the interest rate guarantee, no withdrawal is permitted or a policyholder may withdraw funds only:

(A) with an adjustment to reflect changes in interest rates or asset values since receipt of the funds by the insurance company;

(B) without such adjustment but in installments over 5 years or more.

(ii) At the end of the interest rate guarantee, funds may be withdrawn without such adjustment in a single sum or installments over less than 5 years.

(c) Plan Type C—A policyholder may withdraw funds before expiration of the interest rate guarantee in a single sum or installments over less than 5 years either:

(i) without adjustment to reflect changes in interest rates or asset values since receipt of the funds by the insurance company; or

(ii) subject only to a fixed surrender charge stipulated in the contract as a percentage of the fund.

(4) (a) An insurer may elect to value guaranteed interest contracts with cash settlement options and annuities with cash settlement options on either an issue year basis or on a change-in-fund basis. Guaranteed interest contracts with no cash settlement options and other annuities with no cash settlement options must be valued on an issue year basis.

(b) As used in subsection (4):

(i) issue year basis of valuation is a valuation basis under which the interest rate used to determine the minimum valuation standard for the entire duration of the annuity or guaranteed interest contract is the calendar year valuation interest rate for the year of issue or year of purchase of the annuity or guaranteed interest contract; and

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1181 1983

(ii) change-in-fund basis of valuation is a valuation basis under which the interest rate used to determine the minimum valuation standard applicable to each change in the fund held under the annuity or guaranteed interest contract is the calendar year valuation interest rate for the year of the change in the fund.

Section 5. Reference interest rate. (1) The reference interest rate referred to in the formulas in [section 3] is:

(a) for all life insurance, the lesser of the average over a period of 36 months and the average over a period of 12 months, ending on June 30 of the calendar year next preceding the year of issue, of Moody's corporate bond yield average—monthly average corporates;

(b) for single-premium immediate annuities and for annuity benefits involving life contingencies arising from other annuities with cash settlement options and guaranteed interest contracts with cash settlement options, the average over a period of 12 months, ending on June 30 of the calendar year of issue or purchase, of Moody's corporate bond yield average—monthly average corporates;

(c) for other annuities with cash settlement options and guaranteed interest contracts with cash settlement options valued on a year-of-issue basis, except as stated in subsection (1)(b), with guarantee duration in excess of 10 years, the lesser of the average over a period of 36 months and the average over a period of 12 months, ending on June 30 of the calendar year of issue or purchase, of Moody's corporate bond yield average—monthly average corporates;

(d) for other annuities with cash settlement options and guaranteed interest contracts with cash settlement options valued on a year-of-issue basis, except as stated in subsection (1)(b), with guarantee duration of 10 years or less, the average over a period of 12 months, ending on June 30 of the calendar year of issue or purchase, of Moody's corporate bond yield average—monthly average corporates;

(e) for other annuities with no cash settlement options and for guaranteed interest contracts with no cash settlement options, the average over a period of 12 months, ending on June 30 of the calendar year of issue or purchase, of Moody's corporate bond yield average—monthly average corporates; or

(f) for other annuities with cash settlement options and guaranteed interest contracts with cash settlement options valued on a change-in-fund basis, except as stated in subsection (1)(b), the average over a period of 12 months, ending on June 30 of the calendar year of the change in the fund, of Moody's corporate bond yield average—monthly average corporates.

(2) If Moody's corporate bond yield average—monthly average corporates is no longer published by Moody's investors service, inc., or if the national association of insurance commissioners determines that Moody's corporate bond yield average—monthly average corporates as published by Moody's investors service, inc., is no longer appropriate for the determination of the reference interest rate, then an alternative method for determination of the reference interest rate adopted by the national association of insurance commissioners and approved by the commissioner may be substituted.

Section 6. Section 33-2-525, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-2-525. Commissioner's reserve valuation method. (1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) and 33-2-526(3), reserves according to the commissioner's reserve valuation method, for the life insurance and endowment benefits of policies providing for a uniform amount of insurance and requiring the payment of uniform premiums, shall be the excess, if any, of the present value, at the date of valuation, of such future guaranteed benefits provided for by such policies, over the then present value of any future modified net premiums therefor. The modified net premiums for any such policy shall be such uniform percentage of the respective contract premiums for such benefits that the present value, at the date of issue of the policy, of all such modified net premiums shall be equal to the sum of the then present value of such benefits provided for by the policy and the excess of (a) over (b), as follows:

(a) a net level annual premium equal to the present value, at the date of issue, of such benefits provided for after the first policy year, divided by the present value, at the date of issue of an annuity of one per annum payable on the first and each subsequent anniversary of such policy on which a premium falls due; provided, however, that such net level annual premium shall not exceed the net level annual premium on the 19-year premium whole life plan for insurance of the same amount at an age 1 year higher than the age at issue of such policy;

(b) a net 1-year term premium for such benefits provided for in the first policy year.

(2) (a) For every life insurance policy issued on or after January 1, 1987, for which the contract premium in the first policy year exceeds that of the second year, for which no comparable additional benefit is provided in the first year for such excess, and that provides an endowment benefit, a cash surrender value, or a combination of both in an amount greater than such excess premium, the reserve according to the commissioner's reserve valuation method, as of any policy anniversary occurring on or before the assumed ending date as the first policy anniversary on which the sum of any endowment benefit and any cash surrender value then available is greater than such excess premium, is, except as otherwise provided in 33-2-526, the greater of the reserve as of such policy anniversary calculated as described in subsection (1) or the reserve as of such policy anniversary calculated as described in subsection (1) with the following exceptions:

(i) the value defined in subsection (1)(a) is reduced by 15% of the amount of such excess first-year premium;

(ii) all present values of benefits and premiums are determined without reference to premiums or benefits provided for in the policy after the assumed ending date;

(iii) the policy is assumed to mature on such assumed ending date as an endowment; and

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1183 1983

(iv) the cash surrender value provided on such assumed ending date is considered an endowment benefit.

(b) In making the comparisons in subsection (2)(a), the mortality and interest bases stated in 33-2-523 and [section 3] must be used.

(3) Reserves according to the commissioner's reserve valuation method for the following shall be calculated by a method consistent with the principles of this section, except that any extra premiums charged because of impairments or special hazards shall be disregarded in the determination of modified net premiums:

(a) life insurance policies providing for a varying amount of insurance or requiring the payment of varying premiums;

(b) group annuity and pure endowment contracts purchased under a retirement plan or plan of deferred compensation, established or maintained by an employer (including a partnership or sole proprietorship) or by an employee organization, or by both, other than a plan providing individual retirement accounts or individual retirement annuities under section 408 of the Internal Revenue Code, as now or hereafter amended;

(c) disability and accidental death benefits in all policies and contracts; and

(d) all other benefits, except life insurance and endowment benefits in life insurance policies and benefits provided by all other annuity and pure endowment contracts.

(4) (a) Subsection (4)(b) applies to any annuity and pure endowment contracts other than group annuity and pure endowment contracts purchased under a retirement plan or plan of deferred compensation established or maintained by an employer (including a partnership or sole proprietorship) or by an employee organization, or by both, other than a plan providing individual retirement accounts or individual retirement annuities under section 408 of the Internal Revenue Code, as now or hereafter amended.

(b) Reserves according to the commissioner's annuity reserve method for benefits under annuity or pure endowment contracts, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits in such contracts, shall be the greatest of the respective excesses of the present values, at the date of valuation, of the future guaranteed benefits, including guaranteed nonforfeiture benefits, provided for by such contracts at the end of each respective contract year, over the present value, at the date of valuation, of any future valuation considerations derived from future gross considerations required by the terms of such contract that become payable prior to the end of such respective contract year. The future guaranteed benefits shall be determined by using the mortality table, if any, and the interest rate or rates specified in such contracts for determining guaranteed benefits. The valuation considerations are the portions of the respective gross considerations applied under the terms of such contracts to determine nonforfeiture values."

Section 7. Section 33-2-526, MCA, is amended to read:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1184 1983

"33-2-526. Limits — options — minimum reserves. (1) In no event shall an insurer's aggregate reserves for all life insurance policies, excluding disability and accidental death benefits, be less than the aggregate reserves calculated in accordance with the methods set forth in 33-2-525 and subsection (3) of this section and the mortality table or tables and rate or rates of interest used in calculating nonforfeiture benefits for such policies.

(2) Reserves for any category of policies, contracts, or benefits as established by the commissioner may be calculated at the option of the insurer according to any standards which produce greater aggregate reserves for such category than those calculated according to the minimum standard herein provided, but the rate or rates of interest used for policies and contracts, other than annuity and pure endowment contracts, shall not be higher than the corresponding rate or rates of interest used in calculating any nonforfeiture benefits provided for therein.

(3) If in any contract year the gross premium charged by any life insurer on any policy or contract is less than the valuation net premium for the policy or contract calculated by the method used in calculating the reserve thereon, but using the minimum valuation standards of mortality and rate of interest, the minimum reserve required for such policy or contract shall be the greater of either the reserve calculated according to the mortality table, rate of interest, and method actually used for such policy or contract or the reserve calculated by the method actually used for such policy or contract but using the minimum standards of mortality and rate of interest and replacing the valuation net premium by the actual gross premium in each contract year for which the valuation net premium exceeds the actual gross premium. The minimum valuation standards of mortality and rate of interest referred to in this section are those standards stated in 33-2-524 and [section 3].

(4) For every life insurance policy issued after December 30, 1986, for which the gross premium in the first policy year exceeds that of the second year, for which no comparable additional benefit is provided in the first year for such excess, and that provides an endowment benefit, a cash surrender value, or a combination of both in an amount greater than such excess premium, subsections (1) through (3) of this section must be applied as if the method actually used in calculating the reserve for such policy were the method described in 33-2-525(1). The minimum reserve at each policy anniversary of such a policy must be the greater of the minimum reserve calculated in accordance with 33-2-525 and the minimum reserve calculated in accordance with this section."

Section 8. Undeterminable reserves — rules by commissioner. If a plan of life insurance provides for future premium determination the amounts of which are to be determined by the insurance company based on current estimates of future experience, or if a plan of life insurance or annuity is of such a nature that the minimum reserves cannot be determined by the methods described in 33-2-525 and 33-2-526, the reserves that are held under any such plan must, as determined by regulations promulgated by the commissioner:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1185 1983

(1) be appropriate in relation to the benefits and the pattern of premiums for that plan; and

(2) be computed by a method which is consistent with the principles of 33-2-521 through 33-2-526 and 33-2-531 through 33-2-535 and [sections 3 through 5].

Section 9. Codification instruction. Sections 3 through 5 and 8 are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 33, chapter 2, part 5, and the provisions of Title 33 apply to sections 3 through 5 and 8.

Approved April 15, 1983.

The owner of the property or the mortgagee or the assignee of said mortgagee has the right of redemption indefinitely, until such notice has been given and the deed applied for, upon the payment of fees, percentages, penalties, and costs required by law.

(2) Notice to any owner, purchaser of property under contract for deed, mortgagee, or assignee of mortgagee shall be given by registered or certified letter addressed to such owner, purchaser, mortgagee, or assignee at the post-office address of said owner, purchaser, mortgagee, or assignee as disclosed by the mortgage records in the office of the county clerk and recorder. In case of unoccupied property or a mining claim, such notice must be by registered or certified mail deposited in the post office, addressed to any known owner residing in or outside of said county, with the postage thereon prepaid, at least 60 days before the expiration of the time for redemption or at least 60 days before the purchaser applies for such tax deed, in addition to notice to the mortgagee or assignee of mortgagee in the manner and as hereby is provided.

(3) In all cases where the post-office address of the owner, purchaser, mortgagee, or assignee is unknown, the applicant shall publish once a week for 2 successive weeks in a newspaper published in the county where the property is situated a notice substantially in the following form:

the clerk and recorder of the county in which the property is situated and be kept as a permanent file in his office, and such proof of notice when so filed shall be prima facie evidence of the sufficiency of the notice."

Section 15. Section 15-23-102, MCA, is amended to read:

"15-23-102. Notice of assessment — opportunity for conference — appeal. After assessing property under 15-23-101, the department shall notify the owner and any purchaser under contract for deed of such property, in writing, of the assessed value it has determined. Within 20 days following notification, the taxpayer may demand a review of the validity of the department's assessment. The department shall conduct an assessment review conference, which is not subject to the contested case procedures of the Montana Administrative Procedure Act. However, a party has the right of discovery prior to any assessment revision review conference. Upon consideration following such conference, the department may revise the assessment. Appeals from the final decision may be taken to the state tax appeal board."

Section 16. Section 50-62-103, MCA, is amended to read:

"50-62-103. Service of order to repair or demolish structure. (1) If the state fire marshal, a deputy state fire marshal, or any officer mentioned in 50-62-101, upon an examination or inspection, finds that a building or other structure which for want of proper repair or by reason of age and dilapidated condition, defective or poorly installed electric wiring or equipment, defective chimneys, defective gas connections or defective heating apparatus or for any other cause or reason is especially liable to fire and is so situated as to endanger other buildings or property in the vicinity, he shall order the structure to be repaired, torn down, or demolished and all materials removed and all dangerous conditions remedied.

(2) The order shall be in writing, shall recite the grounds therefor, and shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court of the county in which the building or structure ordered to be altered, repaired, or demolished is situated, and thereupon all further proceedings for the enforcement thereof shall be had in that court.

(3) A copy of the order filed as aforesaid, together with a written notice that it has been filed and will be put in force unless the owner, occupant, or tenant shall file with the clerk of the court his objections or answer thereto within the time specified in 50-62-104, shall be served upon the owner and any purchaser under contract for deed of the building or structure directed to be altered, repaired, or demolished. If there is a tenant occupying the building, service shall also be made upon him. Service shall be made upon the owner and occupant, if there is one, personally either within or without the state.

(4) If the whereabouts of the owner or any purchaser under contract for deed is unknown and cannot be ascertained by the state fire marshal by the exercise of reasonable diligence, then upon his filing in the office of the clerk of the district court his affidavit to this effect, service of the notice upon the owner or any purchaser under contract for deed may be made by the clerk of the district court by publication of it once in each week for 3 successive weeks in a newspaper printed and published in the county in which the building or structure is located and by posting a copy thereof in a conspicuous place upon the building or structure, and the service so made is complete upon the expiration of the publication period. Proof of service of the notice shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court within 5 days after the service thereof."

"69-4-317. Publication and distribution of notice. (1) Notice shall be published in full five times in a daily newspaper or once in a weekly newspaper of general circulation in the county, city, or town in which said district is located. A copy of such notice shall be mailed by the governing body to each owner and purchaser under contract for deed of land within the proposed district whose property will be assessed for the cost of the improvement. The address to be used for said purpose shall be that last appearing on the real property assessment rolls of the county wherein said property is located.

(2) Mailed notices and the published notice shall state where a copy of the resolution will be available for inspection by any interested parties."

Section 18. Section 69-4-325, MCA, is amended to read:

"69-4-325. Notice of hearing on proposed assessments. (1) After the preparation of the ordinance provided for in 69-4-324, notice of a public hearing on the proposed assessments shall be given.

(2) Such notice shall be published one time in a newspaper in which the first notice of hearing was published at least 20 days before the date fixed for the hearing and shall be mailed by the governing body not less than 15 days prior to the date fixed for such hearing to each owner and purchaser under contract for deed of real property whose property will be assessed for part of the cost of the improvement at the addresses appearing on the last completed real property assessment rolls of the county wherein said affected property is located.

(3) (a) Each notice shall state that at the specified time and place, the governing body will hold a public hearing upon the proposed assessments and shall state that any owner of any property to be assessed pursuant to the ordinance will be heard on the question of whether his property will be benefited by the proposed improvement to the amount of the proposed assessment against his property and whether the amount assessed against his property constitutes more than his proper proportional share of the total cost of the improvement.

(b) The notice shall further state where a copy of the ordinance proposed to be adopted levying the assessments against all real property in the district will be on file for public inspection and that, subject to such changes and corrections therein as may be made by the governing body, it is proposed to adopt the ordinance at the conclusion of the hearing.

(c) The published notice shall describe the boundaries or area of the district with sufficient particularity to permit each owner of real property

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1202 1983

therein to ascertain that his property lies in the district. The mailed notice may refer to the district by name and date of creation and shall state the amount of the assessment proposed to be levied against the real property of the person to whom the notice is mailed and the terms of installment financing, if any. In the absence of fraud, the failure to mail any notice does not invalidate any assessment or any proceeding under this part."

Section 19. Section 69-4-353, MCA, is amended to read:

"69-4-353. Conversion of facilities on public property — notice to landowners. (1) Upon completion of the conversion of the overhead electric or communication facilities on public lands and right-of-way to underground, the public utility shall file a verified statement of the costs of such conversion with the governing body.

(2) The governing body shall mail to each landowner and purchaser of property under contract for deed a notice stating that:

(a) service from the underground facilities is available;

(b) the landowner has 60 days after the date of the mailing of such notice to convert all overhead electric or communication facilities providing service to any structure or improvement located on his lot or parcel to underground service facilities; and

All parcels lying in the county and required for the same public use may be included in the same or separate proceedings, at the option of the plaintiff, but the court may consolidate or separate them to suit the convenience of the parties. When application for the condemnation of a right-of-way for the purposes of sewerage is made on behalf of a settlement or a town or a county, the county commissioners of the county may be named as plaintiff.

(6) if a sand, stratum, or formation suitable for use as an underground natural gas storage reservoir is sought to be appropriated, a description thereof and of the land in which it is alleged to be contained and a description of all other property and rights sought to be appropriated for use in connection with the appropriation of the right to store natural gas in and withdraw natural gas from such reservoir. In addition, the complaint shall state facts showing that the underground reservoir is one subject to appropriation by plaintiff; also stating that the underground storage of natural gas in the land sought to be appropriated is in the public interest; that the underground reservoir is suitable and practicable for natural gas storage; that the plaintiff in good faith has been unable to acquire the rights sought to be appropriated hereunder and a statement that the rights and property sought to be appropriated are not prohibited by law; and in addition, the complaint must be accompanied by a certificate from the board of oil and gas conservation as set forth in 82-10-304."

(1) The governing body or its authorized agent or agency shall hold a public hearing on the preliminary plat and shall consider all relevant evidence relating to the public health, safety, and welfare, including the environmental assessment, to determine whether the plat should be approved, conditionally approved, or disapproved by the governing body.

(2) When a proposed subdivision is also proposed to be annexed to a municipality, the governing body of the municipality shall hold joint hearings on the preliminary plat and annexation whenever possible.

(3) Notice of such hearing shall be given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county not less than 15 days prior to the date of the hearing. The subdivider, each property owner of record, and each purchaser under contract for deed of property immediately adjoining the land included in the plat shall also be notified of the hearing by registered or certified mail not less than 15 days prior to the date of the hearing.

(4) When a hearing is held by an agent or agency designated by the governing body, the agent or agency shall act in an advisory capacity and recommend to the governing body the approval, conditional approval, or disapproval of the plat. This recommendation must be submitted to the governing body in writing not later than 10 days after the public hearing."

Section 22. Section 80-7-114, MCA, is amended to read:

(1) If a person owning any orchard or nursery stock infected or infested with any injurious insect pest or disease and which becomes a menace to the agricultural or fruit industry or a menace to ornamental trees, shrubs, plants, or vines fails to comply with the instructions of the department for the destruction or control of the injurious insect pest or disease or the destruction of the infested or infected orchard or nursery stock within the time specified by the department, the department may condemn, remove, or destroy the orchard or nursery stock or treat it with a proper remedy.

(2) If an owner fails to pay the cost of the removal, treatment, or destruction within 30 days after notice has been mailed to the owner at his last known post-office address and to any purchaser of the property under contract for deed at his last known post-office address, the cost shall become a lien on the land of the owner and shall be added by the county treasurer to the taxes upon the property and collected as other taxes."

Section 23. Section 80-7-206, MCA, is amended to read:

"80-7-206. Expenses of eradicating orchard diseases — collection as tax. (1) When, under the direction or rules of the department, any money is spent by it to eradicate any disease or insect pest from an orchard or other place where fruits are grown or kept, the department shall notify the owner of the orchard or premises and any purchaser of the property under contract for deed in writing of the amount spent plus an additional charge of 25% of the amount spent. The notice shall be mailed to the last known address of the owner or purchaser under contract for deed.

(2) If the owner fails to pay the amount spent by the department plus the additional charge of 25% within 30 days of the time the notice is sent, the department shall file a verified statement with the county treasurer where the money was spent. The statement shall set forth the amount spent plus the additional charge of 25%, together with the correct description of the property on which the money was spent as it appears on the assessment roll of the county.

(3) The county treasurer shall add the amount contained in the statement to the taxes upon the property and shall collect them in the manner provided for collection of state and county taxes.

(4) The county treasurer in any county where any money is collected as provided in subsection (3) shall, on or before February 1 each year, remit the amount to the state treasurer, who shall deposit same to the credit of the general fund of the state."

Section 24. Section 82-2-224, MCA, is amended to read:

"82-2-224. Notice of condemnation — filing of plat. Any party seeking to condemn property for open-pit mining purposes shall serve notice in writing on all owners and purchasers under contracts for deed of property within 300 yards of the surface tract sought to be condemned or in lieu thereof shall file a plat showing the boundaries of the property sought to be condemned in the office of the county clerk and recorder, and the filing of said plat shall constitute notice to the owner or owners not personally served with written notice as herein provided."

Section 25. Section 82-4-222, MCA, is amended to read:

"82-4-222. Permit application. (1) An operator desiring a permit shall file an application which shall contain a complete and detailed plan for the mining, reclamation, revegetation, and rehabilitation of the land

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1205 1983

(a) the location and area of land to be affected by the operation, with a description of access to the area from the nearest public highways;

(b) the names and addresses of the owners of record and any purchasers under contracts for deed of the surface of the area of land to be affected by the permit and the owners of record and any purchasers under contracts for deed of all surface area within one-half mile of any part of the affected area;

(c) the names and addresses of the present owners of record and any purchasers under contracts for deed of all subsurface minerals in the land to be affected;

(d) the source of the applicant's legal right to mine the mineral on the land affected by the permit;

(e) the permanent and temporary post-office addresses of the applicant;

(f) whether the applicant or any person associated with the applicant holds or has held any other permits under this part and an identification of those permits;

(g) whether the applicant is in compliance with 82-4-251 and, if known, whether every officer, partner, director, or any individual owning of record or beneficially, alone or with associates, 10% or more of any class of stock of the applicant is subject to any of the provisions of 82-4-251 and he shall so certify and whether any of the foregoing parties or persons have ever had a strip-mining or underground-mining license or permit issued by any other state or federal agency revoked or have ever forfeited a strip-mining or underground-mining bond or a security deposited in lieu of a bond and, if so, a detailed explanation of the facts involved in each case must be attached;

(h) the names and addresses of any persons who are engaged in strip- or underground-mining activities on behalf of the applicant;

(i) the annual rainfall and the direction and average velocity of the prevailing winds in the area where the applicant has requested a permit;

(j) the results of any test borings or core samplings which the applicant or his agent has conducted on the land to be affected, including the nature and the depth of the various strata or overburden and topsoil, the quantities and location of subsurface water and its quality, the thickness of any mineral seam, an analysis of the chemical properties of such minerals, including the acidity, sulphur content, and trace mineral elements of any coal seam, as well as the British thermal unit (Btu) content of such seam, and an analysis of the overburden, including topsoil. If test borings or core samplings are submitted, each permit application shall contain two copies each of two sets of geologic cross sections accurately depicting the known geologic makeup beneath the surface of the affected land. Each set shall depict subsurface conditions at such intervals as the department requires across the surface and shall run at a 90-degree angle to the other set. The department may not require intervals of less than 500 feet. Each cross section shall depict the thickness and geologic character of all known strata beginning with the topsoil. In addition, each application for an underground-mining permit shall be accompanied by cross sections and maps showing the proposed underground locations of all shafts, entries, and haulageways or other excavations to be excavated during the permit period. These cross sections shall also include all existing shafts, entries, and haulageways.

(k) the name and date of a daily newspaper of general circulation within the county in which the applicant will prominently publish at least once a week for 4 successive weeks after submission of the application an announcement of his application for a strip-mining or underground-mining permit and a detailed description of the area of land to be affected should a permit be granted;

(l) a determination of the probable hydrologic consequences of coal mining and reclamation operations, both on and off the mine site, with respect to the hydrologic regime, quantity and quality of water in surface- and ground-water systems, including the dissolved and suspended solids under seasonal flow conditions and the collection of sufficient data for the mine site and surrounding areas, so that cumulative impacts of all anticipated mining in the area upon the hydrology of the area and particularly upon water availability can be made. However, this determination is not required until such time as hydrologic information on the general area prior to mining is made available from an appropriate federal or state agency. The permit may not be approved until such information is available and is incorporated into the application.

(m) a coal conservation plan; and

(n) such other or further information as the department may require.

(2) The application for a permit shall be accompanied by two copies of all maps meeting the requirements of the subsections below. The maps shall:

(d) show by appropriate markings the boundaries of the area of land affected, any cropline of the seam or deposit of mineral to be mined, and the total number of acres involved in the area of land affected;

(e) show the date on which the map was prepared and the north point;

(f) show the final surface and underground water drainage plan on and away from the area of land affected. This plan shall indicate the directional and volume flow of water, constructed drainways, natural waterways used for drainage, and the streams or tributaries receiving the discharge.

(g) show the proposed location of waste or refuse area;

(h) show the proposed location of temporary subsoil and topsoil storage area;

(l) show a listing of plant varieties encountered in the area to be affected and their relative dominance in the area, together with an enumeration of tree varieties and the approximate number of each variety occurring per acre on the area to be affected, and the locations generally of the various kinds and varieties of plants, including but not limited to grasses, shrubs, legumes, forbs, and trees;

(m) be certified as follows: "I, the undersigned, hereby certify that this map is correct and shows to the best of my knowledge and belief all the information required by the mining laws of this state." The certification shall be signed and notarized. The department may reject a map as incomplete if its accuracy is not so attested.

(n) contain such other or further information as the department may require.

(3) If the department finds that the probable total annual production at all locations of any strip- or underground-coal-mining operation applied for will not exceed 100,000 tons, any determination of probable hydrologic consequences that the department requires and the statement of result of test borings or core samplings shall, upon written request of the operator, be performed by a qualified public or private laboratory designated by the department. The department shall assume the cost of the determination and statement to the extent that it has received funds for this purpose.

(4) In addition to the information and maps required above, each application for a permit shall be accompanied by detailed plans or proposals showing the method of operation, the manner, time or distance, and estimated cost for backfilling, subsidence stabilization, water control, grading work, highwall reduction, topsoiling, planting, revegetating, and a reclamation plan for the area affected by the operation, which proposals shall meet the requirements of this part and rules adopted under this part. (5) Each applicant for a coal mining permit shall submit as part of the application a certificate issued by an insurance company authorized to do business in the state certifying that the applicant has in force for the strip-or underground-mining and reclamation operations for which the permit is sought a public liability insurance policy, or evidence that the applicant has satisfied other state or federal self-insurance requirements. This policy shall provide for personal injury and property damage protection in an amount adequate to compensate any persons damaged as a result of strip- or underground-coal-mining and reclamation operations, including use of explosives, and entitled to compensation under applicable provisions of state law. The permittee must maintain the policy in full force and effect during the term of the permit and any renewal until all reclamation operations have been completed.

(6) Each applicant for a strip-mining or underground-mining reclamation permit shall file a copy of his application for public inspection with the clerk and recorder at the courthouse of the county where the major portion of mining is proposed to occur."

Section 26. Section 82-4-239, MCA, is amended to read:

"82-4-239. Reclamation by board. (1) The board may have reclamation work done by its own employees or by employees of other governmental agencies, soil conservation districts, or through contracts with qualified persons. The board may construct, operate, and maintain plants for the control and treatment of water pollution resulting from mine drainage.

(2) Any funds or any public works programs available to the board shall be used and expended to reclaim and rehabilitate lands that have been subjected to strip mining or underground mining that have not been reclaimed and rehabilitated in accordance with the standards of this part. The board shall cooperate with federal, state, and private agencies to engage in cooperative projects under this section.

(3) Agents, employees, or contractors of the department may enter upon any land for the purpose of conducting studies or exploratory work to determine whether such land has been strip- or underground-mined and not reclaimed and rehabilitated in accordance with the requirements of this part and to determine the feasibility of restoration, reclamation, abatement, control, or prevention of any adverse effects of past coal-mining practices. Upon request of the commissioner, the attorney general shall bring an injunctive action to restrain any interference with the exercise of the right to enter and inspect granted in this subsection.

(4) If the department makes a finding of fact that:

(a) land or water resources have been adversely affected by past coal-mining practices; and

(b) the adverse effects are at a stage where in the public interest action to restore, reclaim, abate, control, or prevent should be taken; and

(c) the owners of the land or water resources where entry must be made to restore, reclaim, abate, control, or prevent the adverse effects of past coal-mining practices are not known or readily available or the owners will not give permission for the department or its agents, employees, or contractors to enter upon such property to restore, reclaim, abate, control, or prevent the adverse effects of past coal-mining practices;

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1209 1983

then agents, employees, or contractors of the department, after giving notice by mail to the owner, if known, and any purchaser under contract for deed, if known, or, if neither is known, by posting notice upon the premises and advertising in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the land lies, may enter upon property adversely affected by past coal-mining practices and any other property necessary for access to such mineral property to do all things necessary or expedient to restore, reclaim, abate, control, or prevent the adverse effects of past coal-mining practices. This act is not an act of condemnation of property or of trespass but rather an exercise of the power granted by sections 1 and 2, Article IX of the Montana constitution.

(5) (a) Within 6 months after the completion of projects to restore, reclaim, abate, control, or prevent adverse effects of past coal-mining practices on privately owned land, the department shall itemize the money so expended and may file a statement thereof in the office of the clerk and recorder of the county in which the land lies, together with a notarized appraisal by an independent appraiser of the value of the land before the restoration, reclamation, abatement, control, or prevention of adverse effects of past coal-mining practices if the money so expended shall result in a significant increase in property value. Such statement constitutes a lien upon the land. The lien may not exceed the amount determined by the appraisal to be the increase in the market value of the land as a result of the restoration, reclamation, abatement, control, or prevention of the adverse effects of past coal-mining practices. No lien may be filed against the property of any person, in accordance with this subsection, who owned the surface prior to May 2, 1977, and who neither consented to nor participated in nor exercised control over the mining operation which necessitated the reclamation performed under this part.

(b) The landowner may petition within 60 days of the filing of the lien to determine the increase in the market value of the land as a result of the restoration, reclamation, abatement, control, or prevention of the adverse effects of past coal-mining practices. The amount reported to be the increase in value of the premises constitutes the amount of the lien and shall be recorded with the statement herein provided. Any party aggrieved by the decision may appeal as provided by law.

(c) The lien provided in this section shall be recorded at the office of the county clerk and recorder. The statement constitutes a lien upon the land as of the date of the expenditure of the money and has priority as a lien second only to the lien of real estate taxes imposed upon the land.

(6) The board may acquire the necessary property by gift or purchase or, if the property cannot be acquired by gift or purchase at a reasonable cost, proceedings may be instituted in the manner provided in Title 70, chapter 30, against all nonaccepting landholders if:

(a) the property is necessary for successful reclamation;

(b) the acquired land after restoration, reclamation, abatement, control, or prevention of the adverse effects of past coal-mining practices will serve recreation and historic purposes or conservation and reclamation purposes or provide open space benefits; and

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1210 1983

(c) permanent facilities such as treatment plants or relocated stream channels will be constructed on the land for the restoration, reclamation, abatement, control, or prevention of the adverse effects of past strip- or underground-coal-mining practices; or acquisition of coal refuse disposal sites and all coal refuse thereon will serve the purposes of this part in that public ownership is desirable to meet emergency situations and prevent recurrences of the adverse effects of past coal-mining practices."

Section 27. Section 82-10-503, MCA, is amended to read:

"82-10-503. Notice of drilling operations. In addition to the requirements for geophysical exploration activities governed by Title 82, chapter 1, part 1, the oil and gas developer or operator shall give the surface owner and any purchaser under contract for deed written notice of the drilling operations that he plans to undertake. This notice shall be given to the record surface owner and any purchaser under contract for deed at their addresses as shown by the records of the county clerk and recorder at the time the notice is given. This notice shall sufficiently disclose the plan of work and operations to enable the surface owner to evaluate the effect of drilling operations on the surface owner's use of the property."

Section 28. Section 85-2-232, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-2-232. Availability of preliminary decree. (1) The water judge shall send a copy of the preliminary decree to the department, and the water judge shall serve by mail a notice of availability of the preliminary decree to each person who has filed a claim of existing right and to the purchaser under contract for deed, as defined in [section 1], of property in connection with which a claim of existing right has been filed, or, in the Powder River Basin, to each person who has filed a declaration of an existing right. The water judge shall enclose with the notice an abstract of the disposition of such person's claimed or declared existing right. The notice of availability shall also be served upon those issued or having applied for and not having been denied a beneficial water use permit pursuant to Title 85, chapter 2, part 3, those granted a reservation pursuant to 85-2-316, or other interested persons who request service of the notice from the water judge. The clerk or person designated by the water judge to mail the notice shall make a general certificate of mailing certifying that a copy of the notice has been placed in the United States mail, postage prepaid, addressed to each party required to be served notice of the preliminary decree. Such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of due and legal notice of entry of decree.

(2) Any person may obtain a copy of the preliminary decree upon payment of a fee of $20 or the cost of printing, whichever is greater, to the water judge."

Section 29. Section 85-2-307, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-2-307. Notice of application. (1) (a) Upon receipt of a proper application for a permit, the department shall prepare a notice containing the facts pertinent to the application and shall publish the notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the area of the source once a week for 3 consecutive weeks.

Section 30. Section 85-15-202, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-15-202. Examination and report — subsequent actions. (1) It is the duty of the persons so appointed to make a thorough examination of the dam or reservoir. If, upon examination, they find that persons or property are endangered by reason of the dam or reservoir and it is not secure against the pressure of the water confined therein or the water that may be confined therein or against rains and freshets that may occur and if they find that the same is secure against the occurrence of the casualties mentioned or any of them, they must make a report in writing to the judge, which must be entered of record as a proceeding in court.

(2) If, upon such examination as to the safety of such reservoir, they consider such reservoir insufficient and insecure, they must further inquire whether the danger to be apprehended is imminent, and if they are of the opinion that such danger is imminent and that destruction of life or property may result from delay, it is their duty forthwith to draw from such reservoir the waters therein or so much thereof as will insure safety, and they must make return of their action to the judge. In the discharge of such duties, the persons so acting are peace officers.

(3) If, upon examination, they are of opinion that such dam or reservoir is insecure and insufficient but that the danger therefrom is not immediate or imminent, they must so state in their report to the judge. The judge must thereupon cause a copy of the report to be served on the owner of the property, the person in charge thereof, and any purchaser of the property under contract for deed, with a notice requiring him to make the same secure or to draw the water therefrom without delay. Unless such order is complied with after hearing, the judge may order the sheriff to draw from said dam or reservoir the waters thereof."

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 19-4-602, MCA, is amended to read:

"19-4-602. Annuity savings fund — member's contribution. The annuity savings fund is a fund in which the contributions from the members to provide for their annuities shall be accumulated in individual accounts for each member. Contributions to and payments from the annuity savings fund shall be made in the following manner:

(1) Each employer shall deduct from the compensation of each active member on the payroll for each payroll period on and subsequent to the date on which the member became a member an amount equal to 7.044% of the member's earned compensation.

(2) The deductions shall be made notwithstanding that the minimum compensation provided by law for a member may be reduced thereby. Every member is considered to consent to the deductions prescribed by this section, and payment of salary or compensation less the deductions is a complete discharge of all claims whatsoever for the services rendered by the member during the period covered by the payment, except as to the benefits provided by the retirement system.

(3) In addition to the contributions deducted from compensation and subject to the approval of the retirement board, any member may redeposit in the annuity savings fund, by a single payment or by an increased rate of contribution, an amount equal to any accumulated contributions which he has previously withdrawn, plus interest in the amount the contributions would have earned had the contributions not been withdrawn.

(4) The accumulated contributions of a member withdrawn by him or paid to his estate or to his designated beneficiary in event of his death shall be paid from the annuity savings fund. Upon the retirement of a member, his accumulated contributions shall be transferred from the annuity savings fund to the annuity reserve fund."

The pension accumulation fund is the fund in which the reserves for payment of pensions and annuities shall be accumulated and from which pensions, annuities, and benefits in lieu thereof shall be paid to or on account of beneficiaries credited with prior service. Contributions to and payments from the pension accumulation fund shall be made as follows:

(1) Each employer shall pay into the pension accumulation fund an amount equal to 7.320% of the earned compensation of each member employed during the whole or part of the preceding payroll period.

(2) If the employer is a district or community college district, the trustees shall budget and pay for the employer's contribution under the provisions of 20-9-501.

(3) If the employer is the superintendent of public instruction, a public institution of the state of Montana, a unit of the Montana university system, or the Montana state school for the deaf and blind, the legislature shall appropriate to the employer an adequate amount to allow the payment of the employer's contribution.

(4) If the employer is a county, the county commissioners shall budget and pay for the employer's contribution in the manner provided by law for the adoption of a county budget and for payments under the budget.

(5) All interest and other earnings realized on the moneys of the retirement system shall be credited to the pension accumulation fund, and the amount required to allow regular interest on the annuity savings fund shall be transferred to that fund from the pension accumulation fund.

(6) All pensions, annuities, and benefits in lieu thereof shall be paid from the pension accumulation fund.

(7) The retirement board may, in its discretion, transfer from the pension accumulation fund an amount necessary to cover expenses of administration."

Section 3. Section 19-4-801, MCA, is amended to read:

"19-4-801. Eligibility for superannuation retirement. A member who has at least 5 full years of creditable service, whose last 5 years of creditable service were in this state, and who has attained the age of 60 or has been credited with full-time or part-time service in 25 or more years may retire from service if he files with the retirement board his written application setting forth the fact of his retirement."

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1214 1983

be eligible for an early retirement allowance if he files with the retirement board his written application setting forth the fact of his retirement.

(2) The early retirement allowance shall be determined as prescribed in 19-4-804(1) and section 5, Chapter 549, Laws of 1981, with the exception that the allowance will be reduced as follows:

(a) by ½ of 1% multiplied by the number of months up to a maximum of 60 months by which the retirement date precedes the date on which he would have retired had he attained 60 years of age or had he completed 25 years of creditable service; and

(b) by 3/10 of 1% multiplied by the number of months in excess of the 60 months in subsection (2)(a) but not to exceed 60 additional months that the retirement date precedes the date on which he would have retired had he attained 60 years of age or had he completed 25 years of creditable service."

(1) The department of revenue shall calculate from the returns the gross product yielded from such mine and its gross value for the year covered by the statement and shall calculate and compute the net proceeds of the mine yielded to the person engaged in mining. CHAPTER NO. 530

AN ACT TO REVISE THE LAWS RELATING TO IMMUNIZATION AND INDEMNIFICATION OF GOVERNMENTAL EMPLOYEES; AMENDING SECTION 2-9-305, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 2-9-305, MCA, is amended to read:

"2-9-305. Governmental entity to be joined as defendant — immunization, defense, and indemnification of employees. (1) It is the purpose of this section to provide for the immunization, defense, and indemnification of public officers and employees civilly sued for their actions taken within the course and scope of their employment.

(2) In any noncriminal action brought against any employee of a state, county, city, town, or other governmental entity for a negligent act, error, or omission, including alleged violations of civil rights pursuant to 42

U.S.C. 1983, or other actionable conduct of the employee committed while acting within the course and scope of the employee's office or employment, the governmental entity employer, except as provided in subsection (6) shall defend the action on behalf of the employee and indemnify the employee.

(3) Upon receiving service of a summons and complaint in a noncriminal action against him, the employee shall give written notice to his supervisor requesting that a defense to the action be provided by the governmental entity employer. If the employee is an elected state official or other employee having no supervisor, the employee shall give notice of the action to the legal officer or agency of the governmental entity defending the entity in legal actions of that type. Except as provided in subsection (6), the employer shall offer a defense to the action on behalf of the employee. The defense may consist of a defense provided directly by the employer. The employer shall notify the employee, within 15 days after receipt of notice, whether a direct defense will be provided. If the employer refuses or is unable to provide a direct defense, the defendant employee may retain other counsel. Except as provided in subsection (6), the employer shall pay all expenses relating to the retained defense and pay any judgment for damages entered in the action that may be otherwise payable under this section.

(4) In any noncriminal action in which a governmental entity employee is a party defendant, the employee shall be indemnified by the employer for any money judgments or legal expenses, including attorney fees either incurred by the employee or awarded to the claimant, or both, to which the employee may be subject as a result of the suit unless the employee's conduct falls within the exclusions provided in subsection (6).

(5) Recovery against a governmental entity under the provisions of parts 1 through 3 of this chapter constitutes a complete bar to any action or recovery of damages by the claimant, by reason of the same subject matter, against the employee whose negligence or wrongful act, error, or omission or other actionable conduct gave rise to the claim. In any such action against a governmental entity, the employee whose conduct gave rise to the suit is immune from liability by reasons of the same subject matter if the governmental entity acknowledges or is bound by a judicial determination that the conduct upon which the claim is brought arises out of the course and scope of the employee's employment, unless the claim constitutes an exclusion provided in (b) through (d) of subsection (6).

(6) In a noncriminal action in which a governmental entity employee is a party defendant, the employee may not be defended or indemnified by the employer for any money judgments or legal expenses, including attorney fees, to which the employee may be subject as a result of the suit if a judicial determination is made that:

(a) the conduct upon which the claim is based constitutes oppression, fraud, or malice, or for any other reason does not arise out of the course and scope of the employee's employment;

(b) the conduct of the employee constitutes a criminal offense as defined in Title 45, chapters 4 through 7;

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1219 1983

(c) the employee compromised or settled the claim without the consent of the government entity employer; or

(d) the employee failed or refused to cooperate reasonably in the defense of the case.

(7) If no judicial determination has been made applying the exclusions provided in subsection (6), the governmental entity employer may determine whether those exclusions apply. However, if there is a dispute as to whether the exclusions of subsection (6) apply and the governmental entity employer concludes it should clarify its obligation to the employee arising under this section by commencing a declaratory judgment action or other legal action, the employer is obligated to provide a defense or assume the cost of the defense of the employee until a final judgment is rendered in such action holding that the employer had no obligation to defend the employee. The governmental entity employer has no obligation to provide a defense to the employee in a declaratory judgment action or other legal action brought against the employee by the employer under this subsection."

Section 2. Effective date. This act is effective July 1, 1983.

Approved April 15, 1983.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

(3) the defendant, at the time of the commission of the offense for which he is to be sentenced, was acting under unusual and substantial duress, although not such duress as would constitute a defense to the prosecution;

CHAPTER NO. 533

AN ACT TO DEFINE A CORRECTIONAL POLICY FOR THE STATE OF MONTANA; AMENDING SECTION 46-18-101, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 46-18-101, MCA, is amended to read:

"46-18-101. Correction policy. (1) It is the purpose of this section to declare the correctional policy of the state of Montana. Laws for the punishment of crime and for the rehabilitation of the convicted are drawn to implement the policy established by this section.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1221 1983

(2) The correctional policy of the state of Montana is to protect society by preventing crime through punishment and rehabilitation of the convicted. The legislature finds that an individual is responsible for and must be held accountable for his actions. Corrections laws and programs must be implemented to impress upon each individual his responsibility for obeying the law. To achieve this end, it is the policy of the state to assure that prosecution of criminal offenses occurs whenever probable cause exists and that punishment of the convicted is certain, timely, and consistent. Furthermore, it is the state's policy that persons convicted of a crime shall be dealt with in accordance with their individual characteristics, circumstances, needs, and potentialities.

(3) (a) Sentences imposed upon those convicted of crime must be based primarily on the following:

(i) the crime committed;

(ii) the prospects of rehabilitation of the offender;

(iii) the circumstances under which the crime was committed; and

(iv) the criminal history of the offender.

(b) Dangerous offenders who habitually violate the law and victimize the public shall be removed from society and correctively treated in custody for long terms as needed. Other offenders shall be dealt with by probation, suspended sentence, or fine whenever such disposition appears practicable and not detrimental to the needs of public safety and the welfare of the individual. Whenever possible, sentences for offenders shall include restitution to the victim, payment of costs as provided in 46-18-232, and payment of costs of court-appointed counsel as provided in 46-8-113."

Approved April 15, 1983.

CHAPTER NO. 534

AN ACT TO ALLOW A FISH AND WILDLIFE LICENSING AGENT TO POST SECURITY OTHER THAN A SURETY BOND IN ACCORDANCE WITH DEPARTMENT RULES; AND TO REQUIRE LICENSE AGENTS TO PAY INTEREST ON LICENSE REVENUE THAT IS REMITTED LATE; AMENDING SECTIONS 87-2-902 AND 87-2-903, MCA; AND PROVIDING A DELAYED EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 87-2-902, MCA, is amended to read:

"87-2-902. Bond or security of agent and preferred claim of state for license money. (1) An appointed license agent shall furnish a corporate surety bond or other security as required by department rule. The bond shall secure the faithful performance of the duties imposed on the license agent and the accounting for and payment to the state of all money received from the sale of hunting and fishing licenses and any permits or certificates prescribed by the department. The license agent shall properly account for all unsold licenses, permits, and certificates annually on April 1 or at any other time at the request of the director.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1222 1983

(2) All money received for the sale of licenses, permits, and certificates at all times belongs to the state. In case of an assignment for the benefit of creditors, receivership, or bankruptcy, the state has a preferred claim against the assets and estate of a license agent for all money owed the state."

Section 2. Section 87-2-903, MCA, is amended to read:

"87-2-903. Compensation and duties of agents — penalty for late submission of license money. (1) License agents, except salaried employees of the department, shall receive for all services rendered the sum of 30 cents for each license, permit, or certificate issued. Each license agent shall submit to the department all duplicates of each class of licenses sold and shall accompany the duplicate licenses with all moneys received for the sale of the licenses less a fee of 30 cents for each license sold. The department may designate classes of license agents and may establish a deadline for submission of license money by each class of agent. Each license agent shall keep his license account open at all reasonable hours to inspection by the department, the director, the wardens, or the legislative auditor.

(2) For purposes of this section, the term "license" includes any license, permit, and certificate prescribed by the department.

(3) If a license agent fails to submit to the department all money received from the declared sale of licenses, less the appropriate fee, by the deadline established by the department, an interest charge equal to the rate charged on late corporation license tax payments under 15-31-502 must be assessed. Acceptance of late payments with interest does not preclude the department from summarily revoking the appointment of a license agent under 87-2-904."

Section 3. Effective date. This act is effective March 1, 1984.

Approved April 15, 1983.

CHAPTER NO. 535

Section 2. Budget amendment requirements. (1) No budget amendment may be approved:

(a) by the approving authority, except a budget amendment to spend funds which were not available for legislative consideration;

(b) by the approving authority, which contains any significant ascertainable commitment for any present or future increased general fund support;

(c) by the approving authority, for the expenditure of money in the state special revenue fund unless an emergency justifies such expenditure;

(d) by the approving authority, unless it will provide additional services;

(e) by the approving authority, for any matter of which the requesting agency had knowledge at a time when the proposal could have been presented to an appropriation subcommittee, the house appropriations committee, or the senate finance and claims committee of the most recent legislative session open to that matter; or

(f) to extend beyond June 30 of the last year of any biennium.

(2) All budget amendments shall itemize planned expenditures by fiscal year.

(3) Each budget amendment must be submitted by the approving authority to the budget director and the office of the legislative fiscal analyst.

Section 3. Budget amendment certification. In approving a budget amendment, the approving authority shall make the following certifications and in addition shall provide all other information required below as an integral part of the certification:

(1) The approving authority shall certify that:

(a) specific additional services will be provided as a result of the expenditures to be permitted under this budget amendment and shall also list each specific service to be so provided;

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1225 1983

(b) the specific services to be provided under this budget amendment are necessary;

(c) the agency requesting this budget amendment has no other reasonable alternative available to provide the additional services. Such certification shall specifically include determinations by the approving authority that the agency cannot provide all or specific parts or amounts of the additional services with existing personnel because of the present required workload of existing personnel, or that the agency is unable within its existing funding to fund all or part of such additional services from any source lawfully available to it.

(d) the budget amendment makes no ascertainable present or future significant commitment for increased general fund support.

(2) The approving authority shall include in its certification the specific criteria by which the effectiveness of the additional services will be evaluated and shall state a specific follow up date on which the written evaluation of such services, using the listed criteria, will be presented to the legislative fiscal analyst. The written evaluation must be presented to the legislative fiscal analyst on or before that date.

(3) For budget amendments to spend money in the state special revenue fund, the approving authority shall certify that an emergency justifies the expenditure and shall state the specific nature of the emergency, the date on which the requesting agency became aware of the emergency, and the manner in which the requesting agency became aware of the emergency.

Section 4. Executive branch budget amendment procedures. (1) Upon receiving a proposed budget amendment from a requesting agency, the executive branch approving authority shall immediately forward a copy of the entire budget amendment to the legislative fiscal analyst.

(2) If the executive branch approving authority denies the request for a budget amendment, he shall immediately forward a notice of denial to the legislative fiscal analyst.

(3) If the executive branch approving authority intends to make certification of the budget amendment, immediately upon his completion of the certification he shall forward the certification and all supporting documentation to the legislative fiscal analyst. The executive branch approving authority may not approve the budget amendment until he receives the legislative finance committee's written report for that budget amendment unless:

(a) the report is not received within 90 calendar days from the date the certification and supporting documentation were forwarded to the finance committee, in which case the approving authority may approve the budget amendment; or

(b) there has been a waiver of review and report as provided in subsection (6).

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1226 1983

(4) The legislative fiscal analyst shall review each proposed budget amendment that has been certified by the executive branch approving authority for compliance with statutory budget amendment requirements and standards and shall present a written report of this review to the legislative finance committee. Within 10 days after the meeting of the legislative finance committee that considered the budget amendment, the legislative fiscal analyst shall submit the committee's report to the executive branch approving authority.

(5) Upon receipt of the legislative finance committee's written report, the executive branch approving authority may approve or deny the budget amendment or may return the budget amendment to the requesting agency for further information. If the executive branch approving authority has returned the budget amendment to the requesting agency and the requesting agency resubmits the budget amendment to the executive branch approving authority, all procedures set out in this section apply to the resubmitted budget amendment.

(6) If an emergency occurs that poses a serious threat to the life, health, or safety of the public, the legislative fiscal analyst may waive his written review and the legislative finance committee's written report required by this section. Upon receipt of such waiver, the executive branch approving authority may approve the budget amendment on completion of his certification. Such a waiver, however, affects only the legislative fiscal analyst's written review and the legislative finance committee's written report on the budget amendment, and all other budget amendment requirements and standards remain in effect. After such a waiver, the legislative fiscal analyst may complete the written review.

(7) Nothing in [sections 1 through 5] confers any authority on the legislative finance committee to approve or deny budget amendments.

Section 5. Voidness of improperly certified budget amendments. Any budget amendment that is not certified by the approving authority according to the standards and procedures set out in [sections 1 through 5] may be declared void in its entirety by a court of competent jurisdiction on complaint of the attorney general, the legislature, or the legislative finance committee. No funds may be expended under an improperly certified budget amendment.

(2) Complaints under subsections (1)(a) and (1)(b) may be combined in a single action.

(3) Remedies and penalties provided by this section may be pursued singly or in any combination."

Section 10. Severability. If a part of this act is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of this act is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications.

Section 6. Appointment by nonresident licensee of agent to receive process. A nonresident applying for a license under this chapter shall file a written power of attorney, designating the secretary of state as his agent upon whom service of process may be had if legal action is brought against the nonresident. Section 11. Employment of assistants. The department is authorized to employ qualified persons not regularly in the service of the state for temporary assistance in carrying out the provisions of [sections through 71].

Section 12. License suspension and revocation — renewal. (1) The department may revoke, suspend, or modify a license when it has reasonable cause to believe that the licensee has committed any of the following acts, each of which is a violation of [sections 22 through 54]:

(a) failure to maintain all initial licensing requirements, including insurance, bonding, and net asset requirements. In determining compliance with net asset requirements, the department may consider the licensee's status under any prior or current bankruptcy proceedings, as well as any outstanding civil settlements or judgments.

(b) aiding or abetting another person in the violation of the licensure or any other provisions of [sections 22 through 54];

(c) conviction of any criminal offense defined under Title 45;

(j) failure to provide payment for any agricultural commodity; or

(k) violation of or failure or refusal to comply with any other provision of [sections 1 through 54] or rule adopted by the department.

(2) The department may refuse to issue or renew a license if the applicant or licensee:

(a) has a license as a warehouseman or commodity dealer that was previously or is currently suspended or revoked. In determining the sufficiency of cause hereunder, the department shall consider the nature and length of the action and any subsequent licensure or other evidence of rehabilitation.

(b) does not satisfy the bonding, insurance, or net asset requirements as specified in subsection (1)(a) or any other provisions required as a condition to licensing;

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1234 1983

(c) has been convicted of a criminal offense and the denial or refusal is made after considering Title 37, chapter 1, part 2.

(3) The issuance of a license based on information provided by the applicant which the department subsequently determines incorrect must be considered void, and any conduct under that license is a violation.

(4) All proceedings brought under subsections (1) and (2) must be conducted under the provisions of the Montana Administrative Procedure Act.

(5) The department is authorized to issue summary revocations, suspensions, or denials without hearing pursuant to the procedures established in 2-4-631.

Section 13. Credit sale contracts. (1) A commodity dealer who purchases agricultural commodities by credit sale contract shall maintain books, records, and other documents as required by the department to establish compliance with the provisions of this section.

(2) In addition to other required information, a credit sale contract must contain or provide for all of the following:

(a) the seller's name and address;

(b) the conditions of delivery;

(c) the amount and kind of agricultural commodities delivered;

(d) the price per unit or basis of value; and

(e) the date payment is to be made.

(3) Title to all agricultural commodities sold by credit sale contract is in the purchaser as of the time the contract is executed unless the contract provides otherwise. The contract must be signed by both parties and executed in duplicate. One copy shall be retained by the commodity dealer, and one copy shall be delivered to the seller. Upon revocation, suspension, or termination of a warehouseman's license, the department may advance the payment date for all credit sale contracts to a date not later than 30 days following the effective date of the revocation, suspension, or termination. When not otherwise provided, the purchase price for all agricultural commodities shall be determined as of the effective date of revocation, suspension, or termination in accordance with all other provisions of the contract. However, if the business of the commodity dealer is sold to another licensed commodity dealer, credit sale contracts may be assigned to the purchasing commodity dealer.

Section 14. Delivery of agricultural commodities containing toxic chemicals to warehouse or to commodity dealer unlawful. It is unlawful for any person to deliver to any warehouse or commodity dealer an agricultural commodity in bulk if the commodity contains toxic chemicals if the person knew or upon the exercise of reasonable diligence should have known of the presence of the toxic chemicals in the commodity.

Section 15. Director's authority — investigative hearing. The director may upon his own motion, whenever he has reason to believe a violation has occurred or upon verified complaint of any person in writing, investigate the actions of any person and, if he finds probable cause, shall notify the person that he must appear for an investigative hearing before the director 20 days from receipt of written notice.

Section 16. Action on bond by persons injured. (1) A person injured by the breach of an obligation for which a bond is given to the department may take action against the bond in his own name to recover damages caused by the breach. The director shall then make demand upon the warehouseman or the commodity dealer and his surety for payment of damages. If the damages are not promptly paid, the director shall commence an action on the bond to enforce payment of damages.

(2) Liability of the surety upon the bond is limited to the amount of the bond. However, if two or more persons are injured by breach of the obligation for which the bond is given and the damages for violating the conditions of the bond exceed the specified amount of the bond, the recovery on the bond shall be prorated by the surety among all of those injured.

Section 17. Duty to prosecute. A county attorney who has appropriate jurisdiction and to whom any violation is reported shall cause appropriate proceedings to be instituted and prosecute without delay in a court of competent jurisdiction.

Section 18. Injunction. If a person without a license is found to have engaged in any business for which a license is required under [sections 22 through 54], the court shall enjoin him from further business until he has been duly licensed. It is not necessary that the department show that an individual has been injured by the actions complained of in order to issue the injunction. The procedure for injunctive relief is the same as any other action for an injunction under Title 27. The injunction provided by this section is an additional remedy to the criminal penalty provided for in [section 20].

Section 19. Penalty for operating without a license — misrepresentation. (1) A person acting as a warehouseman or a commodity dealer without a license or in any way representing by action or words that he is a warehouseman or a commodity dealer and is not so licensed violates the provisions of [sections 22 through 54], is guilty of a felony, and is punishable by imprisonment for not more than 10 years or by a fine of not more than $10,000, or both.

(2) A person who issues or aids in the issuance of a fraudulent receipt for any commodity is guilty of a felony and is punishable by imprisonment for not more than 10 years or by a fine of not more than $10,000, or both.

(3) A person who knowingly submits false information to or who knowingly withholds information from the department when that information is required to be submitted is guilty of a felony.

Section 20. Penalty. (1) Except as otherwise provided, any person who violates any provision of [sections 1 through 54] or rules promulgated thereunder or who impedes, obstructs, hinders, or otherwise prevents or attempts to prevent the director or his duly authorized representative in the performance of his duty under [sections 1 through 54] is guilty of a misdemeanor and is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed 6 months or by a fine of not more than $1,000, or both.

(2) A person who refuses to permit inspection of licensed premises, books, accounts, records, or other documents required by [sections 1 through 71] or who uses a scale weight ticket or credit sale contract that fails to satisfy the requirements of [sections 1 through 71] is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Section 21. Director's enforcement action. Nothing in [sections 1 through 71] may be construed to require the director or his authorized representative to report for prosecution or for the institution of civil action a violation if he believes that the public interest will best be served by a suitable warning.

Section 22. License necessary to operate public warehouse. (1) No person may act as a warehouseman without first having obtained an annual license from the department. This requirement does not apply to operators of warehouses that are federally licensed under the "United States Warehouse Act".

(2) If a warehouseman operates two or more warehouses in the same city or immediately adjacent thereto or in the same immediate area, in conjunction with each other and with the same work force, and where one set of books and records are kept for all such warehouses and cash slips, scale weight tickets, warehouse receipts, and checks of one series are used for agricultural commodities stored therein, only one warehouseman's license is required for the operation of all such warehouses.

Section 23. Licenses to warehouseman — issuance — renewal — conditions precedent. (1) The department is authorized to issue or renew, upon application, a license to any warehouseman for the conduct of a warehouse or warehouses in accordance with [sections 22 through 54], provided the following conditions are met:

(a) Each applicant shall file and maintain satisfactory evidence of an effective policy of insurance issued by an insurance company authorized to do business in this state, insuring all agricultural commodities that are stored in the warehouse, including agricultural commodities owned by the warehouseman. The insurance shall insure the commodities for the full market value at the time of loss of such commodities against loss by fire, internal explosion, lightning, or tornado.

(b) Each warehouse must be found suitable for the proper storage of the particular agricultural commodity stored therein.

(c) A license fee must be submitted to the department as prescribed by [section 24].

(d) A current drawing of the warehouse, showing storage facilities and capacity of the warehouse, must be submitted to the department.

(e) A sufficient and valid bond must be filed and maintained as required by [sections 25 and 26].

(f) The applicant has submitted to the department a current financial statement prepared by a licensed accountant according to generally accepted accounting principles, showing that the applicant has and does maintain current assets equal to or greater than current liabilities.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1237 1983

(g) The applicant must submit a sample warehouse receipt and subsequent revisions to the department for approval and filing.

(h) The applicant must have complied with the terms of [sections 22 through 46] and the rules prescribed thereunder.

(2) All documents required for renewal of a license must be received by the department prior to the expiration date of the warehouse license. An expired warehouse license may be reinstated by the department upon receipt of all required licensing documents and a penalty fee of $50 if the documents are filed within 30 days from the date of expiration of the warehouse license. All license applications received after the 30-day penalty period must be considered original applications and an initial license fee must be assessed according to [section 24].

Section 24. Fees of department. (1) The department shall collect an annual warehouseman license fee, based on the number of warehouses owned by the warehouseman, according to the following schedule:

For each warehouse listed in the application:

Capacity in Hundredweight	Rate
0 to 25,000	$ 25
25,001 to 50,000	50
50,001 to 125,000	75
125,001 to 250,000	100
250,001 to 375,000	125
over 375,000	150

(2) The department shall collect a fee of $50 for each initial licensing inspection of a warehouse or station.

(3) The department shall collect a fee of $25 for each amendment of a license.

(4) The department shall collect a fee of $150 a day or fraction thereof for maintaining an employee of the department at a warehouse to supervise the correction of a deficiency.

(5) All fees must be deposited into the state treasury and credited to the general fund account.

Section 25. Bond of applicant for license — additional bond — additional obligations. (1) Each applicant for a warehouseman's license shall file a bond with the department. The bond must be in such form and must contain such terms and conditions as the department may prescribe by rule to carry out the purpose of [sections 25 and 26].

(2) The department may demand an additional bond if the nature or volume of the business conducted by the warehouseman warrants an increase.

(3) The warehouseman may give a single bond to cover all warehouses operated by him.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1238 1983

(4) Any changes in the capacity of a warehouse or installation of any new warehouse involving a change in the bond liability under [section 26] must be reported in writing to the director, and an appropriate bond must be filed prior to the operation thereof.

Section 26. Amount of bond — cancellation. (1) The amount of the bond to be furnished for each warehouse must be fixed at a rate of 20 cents per hundredweight for the first 500,000 hundredweight of licensed capacity; 15 cents per hundredweight for the next 500,000 hundredweight of licensed capacity; and 10 cents per hundredweight for all licensed capacity over 1 million hundredweight. The amount of the bond may not be less than $20,000 or more than the maximum prescribed in [section 5]. The licensed capacity is the maximum number of hundredweight of agricultural commodities that the warehouse can accommodate.

(2) If a warehouseman is also operating as a commodity dealer, he shall also provide a bond as prescribed in [section 50].

(3) If there occurs a deficiency in net assets as required under [section 27], there shall be added to the amount of bond determined in accordance with subsection (1) an amount equal to that deficiency.

(4) Each warehouseman bond shall run continuously with the warehouseman license until canceled by the bonding company. The aggregate annual liability of the surety may in no event exceed the sum of the bond. A continuous bond shall obligate a new penal sum with the commencement of each licensing year.

(5) A 30-day written notice must be given to the department by the bonding company before any bond is canceled.

Section 27. Net asset requirements. (1) Each licensee or applicant for a license shall maintain, above all exemptions and liabilities, total net assets liable for the payment of any indebtedness arising from the conduct of the warehouse or warehouses of at least 40 cents per hundredweight of all agricultural commodities that his warehouse or warehouses can accommodate.

(2) No person may be licensed as a warehouseman unless he has and maintains allowable net assets of at least $10,000.

(3) In determining total net assets, credit may be given for insurable property, such as buildings, machinery, equipment, and merchandise inventory, only to the extent that such property is protected by insurance against loss or damage by fire. The insurance must be in the form of lawful policies issued by one or more insurance companies authorized to do business and subject to service of process in suits brought in this state.

(4) If a warehouseman is licensed or applies for licenses to operate two or more warehouses, the maximum number of hundredweight which all such warehouses will accommodate must be considered in determining whether the warehouseman meets the net asset requirements specified in this section.

Section 28. Duties of warehouseman — content of records. (1) Each warehouseman shall maintain in a safe place current and complete records at all times with respect to all agricultural commodities stored, conditioned, handled, or shipped by him, including agricultural commodities owned by him. Such records must include but are not limited to a daily position record, showing the total quantity of each kind and class of agricultural commodity received and loaded out and the amount remaining in storage at the close of each business day and the warehouseman's total storage obligations for each kind and class of agricultural commodity at the close of each business day.

(2) Every warehouseman purchasing any agricultural commodity from a depositor thereof shall promptly make and keep for 5 years a correct record showing in detail the following information:

(a) the name and address of the depositor;

(b) the date purchased;

(c) the terms of the sale; and

(d) the quality and quantity purchased by the warehouseman and, where applicable, the dockage, tare, grade, size, and net weight.

Section 29. Schedule of charges — posting. (1) Before a license to conduct a warehouse is granted, the warehouseman shall file with the director a copy of the schedule of charges for storage and other services. The schedule must be posted in a conspicuous place in his warehouse.

(2) All charges made by any warehouseman for the handling and storage of agricultural commodities must be just and reasonable. However, the director may, upon the complaint of any person or upon his own motion, hold a public hearing and may declare any existing charges for handling or storage of any agricultural commodity to be unreasonable or unjust. After the hearing, the director shall determine and order what is a just and reasonable charge to be imposed or enforced in place of that found to be unreasonable or unjust.

(3) Failure to file and post scheduled charges for the current year will keep in full force the most recently posted and filed schedule rates.

(4) In all cases, the producers will receive the first 15 days of storage without charge.

Section 30. Required receipt of agricultural commodities according to capacity. A warehouseman shall receive for storage, conditioning, handling, or shipment without discrimination of any kind, so far as the capacity of his warehouse will permit, all agricultural commodities tendered him in the usual course of business in suitable condition for storage. However, a warehouseman may not be compelled to accept and hold agricultural commodities for storage in such quantities as to block his regular cash agricultural commodity business. A warehouseman may not be required to accept agricultural commodities for storage in excess of working capacity. However, his appointment of space may be modified by rule upon proof that such appointment operates to the disadvantage of either the public or the warehouseman.

Section 31. Discrimination in charge by warehouseman prohibited. A warehouseman may not directly or indirectly, by a special charge, rebate, drawback, or other device, collect from any person a greater or lesser compensation for any service rendered in the storage, conditioning, handling, or shipment of agricultural commodities than he collects from any other person for a similar circumstance or condition. A warehouseman may not make or give any advantage to any person, company, or corporation or subject any person, company, or corporation to any undue or unreasonable prejudice or disadvantage.

Section 32. Scale weight tickets — form — issuance. (1) Scale weight tickets must be bound in books of convenient size and must be numbered consecutively. The original scale weight ticket must be delivered to the person from whom the agricultural commodities are received. One carbon copy of each scale weight ticket must remain as a permanent record.

(2) A scale weight ticket must be issued for each load of agricultural commodity received by the warehouseman.

(3) A scale weight ticket may not be issued or held in lieu of a warehouse receipt. The retention of scale weight tickets in lieu of warehouse receipts by the owner of the grain is at the owner's risk.

(4) There must be plainly printed across the face of such scale weight ticket issued by the warehouseman, in bold type, the words "THIS IS NOT A WAREHOUSE RECEIPT. IT MUST BE EXCHANGED FOR A WAREHOUSE RECEIPT IF GRAIN IS HELD IN STORAGE".

(5) There must be plainly printed across the face of a combination scale weight ticket and warehouse receipt issued by the warehouseman, in bold type, the words "COMBINATION SCALE WEIGHT TICKET AND WAREHOUSE RECEIPT".

(6) All scale weight tickets must be signed by the warehouseman or his agent.

(7) When scale weight tickets are exchanged for warehouse receipts, the scale weight tickets must be surrendered to the warehouseman.

(8) All scale weight tickets must be converted into cash or warehouse receipts on demand.

Section 33. Warehouse receipts — written terms. (1) Warehouse receipts under this part must contain in written terms:

(a) a statement that the warehouse is operated under a license issued by the department;

(b) a statement showing whether it is an original, duplicate, triplicate, or other copy;

(c) a statement showing the name of the warehouse;

(d) a statement showing the name of the city or town where the warehouse is located;

(e) the date the warehouse receipt is issued;

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1241 1983

(f) the number of the warehouse receipt. All receipts must be numbered consecutively.

(g) a statement that the grain is "received in store" from the person named;

(h) a statement of gross weight, dockage, and net weight and the sample report used for grade and protein analysis;

(i) a statement of encumbrances, such as cash or other advances;

(j) a statement that, upon the return of the receipt properly endorsed by the person to whom the order was issued and the payment of the proper charges for storing and handling, delivery will be made in accordance with [sections 22 through 46];

(k) a statement that the grain is properly insured for the benefit of the owner; and

(l) the name of the manager or agent of the warehouse.

(2) The face of the warehouse receipt may also provide for other statements, such as:

(a) the scale weight ticket numbers or the assembly sheet number;

(b) the grade; and

(c) the protein certificate used.

(3) The back of the warehouse receipt may include printed statements, such as:

(a) delivery provisions;

(b) actual-delivery-of-grain provisions;

(c) bailment provisions;

(d) act-of-God provisions;

(e) nonnegotiable provisions; and

(f) endorsements and other statements pertinent to bookkeeping data whenever such statements do not conflict with any state or federal law pertaining to public warehousing or the grading or testing of grain.

(4) A copy of the warehouse receipt issued by the warehouseman must accompany each application for a warehouseman's license.

Section 34. Warehouse receipt — issuance. (1) A warehouse receipt is a receipt issued by a licensed warehouseman on a form containing all the information required by [section 33].

(2) No warehouse receipt may be issued except for an agricultural commodity actually delivered to a warehouse for storage.

(3) All warehousemen are required to issue a warehouse receipt for each lot of agricultural commodity received for storage or make payment for the agricultural commodity.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1242 1983

(4) A warehouse receipt that does not in fact represent an agricultural commodity actually delivered into a warehouse for storage and the origin of which cannot be traced to the actual delivery of the grain represented:

(a) is not legal and is of no value;

(b) has no claim on the agricultural commodity stored in a warehouse; and

(c) has no claim on the warehouseman's bond.

(5) All agricultural commodities in a warehouse belong to the holder of outstanding warehouse receipts except those commodities that are in excess of the total of all outstanding storage obligations. An outstanding warehouse receipt is a warehouse receipt that has not been returned and paid in full on the basis of grade, quality, and quantity by the warehouseman issuing it.

(6) If for convenience the holder of two or more warehouse receipts covering like agricultural commodities wishes to combine them, the new receipt so issued must state the fact that it was issued in lieu of existing receipts. An assembly or recapitulation statement must be made whenever receipts are so combined, and the number or other identification of the statement must be referenced on the new combined receipt. The assembly sheet must be kept on file in the warehouse office. Each canceled receipt must have stamped across its face "Canceled by No. __" (showing the number of the new combination receipt).

(7) A warehouseman who is a grower and conducts such an enterprise may receive his own grain and issue warehouse receipts for agricultural commodities, in the same manner and without discrimination, as though the warehouse and growing enterprises were of separate ownership. However, the warehouseman shall report to the department all warehouse receipts issued to himself as a grower.

(8) When warehouse receipts are prepared on duplicate or triplicate forms, the original copy is the warehouse receipt and must be given to the person storing the agricultural commodity covered by such receipt. The other copies shall have plainly printed across the face the words "duplicate", "triplicate", or "nonnegotiable".

(9) Each warehouse receipt issued must show the amount of cash or value of any merchandise the warehouseman has advanced on the agricultural commodity represented by the receipt, but such notation may not be construed as fixing the date of sale of such grain.

(10) All warehouse receipts must be numbered consecutively as issued by each warehouseman.

Section 35. Penalty for unlawful issue of warehouse receipts. A person violating any of the provisions of [section 34] or a designated employee knowingly permitting any agricultural commodity to be delivered contrary to the provisions of [section 34] is guilty of a misdemeanor and punishable as provided in [section 20].

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1243 1983

Section 36. Partial withdrawal of agricultural commodities — adjustment or substitution of receipt — duties of warehouseman. When partial withdrawal of his agricultural commodity is made by a depositor, the warehouseman shall make an appropriate notation thereof on the depositor's warehouse receipt or claim or shall cancel and replace it with a warehouse receipt showing the amount of the depositor's agricultural commodity remaining in the warehouse. The warehouseman is liable for the redelivery of all agricultural commodities specified on all outstanding warehouse receipts.

Section 37. Shipment of stored grain to a terminal grain warehouse outside the state. (1) Warehouse receipts or signed agreements from the owners of grain, on a form approved by the department and in an amount equal to the number of bushels the warehouseman has in a terminal grain warehouse outside the state, are required for all grain shipped out of state by a warehouseman.

(2) Warehouse receipts covering grain in terminal grain warehouses outside the state must have the words "Owner waives redelivery at point of origin of grain represented by this receipt" printed or stamped on the back.

(3) Waiver or agreements to accept terminal warehouse receipts must be signed in triplicate by the owner of the grain or his agent and by a duly authorized representative of the warehouse, with:

(a) the original to be mailed to the department;

(b) the duplicate copy to be retained by the warehouseman; and

(c) the triplicate copy to be given to the holder of the warehouse receipt.

(4) All grain must be held in bonded and approved terminal warehouses, fully insured for the benefit of the holder of Montana warehouse receipts.

(5) No grain held in terminal warehouses is subject to any lien, mortgage, or encumbrance.

Section 38. Duty to deliver stored agricultural commodities — damages. (1) The duty of the warehouseman to deliver agricultural commodities stored is governed by [sections 22 through 46]. Upon the return of a properly endorsed warehouse receipt to the warehouseman and upon payment or tender of all advances and legal charges, agricultural commodities of the grade and quantity named therein must be delivered to the holder of the warehouse receipt.

(2) A warehouseman's duty to deliver any agricultural commodity is fulfilled if delivery is made pursuant to the contract with the depositor as rapidly as it can be done by ordinary diligence. When delivery is made within 48 hours from date of demand or as agreed upon in writing by all parties concerned, the delivery complies with the provisions of this section. An extension of the delivery period may be granted by the department upon written request.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1244 1983

(3) All redeliveries must be made at the warehouse or station where the agricultural commodity was received unless otherwise agreed.

(4) At the option of the depositor, the warehouseman shall deliver the agricultural commodity at a terminal or, if mutually agreed, shall pay to the depositor the equivalent market value of the agricultural commodity on that date, less any freight and storage charges to the terminal and less other charges which may be allowed by the department.

(5) In addition to other penalties provided, a warehouseman failing to deliver agricultural commodities within the time provided in this section is subject to suit by the person entitled to delivery of the agricultural commodities and may be ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction to pay actual damages or liquidated damages of ½ of 1% of the value for each day's delay.

Section 39. Delivery of grain from different warehouse. (1) Any warehouseman owning or operating more than one warehouse in this state may deliver grain from one warehouse in settlement of warehouse receipts issued for grain stored in another warehouse when grain for storage has been presented at any warehouse in excess of its available storage capacity.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) confers upon the warehouseman a right to make delivery of grain of substantially lower value than that delivered for storage, though of the same technical grade, in settlement of warehouse receipts.

(3) The warehouseman shall at all times keep on hand in bonded warehouses grain of sufficient quality and quantity to settle all outstanding warehouse receipts.

(4) Freight and other charges must be determined at the point of receipt.

Section 40. Loss of receipts — conditions of reissue. While an original warehouse receipt is outstanding and uncanceled by the issuing warehouseman, no other or further receipt may be issued for the agricultural commodity or any part of it covered thereby. However, if a warehouse receipt is lost or destroyed, a new receipt may be issued upon giving satisfactory security in compliance with rules adopted by the department. The new receipt must contain the same terms and conditions and must bear on its face the number and date of the receipt in lieu of which it is issued.

Section 41. Cancellation of insurance — suspension of license. Upon cancellation of any policy of insurance required by [sections 23 and 27], the insurance company involved shall give 30 days' advance notice to the department by certified mail, return receipt requested, of cancellation of the policy. If the policy is canceled, the department shall immediately suspend the license of such uninsured warehouseman without a hearing, pursuant to the Montana Administrative Procedure Act. The suspension may not be removed until satisfactory evidence of the existence of an effective policy of insurance complying with the requirements of [sections

23 and 27] has been submitted to the department or until further order by the department or a court of competent jurisdiction.

Section 42. Date of termination of storage contracts evidenced by warehouse receipts. All storage contracts on grain in store in warehouses, as evidenced by a warehouse receipt, must terminate on the last day of the license period as prescribed by rule.

Section 43. Termination of storage contract — sale of agricultural commodities for charges — notice required. (1) Storage of agricultural commodities may be terminated by the depositor at any time by the payment or tender of all legal charges and the surrender of the warehouse receipt, together with a demand for delivery of the agricultural commodities or a notice to the warehouseman to sell the commodities.

(2) In the absence of a demand for delivery, order to sell, or mutual agreement for the renewal of the storage contract entered into prior to the expiration of the storage contract, the warehouseman shall, upon the expiration of the storage contract, sell so much of the stored agricultural commodities at the local market price at the close of business on that day as is sufficient to pay the accrued storage charges. He shall then issue new warehouse receipts for the balance of the agricultural commodity to the depositor upon the depositor's surrender of the original warehouse receipts. The warehouseman shall notify all warehouse receipt holders of the provisions of this section 30 days prior to the end of the storage period.

Section 44. Examination of stored agricultural commodities. A department inspector may examine at any reasonable time during ordinary business hours any stored agricultural commodity and all parts of any warehouse, provided the warehouse or the agricultural commodities stored therein are not endangered by such inspections. Every warehouseman or his agent shall furnish safe and reasonable access to facilities for such examination.

Section 45. Warehouse shortage — remedies. (1) Whenever it appears, after an investigation, that a warehouseman does not have in his possession sufficient agricultural commodities to cover the outstanding warehouse receipts, scale weight tickets, or other evidence of storage liability issued or assumed by him or when a warehouseman refuses to submit his books, papers, or property to lawful inspection, the department may give notice to the warehouseman to comply with the following requirements:

(a) to cover such shortage;

(b) to give an additional bond as requested by the department; or

(c) to submit to such inspection as the department considers necessary.

(2) If the warehouseman fails to comply with the terms of such notice within 24 hours from the date of issuance of the notice or within such further time as the department may allow, the department may petition the district court in the county where the licensee's principal place of business is located, as shown by the license application, for an order:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1246 1983

(a) authorizing the department to seize and take possession of any or all agricultural commodities in the warehouse or warehouses owned, operated, or controlled by the warehouseman and of all books, papers, and property of all kinds used in connection with the conduct or the operation of the warehouse business and any materials that pertain in any way to that business; and

(b) enjoining the warehouseman from interfering with the department in the discharge of its duties as required by [sections 22 through 46].

(3) Upon taking possession, the department shall give written notice of its action to the surety on the bond of the warehouseman and may notify the holders of record, as shown by the warehouseman's record, of all warehouse receipts or scale weight tickets issued for agricultural commodities to present their warehouse receipts or other evidence of deposits for inspection or to account for the same. The department may thereupon cause an audit to be made of the affairs of the warehouse, including but not limited to the agricultural commodities of which there is an apparent shortage, to determine the amount of shortage and, if possible, to compute the shortage as to each depositor as shown by the warehouseman's records. The department shall notify the warehouseman and the surety on his bond of the amount of the shortage and notify each affected depositor by sending notices to the depositor's last-known address as shown by the records of the warehouseman.

(4) The department shall retain possession of the agricultural commodities in the warehouse or warehouses and the books, papers, and property of the warehouseman until such time as:

(a) the warehouseman or the surety on the bond has satisfied the claims of all holders of warehouse receipts or other evidence of deposits;

(b) the surety on the bond has satisfied all such claims pro rata, if the shortage exceeds the amount of the bond; or

(c) the department is ordered by the court to surrender possession.

(5) If during or after the audit provided for in this section or at any other time the department has evidence that the warehouseman is insolvent or is unable to satisfy the claims of all holders of warehouse receipts or other evidence of deposits, the department may petition the district court for the appointment of the department to operate or liquidate the business of the warehouse.

(6) At any time within 10 days after the department takes possession of any agricultural commodities or the books, papers, or property of any warehouse, the warehouseman may serve notice on the department to appear in the district court of the county in which the warehouse is located, at a time to be fixed by the court, and show cause why the agricultural commodities, books, papers, and other property should not be restored to his possession.

(7) All necessary expenses incurred by the department in carrying out the provisions of this section may be recovered in a separate civil action brought by the department in district court or recovered at the same time and as part of the seizure action filed under subsection (2)(a).

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1247 1983

(8) As a part of the expenses so incurred, the department is authorized to include the cost of adequate liability insurance necessary to protect the department, its officers, and others engaged in carrying out this section.

(9) The department shall set by rule the time limits for:

(a) notification of its action on the surety bond of a warehouseman;

(b) the holders of warehouse receipts or scale weight tickets to provide to the department such evidence of deposit; and

(c) satisfaction of the claims of all holders of warehouse receipts or other evidence of deposits.

Section 46. Inspection by the department. (1) The department may investigate any warehouseman who has applied for or who had previously been issued a license and may inspect his warehouse for purposes of determining compliance with [sections 22 through 46] and rules of the department.

(2) The department may investigate any warehouseman or inspect any warehouse that it has reasonable cause to believe is operating in violation of [sections 22 through 46] and rules of the department.

Section 47. Commodity dealer license requirements — financial responsibility. (1) A person may not engage in the business of a commodity dealer in this state without first having obtained a license issued by the department.

(2) An application for a license to engage in business as a commodity dealer must be filed with the department and must be on a form prescribed by the department.

(3) A license application must include the following:

(a) the name of the applicant;

(b) the names of the officers and directors if the applicant is a corporation;

(c) the names of the partners if the applicant is a partnership;

(d) the location of the principal places of business;

(e) a sufficient and valid bond as specified in [section 50];

(f) the number and description of trucks or tractor-trailer units owned or leased by the applicant that will be used in the transportation of agricultural commodities purchased pursuant to the provisions of [sections 47 through 54];

(g) a complete financial statement prepared by a licensed accountant according to generally accepted accounting principles, setting forth the applicant's assets, liabilities, and net worth. The commodity dealer shall have and maintain current assets equal to or greater than current liabilities. Assets must be shown at original cost less depreciation. Upon written request filed with the department, the director may allow asset valuations in accordance with a competent appraisal.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1248 1983

(h) any other reasonable information the department finds necessary to carry out the provisions and purpose of [sections 47 through 54].

(4) In order to receive and retain a commodity dealer's license, a commodity dealer shall have and maintain net assets of at least $50,000 or maintain a bond in the amount of $2,000 for each $1,000 or fraction thereof of net assets deficiency. However, a minimum of $10,000 net assets is required by a commodity dealer to qualify for a license. A bond submitted for purposes of this subsection is in addition to any bond otherwise required under [sections 47 through 50].

(5) The department shall adopt rules relating to the form and time of filing of financial statements. The department may require additional information or verification regarding the financial resources of the applicant and the applicant's ability to pay producers for agricultural commodities purchased from them.

Section 48. License fees. (1) The department shall collect an annual fee for each commodity dealer license according to the following schedule:

Hundredweight (Previous license year cwt volume or estimated yearly cwt)	Rate (per facility)
0 to 25,000	$ 25
25,001 to 50,000	50
50,001 to 125,000	75
125,001 to 250,000	100
250,001 to 375,000	125
over 375,000	150

(2) Each applicant shall also pay a fee of $25 for each truck operated by it in the operation of his business as a commodity dealer.

(3) All fees collected under this section must be placed in the general fund.

Section 49. License issuance — renewal — expiration. (1) The department shall issue a license when the applicant has filed the application and complied with the terms and conditions of [sections 47 through 50] and the rules of the department.

(2) A commodity dealer's license may be renewed annually by submitting all required licensing documents.

(3) A commodity dealer's license that has expired may be reinstated by the department upon receipt of all licensing documents required and a penalty fee in the amount of $50 if the document is filed within 30 days from the date of expiration of the commodity dealer's license. At no time during the 30-day period or thereafter may the person act as a commodity dealer. All license applications received after the 30-day penalty period must be considered original applications.

(4) A commodity dealer's license is not transferable.

(5) Any partnership with a partner or any corporation that has an officer, director, or majority stockholder owning at least 10% of issued stock who has had a license revoked under [sections 47 through 50] or the United States Warehouse Act is subject to the provisions of [section 12].

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1249 1983

Section 50. Bonding requirement amounts — cancellation. (1) An applicant for a license to operate as a commodity dealer shall, before a license may be issued, file with the department a surety bond payable to the state. The aggregate annual liability of the surety may not exceed the sum of the bond. A continuous bond shall obligate a new penal sum with the commencement of each licensing year.

(2) Unless set by department rule, the bond for a commodity dealer may not exceed 2% of the value of the agricultural commodities purchased by the commodity dealer from the producer or warehouseman during the previous 12-month period. The bond for all new applicants is 2% of the estimated value of all agricultural commodities to be purchased during the coming 12-month period. The department may by rule require a greater percentage in each instance. The minimum amount of bond required by any commodity dealer is $20,000, and the maximum is prescribed in [section 5].

(3) A surety shall notify the commodity dealer and the department by certified mail at least 30 days prior to the cancellation of the bond. The liability of the surety covers purchases made by the commodity dealer during the time the bond is in force. A commodity dealer's bond filed with the department is continuous until canceled by the surety upon 30 days' notice.

Section 51. Posting of license. The commodity dealer's license must be posted in a conspicuous location at his place of business. A duplicate commodity dealer's license must be posted at each location at which records are maintained for transactions of the commodity dealer and also within each truck operated by him in the state.

Section 52. Inspection of premises, books, and records. The department may at any reasonable time inspect the premises and records of any commodity dealer used in the conduct of his business. A commodity dealer shall, upon request of the director, furnish to the department at any reasonable time and place all books, accounts, records, and papers relating to agricultural commodity transactions within the state. If there exists good cause to believe that a person is doing business as a commodity dealer without a license, the department may inspect the books, papers, and records of the person that pertain to agricultural commodity purchases.

Section 53. Insufficient checks — prohibition. No person engaged in business as a commodity dealer may draw or deliver any check, draft, or order for payment of money upon any bank for the purchase of agricultural commodities when at the time of drawing or delivery the maker or drawer does not have sufficient funds or has failed to arrange for credit with the bank or depository for payment in full upon presentation of the check, draft, or order for payment of money. The word "credit" as used in this section means an arrangement or understanding with the bank or depository for payment of the check, draft, or order.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1250 1983

Section 54. Payment of purchase price — definitions. (1) A person required to be licensed as a commodity dealer shall pay 90% of the purchase price to the owner or his agent for agricultural commodities upon delivery and demand by the owner or agent and the remaining 10% not later than 30 days after delivery by the owner or agent unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the parties.

(2) As used in this section, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Delivery" means the transfer by the seller of title to and possession of agricultural commodities to the commodity dealer or to another person in accordance with the agreement between the seller and the commodity dealer.

(b) "Payment" means the actual payment or tender of payment of the agreed purchase price by the commodity dealer to the seller.

Section 55. Official grain inspectors, samplers, and weighers — designation of seasonal inspection points — assignment of inspectors. (1) The department shall provide inspectors, samplers, and weighers to enforce [sections 55 through 71]. At all inspection points designated by the department, the department shall provide sufficient official grain inspectors, samplers, and weighers to inspect and weigh all grain subject to state inspection.

(2) The department may, during the grain-marketing season, appoint inspectors to visit the grain-growing districts to investigate the grading, dockage, and weighing of grain and to enforce the rules of the department.

(3) Expenditures for the inspection and weighing at the points designated by the department may not exceed total fee receipts at those points.

Section 56. Qualifications of official grain inspectors, samplers, and weighers. Official grain inspectors, samplers, and weighers must be qualified in accordance with the Grain Standards Act. Official grain inspectors, samplers, and weighers may not be directly or indirectly interested in the handling, sorting, shipping, purchasing, or selling of grain or grain commodities.

Section 57. Penalty for misconduct. (1) Any official grain inspector, sampler, or weigher guilty of neglect of duty or who knowingly or carelessly inspects, samples, or weighs grain improperly or who directly or indirectly accepts any money or other consideration for neglect of duty or improper performance of duty is guilty of official misconduct and is punishable as provided in 45-7-401.

(2) Any person who improperly influences or attempts to improperly influence any official grain inspector, sampler, or weigher in the performance of his duties is guilty of bribery and is punishable as provided in 45-7-101.

(3) Upon conviction of an offense described in subsection (1), an officer must be removed by the department pursuant to procedures established by department rule.

Section 58. Establishment of standard grain grades. (1) The department shall by rule establish standard grades to apply to all grain bought or handled by warehouses in this state. The department shall adopt as state grade standards all grades for grain established by the United States department of agriculture.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1251 1983

(2) Grain standards adopted by the department do not apply to grain contracted for before the effective date of the adoption of such standards.

Section 59. Rules governing dockage — sample inspection. The department shall adopt rules governing the dockage on inferior grades, which shall apply in all executory contracts entered into after their adoption. If the price or amount to be paid depends on terminal weight or grade, the rules shall control the dockage insofar as dockage affects the price to be paid. The department shall also provide for sample inspection of grain, adopt rules governing sample inspection, and provide that the sample inspection, when made, is final.

Section 60. Special inspection of grain. (1) If grain is sold based on Montana grade and is to be shipped from places not provided with state inspection, the buyer, seller, or person making the delivery may have it inspected by notifying an inspector, who shall have the grain inspected. After inspection, the inspector shall issue, on request of the buyer, seller, or person delivering the grain, an inspector's certificate showing the grade of the grain. The person calling for the inspection shall pay a reasonable fee fixed by department rule.

(2) Grain that is shipped to points in this state where no inspection is maintained may be inspected on request of either the buyer or seller, and a certificate may be issued showing the grade of the grain. The charge for the service shall at least equal the entire cost of providing it and shall be paid by the party calling for the inspection.

Section 61. Sampling grain. Samples may be drawn from all grain shipped to warehouses and from all grain inspected or weighed. The samples are the property of the state, subject to disposition by the department under rules adopted by the department.

Section 62. Examination of grain cars at destination. (1) An official grain inspector, sampler, or weigher, before opening the doors of a car containing grain upon its arrival at any of the places designated by the department for inspection, shall first ascertain the condition of the car and determine whether any leakages have occurred while the car was in transit, determine whether the doors were properly secured and sealed at the point of shipment, and make a record of those facts in all cases, giving seal numbers.

(2) After examinations have been made, the official grain inspector, sampler, or weigher shall securely close and reseal the opened doors, using the special seal of the department.

(3) A record must be kept by the official grain inspectors, samplers, or weighers of all original seals broken, the number of seals, and the date when broken. An official grain inspector, sampler, or weigher shall break the seal, weigh, and superintend the loading of all cars of grain subject to inspection. Any other person who breaks the seal or officially weighs the cars of grain is guilty of a misdemeanor.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1252 1983

Section 63. Protein testing laboratory. (1) The department shall maintain an official protein testing laboratory so designated by the Grain Standards Act.

(2) No other laboratory may officially certify the grade or protein content of grain unless the laboratory is licensed by the department under rules adopted by the department.

(3) The department shall by rule determine the standards of analysis controlling all other official protein testing laboratories in this state.

(4) The department may by rule determine the form of protein certificates issued by it.

Section 64. Protein test available on all grain delivered to grain warehouses — manner of making test — procedure — fee — penalty. (1) Each warehouseman shall take samples from each load of grain delivered to his warehouse and preserve the sample in a moistureproof container with the owner's name on it. A 1-pint portion of the composite sample may be submitted to the department, and the balance must be held in the owner's container.

(2) If either the warehouseman or owner is dissatisfied with the results of the protein tests, he may appeal to the department. In case of an appeal, a 1-pint portion of the remainder of the owner's sample must be submitted to the department with a statement of facts of the appeal. A final test, in duplicate, must be made by the department. The department's certificate of the test is final and binding upon both parties in establishing the basis of the price paid by the warehouseman.

(3) A fee established by the department commensurate with the cost of each protein test must be deducted and paid at the time of final settlement.

(4) Upon written request of the owner, an official protein test must be made.

(5) Each warehouseman shall post in a conspicuous place a placard indicating that producers may request, in writing, an official grade and protein certificate. The department shall issue the placard.

(6) A person violating this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Section 65. Fees for inspection, testing, and weighing grain — disposition — investment. (1) The department shall by rule fix the fees for inspection, testing, and weighing of grain.

(2) Those fees or proceeds are a lien upon the grain until paid.

(3) All fees and other charges fixed by rule, including fees for the inspection, grading, weighing, and protein testing of grain, shall reflect as nearly as possible the actual cost of the services.

(4) All those fees and charges must be paid to the department and deposited with the state treasurer. The state treasurer shall place all money in the earmarked revenue fund. Fees deposited in the earmarked revenue fund may be used to pay approved claims for expenses incurred in inspecting, grading, weighing, and protein testing of grain.

(5) The department may direct the board of investments to invest funds from the earmarked revenue fund pursuant to the provisions of the unified investment program for state funds. The income from such investments must be credited to the proper department account in the earmarked revenue fund.

Section 66. Records of inspection. (1) The official grain inspectors, samplers, and weighers have exclusive control at places provided for state inspection of the weighing and grading of grain to be inspected. Suitable books and records must be kept in which must be entered an accurate record of every carload or truckload of grain inspected or weighed by them. The records must show for each car or truck:

(a) the number or other designation of the car or truck;

(b) the net weight of the grain;

(c) the kind of grain and its grade and, if graded below standard No. 1 grade, the reason for such grade.

(2) For each carload or truckload of grain, the official grain inspector shall give a certificate of inspection, showing the kind and grade of the grain, the reason for all grades below No. 1, and the amount to be allowed for dockage, if any. For each carload or truckload weighed, the weigher shall give a weight certificate showing the true weight thereof and containing a statement on the condition of the car or truck and evidences of leakage or damage, if any.

(3) The inspection and weight certificates must be made available to the warehouse loading or unloading the grain, the shipper or his agent, and the railroad company or other carrier by which the grain was shipped or carried.

(4) Official grain inspectors and weighers shall also keep an accurate record of all appeals and decisions and a complete record of every official act, which books and records must be open to inspection by any party of interest.

Section 67. Appeals to department — hearing and order. (1) If an owner, consignee, shipper of grain, or warehouseman disagrees with the grade given by the department, he may appeal to the department from the decision within 5 days from the date of certificate by giving notice of appeal. A fee must be charged if the appeal supports the original grade. The notice of appeal may be given by letter stating that the party appeals from the decision of the official grain inspector and specifying the initials and numbers of the cars in which the grain was contained when inspected and graded.

(2) The appellant shall also file with the department a list containing the name and address of each party interested in the subject matter. The department, upon receiving the notice and list of interested parties, shall immediately notify the interested parties of the time and place designated by it for a hearing under the Montana Administrative Procedure Act. At the hearing, which must be 5 days from the date of receiving the notice, the department shall inquire into the reasonableness and correctness of the original grading. After the hearing, the department shall affirm or modify the grade as justified by the facts and evidence.

Section 68. Coloration of grain treated with injurious or toxic substances. Any grain treated with any injurious or toxic substance or chemical must at the same time be colored or dyed a color contrasting with the natural color of the grain so that the treated grain is readily identifiable as having been treated with an injurious or toxic substance or chemical.

Section 69. Sale or offering for sale of treated product prohibited. No person may sell or offer for sale grain that has been treated with any injurious or toxic substance or chemical unless the grain has been colored or dyed a color contrasting with the natural color of the grain. [Section 68] and this section do not apply to the treatment of grain solely for the killing of insects which might be present therein. A person violating this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Section 70. Copies of grades and rules to be furnished and displayed by warehousemen. (1) The department shall, immediately after the adoption of rules establishing grades fixing dockage, supply all warehousemen with a copy of the grades and rules. A warehouseman shall keep a copy on file in a convenient place in each warehouse. If an office is maintained in connection with the warehouse, a copy of the grades and rules shall be kept on file in the office. A placard notice must be posted in a conspicuous place in every warehouse and office, reading "A copy of Montana grades and rules is on file here for information of interested parties".

(2) A warehouseman shall exhibit a copy of the grades and rules to any interested party at any warehouse or office and permit the interested party to examine the copy.

Section 71. Dispute as to grade or dockage — laboratory test to be made. If a disagreement arises between the party receiving and the party delivering the grain at any warehouse in this state as to the proper grade or dockage of grain in accordance with standards at terminal points, an agreed average sample of at least 1 quart of the grain in dispute may be taken by the interested parties and forwarded to the department in a suitable container, marked for identification by the interested parties, mail or express charges prepaid, with the names and addresses of the parties affixed thereto. The department shall examine the grain and determine the appropriate grade and dockage under the inspection rules. The findings of the inspection are binding upon both parties, subject to appeal as provided in [section 67]. If the grain in question is damp, musty, or otherwise out of condition, this fact, with any other necessary information, must accompany the sample.

Section 72. Section 80-5-201, MCA, is amended to read:

"80-5-201. Definitions. When used in this part, the following definitions apply:

(1) All seed processing plants and seed labelers shall obtain a license from the department before doing business in this state; however, a Montana certified seed grower, when processing or labeling certified seed from his own production, is not required to be licensed under this section. Bin-run seed sales from one farmer to another are exempt from this part.

(2) All licenses are issued on a fiscal-year basis and expire on June 30 of each year.

(3) Application for license is made in a manner and on forms provided by the department. A nonresident shall file a written power of attorney designating the secretary of state as his agent, and the power of attorney shall be so prepared and in such form as to render effective the jurisdiction of the courts of the state of Montana over the nonresident applicant. (6) Failure on the part of a licensee to comply with the rules issued under the authority of this section is sufficient cause for cancellation of a license by the department, provided the licensee is given a reasonable opportunity to correct inadvertent and nonrecurring deficiencies."

Section 74. Section 80-5-203, MCA, is amended to read:

"80-5-203. Dealer's license — exception — fee — application — violation. (1) No person may distribute seed without obtaining a dealer's license from the department for each place of business. No license is required of a person who distributes seeds only in sealed packages of less than 10 pounds, packed by a licensed seed labeler and bearing his name and address. Each dealer's license shall cost no more than $20 a year and expires on June 30 of each year. The department may by rule establish license fees which bear a reasonable relationship to the cost of administering this part. Any licensed processing plant or seed labeler may obtain a dealer's license without additional fee.

(2) Application for a dealer's license shall be made in a manner and on forms provided by the department. Such forms shall require among other things the name of a person domiciled in this state authorized to receive and accept service or legal notices of all kinds.

"49-3-101. Definitions. As used in this chapter, the following definitions apply:

(2) conducting investigations of complaints;

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1258 1983

(3) petitioning for a declaratory ruling, as provided in [section 4]; and

(4) conduct of hearings.

Section 3. Retaliation prohibited. It is an unlawful discriminatory practice for a state or local governmental agency to discharge, expel, blacklist, or otherwise discriminate against an individual because he has opposed any practices forbidden under this chapter or because he has filed a complaint, testified, assisted, or participated in any manner in an investigation or proceeding under this chapter.

Section 4. Procedure for claiming exemption. A state or local governmental agency seeking to apply any exemption from the requirements of this chapter may petition the commission for a declaratory ruling as provided in 2-4-501 of the Montana Administrative Procedure Act. If the commission finds that reasonable grounds for applying an exemption exist, it may issue a ruling exempting the petitioner from the particular provision. The burden is on the petitioner to demonstrate that an exemption should be applied. Any provision in this chapter allowing an exemption from its requirements must be strictly construed.

Section 5. Filing complaints. A complaint under this chapter must be filed with the commission within 180 days after the alleged unlawful discriminatory practice occurred or was discovered. A complaint not filed within that time may not be considered by the commission.

Section 6. Form of complaint. A complaint filed with the commission must be in the form of a written, verified complaint, stating the name and address of the state or local governmental agency alleged to have engaged in the discriminatory practice and the particulars of the alleged discriminatory practice.

Section 7. Temporary relief by court order. (1) At any time after a complaint is filed with the commission under this chapter alleging an unlawful discriminatory practice, the commission may file a petition in the district court in the county in which the subject of the complaint occurred or in the county in which a respondent resides or transacts business, seeking appropriate temporary relief against this practice, including an order restraining the respondent from interfering in any manner with an order the commission may enter with respect to the complaint.

(2) The court has the power to grant the temporary relief or restraining order it considers just and proper. However, no relief or order extending beyond 14 days may be granted except by consent of the respondent or upon a finding by the court that there is reasonable cause to believe that the respondent has engaged in discriminatory practices.

Section 8. Informal settlement. The commission staff shall promptly and impartially investigate the matters set out in a complaint filed with the commission. If the staff determines that the allegations are supported by substantial evidence, it shall immediately try to eliminate the discriminatory practice by informal conference, conciliation, and persuasion.

Section 9. Contested case hearing before commission. (1) If the informal efforts to eliminate the discrimination alleged in a complaint filed with the commission are unsuccessful, the staff shall inform the commission of the failure and the commission shall serve written notice, together with a copy of the complaint, requiring the state or local governmental agency charged in the complaint to answer the allegations of the complaint at a hearing before the commission.

(2) The commission hearing must be held in the county where the unlawful conduct is alleged to have occurred unless the state or local governmental agency charged in the complaint or the commission requests a change of venue for good cause shown. The case in support of the complaint may be presented before the commission by the commission staff, the complainant, or an attorney representing the complainant. The hearing and any subsequent proceedings under this chapter must be held in accordance with the Montana Administrative Procedure Act, except as provided in [section 12].

(3) The commission may make provisions for defraying the expenses of an indigent party in a contested case hearing held pursuant to this chapter.

(4) The prevailing party in a hearing under this section may bring an action in district court for attorney fees. The court in its discretion may award the prevailing party reasonable attorney fees. Such action must comply with the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure.

Section 10. Procedure upon a finding of discrimination by commission. (1) If the commission finds that a state or local governmental agency against which a complaint was filed has engaged in the discriminatory practice alleged in the complaint, the commission shall order it to refrain from engaging in the discriminatory practice. The order may:

(a) prescribe conditions for the governmental agency's future conduct relevant to the type of discriminatory practice found;

(b) require any reasonable measure to correct the discriminatory practice and to rectify any harm, pecuniary or otherwise, to the person discriminated against; and

(c) require a report on the manner of compliance.

(2) The order may not require the payment of punitive damages.

(3) If a commission order or conciliation agreement requires inspection by the commission staff for a period of time to determine if the respondent is complying with the order or agreement, the period of time may not exceed 3 years.

Section 11. Procedure upon failure by commission to find discrimination. If the commission finds that a state or local governmental agency against which a complaint was filed has not engaged in the discriminatory practice alleged in the complaint, it shall issue and serve on the complainant an order dismissing the complaint.

Section 12. Injunction to enforce commission order. If the commission's order is not obeyed, the commission staff shall petition the district court in the county where the discriminatory practice occurred or in which the respondent resides or transacts business to enforce the commission's order by injunction.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1260 1983

Section 13. Filing a complaint in district court. (1) The commission staff shall, at the request of either party, issue a letter entitling the complainant to file a discrimination action in district court if:

(a) the commission has not yet held a contested case hearing pursuant to [section 9] and has determined that it will be unable to hold a contested case hearing within 12 months of the date the complaint was filed under [section 5]; and

(b) 180 days have elapsed since the complaint was filed and the efforts of the commission staff to settle the complaint after informal investigation pursuant to [section 8] are unsuccessful.

(2) Within 90 days after receipt of a letter issued by the commission pursuant to subsection (1), the complainant shall petition the district court in the district in which the alleged violation occurred for appropriate relief. If the claimant fails to petition the district court within 90 days after receipt of a letter issued by the commission, the complaint shall be barred.

(3) If the district court finds, in an action under this section, that a state or local governmental agency against whom or which a complaint was filed has engaged in the unlawful discriminatory practice alleged in the complaint, the court may provide the same relief as described in [section 10] for a commission order. In addition, the court may in its discretion allow the prevailing party reasonable attorney fees.

Section 14. Repealer. Section 49-3-303, MCA, is repealed.

Section 15. Codification instruction. Sections 2 through 13 are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 49, chapter 3, and the provisions of Title 49, chapter 3, apply to sections 2 through 13.

Section 16. Effective date. This act is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 15, 1983.

CHAPTER NO. 541

AN ACT CREATING A 10-YEAR HIGHWAY RECONSTRUCTION TRUST FUND ACCOUNT; ALLOCATING PORTIONS OF THE COAL SEVERANCE, GASOLINE LICENSE, AND SPECIAL FUELS TAXES TO THE ACCOUNT; ALLOCATING TO THE ACCOUNT ALL FUNDS RECEIVED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF HIGHWAYS PURSUANT TO SECTION 17-3-201, MCA; DIRECTING THE DEPARTMENT OF HIGHWAYS TO DEVELOP A PROGRAM FOR THE RECONSTRUCTION AND PRESERVATION OF HIGHWAYS BASED ON NEED; CHANGING THE PERCENTAGE ALLOCATION OF COAL SEVERANCE TAX PROCEEDS; AMENDING SECTIONS 15-35-108 AND 17-3-201, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE AND A TERMINATION DATE.

WHEREAS, the highways on the primary and secondary systems of Montana are deteriorating more quickly than existing program and funding levels permit their construction and reconstruction at safe and acceptable standards, and part of this deterioration results from the impact of mineral development; and

WHEREAS, a safe and reliable highway system is essential to the free and efficient movement of people and goods throughout the state and to an effective state transportation system; and

WHEREAS, reconstruction, repair, and pavement preservation on Montana's federal-aid highway system will cost less now than in the future, and implementation of these essential activities requires a 10-year reconstruction and pavement preservation program to be financed by funds allocated to a highway reconstruction trust fund account.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Highway reconstruction trust account. (1) There is a highway reconstruction trust account created in the earmarked revenue fund.

(2) The highway reconstruction trust fund account consists of the following allocations:

(a) from the taxes collected pursuant to 15-35-103 for each fiscal year beginning on or after July 1, 1986, and ending on or before June 30, 1993, the amounts allocated to the account pursuant to 15-35-108;

(b) for each fiscal year beginning on or after July 1, 1983, and ending on or before June 30, 1993, all money received from the state treasurer pursuant to 17-3-201; and

(c) from the taxes collected pursuant to 15-70-204 and 15-70-321, for each fiscal year beginning on or after July 1, 1983, and ending on or before June 30, 1993, an amount that, when added to the amount received pursuant to subsections (2)(a) and (2)(b), will equal appropriated expenditures.

Section 2. Expenditures. The department shall expend the money of the highway reconstruction trust fund account on the federal-aid interstate, primary, and secondary highway systems. If needed, these funds may be apportioned to the various federal-aid systems to match the federal-aid funds available for obligation.

Section 3. Reconstruction trust program. (1) Subject to [section 2], the department shall administer a program to initiate, plan, design, and carry out reconstruction projects on the primary and secondary systems to straighten, widen, repair, or preserve existing pavement or make major improvements to existing highways. Funds expended under [section 2] may be used for pavement preservation projects on the interstate and primary systems but may not be used for routine repairs. The department shall expend these funds throughout the state according to need, without regard to 60-3-203. Priority must be given to those projects necessitated in whole or in part by the impact of mineral development.

(2) In order to accommodate changes in the financial district structure and implementation of the reconstruction program, the department may suspend the 25% overrun limitation on the allocation of federal-aid primary funds for fiscal years 1984 and 1985.

Section 4. Section 17-3-201, MCA, is amended to read:

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1262 1983

"17-3-201. Deposit of gas and oil royalties from federal government in highway account. For each fiscal year beginning on or after July 1, 1983, and ending on or before June 30, 1993, the state treasurer shall pay 37 ½% of the moneys received from the treasurer of the United States as the state's share of gas, oil, and other mineral royalties under the federal Mineral Lands Leasing Act, as amended, to the highway reconstruction trust fund account in the earmarked revenue fund."

Section 5. Section 15-35-108, MCA, is amended to read:

"15-35-108. Disposal of severance taxes. Severance taxes collected under the provisions of this chapter are allocated as follows:

(1) To the trust fund created by Article IX, section 5, of the Montana constitution, 25% of total collections a year. After December 31, 1979, 50% of coal severance tax collections are allocated to this trust fund. The trust fund moneys shall be deposited in the fund established under 17-6-203(5) and invested by the board of investments as provided by law.

(2) Starting July 1, 1986, and ending June 30, 1987, 6% of coal severance tax collections are allocated to the highway reconstruction trust fund account in the earmarked revenue fund. Starting July 1, 1987, and ending June 30, 1993, 12% of coal severance tax collections are allocated to the highway reconstruction trust fund account in the earmarked revenue fund.

(3) Coal severance tax collections remaining after the allocations provided by subsections (1) and (2) are allocated in the following percentages of the remaining balance:

(a) to the county in which coal is mined, 2% of the severance tax paid on the coal mined in that county until January 1, 1980, for such purposes as the governing body of the county may determine;

(b) 2 ½% until December 31, 1979, and thereafter 4 ½% to the earmarked revenue fund to the credit of the alternative energy research development and demonstration account;

(c) 26 ½% until July 1, 1979, and thereafter 37 ½% to the earmarked revenue fund to the credit of the local impact and education trust fund account;

(d) for each of the 2 fiscal years following June 30, 1977, 13% to the earmarked revenue fund to the credit of the coal area highway improvement account;

(e) 10% to the earmarked revenue fund for state equalization aid to public schools of the state; in the state capitol, and other cultural and aesthetic projects. Income from this trust fund shall be appropriated as follows:

(i) ⅓ for protection of works of art in the state capitol and other cultural and aesthetic projects; and

(ii) ⅔ for the acquisition of sites and areas described in 23-1-102 and the operation and maintenance of sites so acquired;

(i) 1% to the earmarked revenue fund to the credit of the state library commission for the purposes of providing basic library services for the residents of all counties through library federations and for payment of the costs of participating in regional and national networking;

Section 2. Purpose. The state of Montana, in recognition of its responsibility to create a more humane environment of distinction, enjoyment, and pride for all its citizens and in recognition that public art is a resource that stimulates the vitality and economy of the state's communities and provides opportunity for artists and other skilled workers to practice their crafts, declares that a portion of the funds for the construction or renovation of appropriate state buildings be allocated for the acquisition of works of art for such buildings.

Section 3. Definitions. As used in [this act], the following definitions apply:

(1) "Artist" means a practitioner in the visual arts generally recognized by his peers or critics as a professional who produces works of art. CHAPTER NO. 554

AN ACT PROMOTING THE AVAILABILITY AND INVESTMENT OF DEVELOPMENT CAPITAL IN MONTANA THROUGH THE CREATION OF CAPITAL COMPANIES; PROVIDING TAX CREDITS FOR INVESTMENT IN THE COMPANIES; PROVIDING OVERSIGHT AND AUDITING REQUIREMENTS; PROVIDING THAT OFFERINGS OF THE COMPANIES ARE EXEMPT FROM SECURITIES REGISTRATION; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Short title. [This act] may be cited as the "Montana Capital Company Act".

Section 2. Declaration of policy. (1) The legislature finds and declares that:

(a) economic insecurity due to unemployment is a serious menace to the health, safety, and general welfare of not only the affected people but of the people of the entire state;

(b) involuntary unemployment, with its resulting burden of indigency, falls with crushing force upon unemployed workers and ultimately on the state itself in the form of public assistance and unemployment compensation payments; and

(c) unemployment causes a migration of Montana workers and families seeking jobs and establishing homes elsewhere, which deprives the state of its most valuable resource, its people, and reduces the tax base of local governments, impairing their ability to provide basic services.

(2) (a) The legislature further finds that the best method of combating unemployment and protecting Montana against the loss of its people is by promoting, stimulating, developing, rehabilitating, and revitalizing the business prosperity and economic welfare of the state and its citizens.

(b) To accomplish this goal, the legislature seeks to encourage the formation of venture and equity capital in Montana for use in diversifying, strengthening, and stabilizing the Montana economy by increasing Montana employment and business opportunities while protecting the people's constitutional right to a clean and healthful environment.

(3) The legislature further finds that:

(a) private investment of venture and equity capital in the Montana economy will be encouraged and promoted by making tax credits available to taxpayers investing in Montana capital companies;

(b) demands on state revenues restrict the financial ability of the state to make unlimited tax credits available for investment purposes and require that the state place reasonable limits on the total amount of tax credits to be made available for investment incentive;

(c) establishment of a rational tax credit program which gives priority to investments in capital companies in the order in which they are qualified will encourage prompt private investment in Montana businesses.

Section 3. Purpose. (1) The purpose of [this act] is to promote the development of the human resources and the diversification of the economy of Montana. The venture capital generated by [this act] must be used to encourage and assist the strengthening of the economy through loans, equity investments, and other business transactions for purposes of developing new small business and industry in Montana, rehabilitating existing small business and industry, and stimulating and assisting in the expansion of small business activities that promote and maintain the economic stability of the state by providing maximum opportunities for employment of Montanans and improving the standard of living of the people of Montana.

(2) [This act] is aimed at:

(a) increasing the availability of development capital in order to encourage and assist in the creation, development, and expansion of small businesses based in Montana;

(b) aiding those businesses to which risk and equity financing are not readily or fully available through traditional sources, including those owned and operated by women and minorities;

(c) developing, preserving, diversifying, expanding, and strengthening the agricultural, industrial, and business base of Montana's economy, particularly for those small businesses utilizing the state's technical, managerial, and research resources in domestic and international markets; and

(d) providing the residents of Montana with greater opportunities to invest and participate in the economic development and potential of the state.

Section 5. Certification of Montana capital companies. (1) Every 6 months, commencing January 1, 1984, or 3 months after rules are adopted to implement [this act], whichever occurs first, the department shall certify Montana capital companies. A company seeking to be certified as a Montana capital company must make written application to the department on forms provided by the department. The application must contain the information required by [section 16] and such other information as the department requires. The application and certificate must specify the level of capitalization that the company expects to qualify for the tax credits provided for in [section 6].

(2) The total amount of tax credits authorized for a single qualified company may not exceed $375,000. In the event the capitalization of the company is later increased, the company may apply for authorization of additional tax credits within the foregoing limitation. The total credits authorized for all companies may not exceed a total of $1 million prior to June 30, 1985. The total credits authorized for all companies between July 1, 1985, and June 30, 1987, may not exceed $1 million plus any portion of the $1 million available for authorization before June 30, 1985, that is allocated to qualified companies. The credits shall be allocated to qualified companies in the order that completed applications for designation as qualified capital companies are received by the department, and the department shall certify to each such company its appropriate allocation.

(3) Investors in a qualified Montana capital company are entitled to the tax credits provided for in subsection (4). The credit for investments by a small business corporation electing to be taxed under 15-31-202 or a partnership may be claimed by the small business corporation shareholders or the partners.

(5) The tax credit allowed under subsection (4) is to be credited against the taxpayer's income tax liability for the taxable year in which the investment in a qualified Montana capital company is made. If the amount of the tax credit exceeds the taxpayer's tax liability for the taxable year, the amount of the credit which exceeds the tax liability may be carried back or carried forward in accordance with the provisions of section 46(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended.

(6) The tax credit provided for in this section is available only to those taxpayers who invest in a qualified Montana capital company within 5 years of [the effective date of this act].

Section 7. Unused investments — company penalty. (1) If the amount invested by a taxpayer in a qualified Montana capital company is not used by the company for qualified investments as provided in subsection (2), the taxpayer is not subject to a recapture provision for any tax credit claimed by him but the company is subject to the penalty provided for in subsection (4).

(2) A qualified Montana capital company receiving investments for which a taxpayer has applied and received a tax credit must use its capital base to make qualified investments according to the following schedule:

(a) at least 30% of its capital base within 3 years of the date on which the certified company was designated as a qualified capital company by the department;

(4) A qualified Montana capital company that fails to make qualified investments pursuant to subsection (2) shall pay to the department of revenue a penalty equal to all of the tax credits allowed to the taxpayers investing in that company during that time period, with interest at 1% a month from the date the tax credits were certified as allocated to the qualified Montana capital company. The department of revenue may abate the penalty if the capital company establishes reasonable cause for the failure to make qualified investments pursuant to subsection (2) and that the failure was not due to neglect on the part of the company. The department of revenue shall deposit any amount received under this subsection to the credit of the state general fund.

Section 8. Investment reporting and recordkeeping. (1) Each qualified Montana capital company shall report to the department on a quarterly basis:

(4) Each qualified Montana capital company shall report to the department on a quarterly basis all qualified investments that the company has made. The department shall share the information with the department of revenue, in order that the provisions of [section 7] may be complied with.

Section 9. Restriction on investment. No more than 50% of the equity raised by a Montana capital company under [this act] may be invested in any one Montana business, and no more than 25% of the total funds raised for which tax credits were claimed pursuant to the investment credit provisions of [this act] may be invested in any one Montana business.

Section 10. Conflict of interest. (1) The director of the department, the commissioner of financial institutions, or a bank examiner may not have a monetary interest in or be a borrower from any Montana capital company, either directly or indirectly.

(2) A member of the investment committee of a Montana capital company who has an interest in a venture that comes before the committee for a vote shall disclose such interest and abstain from voting on investment in the venture.

Section 11. Legislative review and oversight. The department shall report on an annual basis to the revenue oversight committee of the legislature concerning Montana capital companies.

Section 12. Examination. (1) At least once a year the bank examiners of the department of commerce shall examine the books and affairs of each Montana capital company. The examination must address the methods of operation and conduct of the business of the Montana capital company to determine if the company is abiding by the purposes of [this act] and that the funds received by the company have been invested within the time limits required for a qualified Montana capital company in [section 7].

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1300 1983

(2) The department of commerce may examine under oath any of the officers, directors, agents, employees, or investors of a Montana capital company regarding the affairs and business of the company. The department of commerce may issue subpoenas and administer oaths. Refusal to obey such a subpoena may at once be reported to the district court of the district in which the company is located, and the court shall enforce obedience to the subpoena in the manner provided by law.

(3) The cost of the annual review must be paid by each Montana capital company in accordance with reasonable fees assessed by the department.

Section 13. Decertification. (1) If the examination conducted pursuant to [section 12] discloses that a Montana capital company is not in compliance with the provisions of [this act], the department of commerce may exercise any of the powers with regard to banks granted in Title 32, chapter 1, part 5, and may seize the assets of the company and liquidate it. In the event of liquidation of the assets, any penalty imposed pursuant to [section 7 of this act] shall be included in the claims to be paid.

(2) If in the discretion of the department of commerce the action allowed under subsection (1) is not required to protect the company's investors, the department of commerce may place the company on notice that it will lose its certification as a Montana capital company within a specified period of time if the company does not come into compliance with the provisions of [this act].

(3) As long as the department acts in good faith, the department and its employees and agents may not be held civilly or criminally liable or liable upon their official bonds for action taken under this section or for any failure to act under it.

Section 14. Application of securities law. In lieu of registration under Title 30, chapter 10, a Montana capital company may file all disclosure documents, along with a consent to service of process, with the state securities commissioner. The commissioner may not charge a fee for such filing or deposit.

CHAPTER NO. 557

THE MONTANA HIGHWAY REVENUE BONDS ACT OF 1983; PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Short title. [This act] may be cited as the "Montana Highway Revenue Bonds Act of 1983".

Section 2. Purpose. The purpose of [this act] is to provide for the financing of the cost of state highway and federal-aid highway projects through the issuance of highway revenue bonds secured by a pledge and appropriation of highway revenue.

Section 3. Definitions. As used in [this act], the following definitions apply:

(1) "Board" means the board of examiners created under 2-15-1007.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1305 1983

(2) "Bonds" means bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness issued pursuant to [this act] as highway revenue bonds.

(3) "Cost", as applied to any highway project, means any cost of construction or acquisition of any part of the highway project, including but not limited to the cost of supervising, inspecting, and constructing the highway project, interest during construction and for up to 6 months thereafter, and all costs and expenses incidental thereto; the costs of locating, surveying, mapping, resurfacing, restoration, and rehabilitation; acquisition of rights-of-way; relocation assistance; elimination of hazards of railroad grade crossings; acquisition of replacement housing sites; and acquisition, rehabilitation, relocation, and construction of replacement housing; and improvements necessary to directly facilitate and control traffic flow, including grade separation of intersections, widening of lanes, channelization of traffic, and traffic control systems.

(4) "Department" means the department of highways provided for in Title 2, chapter 15, part 25.

(5) "Highway projects" means the construction, reconstruction, maintenance, and repair of federal-aid highways and state highways as such terms are defined in 60-1-103.

(6) "Highway revenues" means the revenues specified in Article VIII, section 6, of the Montana constitution as revenues from gross vehicle weight fees and excise and license taxes (except general sales and use taxes, if any) on gasoline, fuel, and other energy sources used to propel vehicles on public highways and any other revenues, taxes, or receipts credited to the highway earmarked revenue fund and the highway trust federal and private revenue account.

(7) "Outstanding bonds" means bonds issued and outstanding at any particular time but does not include bonds owned by the state, bonds that have been refunded, or bonds for the payment of which an irrevocable deposit of cash and United States government securities has been made in an amount sufficient to pay principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, when due.

Section 4. Highway revenue bond sinking account — deposit of bond proceeds. (1) There is in the highway earmarked revenue fund a highway revenue bond sinking account. Subject only to the prior pledge and appropriation made by 17-5-507, the state treasurer must deposit such highway revenues as may be pledged to the payment of particular bonds, to the credit of the highway revenue bond sinking account as required by resolution or indenture.

(2) All proceeds of an issue of bonds must be deposited in a separate account in the highway earmarked revenue fund, except that any premiums and accrued interest received may be deposited in a separate account established for that bond issue by resolution or indenture. No more than the principal and interest on the bonds due in any year may be retained in the separate account for the payment of bonds. The remainder of pledged revenues is available for authorized purposes of the department. Money deposited in such separate accounts until spent for project purposes may be pledged and appropriated for the payment of bonds, which are a first lien and prior charge upon such funds, and such funds may be used for payment of bonds to the extent highway revenues deposited in the highway revenue bond sinking account are not sufficient for such purpose.

(3) Interest and investment earnings on the separate accounts named in subsections (1) and (2) shall be retained in the highway earmarked revenue fund.

(4) Notwithstanding 17-6-202 and except as provided in subsection (3), interest and investment earnings on the highway earmarked revenue fund shall be credited to the general fund until July 1, 1985, and thereafter shall be retained in the highway earmarked revenue fund.

Section 5. Pledge of highway revenues. All or any portion of highway revenues may be pledged to the payment of the principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, on particular issues of state highway revenue bonds, and such pledge is and remains at all times a first lien and prior charge upon such pledged highway revenues credited to the highway revenue bond sinking account, subject to a first lien and charge in favor of certain highway bonds as provided in 17-5-507 and subject to the pledge of particular highway revenues to secure particular issues of highway revenue bonds.

Section 6. Authority to issue highway revenue bonds. The board may issue and sell highway revenue bonds to finance the cost of highway projects, to pay the costs of issuing the bonds, and to provide for reserves, upon recommendation of the department. The state reserves the right to issue additional bonds secured equally and ratably by the pledge and appropriation of the highway revenues or separately secured by a portion of highway revenues subject only to the pledge of particular highway revenues to secure particular bonds.

Section 7. Continuation of taxes — limit on additional highway revenue bonds. The legislature shall provide for the continued assessment, levy, collection, and deposit into the highway earmarked revenue fund of highway revenues in amounts sufficient to pay, when due, the annual debt service charges on all outstanding highway revenue bonds. The board is authorized to include a contractual undertaking for the benefit of bondholders to this effect in the resolution or indenture under which the bonds are issued.

Section 8. Bond anticipation notes — issued when — payment of principal and interest. (1) The board may, pending the issuance of bonds, issue temporary notes in anticipation of the proceeds to be derived from the sale of the bonds, which notes are designated as "bond anticipation notes". The proceeds of the sale of the bond anticipation notes must be used only for the purpose for which the proceeds of the bonds could be used, including costs of issuance. If, prior to the issuance of the bonds, it becomes necessary or desirable to redeem outstanding notes, additional bond anticipation notes may be issued to redeem the outstanding notes. No renewal of any note may be issued after the sale of bonds in anticipation of which the original notes were issued.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1307 1983

(2) Bond anticipation notes or other short-term evidences of indebtedness maturing not more than 3 years after the date of issue may be issued from time to time as the proceeds thereof are needed. Such notes must be authorized by the board and have such terms and provisions as may be provided by resolution of the board; however, each resolution of the board authorizing notes must:

(a) describe the need for the proceeds of the notes to be issued; and

(b) specify the principal amount of the notes or maximum principal amount of the notes which may be outstanding at any one time, the rate or rates of interest or maximum rate of interest or interest rate formula (to be determined in the manner specified in the resolution authorizing the notes) of such notes, and the maturity date or maximum maturity date of the notes.

(3) Subject to the limitations contained in this section and the standards and limitations prescribed in the authorizing resolution, the board in its discretion may provide for the notes described in subsection (2) to be issued and sold, in whole or in part, from time to time, and may delegate to the state treasurer the power to determine the time or times of sale, the manner of sale, the amounts, the maturities, the rate or rates of interest, and such other terms and details of the notes as may be considered appropriate by the board or, if there has been such a delegation, the state treasurer. The board may, in its discretion but subject to the limitations contained in this section, provide in the resolution authorizing the issuance of notes for:

(a) the employment of one or more persons or firms to assist the board in the sale of the notes;

(b) the appointment of one or more banks or trust companies, either inside or outside the state, as depository for safekeeping and as agent for the delivery and payment of the notes;

(c) the refunding of the notes, from time to time, without further action by the board, unless and until the board revokes such authority to refund; and

(d) such other terms and conditions as the board may consider appropriate.

Section 9. Form — principal and interest — fiscal agent — bonds authorized. (1) Each series of bonds may be issued by the board at public or private sale, in such denominations and form, whether payable to bearer or registered as to principal or both principal and interest, with such provisions for the conversion or exchange, bearing interest at such rate or rates or the method of determining such rate or rates, maturing at such times, not more than 40 years from date of issue, subject to redemption at such earlier times and prices and upon such notice, and payable at the office of a fiscal agency of the state as the board shall determine, subject to the limitations contained in [this act]. Any action taken by the board under [this act] must be approved by at least a majority vote of its members.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1308 1983

(2) In all other respects the board is authorized to prescribe the form and terms of the bonds and shall do whatever is lawful and necessary for their issuance and payment.

(3) Bonds and any interest coupons appurtenant thereto must be signed by the members of the board, and the bonds must be issued under the great seal of the state of Montana. The bonds and coupons may be executed with facsimile signatures and seal in the manner and subject to the limitations prescribed by law. The state treasurer shall keep a record of all such bonds issued and sold.

(4) The board may employ a fiscal agent and a bond registrar and transfer agent to assist in the performance of its duties under [this act].

(5) In connection with the issuance and sale of bonds, the board may arrange for lines of credit or letters of credit with any bank, firm, or person for the purpose of providing an additional source of repayment for bonds issued pursuant to [this act]. Amounts drawn on such lines of credit may be evidenced by negotiable or nonnegotiable notes or other evidences of indebtedness, containing such terms and conditions as the board may authorize in the resolution approving the same.

(6) No more than $150 million of bonds issued under [this act] may be outstanding at any time. No additional bonds, other than refunding bonds, may be issued until the pledge in favor of the highway revenue bonds is satisfied and discharged.

Section 10. Trust indenture. In the discretion of the board, bonds issued under [this act] may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the board and a trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company inside or outside of the state. Each trust indenture or an executed counterpart thereof must be filed in the office of the secretary of state. The filing of a trust indenture or an executed counterpart thereof in the office of the county clerk and recorder of the county in which the property covered by the trust indenture is located is constructive notice of its content to all persons from the time of filing, and the recording of the trust indenture or its content is not necessary.

Section 11. Provisions for protecting bondholders. The resolution of the board providing for the issuance of bonds or the trust indenture may contain provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders that are reasonable, proper, and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the state, the board, and the departments, boards, or agencies of state government in relation to the construction, reconstruction, improvement, maintenance, and repair of the highway projects financed with the proceeds of the bonds and the custody, safeguarding, and application of all money. The trust indenture may set forth the rights and remedies of the bondholders customary in trust indentures, deeds of trusts, and mortgages securing bonds or debentures of corporations. No enumeration of particular powers granted by this section impairs any general grant of power contained in [this act].

Section 12. Personal liability — suit to compel performance. (1) The members of the board and officers and employees of the departments, boards, or agencies of state government are not personally liable or accountable by reason of the issuance of or on any bond issued by the board under [this act].

(2) Any holder of bonds issued under [this act] or any person or officer who is a party in interest, subject to any applicable agreements or trust indentures, may sue to enforce and compel the performance of the bond provisions as set out in [this act].

Section 13. Negotiability of bonds. Bonds issued under [this act] are negotiable instruments under the Uniform Commercial Code, subject only to the provisions for registration of bonds.

Section 14. Signatures of board members. In case any member of the board whose signature appears on bonds or coupons issued under this part ceases to be a member before the delivery of the bonds, his signature is nevertheless valid and sufficient for all purposes as if the member had remained in office until delivery.

Section 15. Refunding obligations. (1) The board may provide for the issuance of refunding obligations for refunding any obligations then outstanding that have been issued under [this act], including the payment of any redemption premium and any interest accrued or to accrue to the date of redemption of the obligations. The issuance of refunding obligations, the maturities and other details, the rights of the holders, and the rights, duties, and obligations of the state are governed by the appropriate provisions of [this act] that relate to the issuance of the obligations.

(2) Refunding obligations issued as provided in subsection (1) may be sold or exchanged for outstanding obligations issued under [this act]. The proceeds may be applied to the purchase, redemption, or payment of the outstanding obligations. Pending the application of the proceeds of refunding obligations, with other available funds, to the payment of principal, accrued interest, and any redemption premium on the obligations being refunded and, if permitted in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the refunding obligations or in the trust agreement securing them, to the payment of interest on refunding obligations and expenses in connection with refunding, the proceeds may be invested as provided in Title 17, chapter 6.

Section 16. Pledge of the state. In accordance with the constitutions of the United States and the state of Montana, the state pledges that it will not in any way impair the obligations of any agreement between the state and the holders of notes and bonds issued by the state under [this act].

Section 17. Tax exemption of bonds — legal investments. (1) All bonds issued under [this act], their transfer, and their income, including any profits made on their sale, are exempt from taxation by the state or any political subdivision or other instrumentality of the state, excepting inheritance, estate, and gift taxes.

(2) Bonds issued under [this act] are legal investments for any person or board charged with investment of public funds and are acceptable as security for any deposit of public money.

Section 18. Effective date. This act is effective on passage and approval.

"41-3-407. Order for financial support. (1) Whenever a youth is placed in a foster home, child care agency, group home, or private treatment facility or has been granted an order of limited emancipation under 41-3-406, the court shall determine the ability of the youth's parents or guardian to contribute to the support of the youth or the adequacy of the guardianship assets to provide a contribution. This question of financial ability shall be considered at the dispositional hearing, and evidence concerning financial status may be introduced. In determining financial ability the court shall consider the report prepared pursuant to 41-3-405 and any other evidence introduced at the dispositional hearing.

(2) If the court determines that the parents are able to contribute to the support of the youth or that the guardianship assets are adequate to provide a contribution, the court shall issue an order directing the parents or guardian to make specified payments to the department of social and rehabilitation services to the extent considered appropriate under the circumstances. Payments required of a guardian may not exceed the funds available from guardianship assets. Upon a showing of change in financial ability, the court may modify the order."

Section 5. Limited emancipation. (1) The court, after the dispositional hearing provided for in 41-3-406, may, upon the request of a youth who is 16 years of age or older, enter an order granting limited emancipation to the youth.

(2) Limited emancipation may be granted only if the court has found:

(a) that limited emancipation is in the youth's best interests;

(b) that the youth desires limited emancipation;

(c) that there exists no public interest compelling denial of limited emancipation;

(d) that the youth has, or will reasonably obtain, money sufficient to pay for financial obligations incurred as a result of limited emancipation;

(e) that the youth, as shown by prior conduct and preparation, understands and may be expected to responsibly exercise those rights and responsibilities incurred as a result of limited emancipation;

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1329 1983

(f) that the youth has graduated or will continue to diligently pursue graduation from high school, unless circumstances clearly compel deferral of education; and

(g) that the youth will undergo periodic counseling with an appropriate advisor.

(3) An order of limited emancipation must specifically set forth the rights and responsibilities that are being conferred upon the youth. These may include but are not limited to one or more of the following:

(a) the right to live independently of in-house supervision;

(b) the right to live in housing of the youth's choice;

(c) the right to directly receive and expend money to which the youth is entitled and to conduct his own financial affairs;

(d) the right to enter into contractual agreements and incur debts;

(e) the right to obtain access to medical treatment and records upon the youth's own authorization; and

(f) the right to obtain a license to operate equipment or perform a service.

(4) An order of limited emancipation must include a provision requiring that the youth make periodic reports to the court upon terms prescribed by the court.

(5) If no order for contribution is made under 41-3-407 and the court determines that a youth to whom limited emancipation is granted does not have sufficient funds to finance transition to limited emancipated status, the court may order the department to provide such funds, not to exceed $500, directly to the youth. The youth shall account to the court for the disposition of such funds and shall repay all such money to the department within 1 year of the order of limited emancipation unless the court for cause orders an extension.

(6) The court, on its own motion or on the motion of any parties to the dispositional hearing, may modify or revoke the order upon a showing that:

(a) the youth has committed a material violation of the law;

(b) the youth is failing to diligently pursue graduation from high school;

(c) the youth has violated a condition of the limited emancipation order;

(d) the best interests of the youth are no longer served by limited emancipation; or

(e) the youth has discontinued periodic counseling with approved advisors.

(7) The department shall mail a copy of this part to all high school counseling offices.

A minor cannot disaffirm an obligation, otherwise valid, entered into by him under the express authority or direction of a statute or when he has been granted limited emancipation, including a specific right to enter into contracts, under 41-3-406 and [section 5]."

(2) It is unlawful for a barber, barber apprentice, barber instructor, or student of barbering to practice the occupation of a barber or do barber work while he has an infectious, contagious, or communicable disease that would endanger the health of the public.

(3) If a barber, barber instructor, or barber apprentice, after securing his certificate, contracts a communicable, infectious, or contagious disease endangering the public health, the board of barbers shall revoke or suspend his certificate of registration until the board has satisfactory proof that the barber, barber instructor, or barber apprentice is no longer afflicted with the communicable, infectious, or contagious disease."

All administrative costs incurred by the department in arranging the special hunt or providing for hunting on the applicant's land during the regular season must be reimbursed by the applicant.

CHAPTER NO. 572

AN ACT PROVIDING FOR ESTABLISHMENT OF FIRE HYDRANT MAINTENANCE DISTRICTS IN CITIES AND TOWNS; PROVIDING FOR METHODS OF ASSESSING THE DISTRICTS FOR COSTS; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Authorization to create fire hydrant maintenance districts. Whenever the public convenience and necessity may require, one or more fire hydrant maintenance districts may be established in a city or town.

Section 2. Resolution of intention to create a fire hydrant maintenance district. (1) Before creating any fire hydrant maintenance district, the city council shall pass a resolution of intention to do so.

(2) The resolution must designate the district number, describe the boundaries of the district, provide an estimate of the cost of any improvement and the cost of maintaining district fire hydrants, and the proportion of such costs to be assessed against the property within the district.

Section 3. Notice of resolution of intent to create a fire hydrant maintenance district. (1) Upon passing the resolution required by [section 2], the council shall give notice of such passage. The notice must be published for 5 days in a daily newspaper or, if there is no daily newspaper, in one issue of a weekly newspaper in the city or town. If no newspaper is published in the city or town, notice must be given by posting the notice for 5 days in three public places in the city or town. A copy of the notice must be mailed to the last-known address of every person, firm, or corporation having property within the proposed district on the same day the notice is first published or posted.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1360 1983

(2) The notice must describe the general character of the proposed improvement, state the estimated cost of the improvement and the cost of maintaining the hydrants within the district for the first year, and designate the time when and place where the council will hear and pass upon all protests against the establishment of the improvement or the creation of the district. The notice must refer to the resolution on file in the office of the city clerk for a description of the boundaries.

Section 4. Protest against creation of fire hydrant maintenance district. At any time within 15 days after the date of the first publication or posting of the notice of passage of the resolution of intention, any owner of property who would be liable for district assessments may make a written protest against the proposed improvement or the creation of the district, or both. The protest must be delivered, in writing, to the clerk of the city council, who shall endorse thereon the date of its receipt by him.

Section 5. Consideration of protest. (1) At the next regular meeting of the city council after the expiration of the 15-day protest period provided for in [section 4], the city council shall proceed to hear and pass upon all protests, and its decision is final and conclusive. If the council finds that the owners of a majority of the property proposed to be assessed have protested on grounds of cost of the improvement, no further proceedings may be taken on the subject of such proposed improvement district for a period of at least 6 months from the date of expiration of the 15-day protest period.

(2) In determining whether or not sufficient protests have been filed to prevent further proceedings, property owned by a county, city, or town is considered the same as other property in the district.

(3) The city council may adjourn and reconvene the hearing on protests from time to time.

Section 6. Resolution to create fire hydrant maintenance district. (1) The city council has jurisdiction to order the proposed improvements if:

(a) no protests have been delivered to the clerk of the city council within the 15-day protest period provided for in [section 4]; or

(b) protests have been found by the city council to be insufficient in number to halt further proceedings and such protests have been heard on their merits and denied.

(2) Before ordering the proposed improvements, the city council shall pass a resolution creating the fire hydrant maintenance district in accordance with the resolution of intention previously introduced and passed by the council.

Section 7. Resolution for assessment — area, frontages, and taxable valuation options. The city or town council shall estimate, as nearly as practicable, the entire cost of installing and maintaining fire hydrants each year and the portion thereof to be assessed against the property within the district. Before the first Monday in October, the council must pass and finally adopt a resolution levying and assessing the property within the district. The city or town council, for the purpose of making the assessment, shall adopt one of the following methods:

(1) The council may assess the cost of fire hydrant installation and maintenance against the entire district, each lot or parcel of land within the district to be assessed for that part of the whole cost which its area bears to the area of the entire district, exclusive of streets, avenues, alleys, and public places.

(2) The council may assess the cost of fire hydrant installation and maintenance against the entire district, each lot or parcel of land within the district bordering or abutting on the streets where fire hydrants are located to be assessed in its lineal proportion to the total lineal feet bordering or abutting on such streets.

(3) If the city council determines that the area, frontage, or combination options are inequitable, it may assess the cost of fire hydrant installation and maintenance against the entire district, each lot or parcel of land within such district to be assessed for that part of the whole cost that its taxable valuation, including improvements, bears to the taxable valuation of the entire district.

Section 8. Collection method — utility options — resolution of assessment. The city council may assess the costs of fire hydrant maintenance through a resolution of assessment or it may collect the costs by assessing them along with water and sewer fees.

Section 9. Preexisting districts. A fire hydrant maintenance district established prior to July 1, 1983, is not subject to any provision of [this act] except [section 7].

Section 10. Effective date. This act is effective July 1, 1983.

Approved April 18, 1983.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1372 1983

WHEREAS, the agricultural loan programs administered by the Montana Department of Agriculture are inadequate to meet the real needs of the state; and

WHEREAS, the value of family farms to the economic, social, and political well-being of the state is worthy of legislative action and support.

THEREFORE, it is the purpose of this act to assist beginning farmers with financial support and encouragement by making low interest rate loans available to eligible farmers and by providing incentives to retiring farmers who sell their land to eligible beginning farmers.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

The department shall assess the authority for reasonable costs.

(6) A member of the authority may not be considered to have a conflict of interest under the provisions of 2-2-201 merely because the member is a stockholder, officer, or employee of a lending institution that may participate in the authority's programs.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1373 1983

Section 2. Short title. [Sections 2 through 28] may be cited as the "Montana Agricultural Loan Authority Act".

(6) use the assistance and services of the farmers home administration, the production credit association, the federal land bank, or private lenders in approving loans for issuance of bonds.

Section 5. Loan agreements — general provisions. (1) Each loan approved by the authority for issuance of a bond must include a loan agreement providing a payment schedule that may not exceed 30 years.

(2) The agreement must specify a reasonable rate of interest, which rate may be a variable rate provided the method of determination is contained in the loan agreement.

(vi) any other factors it may prescribe.

(2) The authority shall select the best qualified and most deserving applicants from among those applying for approval of loans for issuance of bonds.

Section 10. Issuance of bonds — credit of the state not pledged. (1) The authority may issue bonds of the state of Montana in a principal amount it determines necessary to provide sufficient funds for achieving any of the purposes of the Montana agricultural loan authority program, including the payment of interest on bonds, establishment of reserves to secure the bonds, and all other expenditures of the authority incident to the program.

(2) Each issue of its bonds is an obligation of the authority, payable out of any revenues, assets, or money generated by the Montana agricultural loan authority program. The authority shall manage its loans so that the bonds are repaid by the revenue generated by the program. The full faith and credit and taxing powers of the state are not pledged for the payment of bonds issued by the authority under the provisions of [sections 2 through 28].

(3) The bonds must be authorized by resolution of the authority, bear a date, and mature at times the authority determines. A bond may not mature more than 60 years from the date of its issue. The bonds may be issued as serial bonds payable in annual installments or as term bonds or as a combination thereof. The bonds of the authority may be sold at public or private sale, at prices determined by the authority.

(2) pledging all or any part of the assets of the authority, including mortgages and obligations securing them, to secure the payment of the bonds;

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1376 1983

(3) specifying the use and disposition of the gross income from mortgages owned by the authority and payment of principal of mortgages owned by the authority;

(6) limiting the issuance of additional bonds, the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured, and the refunding of outstanding bonds;

(7) specifying the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(8) limiting the amount of money to be expended by the authority for its operating expenses;

(9) vesting in a trustee, as the authority determines, property, rights, powers, and duties in trust;

(10) defining the acts or failures to act that will constitute a default in the obligations and duties of the authority to the bondholders and providing for the rights and remedies, consistent with the laws of the state and the provisions of [sections 2 through 28], of the bondholders if a default occurs, including as a matter of right the appointment of a receiver; and

(11) specifying any other matters that in any way affect the security or protection of the bondholders.

Section 12. Validity of pledge. A pledge made by the authority is valid and binding from the time the pledge is made. The revenues or property pledged and thereafter received by the authority is immediately subject to the lien of the pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act, and the lien of any pledge is valid and binding against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract, or otherwise against the authority, irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. The resolution, trust indenture, or any other instrument by which a pledge is created need not be recorded.

Section 13. Personal liability. The authority members and department members are not personally liable for any debt incurred by the authority.

Section 14. Purchase of bonds — cancellation. The authority, subject to existing agreements with bondholders, may from any funds available for that purpose purchase bonds of the authority, which shall thereupon be canceled, at a price not exceeding:

(1) the current redemption price plus accrued interest to the next interest payment thereon, if the bonds are then redeemable; or

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1377 1983

(2) the redemption price applicable on the first date after purchase upon which the bonds become subject to redemption plus accrued interest to that date, if the bonds are not then redeemable.

Section 15. Trust indenture. In the discretion of the authority, the bonds may be secured by a trust indenture between the authority and a corporate trustee, which may be a trust company or bank having the power of a trust company within or without the state.

Section 16. Negotiability of bonds. Bonds issued by the authority are negotiable instruments under the Uniform Commercial Code, subject only to the provisions for registration of bonds.

Section 17. Continuing validity of authority members' signatures. If any authority member whose signature appears on bonds or coupons ceases to be a member before the delivery of the bonds, his signature continues to be valid and sufficient for all purposes.

Section 18. Accounts of the authority. There is an agricultural loan authority account in the bond proceeds and insurance clearance fund provided for in 17-2-102. All funds from the proceeds of bonds issued under [sections 2 through 28], fees and other money received by the authority, money appropriated by the legislature for the use of the authority in administering [sections 2 through 28], and money made available from any other source for the use of the authority must be deposited in the agricultural loan authority account except as otherwise provided by law. All funds deposited in the agricultural loan authority account are continuously appropriated to and may be expended by the authority for the purposes authorized in [sections 2 through 28].

Section 19. Reserve funds and appropriations. (1) The authority shall pay into one or more capital reserve accounts any:

(a) money appropriated and made available by the state for the purpose of the fund;

(b) proceeds of sale of bonds to the extent provided in the resolutions of the authority authorizing their issuance or in any trust indenture securing their repayment; and

(c) other money that may be available to the authority for the purpose of such a fund from any other source.

(2) All amounts held in a capital reserve account must be used solely for the payment of principal, interest, and a redemption premium with respect to bonds secured in whole or in part by the account. Funds in an account may not be withdrawn at any time in an amount that reduces the amount of the account to less than the minimum capital reserve requirement established for the account except for the purpose, with respect to bonds secured in whole or in part by the account, of making payment, when due, of principal, interest, or redemption premiums for the payment of which other money pledged is not available.

Section 20. Refunding obligations — sale. Refunding obligations issued as provided in 90-6-121 may be sold or exchanged for outstanding obligations issued under [sections 2 through 28]. The proceeds may be applied to the purchase, redemption, or payment of outstanding obligations. Pending the application of the proceeds to the payment of outstanding obligations, the proceeds may be invested as provided in Title 17, chapter 6, if permitted in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the refunding obligations or in the trust agreement securing them.

Section 21. Refunding obligations — issuance. The authority may provide for the issuance of refunding obligations to refund any obligations then outstanding that have been issued under [sections 2 through 28], including the payment of any redemption premium and any interest accrued or to accrue to the date of redemption of the obligations. The issuance of obligations, the maturities and other details, the rights of the holders, and the rights, duties, and obligations of the authority are governed by the appropriate provisions of [sections 2 through 28] that relate to the issuance of obligations.

Section 22. Tax exemption of bonds. Bonds issued by the authority under [sections 2 through 28] and their transfer and income, including any profits made on their sale, are exempt from taxation by the state or any political subdivision or other instrumentality of the state, except for inheritance, estate, and gift taxes. The authority is not required to pay recording or transfer fees or taxes on instruments recorded by it.

Section 23. Income tax deduction for land sale to beginning farmers. A landowner who sells land consisting of 80 acres or more to a beginning farmer at 9% or less interest on a long-term contract is entitled to a reduction in his taxable income in an amount equal to 100% of any income or capital gain, or both, realized and otherwise subject to state income taxes from the sale, up to a maximum of $50,000, provided the transaction is first approved by the authority for this purpose.

Section 24. Pledge against impairment of contracts. In accordance with the constitutions of the United States and the state of Montana, the state pledges that it will in no way impair the obligations of any agreement between the authority and the holders of notes and bonds issued by the authority.

Section 25. Annual audit. The authority's books and records must be audited at least once each year by the legislative auditor or by a contract auditor as directed by the legislative audit committee. The cost of the audit shall be paid by the authority.

Section 26. Report. The department shall transmit to the governor and to each member of the legislature at least 30 days before each regular legislative session a report:

(1) detailing the operations of the agricultural loan authority program since the adjournment of the last legislature; and

(2) containing a financial statement showing the program's assets and liabilities.

Section 27. Powers to be interpreted broadly. The powers enumerated in [sections 2 through 28] must be interpreted broadly to effectuate the purposes of the authority and may not be construed as a limitation of powers.

HeinOnline -- 1983 vol. II 1379 1983

Section 28. Legislative review required. The agricultural loan authority program must be reviewed by the legislature at the third regular legislative session following the first sale of bonds under the provisions of [section 10] to determine whether the program should continue. However, this section does not, in itself, terminate the program, and any existing commitments incurred by the authority are not affected by this review.

Section 29. Codification instruction. (1) Section 1 is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 2, chapter 15, part 30, and the provisions of Title 2, chapter 15, part 1, apply to section 1.

(2) Sections 2 through 28 are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 80, and the provisions of Title 80 apply to sections 2 through 28.

Section 30. Severability. If a portion of this act is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of this act is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications.
